The End of the Long, Long Trail. Championship Results 1928.

The championships of Canada for the season of 1928 have now all been decided and with two exceptions, the champions of 1927 have been "toppled from their thrones". Ross Somerville, of the London Hunt, again won the Ontario Amateur and Miss Edith Bauld, of Halifax, again annexed the Ladies' Championship of the Maritimes, which she has now to her credit altogether eight times. This constitutes a woman's record in golf. No other lady in Great Britain, the States or Canada has ever won one championship so many times.

The following are the results of the principal competitions throughout the Dominion: Amateur championship of Canada, Ross Somerville, London Hunt. Open championship of Canada, Leo Diegel, Mount Vernon, N.Y. Ladies' championship of Canada, Miss Virginia Wilson, Chicago. (The Ladies' Close championship was cancelled this year. The title therefore remains with Miss Ada Mackenzie, of Toronto.)

Canadian Professional championship, Willie Lamb, Toronto Golf Club. Canadian Assistants' championship, W. Smithers, Royal Ottawa Golf Club.

Canadian Western Amateur championship, J. A. Mountifield, Edmonton, Alta. Canadian Western Open championship, T. McGrath, Moose Jaw, Sask. Canadian Western professional championship, Jimmie Rimmer, Jasper Park, Alta. Canadian Western Junior championship, Eddie McFayden, Edmonton, Alta. Canadian Western Ladies' championship, Miss May Mountifield, Edmonton, Alta.

Amateur championship of Ontario, Ross Somerville, London Hunt. Open championship of Ontario, Arthur Hurlbert, Thornhill Golf Club, Toronto. Junior championship of Ontario, Gordon Taylor, York Downs, Toronto. Ontario Ladies' championship, Miss Cecil Smith, Toronto Golf Club. Ontario Girls' championship, Miss Winnifred Robinson, St. Catharines, Ont. Ontario "Parent and Child" Tournament, G. S. Lyon and F. Lyon, Toronto.

Amateur championship of Quebec, Maurice Hodgson, Royal Montreal Golf Club. Ladies' championship of Quebec, Miss Dorothy Virtue, Whitlock Golf Club, Montreal. Open Championship of Quebec, "Jack" Cameron, Rivermead Golf Club, Ottawa (this is the first time an amateur ever won this event). Junior championship of Quebec, won by team of four from Rosemount Golf Club, Montreal.

Amateur championship of the Maritimes, Gerald Meilke, Halifax. Ladies' championship of the Maritimes, Miss Edith Bauld, Halifax. Open championship of the Maritimes, H. Foley, Halifax.

Amateur championship of Manitoba, A. Carson MacWilliams, Calgary. Ladies' championship of Manitoba, Mrs. B. P. Pellenz, Winnipeg. Men's Municipal championship of Winnipeg, A. Carson MacWilliams. Women's Municipal Championship of Winnipeg, Mrs. W. G. Ritchie.

Alberta Amateur championship, P. Morse, Saskatoon. Alberta Ladies' championship, Mrs. W. E. Miller, Calgary.

Saskatchewan Amateur championship, P. Morse, Saskatoon. Open championship of Saskatchewan, Jimmy Rimmer, Jasper Park, Alta. Ladies' championship of Saskatchewan, Mrs. G. H. Yule, Saskatoon. Junior championship of Saskatchewan, Arnold Lozo, Saskatoon.

British Columbia Amateur championship, Tom McHugh, Seattle. British Columbia Ladies' Championship, Miss Marian Wilson, Victoria, B.C.

Canadian Seniors' Golf Championship, George S. Lyon, Toronto (for the ninth time). Maritime Seniors' golf championship, C. W. Durrant, Halifax. Alberta Senior championship, J. L. McCornack, Calgary. Saskatchewan Senior championship, A. C. Froan, Regina. Seniors' Northwest championship, J. E. Wilson, Victoria, B.C.

The Ontario team won the Inter-Provincial championship at Montreal. Scores, Ontario 621, Quebec 645, Manitoba 659, Alberta 671, Maritimes 733. The season just closing was made memorable by visits from the British Walker Cup team and the British Seniors team. They won all the matches they played whilst in Canada.

The Wizardry of "Bobby Jones" In reporting the final in the U.S. Amateur Championship at Brae Burn, Grantland Rice in a brilliant article in the New York Tribune, said:—

"Perkins in vain tried to find out an open door, but the passage was blocked, the door was locked and Jones had the key.

"'I did the best I could,' Perkins said. 'But I soon saw it was a hopeless job. You just couldn't imagine him making a mistake. It is a terrible feeling to know that par isn't good enough, to stand and watch almost every type of stroke go for the flag as if your opponent was using a rifle. I'll admit I didn't play my game, but Jones wouldn't let me. He made me understand early by his play that my game wasn't good enough, and you know what happens when you try to be better than you are.'"

"So at the age of twenty-six Bobby Jones has tied the United States record of amateur championships with four crowns. He had a long, uphill, heart-breaking pull to break through against miracle golf, year after year. But he finally crashed the barricade at Merion four years ago and they have only beaten him once since. Four amateur championships in five years—twenty-four match play victories out of twenty-five—only tell part of the story. In the majority of his thirty-six hole starts he has slaughtered all opposition, scattering the field after the manner of a Carribean cyclone.

"He has won his matches by the greatest margins ever known. In most cases he has broken the hearts of his opponents before a ball was struck from the first tee. His shadow falls across them as they take out the driver and it leaves a blighting effect. Fine games crumble up and disappear as he moves along lifting the scalp of old man par."

(The Editor is always glad to answer questions about the Rules, and other golfing matters, but owing to so many of these requests coming in every month, he must ask in future that a stamped-addressed envelope be enclosed with all such communications, otherwise they will not be answered.)

* * *

Bobby Jones has decided to take part in "the drive" for Al Smith. And in the vernacular Bobby "is some driver".

Mr. Wm. J. McCall, Golf Editor "Halifax Herald":

"Golf has made big advances in Nova Scotia this season, especially in the Halifax District and the interest and enthusiasm shown by the players competing in the Tournaments here has been a very outstanding feature."

An order was received this month from Mr. H. A. Shirriffs, the Hon. Secretary of the Royal Golf Club, D'Elisabethville, Kananga, Belgium Congo, for a supply of the book of rules published by the "Canadian Golfer". The game of golf is certainly "stretching to the ends of the world."

* * *

Like the young boys of Canada and the States, girls under sixteen years are also displaying great skill these days with the mashie and the niblick. In fact, to such an extent is this the case that the Women's Western Golf Association at its annual meeting next month in Chicago, will recommend that the banning of entries of girls under sixteen, in Championships, shall be lifted. This is a very great tribute indeed to girl golfers, many of whom, however, are playing a game of championship calibre. In the recent Girls' Junior Championship at Toronto, no less an authority than Miss Ada Mackenzie, three times Canadian Open Champion, wrote—"The final was as interesting and as good golf as I have seen in any of our regular Ontario Ladies' Championships."

* * *

In Great Britain, artisan golf clubs of recent years have been formed in all the large centres and the Artisans Golfers' Association is a very flourishing institution indeed. Recently the annual championship was held on the celebrated Sunningdale course and there were no fewer than two hundred entrants, who played for prizes donated to the tune of £200. Norman Sutton, a young railway worker, won the championship gold medal with the fine score of 77-76—153. In Canada there are no Artisans Clubs but there is no reason why they should not be formed in the larger centres. It would be in the best interest of golf if such clubs were brought into being in this country. They would be a splendid "nursery" for the game.

IMPATIENT PRAYER

(By Elizabeth Sanderson)

Give me the strong hard heat of the sun
On my face and my arms and my breast.
I am tired of this great unrest.

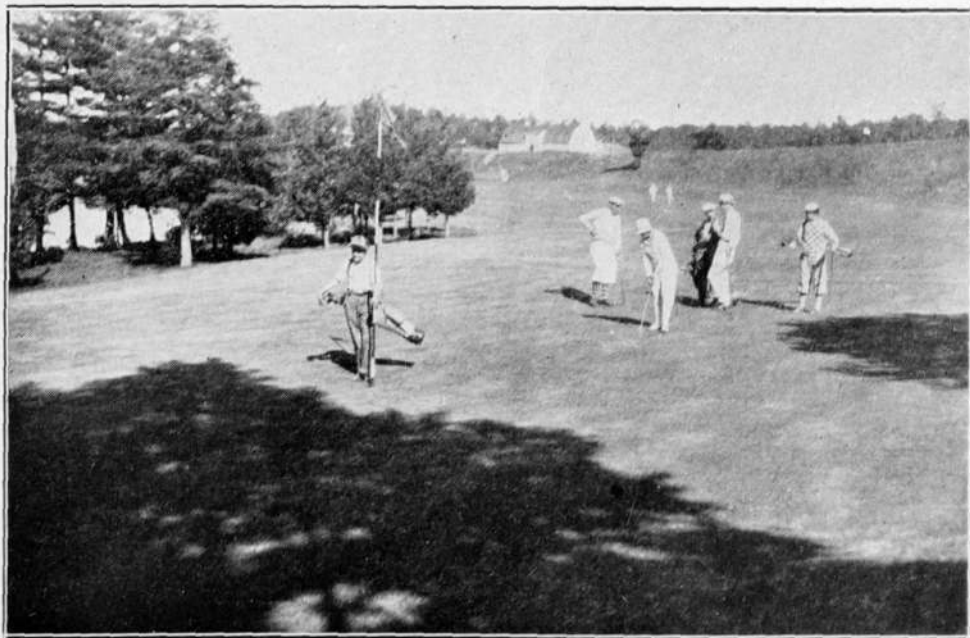

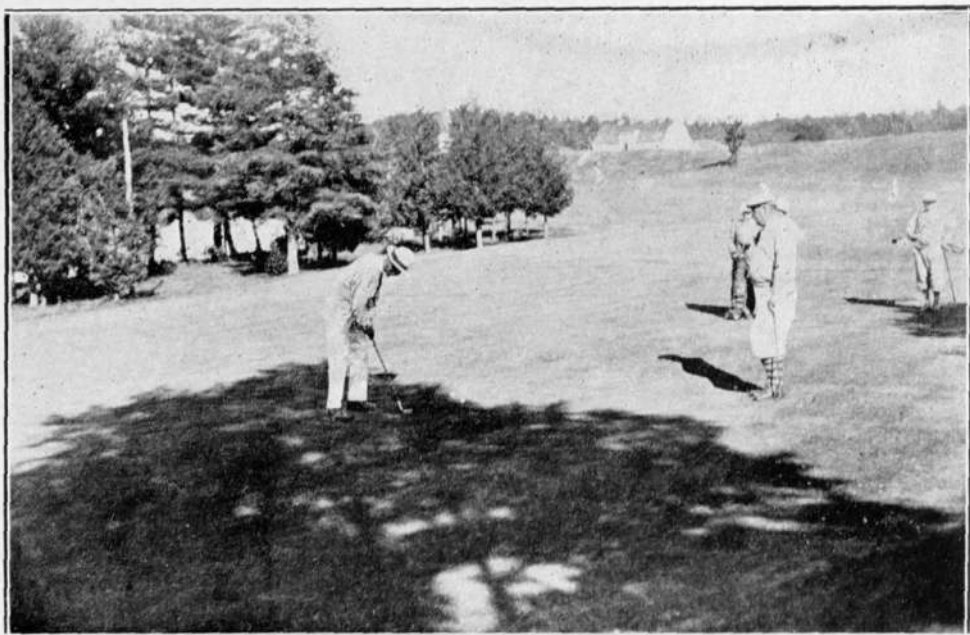

I am tired of the little desires
And the shadows that darken my heart.
I have burnt out the rapturous fires.

Give me the clean strong heat of the sun.
I am weary of fencing with every one.
I am tired of loving when loving is done.
Give me the sun.

The Kansas City Star speculates about what may result from the newly developed fondness of the Osage Indians for golf. They have apparently

During a visit this summer to Muskoka, the Governor-General and Lady Willingdon, both of whom are keen golfers, greatly enjoyed a round of the Muskoka Lakes Golf and Country Club course at Port Carling—one of the most beautiful resort courses in Canada. His Excellency in the picture above, is seen (on the left) putting on the 18th green. In the picture below Her Excellency (on the right) taking her line of putt on the 18th green. Certainly two very charming and interesting photos.

"taken up the game" with such seriousness that they have banned the nineteenth hole as a handicap to keeping fit. This alone is enough to cause the white man to pause. Heretofore he has regarded golf as his special hobby, a sort of token of his civilization. Wherever he has moved he has organized his golf club and built a course. But, as a rule, the natives have looked upon this sport as a form of madness, and have pitied rather than sought to emulate the poor, benighted white man who was rich enough to hire some one knock the little ball round the links for him and yet insisted on doing this himself.

* * *

Electricity, Chinese lanterns, torches, rockets and miscellaneous fireworks lit the historic old links of St. Andrews, Scotland, at midnight Sept. 26th, when a foursome was played to celebrate the election of Mr. Angus Hambro to the captaincy of the Royal and Ancient Club. A gallery of 2,000 watched and hugely enjoyed the fate of numbers who blindly fell into a brook which the lights failed to reveal. Douglas Grant, former California Amateur champion, now a resident of London, and Major A. G. Barry, former British Amateur champion, opposed Herbert Taylor and Vivian Poalock, prominent members of the Royal and Ancient Club in the foursome. After the first hole it was decided that the artificial lighting was insufficient to play through the whole round so the contestants skipped to the eighteenth green where a great battery of electric lights was assembled. Grant and Barry won but the official score is still a mystery.

NO STEEL SHAFTS IN GREAT BRITAIN

STEEL-SHAFTED golf clubs are not to be permitted for use in competitive play in Great Britain under the jurisdiction of the Royal and Ancient Club. This decision was arrived at during the autumn meeting of the R. and A. at St. Andrews, where one of the greatest arguments put forward against their use emanated from the Professional Golfers' Association, which body considered that the introduction of steel shafts would be detrimental to the professionals' business.

Another matter of universal interest which came before the R. and A. at their meeting was the question of the proposed larger and lighter ball (1.68 x 1.55). The matter, however, has been postponed for the time being. It is desired, for one reason, to take the opinion of golfers in the Dominions, and for another, to meet the wishes of the United States Association, which body is engaged in research work concerning the question of resilience. The case for the lighter ball is that its use would entail a greater test for championship competitors; the case against it being that it would tend to drive the moderate golfer out of the game.

WHEN J. H. TAYLOR MISSED THE CHANCE OF A LIFETIME

THE recent death of Col. Harvey, the distinguished American, formerly U. S. Ambassador to Great Britain, causes J. H. Taylor, five times Open Champion of Great Britain, to recall the fact that some thirty years ago he came nearly becoming an "Amurrican citizen." And this is how it happened. In 1900 Taylor, then Open Champion of Great Britain, and Vardon at that time at the peak of his game, were both in the States and competed in the U. S. Open Championship. In those days they between them easily dominated golf and the championship resulted in a battle royal between the two Britishers, Vardon winning out by two strokes.

Col. Harvey was then head of one of the biggest publishing houses in the States and offered Taylor, who has quite a gift for writing, a very handsome salary indeed to remain in America, take an interest in a golfing magazine in which he was part owner and play in exhibition matches throughout the country and generally preach the gospel of golf. For family reasons Taylor reluctantly refused the attractive offer. "J. H." has done exceedingly well from every standpoint in the Old Country, but considering the unparalleled vogue of the game in the States since 1900 he unquestionably threw away a chance of a lifetime when he turned down Col. Harvey's offer. He might even have been the first "millionaire professional golfer", a position to which Walter Hagen may even yet attain, as his yearly income is generally reported to be in five figures.

CALGARY BAR ASSOCIATION TOURNAMENT

LAST year Mr. E. P. Davis, K.C., of Vancouver, who at one time practised law in Calgary, presented to the Calgary Bar Association for yearly competition a magnificent sterling silver golf trophy, a masterpiece of the silversmith's art. In 1927 the winner of it was determined in one afternoon by 18 holes of medal play on handicap, Mr. B. Peacock, K.C., being the lucky man. It was thought that this was too casual and unsatisfactory a method for determining the right to hold so valuable a trophy and so a new course was decided upon for 1928. A regular draw of the entrants was made for match play on handicap and a schedule was prepared looking to the elimination round by round of the unsuccessful players. There were 69 entries including four of the judges of the Supreme Court of Alberta, who are ex-officio members of the Association. Play proceeded in a leisurely fashion through the summer until on Saturday, September 22nd, it was found that the finalists were Gordon MacWilliams, last year's Alberta Amateur Champion and Calgary City Champion, with a handicap of 4, and L. A. Walsh, with a handicap of 12. On that day the finals were played, 18 holes in the morning at the Country Club of which Mr. Walsh is a member, and 18 in the afternoon on the Bowness course, of which Mr. MacWilliams is a member, the latter conceding the former six strokes on each 18. At the end of the morning play Mr. Walsh was two up, and he increased his lead on the Bowness course in the afternoon until at the 15th hole of that course and the 33rd of the match he was 4 up and 3 to go and so became the 1928 champion of the Association.

In the afternoon of that day as an accompaniment to the play of the finalists a field day was held over the Bowness course which was taken part in by many members of the Association. Prizes were offered for the best and next best nett scores for 18 holes, the former going to Mr. A. H. Goodall, and the latter to the new champion, Mr. Walsh, who is a son of Mr. Justice Walsh.

In the evening a dinner was held at the Bowness Clubhouse, after which the trophy and prizes were presented by Mr. Justice Walsh, who added as a gift from himself an individual prize to the winner and another to the runner-up. The evening was spent very merrily with speech-making and song and the golfing season of 1928 for the association was brought to a very happy end.

CALIFORNIA AMATEUR CHAMPIONSHIPS

Over Celebrated Pebble Beach Links, Where the U. S. Amateur Championship Will be Held Next Year, Results in J. J. McHugh Winning the Men's and Miss Marjorie Kirkam the Ladies' Championship

THAT the Pebble Beach Links, bordering the blue Pacific near Del Monte, California, will supremely test the mettle of Bobbie Jones and all the rest of the famous stars who play in the next National Amateur Golf Championship, Sept. 2-7, 1929, is the unanimous verdict of the experts who witnessed the recent California Amateur event on this course, Sept. 3-9.

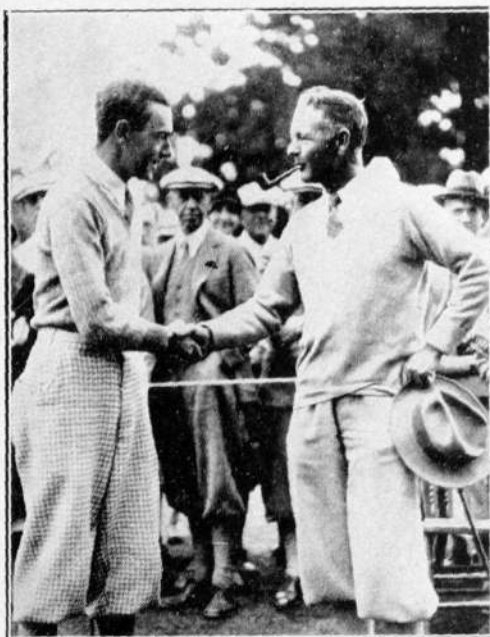

Most dramatic proof of the fitness of Pebble Beach for the national tourney was furnished by H. Chandler Egan, famous veteran who designed the changes made during the past year. Egan's plan included an intricate series of traps throughout the course and smaller, recontoured greens and he knew the new course better, probably than any of the 416 other entrants in the California championship.

But the former national, western and California titalist was trapped by h's own traps hole after hole in the finals, losing to John J. McHugh, defending champion, 6 and 5. As one writer put it: "Egan's traps rose like a Frankenstein to devour him."

The Medford veteran, who was national champion before McHugh was born, battled nobly in the morning round which ended all square. All week he had been suffering from a strained back, toting an automatic stool about the course to rest on. In the afternoon of the finals he tired perceptibly and his irons invariably found the traps he had himself placed to stiffen the championship calibre of the Pebble Beach layout. McHugh's steadier game swept him through to his third California victory, his first having been recorded five years ago, when he was but 18. It will be remembered that Egan defeated the San Francisco lad in the 1926 California finals.

Incidentally, McHugh should give an excellent account of himself in next year's national. He is not only a cool, sound and a great golfer of more than sectional repute, but will be much more familiar with the course than the eastern stars, one year hence. McHugh, it will be remembered, was an American participant in this year's

J. J. McHugh (left), San Francisco, recently won the California Amateur Golf Championship at Pebble Beach for the third time and for the second consecutive year. He defeated H. Chandler Egan (right).

British Open. His 73 was the best official 18-hole score of the entire California tournament, one over par. Jack Caines, San Bernardino, led the qualifying field with two 75's, three strokes ahead of the field. All of which tells the tale of Pebble Beach. It is freely predicted that few of the great players in next year's national will have more than possibly one round under par on this great championship course.

Unfortunately this year the California dates were so close to those of the national that a number of the best

Pacific Coast players were at Brae Burn instead of Pebble Beach, including Dr. O. F. Willing, Frank Dolp and Don Moe among others. As a result, though it was a great tournament, the match play rounds were not quite as thrilling as the California championships of several preceding years. The list however was larger than for a number of years past. There were 417 entries, which was divided between Pebble Beach, Del Monte and Monterey Peninsula C.C. in the field. At the same time 115 of the best women golfers of California were competing in the annual Del Monte Women's Championship.

Victor and Vanquished. Miss Marjorie Kirkham (right), titian haired young lady from San Gabriel, promises to develop into one of the foremost golfers of the west. She defeated Mrs. Helen Sheedy (left), of San Francisco, in the finals of the recent Del Monte Golf Championship for Women on Del Monte course.

This important coast feminine event was won by a red-haired youngster from San Gabriel, Marjorie Kirkham by name. Miss Kirkham shows promise of a great golfing future and Harry Pressler has already predicted that she will eventually be a greater golfer than his own wife, the western champion. She defeated Mrs. Helen Sheedy, former San Francisco city champ, who made a noble attempt to stage a "comeback" in the game, having been absent from tournament play for the past year or two. Mrs. Sheedy started out by winning the medal honours; then defeated the defending titalist, Miss Helen Lawson, of Los Angeles, in the first round 1 up; next went three extra holes to eliminate Miss Barbara Lee, Stanford "co-ed" and present San Francisco title holder, in the semi-finals, but lost to Miss Kirkham, 4 and 3, in finals that probably constituted one of the poorest rounds of the entire tournament.

Getting back to the "main show" again: One of the features of the California Amateur Championship this year was the wonderful showing made by the youngsters. There are some great golfers growing up in California today and several of them destined to wear championship crowns ere long. Both Harold and Russell Thompson, Glendale lads, reached the semi-finals, Harold losing to Egan, 5 and 4, while Russell went down before McHugh' onslaught of woods and irons, 6 and 5.

John Williams, of Williams College, Williamstown and Santa Barbara, well known in eastern intercollegiate golfing circles, but a "dark horse" in the California event, gave Egan one of his toughest battles, losing to him 4 and 3 in the third round, after putting the medalist, Gaines, out, 1 up. Harry Eichelberger, Southern California junior champ, forced Egan to the 20th hole and his utmost in the opening battle, and Dick Thompson fell before Egan in the second round. After battling so many youths of half his age and twice his vitality, it is little wonder the veteran stylist, one of the greatest sportsmen of the links, finally succumbed to Champion McHugh in the 36-hole windup.

Charles Seaver, of Los Angeles, another lad of tremendous promise, lost to Geo. Ritchie, San Francisco star, 1 up, in the second round, after the luck of the draw had paired him against his own father, Everett H. Seaver, whom he beat 2 up in their "father and son" event. Ritchie, hovering close to par daily, was finally put out by Harold Thompson on the 19th in the quarter finals.

Chief among the many attractions at one's disposal, is the newly remodeled Pebble Beach Championship Golf Course . . . one of four renowned courses. The home of all State Championships, the Pebble Beach Course will be the scene, in 1929, of the National Amateur Championship.

The greatest match of the tournament was expected to be that between McHugh and Charles D. (Chuck) Hunter, of Seattle, in the quarter finals. Hunter, Washington state amateur champion, blew up dismally in last year's finals, losing to McHugh

8 and 7. Probably the longest hitter and one of the greatest shot-makers in the field, his temperament does not always hold up in critical match play rounds. Hunter made a brilliant start, defeating Lester Coleman and Heine Schmidt. But his round with McHugh was dismally dull. Both were playing badly, but Hunter could not seem to take advantages of the openings McHugh left for him and McHugh finally won 2 and 1.

INTERESTING MATCHES AT LADIES' CLUB

IN RESPONSE to the invitation of the Toronto Ladies' Golf and Tennis Club some thirty professionals competed in an eighteen-hole medal round and in the afternoon paired with members of the club in a two-ball foursome handicap and the course, despite its short length of 5,830 yards, compared with the distance from tee to tin on most of the other courses, was able to withstand all attempts to break 70. Ladies' par for the course is 75 but for men three strokes can be cut off each nine, giving an approximate par of 69 and the winning score of 72 in the morning was turned in by Jimmy Johnstone, of Rosedale, 1926 and 1927 Canadian P.G.A. champion, with Willie Lamb, of the Toronto Golf Club, present champion, being right behind with a 73. Nine players in all broke 80, there being two 77's and five 79's.

The occasion was the first time that the course has been attacked by the professionals in a body and it was the first time that a majority of them have played the eighteen holes, and they found that the Ladies' Club has one of the most sporting courses in the district and that direction is absolutely necessary off the tee. While the fairways like a number of the other newer clubs, are not in the condition necessary for a championship tournament the greens give ample proof of the attention that has been paid to them and the players were loud in their praises of the putting surfaces.

It is not often that a player who scored a hole in one makes full use of his ace but in the afternoon Dick Borthwick, of Thornhill, holed out his tee shot on the 170 yard ninth hole and when the last pair had turned in their cards Borthwick and Miss Audrey Gallagher were the winning pair with a net score of 73, three strokes better than the next two pairs, Miss Grace Beattie and L. H. White and Miss Ada Mackenzie and Willie Lamb, the latter having the best gross score with 79.

THE ONTARIO GOLF ASSOCIATION

Fall Tournament is Won by F. G. Hoblitzel, of Lambton, with a 73, "Parent and Child" Tournament by George S. Lyon and Fred Lyon

THE Ontario Golf Association brought to a conclusion the most successful season in its history when it staged the last week in September its annual Fall Tournament and a new fixture—a Father and Child competition.

The Fall Tournament was staged at the Burlington Golf and Country Club, which has to-day one of the most interesting courses in Ontario, providing a splendid test of golf.

There was a brilliant field of all the best amateurs, both veterans and juniors, in the Province and for once the juniors, who were out in formidable numbers had "to bow the knee" to their elders. F. G. Hoblitzel, the Lambton ace, was the winner of the Tournament. He has been playing consistently good golf this season as witness his record, semi-finalist Ontario Amateur Championship, semi-finalist Canadian Amateur Championship, on winning Ontario team in Inter-Provincial Championship, making the best score of the twenty players (150).

His winning card at Burlington:

Out .....444 453 544—37

In .....445 535 343—36—73

Everyone was glad to see W. J. Thompson, ex-Amateur Canadian Champion and the particularly capable Hon. Secretary of the Ontario Association, once more "getting into his stride." He was out in an indifferent 40, but coming back with a dashing 35 for a 75, nosed out by one stroke Gordon Taylor, Ontario Junior Champion and winner last year of the Fall Tournament at Welland, and Dr. B. Sutherland, of the Hamilton Golf and Country Club, who this season is playing a greatly improved game. Nicol Thompson, of Chedoke, former Provincial Junior Champion, spoilt his chances of victory by taking 44 going out, but he came home in 34, three under par, and was only five strokes behind the winner.

Other good scores were:

Joe Thompson, Chedoke	40	37	77	10	67
H. L. Somerville, Burlington	39	38	77	6	71
J. W. Dunlop, Riverside	39	39	78	9	69

It will be noticed that the veteran George Lyon, fresh from winning the Seniors' Championship for the 9th time, was well up among "the youngsters" with a 79.

There were some interesting scoring features to the play. Norman Cumming, of the Toronto Riverside Club, slapped three out of bounds on the seventh hole, and took twelve strokes, but on the 465 yard twelfth he had an eagle three, and ended up with an eagle two on the 285-yard eighteenth.

The prizes were presented at the conclusion of play by Mr. George S. Lyon, President of the Association, assisted by W. H. Plant, Past President, W. J. Thompson, Hon. Secretary, and S. W. Somerville, a director of the Burlington Golf and Country Club. They were awarded as follows:

Gross scores—1, F. G. Hoblitzel, Lambton, 73; 2, W. J. Thompson, Cedar Brook, 75; 3, Gordon Taylor, Jr., York Downs, 76.

Nett scores—1, A. Eagle, Humber Valley, 65; 2, W. Taylor, Humber Valley, 65; 3, Joe Thompson, Chedoke, 67.

Best gross score, first nine—Dr. Bruce Sutherland, Hamilton, 35.

Best gross score, second nine—Nicol Thompson, Jr., Chedoke, 34.

Team prize—1, Lambton, 311 (F. G. Hoblitzel, 73; J. H. Firstbrook, 78; G. S. Lyon, 79; G. L. Robinson, 81, or H. S. Reid, 81); 2, York Downs, 323 (G. Taylor, Jr., 76; J. G. Boeckh, 78; L. M. Wood, 82, and S. H. Fellowes, 87).

"Parent and Child" and Mixed Foursome Tournament

For the first time in its history the Ontario Golf Association staged this season a "Parent and Child" Tournament, also mixed foursomes. It was a great success, there being over forty entries in the former event. As a result this fixture in future will be quite one of the permanent outstanding features of the year.

It was generally predicted that George S. Lyon and his son, Fred, a very fine young golfer indeed, would be the winners of the Parent and Child event, and this proved to be the case, although J. T. Clark, editor of the Toronto "Star", and his son, J. W. G. Clark, and Gordon Taylor and his son, Gordon Taylor, Jr., Junior Champion of Canada, who tied for second place, provided some stiff opposition. In fact the latter pair looked like running away with the Championship when they negotiated the first nine holes of the stiff Rosedale course in 38. They slumped, however, coming in, carding a 50 for the last nine. Cards under 100 and better were:

Mixed foursomes—(1) Mrs. E. R. Dewart and Dudley Dewart, Summit, 98-17-81; (2) Mrs. R. W. Hart and George L. Robinson, Lambton, 100-15-85.

Low net, first 9 holes—Gordon Taylor and Gordon Taylor, Jr., York Downs, 38-7-31.

Low net, second 9 holes—J. T. Clark and J. G. W. Clark, 42-6-36.

JASPER PARK TOURNAMENT

Is Participated in by Golfers from Coast to Coast. Mr. Alfred Bull, Vancouver, Wins Men's, and Mrs. K. C. Allen, Winnipeg, Ladies' Championship

(By G. H. Lash)

HERE at Jasper Park, Alberta, in the heart of the mountains where the snow-silvered heights hold eternal communion with the skies; where the stately Athabaska River begins its long trek to the silent places of the North, the chanson of speed and unanimity forsook their favourite pastures on the fairways of the Jasper Park Lodge Golf Course and kept to the serenity of the jack pines.

For a number of years Jasper has been noted for three things. It is the the voyageur who so long used this valley as his high road to the sea, has given way to the modern cry of "fore."

All week from September the eighth to the fifteenth the click of the club against the ball has been echoed back by the hills and the "Old Man" who has slept undisturbed through the centuries on the ledge of the Colin Range, opened one eye and kept a wary watch on divots. Deer and other creatures of the wild wood, through long years of protection, grown used to the presence of man, suddenly became wary too and with startling headquarters of the largest national playground in the world, the site of Jasper Park Lodge, a picturesque and highly attractive summer resort and the location of the Jasper Park Lodge Golf Course, venue of the 1929 Canadian Amateur Championships, one of the most difficult and beautiful golf courses in the world.

Now it is noted for a fourth thing. In the third year of its history the annual Silver Totem Pole Trophy Tournament has definitely established itself as one of the major tests of golf in the Dominion of Canada.

Three reasons are responsible for the early attainment of this status. One is the quality of the prizes offered for competition, quite apart from the Totem Pole Trophy which has a value of one thousand dollars itself. A second is the able manner in which the committee in charge has, from the the smartest golfers west of the Great Lakes and the best medal any of them could produce was 81. The par is 70, and the length of the course is 6,455 yards. There is a shot for every club in the bag and after all of those have been used, there are a few shots left for clubs yet to be invented.

Since its inception three years ago the Silver Totem Pole Tournament has increased rapidly in favour. In its first year there were only some thirty-five entries and these included residents of the village and some of the hotel staff. The second year, with the same entrance conditions prevailing, the entry list reached seventy-four. This year, with villagers and hotel employees barred and the entries limited to members of recognized golf clubs, 102 players entered the lists. To some extent the inclusion of a number of events for ladies was responsible for the encouraging increase.

But the most satisfactory feature of this year's tournament was the fact that it attracted a larger field of low handicap players than ever. At least ten of the men in the championship flight of the Totem Pole Trophy event would be considered dangerous competitors in any major golfing tournament in Canada. The ladies' events attracted Mrs. K. C. Allen, of Winnipeg, former Manitoba champion; Miss Cecil Smith, holder of the Ontario title, and her sister, Miss Maud Smith, runner-up in the Ontario championship.

In the championship flight for the Totem Pole Trophy, one former winner, Harry A. Jones, Vancouver, and a former semi-finalist, J. Leslie Bell, of Calgary, failed to advance beyond the eights. This was in no sense due to the fact that they were off their game but simply the result of meeting strong golfers in an exceptionally high-class field.

The winner was Alfred Bull, of the Jericho Club, Vancouver, and the story of his victory is one that almost outrivals fiction. In the finals he found himself opposed to Monty Hill, first, conducted the events—there has never been a protest—and the third is the quality of the course over which the tournament is played. The latter is probably the most important of the three factors.

A. L. Code, of Perth, Ontario, who won the handicap against par competition in the Jasper Park Lodge Golf Tournament.

It is a course which is a fit venue for any major tournament. If evidence to support that statement is required it is to be had in the fact that no amateur golfer has yet come within two strokes of equalling Old Man Par and some of the best amateurs on the continent have tried their best to do it. In the tournament just closed the entries included some of

of the Quilchena Club, Vancouver, a boy who, less than two years ago, was his caddy and to whom he taught the rudiments of the game. On his side Mr. Bull had experience and a temperament admirably suited to match play. Hill lacked experience and was inclined to be nervous at times, but

Both had long drives but not long enough to reach the green with an iron. Bull, playing first, tried a brassie and found the trap immediately in front of the green. Hill, also using a brassie, though he had a hanging lie and his opponent was in the bunker, topped his shot and his ball landed in youth and flashes of real brilliance, plus a fine fighting spirit offset those handicaps which he will overcome as time goes by.

They halved the first four holes in par. Then on the fifth and sixth Hill slipped and Bull was two up at the turn. Hill recovered one at the tenth but lost the eleventh and twelfth. Then overcoming his nervousness he settled down to his best golf of the day. He halved the thirteenth after an unfortunate drive and won the fourteenth and fifteenth. The sixteenth was halved and he won the seventeenth and the players approached the home green all square.

a bunker to the left, one hundred yards from the pin. His recovery left him on the green but 25 feet short of the hole. Bull's niblick from the bunker failed to hold the green and he was left forty feet beyond the pin, on the green but on top of a treacherous knoll with a long putt on grass as fast as lightning. His careful study of the contour was well rewarded and his par four was as brilliant a bit of putting as will ever be seen in any tournament. Hill, faced with the necessity of putting against the creeping bent and of holing the putt or losing the championship, made a valiant endeavour to overcome almost impossible odds. The ball hit the far lip of the cup, bounced, hesitated for a second right on the lip and then came to rest two inches beyond. For the gallery and the winner it was a dazzling finish. For the loser, a heart-breaking turn of the wheel.

In losing, Hill maintained the traditions that the winner of the low qualifying score cannot also be winner of the trophy in this tournament. Never yet has the medalist in the qualifying round had his name engraved at the foot of the Totem Pole. Hill won the medal early in the week in a thirty-six hole game with Harry Jones, former winner of the trophy, when the end of the first eighteen found them tied with 81.

Excellent golf also featured the final in the ladies' championship. This event found Mrs. K. C. Allen and Miss Maud Smith sole survivors from a field of twenty-eight in the qualifying round. Like the men's feature, this match was also a battle between experience and youth and, as in the senior match, experience also triumphed. Mrs. Allen, one down at the turn, came from behind to win on the sixteenth green four and two. In this feature, too, that strange quirk of fate which has prevented the medalist in the men's event from winning the trophy, made its appearance. Miss Smith was the winner of the qualifying round in the women's championship.

The opening of this year's tournament was marked by an event of special significance in the unveiling of a tablet in honour of the late Field Marshal Earl Haig, former captain of the Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrews, and commander-in-chief of the British Forces in France during the Great War. It was he who officially opened the Jasper Park Lodge Golf Course on July 17, 1925, during his first and only visit to Canada. At that time he made the prophesy that this course would come to be regarded as one of the finest in the world and already his prediction has been fulfilled.

The unveiling ceremonies were performed by His Honour Dr. William Egbert, Lieutenant-Governor of Alberta, while a large crowd of players and guests stood bareheaded in the sunshine that flooded the course and made the mountains radiant as jewels. It was just such a day as that upon which the great citizen of the Empire drove the first ball far along the first fairway.

The tablet of solid bronze is fixed to the outside wall of the new club house, facing the first tee upon which Earl Haig stood to drive off the official opening ball. At the top, in a circle of laurel leaves, is a replica of the Field Marshall standing beside the rustic tee box, the replica having been made from a photograph taken the day the course was opened. Below the circle the following inscription appears:

"In honour of Field Marshal Earl Haig, K.T., G.C.B., O.M., G.C.V.O., K.C.I.E., Commander-in-Chief of the British Forces in the Great War and a former Captain of the Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrews, who on July 17, 1925, opened this golf course."

The finals were not the only events to provide exciting golf. Keen play featured many of the preliminaries and it was never evident upon whom the final honours would fall until the last scores were posted. Three matches went extra holes, one to the nineteenth, one to the twentieth and one to the twenty-second. Play in the qualifying round of the Totem Pole Championship resulted in a tie for low score when Harry Jones, Vancouver, and Monty Hill, both turned in cards of 81 and it was necessary for them to play an extra round for the medal. Hill, with a card of 82 proved to be the winner. The elimination of Miss Cecil Smith, Ontario champion, by her sister, Miss Maud Smith, in the early stages of the women's championship was another surprise of the tournament. The failure of a number of low handicap men to reach the championship flight of the Totem Pole Trophy was an indication both of the quality of golf being played and of the severity of the test of golf which this course demands.

The prize winners were:

SIXTY YEARS IN BUSINESS IN TORONTO

AS POINTED out editorially by the Toronto Globe, three score years in one business and all the time in the same block of buildings is a record of consistent, faithful service of which any man might well be proud. jewelry trade in Toronto. "Times have changed," Mr. Barr is quoted as saying, in speaking of his reminiscences. He is right. In the two generations that have passed away since he commenced his career the entire face of the city and the world has changed. There are few boys to-day who would be willing to start work and serve an apprenticeship at $60, $80 and $100 for three consecutive years. It is no doubt a good thing that living and working conditions have undergone such a radical transformation, but it was the long hours, the hard work and the exacting demands that helped to make such men as Mr. Barr and others of the outstanding citizens of Toronto. His success is another illustration of conscientious work and faithful service meeting its reward. On the attainment of his worthy record he is to be congratulated.

Notwithstanding his extensive business interests, Mr. Barr has always found time to take an active part in the military, commercial and social life of the city of his adoption and has held many offices of trust in various organizations including the Wholesale Jewellers' Association of Canada, of which he was recently elected President. He is a keen golfer, an active member of the Lambton Golf and Country Club and the Canadian Seniors' Golf Association. Friends throughout the Dominion will join in wishing him many, many more years of activity accompanied by health and happiness aplenty.

A REMARKABLE MARATHON

In a 52-Mile Hike from Portage La Prairie to Winnipeg Joe Land Defeats Hugh Fletcher. Winner Holes Out on His 753rd Stroke

THE Winnipeg Tribune's golf marathon from Portage La Prairie to Winnipeg last month created a great deal of interest. The contestants were Joe Land, professional of the Kirkfield Park Course, and Hugh Fletcher, of the Alerest Club.

Mayor Burns, of Portage La Prairie, set the record-breaking match in progress in front of the city hall promptly at 8 o'clock in the morning, showing the players a good example by hitting a good midiron shot down the middle of Saskatchewan Avenue.

Joe Land then took the honour and using wood for the first shot of the match, sent a long hook down the main street of the city, which bounced off Eaton's store back into the middle of the street. Hugh Fletcher followed with an even better shot, which finished 25 yards ahead of Land.

Neither player had much success with their next two iron shots off the hard road surface, but they were soon safely out in open territory without a single casualty in the way of broken windows or automobile windshields.

Thereafter, for nine hours' of play, the two doughty golfers battled evenly through all kinds of trouble. Along gravel roads, out of deep ditches, through heavy grass, willows, bush, ploughed land, stubble fields, potato patches and other unusual golf hazards they gave their undivided attention to getting the most distance possible with every manner of golf club from a brassie to a heavy niblick.

And so the weary contest went on for three days, Land finally completing the 52-mile grind by holing out at the 9th hole at the Kirkfield course, Winnipeg, in the very last minutes of daylight with a score of 753 strokes. Fletcher was 49 strokes back of him with 802. It was freely predicted before the commencement of the stunt that 1000 would not be broken.

The match, with all the uncertainties of an unusual golf match, aroused abnormal interest among the golf fans of Winnipeg, and Portage la Prairie. Citizens of the latter turned out in fine numbers to see the start and send the players well on their way to their final goal. Never an hour passed in the middle stages but play was watched by some travellers on the Portage highway, whose regular question was "will they finish in less than 1,000 strokes?"

Early on the last afternoon a gallery of curious fans from Winnipeg began following the play. First came boys on bicycles to meet the match, then came automobiles, and many pedestrians joined the players at Headingly, until a crowd of several hundred was on hand to watch the final putts on the ninth green at Kirkfield Park.

WORLD'S GREATEST TRAVEL SYSTEM

Joe Land's score represented an average of fourteen and a half strokes per mile for the 52 mile journey, which means that every stroke of the 752 averaged 120 yards. As there were many penalty strokes included in the total for lost balls and unplayable lies, and as many of the lies were of such a difficult variety that the player was only able to send the ball a few feet, the final counts of both Land and Fletcher are well nigh unbelievable.

Only one club was broken in the three days of play, the steel shaft of Joe Land's mashie snapping when coming in violent contact with a wire fence during the second day's play. A total of exactly two dozen golf balls was used up by the two players in completing the course, and of this number only 13 escaped the eagle eyes of the fore caddies. Several of these found a final resting place at the bottom of creeks and sloughs, beyond the reach of human eyes, so that the boys who cheerfully kept in advance of the play at all times merit a full share of the credit for the success of the venture.

Only two of the Spadling Kroflites used throughout the game were rendered unfit for further use, and new balls were put into requisition only when rough usage so discolored them that it was almost impossible to distinguish them in the heavy grass.

The start was made at 8 o'clock on Wednesday morning, and the end came at 6.40 o'clock on Friday night. In actual playing time, the game was in progress for something like 29½ hours. The fastest pace ever attained on the journey was a mile in half an hour, but lost balls and heavy going often made a full hour necessary to send Land and Fletcher one more mile on their way to Winnipeg.

This marathon creates a record both as regards distance and strokes.

In the final of the Alerest Club, Winnipeg, Fred Land defeated Lou Rumford in a well-contested 36-hole match. The new champion was driving a very long ball all day, placing him in a position to score many "birdies." His approximate score in the morning was 73, and he continued his good play in the afternoon, being two over fours when the match finished. Rumford was not playing his usual strong game, frequently getting into trouble off the tee. He was also unfortunate on the greens, many putts which looked like going down just failing to drop. The match nevertheless was keenly contested and produced on the part of both players some of the most brilliant golf witnessed by an Alerest championship gallery for several years.

At the field day of the lady members of the Alerest Club, Winnipeg, there was an attendance of some forty. Play started with a driving competition, which was won by Mrs. Victor Tryon. Then followed a nine-hole medal competition. Mrs. B. C. Scrivener won the low net for this, and Miss T. Hindle the hidden hole. Mrs. Victor Tryon, Mrs. W. S. Atchison and Mrs. L. Rumford tied in the approaching and putting competition. Mrs. Atchison won in the draw made to decide this. After lunch the annual meeting and election of officers took place. Then the prizes were presented by the popular president, Mrs. L. J. Rumford. Mrs. S. J. Mackey and Mrs. B. C. Scrivener won in the two-ball foursomes played during the afternoon.

Thirty ladies took part in the ladies' field day of the Southwood Club, Winnipeg. In the morning medal round, Mrs. H. G. Stevens tied Mrs. J. S. McKenzie for first place. The hidden hole competition ended in a draw between Mrs. R. J. Hennesey and Mrs. McNeil. The aggregate for the three longest drives went to Mrs. H. G. ### MacWilliams Wins Municipal Championship

Carson MacWilliams added another golf title to his string of successes when he defeated Jack Cuthbert 7 and 6 in their 36 hole final for the championship of the Winnipeg municipal courses. The second 18 holes of the series were played over the Windsor course and although given plenty of opposition Carson gradually increased the four hole lead he carried over from Monday's play at Kildonan.

The winner in the battle for premier honours among the ladies was also decided at Windsor, when Mrs. Ritchie overcame a two hole lead held by Mrs. Boyd McTavish, and won on the 37th green after a ding-dong match. Mrs. McTavish earned her two hole margin during the first half of the final at Kildonan, but playing on her own course Mrs. Ritchie soon closed the gap, and at the 27th she was two up.

On the home stretch Mrs. McTavish gamely strove to regain the advantage, and the pair reached the 36th with the match all square. However, only one extra hole was necessary, for Mrs. Ritchie played par golf to capture the match and the championship.

In the final 18 holes over the Windsor course both MacWilliams and Cuthbert played indifferently but previously had demonstrated golf of a very high character, MacWilliams having a 68 over the Kildonan course. During the Tournament one of the most interesting matches was between Cuthbert and "Bud" Donovan, son of Mr. Justice Donovan, of the King's Bench. Cuthbert won 3 and 2, but the match was tied at the eleventh. "Bud" is only 14 years of age, but has the style of a veteran, as can be easily imagined when it is known that he went around one of Winnipeg's most difficult courses recently in the splenaggregate for three drives with a total of 722 yards. He also captured the single drive when one of his efforts travelled for 253 yards. Leslie Irwin was second in the three ball aggregate with a total distance of 650 yards. In did figure of 76. To reach the semi-final stage in the Municipal Championship he met some of the best golfers in Winnipeg, and in each case shot wonderful golf. After the match, Cuthbert was loud in his praise for his young opponent, and forecasts for him a great future in the world of golfdom.

Driving, approaching and putting competitions were held during the championship. One good score was turned in at Kildonan in the driving when MacWilliams made the high the approaching and putting contest, Danny Stack took first with a low score of seven, closely followed by D. Stapleton with eight.

Mrs. Collie won the Kildonan ladies' driving with 330 yards for two balls. Mrs. Yale was second, with 312 yards. Miss Jessie Tooke captured the honours in the approaching and putting, with a creditable score of eight. On the Windsor course the driving competition was won by W. H. Hain, with a total of 623 yards. R. A. Haek made a wonderful drive of 271 yards to take the prize for a single effort. Approaching and putting awards go to R. Johnston, who was low with seven. O. F. Hess was second with eight strokes. The individual championship at the Windsor course was won by Jack Cuthbert who defeated W. H. Booth, and the Kildonan championship by Carson MacWilliams who in the final won from F. J. Dixon. The Windsor ladies' championship was won by Mrs. Boyd McTavish, defeating in the final Miss B. Rogers. "Sandy" Weir quite made golfing history when in the Qualifying Round of the championship he turned in the remarkably fine score of 69 on the Kildonan course.

The following was the prize list in this most interesting Tournament—easily the most generous ever recorded in the columns of the "Canadian Golfer" the past thirteen years.

At the Windsor Club—Ladies' Course Championship (Championship Flight)—1st, Mrs. G. Ritchie, winner Crescent Creamery Co., Trophy and combination hat and dressing case; 2nd, Miss K. The Shoal Lake Golf Championship, recently played at the Minnedosa golf course, was won by W. A. Haaekie, which also entitles him to the "Neil Cameron Cup Trophy" offered for the first time. Mr. Haaekie's victory was partly due to excellent putting, also playing par golf on several of the holes, enabling him to turn in a card of 184. Another strong contender was Dr. S. Bardal, who was only two short of the champion.

The annual meeting of the Alerest Golf Club, Winnipeg, was held in the board room, 460 Main Street, where the usual reports for the season were received. The finances showed a satisfactory result for the year, especially in view of the severe weather encountered during the summer.

The new directors were elected as follows: L. J. Rumford, J. M. Blair, J. R. Aikman, J. W. Wheatcroft, W. F. Sutherland, T. Coulling, W. J. Lindal, H. P. Dexter and J. S. Wright.

Mr. Rumford was again elected president for the third term and J. M. Blair as vice-president, both by acclamation, while a hearty vote of thanks for his services to the club was tendered to Mr. Walter Faulkner, who retires from the club this winter.

At a subsequent meeting of the board of directors, Mr. C. E. Hedge was elected secretary-treasurer for the incoming year.

In the annual Caddies' Championship played over the Niakwa Country Club course, Winnipeg, Richard McCormick proved a worthy champion in an extra hole match with E. Northwood. Both tied in the medal round, McCormick having 93-20-73, while Northwood had 92-19-73. The two were then sent away for an 18-hole match play game and they finished all square. On the 19th hole McCormick was victorious. The low gross prize was won by George Woleyuk, who had a score of 91. Twenty caddies entered the competition.

In carding a 71 over the Niakwa Country Club, Winnipeg, course a few days ago, Sandy Weir established a new record and one that will take a lot of beating. Par for the course is 72. Sandy negotiated three birdies, but slipped one over par on the 14th and 18th, playing the rest in even figures. Here is a copy of the score which is a fine piece of golf:

F. A. Holmes captured the championship of the Deer Lodge Golf Club, Winnipeg, by defeating T. Johnson in the final on the 18th hole recently. Mr. Holmes will be presented with a silver cup, emblematic of the club championship at an early date. The tourney has been in progress for the past six weeks and has been a decided success.

FINE SHOWING BY CANADIAN PLAYERS

In U. S. Ladies' Championship Miss Dorothy Virtue, Montreal, and Miss Helen Paget, Royal Ottawa, Demonstrate That They Rank Amongst the Best Women Players in America. Miss Glenna Collett, Former Canadian Champion, Wins Championship in a Commanding Manner.

CANADA, especially in view of the regrettable absence of Miss Ada Mackenzie, of Toronto, this country's premier woman player, owing to family bereavement, has every reason to be proud of the showing made by its lady golfers in the U. S. Women's Championship last month. It was a highly creditable performance for Miss Dorothy Virtue, of the Whitlock Club, Montreal, to reach the semi-finals in such fast company. Miss Helen Paget, of the Royal Ottawa Club, also distinguished herself, by eliminating the very first round last year's U. S. champion, Mrs. Miriam Burns Horn Tyson. Miss Helen has a rather happy faculty of taking the measure of champions and has not been inaptly named "The Giant Killer". Last year in the second round of the Canadian Open Championship at Lambton, she provided the sensation of the week when she defeated the favourite, Miss Glenna Collett, unquestionably the greatest woman golfer the States has ever produced. Then in 1925 in the final of the Canadian Ladies' Close Championship, at Rivermead, Ottawa, she upset all previous calculations, when she took into camp Miss Ada Mackenzie. Champions certainly have every reason to remember and fear this self-contained young Ottawa player. By their performances in the U. S. Championship at Hot Springs, Misses Virtue and Paget have demonstrated that they deserve to rank amongst the best players in America.

It is a pity they both, like the majority of their American golfing cousins, can't have more Tournament experience. That is all they require with perhaps a little more distance off the tee. Miss Collett, Miss Orcutt, Miss Van Wie and other U. S. stars have the edge on them in this respect. Their short game however, leaves little to be desired.

In the final of the championship by playing almost unbeatable golf, certainly the finest golf that has ever been shown in the final round of any women's championship in America, Miss Glenna Collett won the U. S. National title for the third time.

After setting a new record for the Cascades course by going out in 36 and coming home in 41 for a 77 in the morning round of the 36-hole contest, the Providence girl overwhelmed her opponent, Miss Virginia Van Wie, of Chicago, finishing the match on the sixth hole in the afternoon round.

Miss Glenna Collett, who wins U. S. Ladies' Championship for third time in a most convincing manner.

Her victory, 13 and 12, duplicated the margin by which Bobby Jones conquered T. Philip Perkins, the British champion, in the Walker Cup matches. It also makes a new record for U.S. women's golf, the biggest margin by which any other champion ever won being 9 and 8. Miss Collett likewise set that mark, for it was made in the course of her victory over Mrs. Alexa Stirling Fraser, of Ottawa, in 1925, the year she won her second championship.

Miss Collett, it will be remembered, won the Canadian Open Championship in 1923 and 1924, but as previously noted, last year was put out of the competition the very first round by Miss Paget. This season she has come right back to form and is generally rated the second greatest woman golfer in the world, Miss Joyce Wethered, the ex-British champion, being accorded first place even by U. S. experts and critics.

THE BRITISH SENIORS WIN AT WINNIPEG

(Golf Editor Winnipeg Free Press)

A PARTY of British Senior golfers, touring the continent were guests of a party of Winnipeg Seniors, including the Hon. Robert Rogers, F. L. Patton, A. J. Andrews, E. H. Macklin, H. B. Shaw, Col. Osler and C. F. Joyce last month. They were met at the station, escorted to the Fort Garry, and from there to the St. Charles Country Club. The visitors, accompanied by three ladies, Mrs. Basil Hoare, Mrs. Cyril Cassels and Lady Mabel Coke, were entertained at a luncheon at the St. Charles Country Club, and later the Hon. Robert and Mrs. Rogers entertained the lady members, while the gentlemen participated in friendly golf matches.

In the six matches played at the St. Charles Country Club, the Britishers won four, and the Winnipeggers two. A stiff wind swept the course, and made good scoring impossible. However, some interesting matches were played. The closest game of the afternoon was that between Dr. A. Mackenzie and C. F. Joyce. The players battled evenly throughout, but Dr. Mackenzie rimmed the cup with his last putt, and Joyce won the match on the 18th green. Another interesting game was that between Lt.-Col. Francis Popham and A. J. Andrews; in this case also, the players were evenly matched, but A. J. Andrews played beautiful golf on the inward journey to win two and one.

Following are the results of play:

F. W. Ashe (Great Britain) defeated F. L. Patton.

A. J. Andrews defeated Lt.-Col. Francis Popham (Great Britain).

J. W. Beaumont Pease (Great Britain) defeated H. B. Shaw.

George Cyril Cassels (Great Britain) defeated Col. Osler.

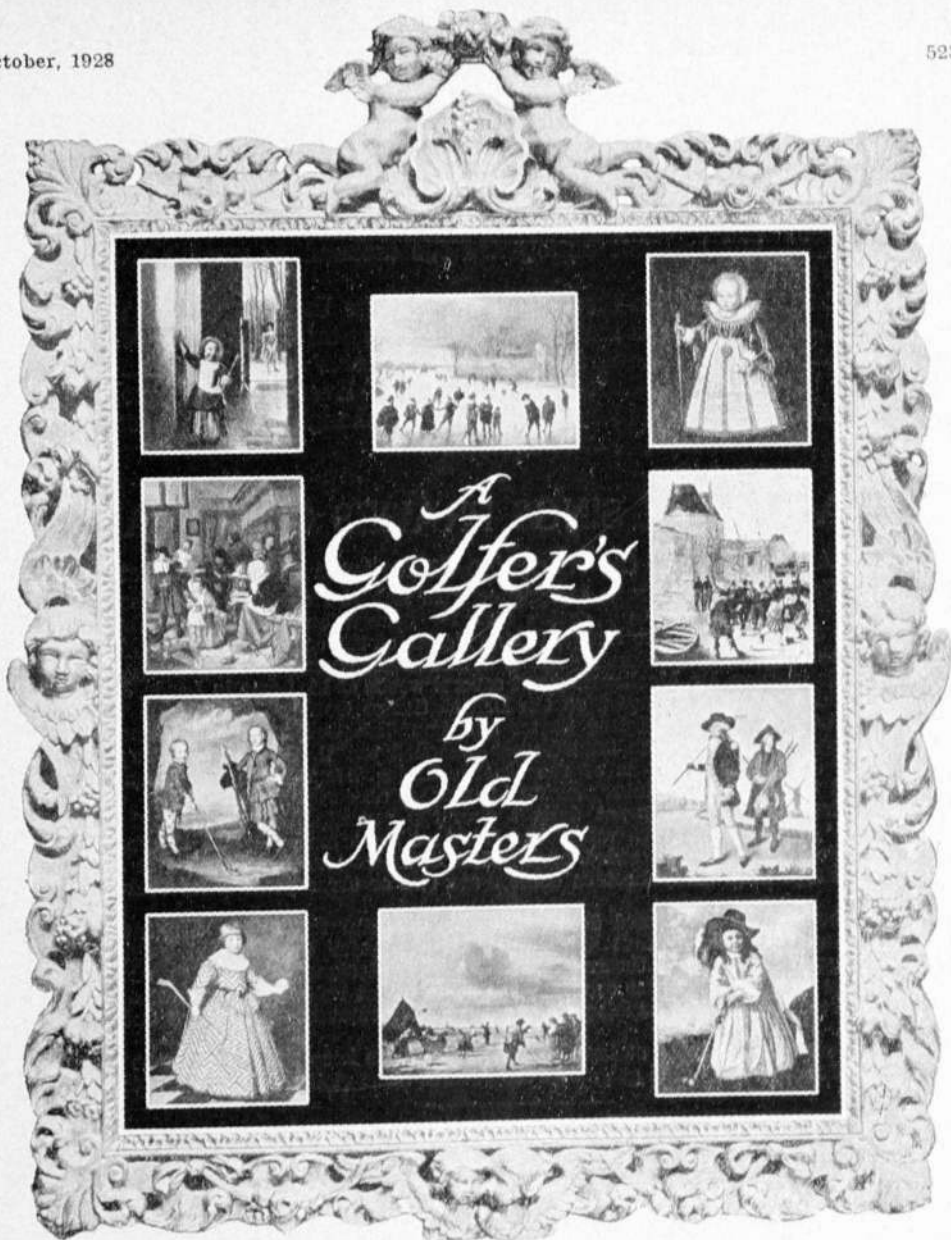

James Baker (Great Britain) defeated E. H. Macklin.

C. F. Joyce defeated Dr. A. Mackenzie (Great Britain).

In the evening the distinguished sportsmen were the guests of the Hon. Robert Rogers at dinner. They entrained at 10 o'clock for Jasper Park.

In the party was F. W. Ashe, the Honourary Treasurer of the Senior Golfers' Association of Great Britain. He organized the first hockey team in Winnipeg back in the eighties, and revisited the scene of his early interest in sports after an absence of more than 35 years.

Mr. Ashe, reminiscing on the old days when Winnipeg was a city of but 22,000, and the game which has carried its fame throughout the length and breadth of the world, was in its infancy, recalled the names of the members of Winnipeg's first hockey team. "Tart" Stowe was the goalkeeper, Claude Dennison, point, and Mr. Harvey (whose first name he could not remember, though he thought it started with E) was coverpoint. The other players were

Bob Girdlestone, Harry Beckett, and a man named McDonald. Mr. Ashe was the captain.

Mr. Ashe said he had followed the course of hockey in Winnipeg closely all the while since he left the city, and felt a personal pride in the achievements of local teams. He said that he had been prepared to find Winnipeg very greatly changed, but had not anticipated the astounding growth which he finds to have taken place.

Dr. Mackenzie, who is a frequent visitor to the United States, said that sport was undergoing a rapid metamorphosis in the States, becoming less commercialized and specialized, and more sports for sports' sake. The Americans were rapidly becoming Anglicized in their sports. Even in the course of the last three or four years there had been a marked change in that direction.

DR. MACKENZIE SINGS PRAISES OF CANADA

A SPECIAL despatch to the "Canadian Golfer from Del Monte, Oct. 10th: "Dr. Alistair Mackenzie, co-designer with Robert Hunter of the sensationally sporty Cypress Point Golf course recently opened on Monterey Peninsula, is spending a few days at Del Monte Lodge, Pebble Beach, at the conclusion of a trip abroad of several months duration.

"During his journey, Dr. Mackenzie spent several weeks at his home in Leeds, England. Returning to this country, he played on the British Senior Golfers' Association Team in the team matches against the United States and Canadian Seniors at Blindbrook, Rye, N.Y. Following this event which immediately preceded the U. S. Senior Championship, Dr. Mackenzie and other members of the British Senior Team visited fourteen of the most prominent Canadian golf clubs, playing in matches on each course.

"Dr. Mackenzie expressed great delight over the remarkable condition of Cypress point to-day. 'The rapidity with which the fairways have matured and the marvelous condition of the green have exceeded my fondest expectations. Cypress Point is right now in better shape than many Eastern courses are two or three years after their formal opening.'

"Dr. Mackenzie also expressed delight at the successful remodeling done at Pebble Beach in preparation for the next year's National Amateur Golf Championship. The noted English golf architect has the reputation of having designed more golf courses than any other living man. His courses are scattered from Great Britain to Australia.

"On his present trip he is making plans for a new course at Santa Cruz and one at Santa Barbara.

"Dr. Mackenzie commented at length on the marvelous hospitality shown the visiting British Senior Team by Canadian golfers at the various links visited during their tour."

MUNICIPAL GOLF COURSE FOR KITCHENER

THE Grand River Golf and Country Club, Kitchener, one of Ontario's most progressive clubs, as becoming a most progressive city, is seriously contemplating next season leaving the present interesting 9-hole course and well equipped club house and taking up with a beautiful new property which will allow of an eighteen hole course, something demanded by the increasing membership. Mr. Stanley Thompson, golf architect, Toronto, has been engaged to lay out the new links.

In the event of the change it is quite on the cards that the City of Kitchener will take over the old course and club house for municipal links. The City Fathers of Kitchener can make no mistake in doing so. The history of public links in Edmonton, Calgary, Moose Jaw, Winnipeg, Hamilton, London, Brantford, not to mention Toronto and Montreal, proves that such golf courses can be maintained and maintained handsomely without eventually costing the ratepayers a penny. As a matter of record, some of these municipal links actually return a revenue over and above expenses to the advantage of the municipal coffers.

GOLF IN BEAUTIFUL BERMUDA

Big Program Arranged for the Coming Season Including a Professional Golf Championship for Prize Money Totalling $3000

BERMUDA'S sports program for the winter season of 1928-29 calls for seventeen golf competitions in addition to the championship fixtures, two tennis tournaments, six meetings of the Bermuda Paper Chase Hunt Club, beside which there will also be weekly or semi-weekly race top-notch players, and the majority of them will probably accept.

The money will be divided $1,000 for first, $500 for second, $400 for third, $300 for fourth, $200 for fifth, and so on down the line, and there will be special prizes for low scores in each round. It is also planned to meetings under the auspices of the Bermuda and Garrison Hunt Club, several yatching and motor boat races and a series of water carnivals in at least one of which it is expected to have several Olympic winners as contestants.

An innovation in the way of a professional golf championship—the first ever held in the Islands—will be held early in December, the dates being tentatively set for December 13-15. Prize money totalling $3,000 has been set aside by the Bermuda Trade Development Board for a 72-hole competition, in which it is expected twenty of the leading golf professionals in the country will take part. Invitations will soon be sent to Farrell, Hagen, Sarazen, Armour, Diegel, Mehlhorn, Turnesa, Barnes, Macfarlane, Smith, Klein, and several other

Another new tournament this year will probably be an intercollegiate and interscholastic tournament during the holidays, when the Islands are thronged with prep school and college students on their Christmas vacations. The dates, while not definitely determined as yet, will probably be December 26-29.

The Bermuda amateur championship, won last year by A. C. N. Gosling, of Canada, and in which such stars as Francis Ouimet, Eddie Driggs, R. A. Jones, Jr., and A. W. (Laddie) Biggs have competed in past years, will be held at the Riddell's Bay Golf and Country Club on January 29 to February 1, while the Bermuda Ladies' Championship, which was won by Miss Helen Payson, of Portland, Me., last year and in which Miss Maureen Orcutt and Miss Ada Mackenzie were participants, will be held around Easter time, probably a few days after the Women's North and South Championship at Pinehurst.

For a place of its minute size, Bermuda is now one of the golfing centres of the world. Its climatic conditions are ideal for golf the year 'round, although the courses are at their best from December 1 to May 1, which is the growing season.

One of its courses, the Mid-Ocean Golf Club, is famous the world over. Designed by Charles B. MacDonald, who laid out several other famous courses, such as Lido and the National Links of America, and constructed by the late Seth J. Raynor, Mid-Ocean has the reputation of being one of the greatest golf courses in the western hemisphere, ranking with Lido, Pine Valley, the National Links of America, Pebble Beach, Cypress Point, Oakmont and other outstanding courses.

Another well-known Bermuda course is the Riddell's Bay Golf and Country Club, which, while not as long nor as difficult as Mid-Ocean, has many good golf holes and affords a good test for the skillful player and yet provides a pleasing layout for players of the middle rank. There is also another eighteen-hole course at the Belmont Manor, just across the harbour from Hamilton which, while not a Mid-Ocean as a test, is a "sporty" layout and is exceedingly popular.

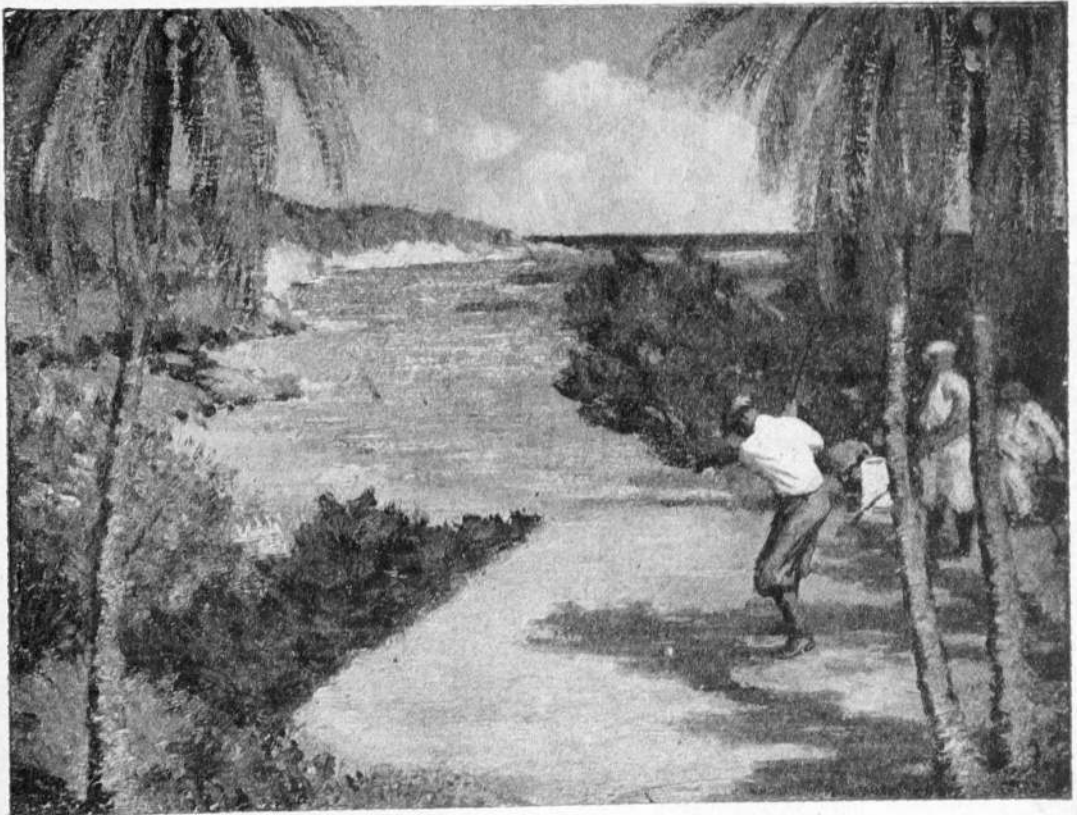

In addition, there are the Garrison Links, a nine-hole course; the Shore Hills Golf and Country Club, Elbow Beach; Grasmere-by-the-Sea, and the St. George Golf Club, making eight courses in all, three of regulation length and five nine-hole courses, besides a few miniature layouts.

Plans are now on foot for the creation of a new nine-hole course to be built near the Hotel Frascati in the nual Interecollegiate and Interscholastic Tournament, Mid-Ocean Club (tentative).

THE MOUNTIFIELDS BOTH DEFEATED

In Edmonton City Championship "Jam" Loses to Harvey Day and Miss May to Mrs. J. R. Henley

IN THE Edmonton City Championships decided at the Edmonton Golf and Country Club, Edmonton, Alta., last month there were two remarkable upsets. J. A. Mountifield, Western Canada and Alberta Amateur Champion and semi-finalist in the Canadian Amateur at Montreal, where he created a most favourable impression, was defeated on the 36th green by Harvey Day, for the past two years runner-up.

In winning the match and the championship, Day realized one of his pet ambitions, and the victory, coming as it did after a gruelling battle in which both players felt the strain on the home stretch, was all the more sweet as he defeated the West's leading amateur star and one of the best, for that matter, in the Dominion. Young Day is unquestionably a fine golfer as the following cards testify. He certainly will want watching:

A large gallery followed this thrilling match, which was refereed by Mr. H. Milton Martin.

The other upset was when Mrs. J. R. Henley, of Edmonton, who has many Western Tournaments to her credit, defeated Mountifield's sister, Miss May, who recently won the Western Canadian Lady Championship. Playing the steadiest kind of golf Mrs. Henley defeated her young rival 2 and 1.

Bob Proctor lost to Bill Hoar in the final of the junior city championship. The latter took the 18-hole contest three and two to play. He came through in the pinches with the necessary punch and held the lead throughout the match.

In the first flight Dr. L. R. Dodds won from Stewart Lamb two and one. Harris McLeod took the final of the second flight from A. G. McKinnon five up and four to play. The final of the third flight saw Dr. H. M. Vango defeat D. Muir four and three. S. T. Bigelow lost out in the final of the fourth flight to R. J. Gaunt two and one in one of the toughest battles of the day.

J. B. Starky had the lowest score in the qualifying round of the championship flight, while Mrs. Henley turned in the lowest card of the ladies.

The men's handicap foursomes was won by H. Miller and S. A. Maddocks with a net 72. The runners-up were W. J. Cunningham and J. W. McClung with a net 73.

The putting competition on Saturday was captured by Bob Proctor with a 35, while S. T. Bigelow won on Sunday with a 34.

"OUR HOLE-IN-ONE-CLUB"

"Zip-Bang" from Coast to Coast the "One-Shotters" are Making Merry These Golden Autumnal Days. Two Hundred and Fifteen Performances Recorded So Far This Season

SEPTEMBER and October seem especially favourable months for recording hole-in-one performances. Here are a few more dozen or so of 'em:

Mr. H. A. Lovett, K.C., a prominent member of the Royal Montreal Golf Club, playing with Mr. C. P. Wilson, negotiated the 5th hole, 125 yards, in one.

Mr. J. J. Vaughan, of the Lambton Golf and Country Club, a director of the Eaton Co., Toronto, chose the well known Lake Placid Club, Lake Placid N.Y., to bag an ace at the 18th hole, 152 yards, on the North Long course. He was playing at the time with Mr. O. R. Rowley, of the head office Bank of Montreal, Montreal, and Miss Rowley.

The Rev. N. D. Keith, M.A., of the Rockfield United Church, Ville St. Pierre, Que., whilst playing with the Rev. W. P. R. Lewis, Anglican minister of St. Paul's Church, Lachine, on the Forest Hills course, Montreal, put a beautiful mashie-shot over at the 4th hole, 120 yards. Mr. Keith laid his ball dead to the pin and in a sort of a leisurely way, it made for the hole, ran a bit around the pin and very quietly dropped in.

Mr. E. A. Allard, on the Arrowdale Civic Golf Course, Brantford, made golfing history when he found "the tin from the tee" on the 3rd hole, 205 yards. He was playing at the time with Mr. F. R. Mitchell.

Macauley Point Golf Club, Vancouver, B.C., is again in the limelight this month with a couple of performers. Mr. J. Martin, Victoria, B.C., playing with Mr. A. Florence recorded the feat at the 9th hole and not to be outdone, a few days later, Mr. N. H. Gunn, also of Victoria, playing with Mr. R. P. Thompson, likewise bagged a "oneer" at the same hole.

During a recent visit to Kanawaki Golf Club, Montreal, Mr. Charles Louis Sicard, an outstanding New Yorker, president of the Park Avenue Association, New York, crowned the success of a certain annual international reunion by holing out his tee shot at the third. Mr. Sicard is now busy collecting the rich and varied rewards presented by those firms desirous of encouraging this commendable habit among the golfing on-ers of the world! Viva!

Another reverend gentleman reports this month. Playing with Messrs. W. W. McRobert and M. D. Whelan, the Rev. J. O. Reilly, of Toronto, got an "eagle" at the 170 yard 15th hole at the Weston Golf and Country Club.

And here is a particularly interesting performance to record. The 6th hole at the Bourkevale Park Club, St. James, Winnipeg, is 225 yards. But this did not prevent Arthur P. Bourke making it in one. Arthur, who is only 15 years of age, on Dominion Day last year celebrated Canada's Diamond Jubilee by also making a hole in one shot—the 5th at Bourkevale Park, 170 yards. The Editor rather thinks this dual "one-shot" performance for a fifteen-year-old must be a record for Canada.

A bright young "one-shotter", R. M. Crooks, of Larchmont, N.Y.

Another clever youngster, R. M. Crooks, of Larchmont, N.Y., a pupil, however, of "Jimmie" Anderson, pro of Grand Mere, Que., whilst playing over the Grand Mere course found "the tin from the tee" at the 15th hole, 137 yards.

Once again a member of the Summit Golf Club, Toronto, has made an ace. This time Master Alex McKee, who chose the difficult 10th hole at Summit, 215 yards, for the feat. This is only the second time that the 10th has been made in one. The hole is called "Maekenzie" in honour of Mr. L. V. Mackenzie, a one-armed golfer, who performed the stunt there five years ago.

Gordon Duncan, one of the promising young players of the Bayview Golf and Country Club, Toronto, joined the golfing elect when he rattled the cup for a one at the 12th hole at Bayview—166 yards.

The C.P.R. course, Langara, Vancouver, seems to have been designed especially for "one-shot artists". Never a month but it reports for duty. Mr. C. H. Fogg recently recorded the feat at the 5th hole, 115 yards.

The Victoria Golf Club, too, can generally be counted on to be in the monthly picture. Mr. Louis York, one of the club's oldest members, playing with Messrs. L. H. Hardie, J. V. Scrivener and A. H. Ford, over the Oak Bay course "got his" at the 14th, 181 yards. Mr. York three times previously in his golfing career has made a hole-in-one, twice before at Oak Bay and once at Macauley Point.

Playing with Mr. Henry Weiland, Mr. Hal Brennan made the first "hole-in-one" at the new Bathurst Golf and Country Club course, Toronto. He picked out the 5th hole, 125 yards, for the performance.

Mr. H. G. Forson, the popular secretary of the Wascana County Club, Regina, for the first time in his golfing career felt the thrill that comes to every player when he accomplished the 20,000 to 1 shot. Playing on Labour Day with Messrs. W. H. A. Hill, W. G. Hoig, E. B. Jonah, A. R. McKay and F. A. Parker (some "foursome that"), Mr. Forgan negotiated the tricky No. 11 hole, 150 yards, in two better than par. Congratulations.

Mr. A. C. Froome, of the Imperial Life Co., Regina, also recently joined our Hole-in-One Club on the Wascana course. Mr. Froome when he found the cup with his mashie shot at the 15th hole, 120 yards, was playing with three other "Imperialists" attending the annual convention of the Dominion Mortgage and Investment Association—Messrs. H. T. Robertson, Toronto, H. E. W. Phair, Winnipeg, and A. W. Kay, Brandon. This 15th hole had previously been made in one by Dr. H. L. Jackes, president of Wascana, playing with Mr. Gordon Hawley. The feat was also witnessed by General Ormond and Colonel Lister.

R. Borthwick, assistant pro at the Ladies' Golf and Tennis Club, Toronto, is "getting the habit." Playing in a mixed foursome Tournament recently he made the 9th hole, 170 yards, in one. This enabled Borthwick and his partner to win the first prize. Last year he also scored a one.

J. Kelsey, the professional at the Listowel Golf and Country Club, negotiated the 6th hole, 130 yards, in one, which enabled him to register a 35 for the first round. A day or so after Kelsey got an eagle 2 on the Listowel course. This hole is a dogs leg and requires a 275 yard drive to carry over a clump of trees guarding the green.

It is a pleasure to record the first hole-in-one this season from the interesting Granby Golf Club, Que. Mr. A. D. McKenna put Granby on the map during the playing of an inter-club match with Islesmere, Montreal. He selected the well-trapped 5th hole, 165 yards, to join our celebrated club.

Mr. Ralph J. McGuekin made the 10th hole in one at the Pine Ridge Golf Club, Winnipeg, whilst playing over the course with Messrs. W. S. Arnold and C. M. Taylor—a sweet little swat of 205 yards.

The 5th hole at Glendale Golf and Country Club, Hamilton, is 140 yards. Mr. G. E. McLachlan negotiated it in one and gets a year's subscription as a result to this great "F.G.M."

Red Deer, Alberta, is now heard from. Mr. J. T. Gray, of the P. Burns Ranches, Calgary, whilst playing in a tournament there "copped-the-cup" at the 7th at Red Deer—a difficult 131 yard hole on the top of a steep hill and very severely bunkered.

All the way to the Princeton Golf Club, B.C. Here Miss Knowlton, Matron of the Princeton Hospital, earned enduring fame when playing with Miss Vera Carr. She put over a perfect tee-shot at the 7th hole, 119 yards. The ladies fair are always particularly welcome to our "Hole-in-One" Club.

Mr. W. E. Walker, playing with Mr. Z. G. Lask on the York Downs Golf Club, Toronto, negotiated the 8th hole in one.

Mr. P. A. Shultis, a very well known member of the Brantford Golf and Country Club, had the golfer's dream come true when his mashie niblick shot rolled into the hole for a one at the fourteenth. He is eligible for a prize of a load of coal he himself offered for all holes made in one at the Brantford Country Club. Tuff luck!

Mr. D. Van Zie made the 10th hole, 215 yards, in a "birdie" 2 on the Beach Grove Country Club, St. Clair Beach, Ontario, but that, sad to relate, wasn't good enough to win the money. His opponent, Mr. C. H. Briggs, promptly proceeded to hole his tee shot. That's certainly "rubbing it in."

The first "hole-in-one" at the Humber Valley Golf Club, Toronto, this year goes to the credit of Mr. Fred Japp—the 3rd, a 110 yarder.

Playing with the proficient professional, D. T. Pullen, Mr. W. L. Agnew, of the St. Thomas Golf and Country Club, bagged the 8th hole, 160 yards, in a "oneer." Mr. Agnew is a member of the staff of the St. Thomas "Times and Journal" and a director of the St. Thomas Club. A "reptile contemporary" is doubly welcome to our select coterie of "one-shotters."

Mrs. Hamilton Guthrie playing over the Thames Valley course, London, Ont., made the 5th in one shot. The hole calls for a 140 yard carry across a gully and in this instance was made against a strong head wind.

Still another member of the fair sex to register a hole-in-one is Mrs. Jean L. Gilley, of the Pentieton Golf Club, B.C., who holed out her tee-shot at the Pentieton 2nd—155 yards.

C. McFadden, a member of the Humber Valley Club, Toronto, while playing a match with Mr. W. H. Mole, bagged a "oneer" on the 3rd hole, 110 yards.

Total "Holes-in-One" in Canada this season reported to the "Canadian Golfer" up to and including Oct. 10th, 215.

ROSEDALE INVITATION TOURNAMENT

Is Won in a Brilliant Manner by Miss Ada Mackenzie, Who Recently has Been Out of Competitive Golf

THE welcome return of Miss Ada Mackenzie to the realms of competitive golf, after an absence of some months, occurred at the Rosedale Invitation Tournament, October 8th, when she led a field of over 130 players from the Toronto clubs in a competition kindly arranged by the Rosedale Club.

Playing brilliantly the former Canadian Open Champion, was out in 41, one over women's par, and was also one over coming home when she took a 41. It was on the first six holes that her score was spoiled, if an 81 can be classed as a spoiled score, as she took five on the par three fourth and a four on the par three sixth, but from them on she played better than par with birdies on the seventh an dninth and one over on the tenth. The last eight holes were played in par figures. Her card was:

Par .....	Out 555 353 554—40
	Out 555 554 453—41
Par .....	In 455 355 354—39—79
	In 555 355 354—40—81

This is one of the best woman's scores ever returned at Rosedale.

Other scores better than 100 were:

Mrs. F. J. Mulqueen, Toronto Golf .....	43-42—85-5—80
Mrs. E. W. Whittington, Toronto Golf .....	45-44—89-4—85
Miss Maude Smith, York Downs .....	45-47—92-10—82
Mrs. D. A. Reid, Lambton .....	48-46—94-10—84
Mrs. A. Fisher, Lambton .....	48-47—95-9—86
Mrs. J. H. Riddel, Scarborough' .....	47-48—95-12—83
Mrs. R. Gouinlock, Toronto Golf .....	48-49—97-9—88
Mrs. Gordon Ferrie, Hamilton Golf .....	47-51—98-4—94
Miss Cecil Smith, York Downs .....	50-48—98-9—89
Miss Hazel Hudson, Toronto Women's .....	46-52—98-12—86
Mrs. W. G. More, Toronto Golf .....	48-51—99-10—89

The prizes were presented by President Reid of Rosedale. Mrs. Leonard Murray, President of the Canadian Women's Golf Union, replied to Mr. Reid's remarks, expressing the hope that the Rosedale tournament would be followed by similar matches on local courses, as they were a stimulus to the game.

NORTH BAY GOLF AND COUNTRY CLUB

Which was Won by Mr. H. W. Teskey, of North Bay. Iroquois Falls
Will be the Venue of the 1929 Tournament

(Special Correspondence Canadian Golfer)

THE picturesque grounds of this Golf Club are situated about three miles north of the City of North Bay and about one mile east of the new Ferguson Highway on high ground overlooking the city. It can

Although only a nine-hole course, 35 par, the property owned by the club is of large enough dimensions to accommodate an 18-hole and a ladies' 9-hole course, but the directors and their able sec.-treasurer, L. S. Clarke, are keeping within their means and making haste slowly. The grounds are naturally undulating and rolling to one side or the other of the fairways and as streams cross the course on five of the nine fairways, the natural hazards render it fairly sporting without artificial construction. All the greens are quite large and fairly fast, although the sandy loam enables the golfer to pitch-on and hold. The following is the well balanced yardage of the course: No. 1, 270 yards; No. 2, 300 yards; No. 3, 340 yards; No. 4, 260 yards; No. 5, 350 yards; No. 6, 135 yards; No. 7, 540 yards; No. 8, 300 yards; No. 9, 135 yards. It will be noticed that there are some particularly good one and two-shot holes with a corking fine three-shotter—No. 7.

The Northern Ontario Tournament opened on Thursday morning, Aug. 2nd, at 8.00 o'clock, with Geo. W. Lee, President of the Association and Chairman of the T. & N. O. Commission, driving the first ball from No. 1 tee, in front of the club house. The Qualifying Round was then started with George Lee, Matt Fairlie, manager of the Mining Corporation, Cobalt, Fred Anson, of

As a result the four individual shields went to Messrs. Howard Teskey, Bob. Lee, Dr. Nott and Harry Reynolds.

A keen golfer and executive, Dr. B. F. Nott, Sec.-Treas. of Northern Ontario Golf Association, Captain North Bay Golf and Country Club.

The salient features of the day's play were Geo. Lee making an eagle on the 2nd hole of 300 yards, Dr. B. F. Nott, Captain of the North Bay Club and secretary of the Northern Ontario Association, registering the lowest for nine holes with a 33, two below par, in the second round, and Howard Teskey, the ultimate winner, shooting a 73 for the best 18-hole score.

The draws were then made for the main event and the Consolation and play proceeded with on Friday morning, with the finals being completed on Saturday afternoon.

The Consolation tourney was won by B. Little, of Iroquois Falls, with up and 2 to play, while Stokes won over Lee, last year's champion, two up.

The semi-finalists each received a half dozen golf balls.

In the final on Saturday afternoon, playing par golf the fourteen holes that were necessary to decide the Northern Ontario Golf Championship, Howard Teskey took the titular event from J. Stokes 6 up and 4 to play.

The cards of the champion and runner-up were as follows:

Teskey .....	445	443	642	—36
			445	33—19
Stokes .....	455	444	444	—38
			456	44—23

At the close of the tourney the Champion was presented with the T. & N. O. Commission Trophy together with a miniature of the cup for himself, while the runner-up received a dozen golf balls. The presentation of the prizes for the other events were then made by Mr. Geo. Lee, President, assisted by Mr. John Knox, immediate past president of the Association, from Timmins.

At the Annual Meeting of the Association held Friday evening when the North Bay Golf Club tendered the members and visitors a chicken dinner and entertainment the place of meeting was decided as Iroquois Falls for next year and the following officers were elected:

INTERESTING NEWS FROM THE MARITIMES

Miss Bauld, Halifax, for the Eighth Time Wins the Ladies' Championship. C. W. Durrant, Halifax, Annexes the Senior Championship. Gerald Mielke, Halifax, Wins Nova Scotia Championship with a Brilliant Card of 276

(By Wm. J. McCall, Golf Editor Halifax Herald)

DROPPING a three foot putt for a par 3 at the sixteenth hole after having been laid a direct stymie with her opponent's ball on the very lip of the cup, Miss Edith Bauld, of the Ashburn Club, Maritime Golf Champion, successfully defended her title in the final 18 hole round 1928 tournament of the Maritime Branch of the Canadian Ladies' Golf Union at Ashburn (Halifax) by defeating Mrs. D. Leo Dolan, of Gorsebrook Club, Halifax, 3 up and 2 to play. A gallery of several hundred enthusiastic followers of the Royal and Ancient game from all over the Maritimes, the largest in fact, to follow the final round of a ladies' tournament in Halifax, watched the popular Ashburn star dispose of her more youthful opponent from the Gorsebrook Club after a thrilling battle which Mrs. Dolan carried to the sixteenth green. The climax to the most successful meet ever held since the reorganization of the old Maritime Association to the Maritime Branch of the C. L. G. U., had the gallery excited. Two up and three holes to play Miss Bauld placed her mashie pitch about twenty feet past the flag on the "punch bowl" sixteenth, while the challenger's tee shot ended up on the far edge of the green. Mrs. Dolan approached the cup and her putt stopped on the very lip. Miss Bauld had under-estimated her putt and was laid a direct stymie by Mrs. Dolan's ball. To win the match she had to hole out. To knock Mrs. Dolan's in might invite disaster for she would then be only 1 up with two holes to play. After deliberating her shot for a minute or two, the Maritime titleholder demonstrated why she has dominated ladies' golf in Eastern Canada for the past number of years by hooking her ball around that of her opponent to drop into the cup. Miss Bauld is Maritime champion for the eighth time. Indeed a remarkable performance this.

Mrs. Dolan, although defeated, covered herself with glory, for on the last nine holes of the match she demonstrated her ability to overcome a great handicap and stay in the fight to the finish. Three down at the turn following the playing of several holes in which the breaks seemed to be against her she steadied down and was easily the equal of the champion on the way in.

In the Qualifying Round of the Championship, which attracted a field of fifty-six entrants from all parts of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island, Miss Bauld carded a brilliant 77 made up of a 37 out and a 40 in. This gave her a nine stroke lead over Mrs. Dolan who had the second best score and who eventually played Miss Bauld in the final. This score of 77 is easily the best ever made in a Maritime Championship and stamps Miss Bauld as a player of the highest class.

What is considered by many here as another record for ladies, when a mother and daughter were among those to enter the qualifying round for the championship. Mrs. E. N. Rhodes, wife of the Premier of Nova Scotia, was ninth on the list with a 99, while her daughter Sybil, was tied with Miss Carter on the end of the list.

(Note.—The Editor of the "Canadian Golfer" has no record of a mother and daughter ever before qualifying in a Championship.)

The following is the complete prize list of this most interesting Tournament, the prizes being presented in a most gracious manner by Mrs. D. R. Turnbull, Lady President of Ashburn:

Championship—Miss Edith Bauld, Ashburn.

Runner-up—Mrs. D. Leo Dolan, Gorsebrook.

Special 9-hole Competition for ladies with handicaps of 36—Mrs. H. Bauld, Ashburn, after play-off with Miss I. Simpson, Ashburn.

The tournament will be remembered as the most successful meet since formation of the Association. With the entry list near the sixty mark, exceeding by far the number of entrants in any previous tournament, the officials in charge might well be proud of their success. To Mrs. John Stanfield, of Truro, the retiring president of the Association, and who was elected Honourary President at the annual meeting, and Mrs. F. S. Yors-ton, also of Truro, retiring secretary-treasurer, great credit is due for the splendid manner in which all arrangements for the tournament were carried out. These two ladies gave time and energy in making preparations for the meet and at Ashburn throughout the week were the busiest people at the club. They are to be heartily congratulated upon their efforts.

Outstanding too in the success of the meet was the hearty manner in which the Ashburn members welcomed the visiting players, and the round of entertainments planned by them during the course of the week. The ladies were also blessed by the weather man, for he continued to favour them with ideal golfing weather throughout the whole week.

The Open Championship of the Maritimes

The Open Championship of the Maritimes was played at the Brightwood Club for prizes totalling over $200. There was a very good field of entrants from the various clubs in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia. With two consistent rounds of 74-74—148 Harold (Sam) Foley of the Halifax Public Course, Gorsebrook, emerged the winner. "Sam" is a fine all-round pro and his victory was a particularly popular one.

Maritime Seniors' Association Championship

Another Maritime Championship goes to the Brightwood Golf and Country Club, Dartmouth, Nova Scotia. Gerald Mielke's feat in winning the Maritime Amateur Association tournament held recently at Brightwood, was duplicated by C. W. (Charlie) Durrant, the well known Halifax veteran club wielder, who, although but making his first appearance in the "half century class" meet, won the Maritime Seniors' Association Championship in the fourth annual tournament staged at Truro.

To win the championship title and bring the coveted trophy back to Nova Scotia, Durrant played brilliant golf in the second round. After trailing in fifth position at the end of the first day's 18-hole round with a big looking 89, the Brightwood veteran settled down determinedly the second day to register a 43 on the way out, and return in 40, four strokes above par, for a total of 172. He won the title by a margin of one stroke, when A. C. Puddington, of Saint John, who led the field in the opening round with a nifty looking 85, took three putts on the final green to hole out in 88 and a total gross of 173. Last year's champion, J. W. Fraser, of Moncton, N.B., had to be content with 5th place. In third place was G. M. Howard, Brightwood, N.S., and in fourth place Senator C. W. Robinson, Moncton, N.B. Thomas Murray, Sackville, N.B., won the best nett score in the Championship (141). Second best nett score (145), W. W. Appleton, Moncton, N.B.

Other prize winners were:

Class "A"—Best Gross Score—G. M. Howard, Brightwood, 175.

Approaching and Putting—C. W. Durrant, Brightwood, 12; A. C. Puddington, St. John, 12; William MacInnis, Sydney, 12; Senator C. W. Robinson, Moncton, 12 (winner in play-off).

Mrs. H. W. Crowe, wife of H. W. Crowe, past president of the Maritime Senior Association, presented the prizes. Thunderous applause greeted the new champion as he received the handsome silver cup emblematic of the Senior title of the Maritimes. As Mr. Crowe was himself winner of the prize for the best gross score in D Class, Senator Robinson took occasion to make the presentation to him. He congratulated him upon the splendid program of entertainment arranged by him and the committee for the visiting players. Dr. Farish, of Yarmouth, and several other members made very happy speeches, praising highly the work done by the lady members of the Truro Club and the successful outcome of their efforts. J. W. Frazer, the former champion, also addressed the gathering.

Considerable enthusiasm was shown at the annual meeting of the association which was presided over by President H. W. Crowe, of Truro. Practically every club in the Maritimes had representatives and speculation was rife as to which of these four clubs—Brightwood, Dartmouth, Riverside, Saint John, Lingan, Sydney and Ashburn, Halifax, from which written invitations had been received by the secretary, would receive the 1929 championship tournament.

Following the unanimous adoption of the financial reports as submitted by secretary treasurer, A. C. Currie, and the appointment of R. P. Dickson and A. E. Plant, as auditors, a nominating committee was named to appoint the association officers for next year and to consider the applications for the next annual meet. This nominating committee, comprised of Senator Robinson, Hon. F. B. McCurdy, William McInnes, Dr. Farish, A. J. Campbell and A. P. Paterson, submitted their report as follows:

President, Hon. F. B. McCurdy, Halifax; first vice-president, A. C. Puddington, Westfield, Saint John; second vice-president, Dr. G. W. T. Farish, of Yarmouth; secretary-treasurer, A. C. Currie, Riverside Club, Saint John; executive committee, Dr. H. K. McDonald, Ashburn; H. W. Crowe, Truro; W. MacInnes, Sydney; A. C. Fraser, Riverside, Saint John; J. G. Rainnie, Brightwood, and W. K. Rogers, Charlottetown.

It was the unanimous decision of the committee that the 1929 championship be awarded to the Halifax Golf and Country Club, Ashburn, Halifax. Verbal invitations to hold the tournament at their clubs were heard from Dr. Eagar, of Ken-Wo; and Dr. Farish, of Yarmouth.

With Score of 276 Gerald Mielke Wins Nova Scotia Championship

The Halifax Herald and The Evening Mail silver shield will adorn the walls of the Brightwood Golf and Country Club, Dartmouth, for yet another year. Gerald Mielke, brilliant young Maritime Provinces title holder representing the Brightwood Club, added laurels to his crown by annexing the Provincial Championship in the second annual The Halifax Herald and The Evening Mail Nova Scotia invitation golf tournament held over the links of the Abercrombie Golf and Country Club, New Glasgow, N.S. Mielke's playing was a little short of phenomenal. His 276 for the 72-hole medal play match was twelve strokes better than even fours and only four above par figures.

In act, one is able to understand his remarkable playing when it is said that he led his nearest opponent, his younger brother, Frank, the defending Nova Scotia champion, by a total of fifteen strokes. G. Iredale, the "dark horse" from the Truro Club, played a remarkably fine game also to finish ahead of such stars as T. L. McCall, of Abercrombie; Dr. H. Rice, of Ashburne; Nesbitt (Nipper) Ross, the young Abercrombie player, and Bill Dickson and Parker Laidlaw, of Gorsebrook, who finished in the order named. Iredale outplayed the younger Mielke in the final day's play to chop off two strokes of the four which the Brightwood player carried from the first 36 holes of the tournament Thursday. Frank carded a 291, nine strokes better than the score which gained the championship for him last year at Brightwood. Iredale was home in 293, really brilliant golf for his first tournament in this part of the country.

Continuing his brilliant performance of the first day, when he led the field of thirty-two golfers with a 69 and a 70 for a total of 139 for 36 holes, Gerald broke all standing course records at Abercrombie in the second morning round by making the first 18 holes in 65, three strokes under par and completing the tournament program in the afternoon with a 72. Never in the annals of tournament play in Eastern Canada has a player shown such a record for consistency. Out in 36 for the first nine holes of the morning round the Maritime champion then proceeded to make the Abercrombie course look easy by turning in a 29 for the next nine holes. This was five strokes better than par for the course, breaking the old record of 33 held by Sam Foley, the Gorsebrook pro, and equalled by himself on two occasions. With a fourteen stroke advantage over his younger brother, who took a 73 for the morning round, Gerald eased off for the final 18 and finished with a 72. His cards for the day were featured by eight birdies and one eagle.

The following was the prize list in this most interesting Tournament, which attracted players from all parts of the Province:

Championship Shield (Herald and Mail)
—Gerald C. Mielke, Brightwood.

Runner-up—Frank Mielke, Brightwood.

Lowest Nett Score—J. A. Adamson, Pictou.

Lowest Nett Score—(Over 20 handicap)—
J. A. Adamson, Pictou.

Runner-up Nett Score—P. O. Molland, Gorsebrook.

Special prizes, Thursday sealed hole (No. 9)—Won by T. L. McCall, Abercrombie.

Best drive, won by Gerald Mielke.

Most number of birdies won by Frank Mielke, 4.

Friday sealed hole (No. 2) won by Nesbit Ross, Abercrombie.

Best drive won by T. L. McCall, Abercrombie.

Most number of birdies won by Gerald Mielke, 9.

Most number of eagles won by Gerald Mielke, 1 at No. 1.

Following the presentation of the prizes by W. H. Ross, energetic president of the Abercrombie Club, several visiting golfers expressed their appreciation of the fine reception accorded them by the members of the Abercrombie Club. P. O. Molland on behalf of the Halifax players congratulated Mr. Ross, L. D. Payzant, the secretary-treasurer, and Mr. Stewart, who comprised the tournament committee upon the manner in which every arrangement in connection with the meet had been carried out. He also complimented the lady members for the part they had taken in the entertaining of the club's guests. J. E. McKenna, of Pictou, in a happy speech expressed on behalf of his club and other visiting players their pleasure at having had the opportunity of attending the tourney.

L. D. Payzant, who as secretary-treasurer of the committee, gave time and energy to its successful outcome, informed the gathering how the Nova Scotia tournament had been made possible through the donation of a shield by The Halifax Herald and The Evening Mail. These papers, the speaker added, were doing more for the promotion of good sport in the Province than any other agency, and that he wished to thank them publicly for the great interest taken in provincial golf.

The meeting of the committee to decide the scene of next year's Provincial meet failed to materialize as several of the committee members were obliged to leave for their homes immediately after the completion of play. It is understood, however, that the invitation of the Lingan Golf and Country Club, Sydney, will be accepted.

THE PASSING OF A. H. MARSHALL GRAYDON

IN THE death of Mr. A. H. Marshall Graydon, the Police Magistrate of London, has passed away one, who, although not a golfer, was a member of the London Hunt and Country Club, and an ardent lover of outdoor sports, being a devoted horseman and keen lover of fishing and shooting.

Mr. Graydon had not been in strong health for some years past and, quite recently, it was decided that he should undergo the operation from which he never rallied.

Mr. Graydon will be much missed in his home city. He was an upright and honourable magistrate, tempering justice with mercy, and exercising both judgment and common sense in the fulfillment of his duties. He was a sound lawyer, and will be much missed and regretted by his brother barristers.

Mr. Graydon had attained his fifty-seventh year. He was a son of the late Simpson Hackett Graydon and Margaret Pierce Graydon, and was born in St. Catharines. He received his education in the London High School, and at Osgoode Hall, Toronto, and studied law in the office of the late Honourable Duncan McMillan. He was called to the Bar in 1893, and had practised law ever since as a member of the firm of Graydon & Graydon, of London.

He was appointed Acting-Magistrate in 1911, and in 1915 succeeded the late J. C. Judd, upon the elevation of the latter to the Junior County Court Judgeship.

The late magistrate was married on March 7, 1914, to Ismena A. Labatt, daughter of the late John Labatt. Although her husband was not an ardent golfer, Mrs. Graydon is one of the notable women golfers of Western Ontario. Two children survive, Alexander, aged 13, a student at Ridley College, St. Catharines, and Margaret, aged 11.

Besides his family, the late Mr. Graydon is survived by two brothers and two sisters, N. P. Graydon, the late Magistrate's partner in the legal firm, and Westcott Graydon, also a resident of London, Selina Graydon, also of London, and Mrs. Toulman, of New York.

Mr. Graydon was a Conservative in politics, and was a life-long member of the Cronyn Memorial Church, and a regular attendant at the services. The late Magistrate was a Director of the Huron & Erie Mortgage Corporation, and the Canada Trust Company.

Mr. Graydon was possessed of a quaint vein of humour, and was much in demand as an after-dinner speaker. Only a short time ago at the complimentary dinner given to Mr. C. Ross Somerville at the London Hunt Club in honour of his winning the Canadian Amateur Golf Championship for the second time, he made easily the speech of the evening.

There can be little doubt that the worries attendant upon the performance of his duties had much to do with the illness that brought about his untimely end.

His loss is universally regretted by his fellow citizens.

"CHICK" EVANS ENTERS FOR THE "GREATEST MATCH OF ALL"

MR. CHARLES EVANS, Jr., of Chicago, the many times Champion entered for "the greatest match of all," when last month he was married at "The Chapel" Lake Placid Club, New York, to Miss Esther, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Elias Underwood.

Mr. Evans although he has never played in either the Canadian Amateur or the Canadian Open Championships, is very well known and exceedingly popular amongst the golfers of Canada. During the war he participated in several Red Cross exhibition matches in this country, both in the East and West and as a result the coffers of the Canadian Red Cross benefitted in a substantial manner. At Ancaster in 1919 he participated in the International Matches. He was then Amateur Champion of the United States and headed the team of ten players. In the singles he defeated George S. Lyon 4 and 3, in the four-ball matches paired with Eben M. Byers, of Pittsburgh, won from W. McLuckie and W. J. Thompson by the narrow margin of 1 up.

"Chick of the Cheery Smile" is immensely popular with the golfers of Canada, who will wish him and Mrs. Evans the happiest kind of a marital life in which sentiment the Editor of the "Canadian Golfer" begs leave to be associated. May "their fairway" in the years to come be sans hazards and sans bunkers.

A RECORD "HOLE-IN-ONE" SHOT

CABLE from London, September 26th:

British golf has taken a turn for the better.

What was believed the most remarkable hole-in-one ever achieved was credited to-day to George Kirby, Southampton professional, who holed out his drive on the 340-yard ninth hole at the Stoneham Course. This was declared to be the longest hole on which an ace had been made.

This week also saw E. F. Sales, Sunningdale professional, lower Bobby Jones's record for that famous course by two strokes. Sales made the circuit in 32-32-64. Jones scored his 66 in the qualifying round of the 1926 Open Championship.

A third event heartening to British golf was the final of the thousand guineas when Charles Whitcombe, in defeating Henry Cotton, played 34 holes in nine under fours while Cotton was four under.

Note.—The previous long-distance record for a hole-in-one was held conjointly by Messrs. R. R. Burton, the former Oxford golfer, and A. C. Ladd. In 1912 the latter made the 17th at Henley-on-Thames in one (330 yards) and the former in 1920 the 18th at Merton Park in the same figure—Editor (Canadian Golfer).

HIGH PRAISE FOR LOOKOUT POINT COURSE

ONE of the best scores of the season for the course of the Lookout Point Golf and Country Club, Fonthill, Ontario, was made recently by Mr. W. J. Thompson, Toronto, Honourary Secretary of the Ontario Golf Association, who returned a card of 76 for the long and severe test at Fonthill while playing with a number of friends. The former amateur champion of Canada had pars at the seventeenth and eighteenth holes for a 72, but finished with a 7 and 5. "The course of the Lookout Point Club is one of the best tests in the country," he stated. "It is in wonderful shape at the present time. One green is being rebuilt and is being severely bunkered. The new clubhouse is nearing completion. We were informed that the club had had a fine season and had entertained a number of the leading golfers. Walter Hagen played the course just after the Open Championship and made a 78." The party included Stanley Thompson, noted Canadian golf architect; Frank Waterman, C. D. Landell and A. L. Gourlay.

CITY FATHERS DO BATTLE ON THE LINKS

(Special Contribution to Canadian Golfer)

THE Windsor Park Commissioners, Windsor, Ont., having won from a team representing the City Council, forthwith proceeded to throw down a defi to the Board of Education and the match took place over the beautiful new Roseland course, Windsor, on Oct. 4th.

The game was a very interesting one. Unless a recount is demanded, the battle stands as a conquest for the School Board by a margin of five points. The teams played in two foursomes, with points for both low and aggregate.

The educationalists insinuated that the Parks Board members were not fit custodians of public property as they removed so many divots that no park could last long. The Park Board members hinted that they might have won the match had they been as well versed in higher arithmetic as their opponents.

Although John Muxlow, of the Parks Board, turned in an 87, the best medal score of the day, he and Gordon Morton, of the Parks Board, went down to defeat by a two-point margin at the hands of "Tony" Fuerth, Frank Mitchell and Fred Howell. Fuerth shot a 93, while Mitchell and Howell, playing nine holes each, had an aggregate of an even century.

In the other foursome Chairman Don McGregor, of the School Board, paired up with Harry J. Neal to conquer Colonel Wigle and George Klosterman by three points. The Colonel had a 91 to nose out McGregor by a single stroke, but Harry Neal had an 11-stroke advantage over Klosterman.

On aggregate medal scores the educationalists were well in front, using up just 390 strokes to their opponents' 409.

Interesting News of the Men Who Do So Much for the Royal and Ancient Game, from Coast to Coast

The Southern Ontario Professional Golfers' Association conducts interesting professional Tournaments during the season in Windsor and District for a cup presented by Mr. Harry Neal, President of the Roseland Golf Club, Windsor, and a gold medal given by Mr. Stan. Thorne, formerly of the Little River Golf Club, Windsor. Three points are given for a win, two points for runner-up, and one point for third place. The League has just completed a very interesting season with the following results:

Wm. Fox, St. Clair Golf Club.....	20 points
R. McKelvie, Beech Grove G.C.....	9 points
Robert Gray, Jr., Chatham G.C.....	9 points
M. Pothill (unattached).....	7 points
Jas. Boyle, Little River G.C.....	6 points

Fox, who has been playing great golf this season, paired with Mr. A. V. St. Louis, also won the Pro-Amateur Championship of the League.

And here is another one. In a challenge match for a purse contributed by Messrs. Harry J. Neal and H. A. Heffernan, Bill Fox and Bob White, Roseland, scored a decisive victory over Bobbie Gray, Jr., Chatham, and Malcolm Polhill, formerly of Kingsville, but now unattached, at the Beach Grove Club. The match ended on the fourteenth green of the afternoon round, six up and four to play. The match was arranged as a result of a friendly wager between Neal and Heffernan. The latter picked Gray and Polhill to beat any two pros in the district, while Harry Neal backed Whittle and Fox. The wagers were posted, with the money going to the victors.

Challenge matches between professionals for quite large stakes have been quite common in Great Britain for many years and to some extent in the United States, but in Canada they have never been in evidence, until last month when "Jimmie" Johnstone, of Rosedale, and "Andy" Kay, of Lambton, issued a challenge to play any pair of professionals in Canada, best ball 72 holes for $500.

It didn't take long for "Willie" Lamb, of the Toronto Club, Canadian Professional Champion, and "Bob" Cunningham, of Mississauga, to accept the defi and the first leg of the match took place at the Toronto Golf Club. The challengers got off to a splendid start. With a best ball of 36 they were 5 up at the end of the first 18 holes. In the afternoon, however, Johnstone and Kay pulled themselves together a bit and at the end of the second round had reduced the deficit to 2 holes up.

"Bill" Fox, of the St. Clair Club, who is the winner of the Professional League Championship of Windsor and District.

The final 36 holes were played over the Rosedale course. Three down at the twelfth tee on the 66th hole of the match Johnstone and Kay staged a great rally on the last seven holes and by winning four of them and halving the other three they managed to nose out Lamb and Cunningham by the smallest possible margin, namely, 1 up. The match was just as brilliantly played as it was closely contested and the result was in doubt until the end, although with only seven holes to play it looked as if Lamb and Cunningham who had led from the 42nd hole were going to get down in front and defeat the pair that issued the Dominion-wide challenge and it was not until the seventieth hole of the match that Kay and Johnstone drew up to even terms and the seventy-first was the first time that they were in front.

The 72nd hole was halved in fours and one of the best professional matches in the history of the game in Toronto was over.

Both Nicol Thompson, of the Hamilton Golf and Country Club, and Andy Kay, of Lambton, will be in Bermuda this winter. The former has held a professional position there for some seasons, but this is Kay's first visit to the Islands.

Golf may call a promising player away from professional hockey as Gordie Brydson, right wing player of the Hamilton Tigers in the Canadian Professional Hockey League and formerly with the Chicago Cardinals, is considering retiring from the game and devoting all his time to golf. Brydson has been attached to the Toronto Golf Club this season and whenever the opportunity has been offered has shown considerable promise. At present he is considering an offer from a club in the Southern States for the winter season.

Tommy Armour, the Metropolitan Open Champion, and winner last year of the National and Canadian Open, captured the chief laurels in the invitation professional golf tournament concluded over the National Links of America course at Shinnecock Hills, L.I., one of the stiffest tests of golf in America.

It was a characteristic Armour victory for Tommy found himself trailing Johnny Farrell at the beginning of the second thirty-six holes and was also behind at the end of sixty-three holes as Joe Kirkwood had a lead of two strokes. But then came the final nine and a determined fight by Armour who came back in 35, giving him the advantage over the select field competing and a final total of 302. Kirkwood was next with 303, leading Bobby Cruickshank, who left little doubt that he has recovered from his recent illness by some fine shot-making, by a stroke. Cruickshank had 304 along with Bill Burke, the North and South champion. Willie MacFarlane, who won the National Open title by defeating Bobby Jones in a play-off in 1925, had 307, and then came Johnny Farrell, who also won that title this year by beating Bobby by the same method, with 308, Bill Mehlhorn with 309, and Gene Sarazen with 310, Walter Hagen with 312, tied for ninth with Henry Cinci. The prize money amounting to $3,000 was divided amongst the first ten players.

The record for the Manoir Richelieu golf course, Murray Bay, Que., was recently clipped by Neil Young, professional at the Manoir Club at Murray Bay, when he went around in 71, one less than par. Young was playing with Mayor Warburton, of Palm Beach, Fla., and a large gallery watched the course mark fall. The women's record for the course is 76, which was turned in by Mlle. Simone de la Chaume last year. Young is the professional at the Ormond Beach Club in Florida during the winter months. He was formerly professional at the Armadale Club, Scotland, and served four years in France with the Black Watch.

St. Andrews, Toronto, was the scene of an interesting Tournament last month when Arthur Hurlbert, Ontario Open Champion, left the course with the major portion of the prize money offered by the club. The Thornhill professional led in the morning with a score of 71 and finished third in the afternoon with a card of 75, which enabled him to defeat James Johnstone, Rosedale, and Dave Spittal, Uplands, who were tied with 148.

While Hurlbert led the field for 36 holes, it remained for Spittal to establish a course record in the afternoon with a 70. Spittal missed a short putt for a 69, while playing with Mr. George L. Robinson, one of the leading seniors of the Dominion, in the amateur-professional feature of the match. The course record was previously held by Frank Locke, club professional, and was a 71.

The prize-winners of the tournament were: Professional, morning round—Arthur Hurlbert, Thornhill; James Johnstone, Rosedale; Dave Spittal, Uplands; Frank Locke, St. Andrew's; Dave Ferguson, Weston. Afternoon round—Dave Spittal, James Johnstone, Arthur Hurlbert. Amateur and professional—1, E. C. Bowyer and James Johnstone, 150; 2, George L. Robinson and Dave Spittal, 154. Amateur—W. F. Cumming, Riverside, 83, and E. C. Bowyer, 84.

"Big Bill" Mehlhorn who has not been much in the picture this season recently won the Westchester Open Championship at Tuckahoe, N.Y., with a score of 146.

"Jim" Cook, professional of the Stratford Golf and Country Club, Stratford, Ont., is leaving early next month for the Palasades Country Club, Clermont, Fla., 28 miles west of Orlando, where he will again take charge of the course the coming winter season. The club is very popular with tourists including many Canadian visitors. He will be accompanied by his wife and son, Fred, and daughter, Eveline. Mrs. Cook and

Of course, the seashore is always good—with the sun, and the air, and the whole beach for the children to play on. But it takes a hotel like this to make you feel at home. . . . It's a large place, I guess, though I really don't know much about the inside (except the dining-room). Arthur Ham, Redford, Mich., well known on Canadian courses, was runner-up in the recent Michigan Professional Golf Association Championship. He was defeated in the final by E. The Metropolitan professional golf championship went to Gene Sarazen for the second year in succession when the Fresh Meadow star defeated Craig Wood, of Forest Hills, 2 and 1 in the 36-hole final round.

For 21 holes Sarazen outclassed his rival and appeared to be on his way to a one-sided victory. Wood trailed two down at the end of the first nine in the morning round and four down at the end of 18; at this point Sarazen was playing at the top of his game. After halving the nineteenth, Gene took the twentieth and twenty-first to be 6 up.

But Wood was not ready to admit defeat. Playing superlative golf, the Forest Hills star took three of the next six holes to be only three down at the turn. He continued this streak by taking the twenty-eighth with a fine 3, but lost the twenty-ninth by poor putting.

Here Sarazen took a brace and held the long-hitting New Jersey star to halves on the next four. Gene dropped the thirty-fourth when his approach was too strong, but the match ended on the next hole when Wood could do nothing better than half it in four.

Powell River, B.C., Digester:

"Another course record was hung up on the local links last month, when Maurice Boxall, Powell River Golf Club professional, shot a splendid 60 to shatter the course par by four strokes. This constitutes the fourth occasion on which Boxall has beaten the existing par. Shortly after his arrival he negotiated the round in 64. Later, he shot a 63, 62 and 61 respectively. In his latest achievement, he was playing with "Robin" Bell-Irving, our Jasper Park hole-in-one champion."

CANADIAN WOMEN'S SENIORS

Sixth Annual Tournament at Toronto Golf Club Record Success. Mrs. Sidney Jones for the Third Time Wins Championship, with Mrs. D. Coulson Runner-up. Mrs. A. E. Mussen Re-elected President at Annual Dinner. Jolly Dinner Winds up a Jolly Tournament.

THAT very virile golfing organization, the Canadian Women's Senior Association's Sixth Annual Tournament last month at the Toronto Golf Club was by all odds the most successful and most enjoyable in the history of the organization. There were no fewer than 72 entrants compared with 56 last year, and for the first time a three day's tournament was held instead of two. The innovation was voted a great success and at the annual meeting the majority of the members expressed themselves strongly in favour of continuing the three-day fixture in the future.

Mrs. Sidney Jones, well known member of the Toronto Golf Club, as a result of the two days' play, was for the third time crowned champion of the Association, she having won in Montreal in 1923 and again at Ottawa in 1925. Mrs. Jones in winning the title was the only player to break the century on both days, she having a 98 and 99 for a total of 197—good going on the stiff Toronto course and considering rather adverse weather conditions. At the start of the first day's play Mrs. Jones led the field, but she had only a stroke advantage over Mrs. Hamilton Burns, of Toronto Hunt, Hon. Secy. of the Association, while Mrs. A. P. S. Glasco, of Royal Montreal, and Mrs. Duncan Coulson, York Downs, were six and seven strokes in arrears, respectively. Both Mrs. Burns and Mrs. Glasco slipped the second day, and Mrs. Coulson, with 105, came through to take the runner-up position by one stroke over Mrs. Burns, Mrs. Glasco and Mrs. E. P. Clarkson, of Rosedale.

In addition to the championship proper, there were prizes for the best gross scores and the best net scores in each of the three divisions, "A", "B" and "C", as well as for the nine-hole section. One of the features of the tourney was the competition for grandmothers, which was won by Lady Baillie, with 218, while Mrs. E. S. Jaques, of Whitlock, had the best net score in the same event with 178.

Mrs. A. E. Mussen, Montreal, founder of the C. W. S. G. A. and re-elected (for the sixth time), President of the Association.

The following is the official prize list in this thoroughly interesting Tournament:

Annual Meeting of the Association

During the Tournament the Annual Meeting of the Association was held at the Toronto Club House, the popular founder and president, Mrs. A. E. Mussen, in the chair. The president, before giving her address, stated that she felt the time had come when a new president would benefit the Association, but the meeting refused absolutely to allow Mrs. Mussen to vacate the presidential chair and after pressure was brought to bear, Mrs. Mussen consented to take it for another year amidst much applause.

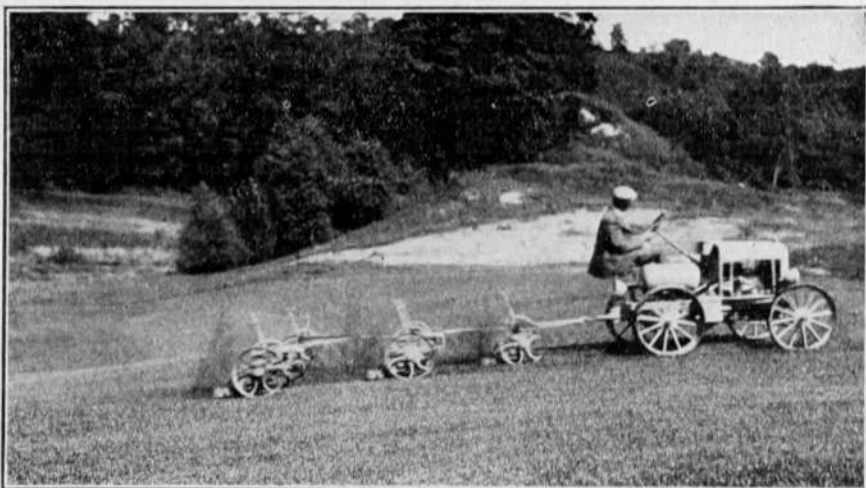

During the course of an interesting address Mrs. Mussen said:

"This our sixth official meeting since our much envied Senior Women's Association was formed and now that we have reached our limit of 150 members—with several on the waiting list—I feel that we should consider extending our membership to those who wish to join us—so why keep anyone of our age waiting outside the door, especially now that we are holding our tournament?"

"I have great pleasure in welcoming to our ranks nineteen new members to whom we wish joy and happiness such as we have had in the past five years.

WORTHINGTON MOWING EQUIPMENT

WORTHINGTON MOWER CO.
Stroudsburg, Pa.

JOHN C. RUSSELL, Canadian Distributor,
132 St. Peter Street, MONTREAL

This season we shall miss one of our first members who only last year attended our annual dinner—our good Mrs. Chas. Hare, who passed away very suddenly last June; also, an honorary member, Mrs. Caleb Fox, who was an outstanding figure in the women's golfing world—known internationally as the grandmother of women golfers. She passed away just a month ago and up to the last she maintained her interest in the golfing world, and actually handled her clubs to some extent last year. This example of health and vigor stands out as a shining light to us, even more, does the great service Mrs. Fox rendered, by untiring zeal on behalf of good clean sport, and warm fellowship among all women golfers.

"This year we have extended out tournament as an experiment to three days instead of two as in the past—inaugurating two-ball foursomes and two nine hole competitions—for those who do not wish the long journey around the course of 18 holes.

"Once again, as I mentioned last year—the membership evidently favour perennials in their golfing garden—for little change has been made in your executive officers and may I repeat that continued tenure of office is not a sign of good health in most organizations."

The very capable hon. Secretary, Mrs. W. Hamilton Burns, Toronto, read the audited financial statement showing a substantial balance in the bank of $852.00.

A discussion took place whether the Association should increase the membership, the limit of 150 having been reached. It was finally moved by Mrs. Deeks, seconded by Mrs. Frank Matthews and carried unanimously that the membership of our Association be open rather than closed and that only those golfers with C. L. G. U. handicaps be eligible for membership. This does not apply to honorary membership.

Invitations were received from the Quebec Golf Club and the Marlborough Golf Club to hold the 1929 tournament. Mrs. Leeming from Brantford also expressed the wish that it should be held in Brantford. It was finally moved, seconded and carried that the place of meeting be left to the committee to decide.

Votes of thanks were moved to the following:

The Toronto Golf Club, the President and Ladies' Committee of the Toronto Golf Club, those who donated prizes, Mrs. F. H. Phippen, convenor of Hospitality Committee, and her committee, Mrs. Dalton, Miss Burrows and Hazlett for their splendid work in looking after the scores, A. Rodger, Esq., for auditing our accounts, the Macdonald Tobacco Co. for cigarettes, the Canada Golf Ball Company for golf balls, Mr. Whitaker, of Ayres Golf Ball Company, for balls, Mrs. Burns for her work throughout the year.

The Convenor of the Nominating Committee, Mrs. S. C. Jones, Montreal, brought in the following slate, moved its adoption which was seconded by Mrs. E. P. Christian, of Montreal, and carried by standing vote:

Honourary Patroness, Her Excellency The Viscountess Willingdon; Patronesses, Lady Meredith, Montreal; Lady Baillie, Toronto; Mrs. Edmund Bristol, Toronto; Mrs. H. D. Warren, Toronto; Mrs. Leonard Murray, President C.L.G.U., Toronto; Mrs. G. L. Cains, Montreal; Mrs. E. A. Whitehead, Montreal; Mrs. H. Horsey, Montreal; President and Founder, Mrs. A. E. Mussen, Montreal; Vice-President, Mrs. Arthur Miles, Toronto; Honourary Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. W. Hamilton Burns, Toronto; Honourary Members, Mrs. Miller, Singleton Park, England; Mrs. Barlow, Bryn Mawr, Penn., U.S.; Committee, Mrs. E. B. Smith, London; Mrs. J. N. Laing, Montreal; Mrs. J. D. Hathaway, Montreal; Mrs. Kidd, Ottawa; Mrs. Geo. Chahoon, Jr., Grand Mere; Mrs. Handsombody, Quebec; Mrs. F. H. Phippen, Toronto; Mrs. W. C. Hodgson, Montreal; Mrs. Brownlee, Ottawa; Mrs. F. Cowan, Oshawa; Mrs. Albert Brown, Toronto; Mrs. R. A. Greenshields, Montreal; Mrs. Sidney Jones, Toronto; Miss Maule, Toronto; Mrs. Geo. Deeks, Toronto; Mrs. E. P. Clarkson, Toronto; Mrs. D. M. Robertson, Toronto.

Annual Dinner a Jolly Affair

The annual dinner took place at the Toronto Golf Club at the conclusion of the Tournament, there being 76 present. Purple and mauve flowers, the Association's colours, ornamented the table. The menu and musical programs were done in the same colours. The favours were golf balls perched on golf tees. Mrs. A. E. Mussen, President and founder of the Association, proposed the toast to the King. Mrs. Leonard Murray, President of the C.L.G.U., proposed the toast to the champion, Mrs. Sidney Jones, who had won it for the third time. Mrs. Duncan Coulson, whose health was also drunk, was runner-up for the second time. The following persons were toasted: Mrs. George Evans, President of the Ladies Toronto Golf Club; Mrs. Leonard Murray, Mrs. F. H. Phippen, Convenor of Hospitality Committee; the players from Quebec, the grandmothers, 18 of whom played in the tournament. Flowers were presented to Mrs. Mussen, Mrs. Sidney Jones and Mrs. Hamilton Burns. Great credit was given the Musical Committee, Lady Baillie, Mrs. A. N. Mitchell and Mrs. E. P. Clarkson, who were responsible for the jolly songs which were sung during dinner. After dinner Mrs. Mussen presented the beautiful prizes to the winners and this most successful tournament was brought to a close by the singing of God Save the King.

All kinds of bright songs to popular tunes were quite one of the features of the dinner. They were sung with great gusto. Herewith the concluding number (to the tune "Show Me the Way to Go Home"):

"I DON'T want to go home,
I'm happy and I want to stay here
Where we have a little drink every hour or so

Which keeps us full of cheer.

I DON'T want to go to sleep,

I DON'T want to go to bed;

I like this dinner so why should I roam—

I DON'T want to go home."

Mrs. Burns writes the Editor:

"The Toronto course was in fine condition and our old reliable standby, George Cumming, looked after the starting, in his usual efficient fashion. Eighteen of the players put up at the Club House and enough cannot be said of the kindness of the President and Ladies' Committee of the club, and Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Armitage were always on hand to look after our comfort and arrange everything for us. The Lambton Club also very kindly accommodated several of our out of town players. The weather was not all it might have been, but at least it showed that though seniors, we were not simply fair-weather golfers."

TORONTO TO HAVE ANOTHER UP TO DATE PUBLIC COURSE

WHILE no authentic details are as yet available, we understand that Toronto is to have another Pay as You Play course to be put in commission early in the spring of 1930 or possibly in the fall of next year.

A magnificent site for this course has been practically secured to the northwest of the city and will be reached by both street cars and bus lines, making it possibly the most convenient open course in the city.

It is expected that 36 holes will be laid out in order that at no time will there be congestion and the plans of those interested include an annual membership of not more than 500 at a nominal fee of $25.00 per year, those signing up after this limit is reached to pay as they play.

There will be no stock qualification as it is understood that the promoters will finance the undertaking themselves.

Messrs. Cummings and Millar have been retained to look after this work.

YOUNG MONTY HILL'S GREAT CARD

(By Golf Editor Vancouver Province)

MONTY HILL, 20-year-old Vancouver golfer, and a member of Quilchena Golf Club, was a visitor at Marine Drive on Sunday, and in the morning round he burned up the course in an astounding manner by shooting the eighteen holes in 62. Jimmy Huish, the club professional, recently established a new course record with a score of 67 but this new record may stand for generations as it equals the world's record for an eighteen-hole course of over 6,000 yards, according to Secretary Andy Smith, of Marine Drive. The great Bobby Jones first established the record at Sunningdale Links in England and later it was equalled by a New Jersey golfer, and now Monty Hill enters the very select circle of the world's record-holding golfers.

Hill's card was as follows:

Out .....	434	343	333	—30
In .....	434	434	244	—32—62
Par—
Out .....	454	344	444	—36
In .....	435	535	354	—37—73

Yardage of course, 6,166 yards.
Analysis of the card, 7 pars, 9 birdies, 1 eagle.

Hill had as his partner Ed. McFarlane and they were playing against Jim Bell and Harry Duker. Notwithstanding Hill's score, Bell and Duker were only beaten by a small margin. In the afternoon round Hill had a 71, so that for thirty-six holes his total score was 133 or eleven under fours.

(The claim that this score of "Monty's" equals the world's record is not correct. Only last month "Joe" Kirkwood, the celebrated trick and championship golfer, carded a 61 over the Lyndchburg (Va.) course, which is over 6,000 yards in length. Then, too, the 6,000 yard Claremont course in California has been done in 58 by J. L. Black. However, Young Hill's card is a very remarkable one indeed. Another error. Bobby Jones didn't make a 62 at Sunningdale. It was a 66, which then constituted a record for that famous course. Only last month a 64 was recorded there, however.—Editor Canadian Golfer.)

"Monty" Hill, who carded a brilliant 62 on the Marine Drive Golf Course, Vancouver. He was also runner-up last month in the Jasper Park Tournament.

A BEAUTIFUL AND UNIQUE CUP

Presented by Mr. Jess Applegath, President, to the Senior Golfers of Mississauga

HEREWITH a picture of the beautiful and unique cup presented by Mr. Jess Applegath, President of the Mississauga Golf and Country Club, to the Senior members of that well known Toronto club. A unique and most interesting feature in connection with this cup is that the winner has his portrait engraved on the base instead of the usual name plate. The trophy was won this year by Mr. M. H. Brown, popular C.P.R. official, with the fine nett score of 64 for the 18 holes. The complete results are as follows:

Jess Applegath Cup—Best nett for 18 holes in all classes, winner, Mr. M. H. Brown, 64.

Best gross—36 holes, all classes, A. G. Donaldson, 84-86—170.

Class A—Age 50 to 59 inclusive—Best nett, 36 holes, C. E. McHardy, 140; 2nd best nett, 36 holes, Dr. E. C. Abbott, 146; 3rd best nett, 36 holes, Dr. J. W. S. McCullough, 147.

Class B—Age 60 to 69 inclusive—Best nett, 36 holes, A. E. Eckardt, 139; 2nd best nett, 36 holes, H. P. Hermance, 141; 3rd best nett, 36 holes, E. S. Munroe, 151.

Class C—Age 70 and over—Best nett, 36 holes, Wm. Radcliffe, 150; 2nd best nett, 36 holes, John E. Hall, 156; 3rd best nett, 36 holes, L. A. Hamilton, 180.

Putting competition, 18 holes—1st, J. R. Harper, 37; 2nd (tie), H. G. Beemer, E. A. Langmuir, D. Foster, 38.

Driving competition, 3 best drives—1st, F. C. Grassick, 589 yards; 2nd, J. Hollis, 583 yards; 3rd, Hugh Johnston, 531 yards.

Booby, highest gross score—36 holes, W. L. Argue, 96-107—203.

DIEGEL WINS THE P. G. A. CHAMPIONSHIP

LEO DIEGEL, thrice Canadian Open Champion, came into his own when he took the measure this month at Baltimore of the best professional aces of American golfdom in match play, and for the first time in his notable career won the Professional Golf Association's Championship of the United States, a fixture which ranks only second to the British, U. S. and Canadian Open. And Canadian golfers especially are well pleased, because if there is a pro who is popular in the Dominion, it is Leo, he of the nervous, jerky, but effective style. He has played in every Open Championship in Canada since 1924 and has greatly endeared himself to the followers of the game in this country, alike as a result of his brilliant golf and unassuming manner both on and off the links.

Diegel was by way of being a bit of a "Giant Killer" during the Baltimore competition, because on his march to victory he accounted for his old rival, Walter Hagen, much favoured to win the event for the sixth time, by 2 and 1, and Gene Sarazen the second favourite, who won the fixture in 1922 and 1923, by 9 and 8, which was certainly "rubbing it in, good and plenty." In the final he also accounted decisively for Al Espinosa by 6 and 5. Altogether a wonderful string of victories of a most convincing character.

When Diegel won the Canadian Open Championship at Rosedale, Toronto, last July he suggested there and then that he and Hagen, British Open Champion, and Johnny Farrell, U. S. Open Champion, should play off a triangular match for the so-called Open Championship of the World. But Hagen and Farrell ignored his claims for recognition. In view of Diegel's great showing last week at Baltimore, it was perhaps as well for them that they did. With the Canadian Open and the Professional Championships dangling at his belt, Diegel ought to be ranked this season ahead of all his rivals.

The largest crowd that had attended the tournament during the week's play saw Diegel close out Espinosa on the thirty-first green at the Five Farms course, after having held the upper hand from the eleventh hole onward. With several thousand persons watching the Chicagoan fighting a useless battle against a golfer who was his superior, especially on the putting green, Diegel clinched his victory by pitching a tee shot four feet from the pin. The match was dormie six at the time, and although he failed to hole the putt after

A popular champion. Leo Diegel, Canadian Open Champion, who wins from all-star field in the P. G. A. Championship.

Espinosa missed one of only a foot, a half was all that was necessary to make him the new titleholder.

By winning the Championship Diegel tapered off the greatest year that he has had since he became a professional. The honour that came his way at Baltimore moreover, was one long overdue, and it was made all the sweeter by the fact that before getting to the final he had to meet and defeat Walter Hagen and Gene Sarazen.

THE LESLIE CUP MATCHES

Creditable Showing Made by the Canadian Team. Ross Somerville, Canadian Amateur Champion, Stars. Match Next Year to be Held in Canada for the First Time

THE Royal Canadian Golf Association again this month was honoured by being asked to send a team of ten players to participate in the celebrated Lesley Cup matches at Mamoroneck, N.Y. This event is one of the outstanding of the U.S. season and is participated in by the leading amateurs of the Metropolitan District (New York), Massachusetts and Pennsylvania and now Canada is also included.

The Canadian team, which was in charge of Mr. B. L. Anderson, Toronto, Secretary of the R. C. G. A., was composed equally of five players from the Ontario and Quebec Golf Associations, viz.: (Ontario) C. Ross Somerville (captain), London Hunt; F. G. Hoblitzel, Lambton; Gordon Taylor, Jr., York Downs; J. A. Cameron, Rivermead; J. H. Firstbrook, Lambton; (Quebec) W. M. Hodgson, Royal Montreal; C. C. Fraser, Kanawaki; A. G. R. Darling, Whitlock; N. W. Scott, Royal Montreal, and J. B. Mickles, Royal Montreal.

It will be noticed that the younger players were greatly in the majority and as it proved the selection was a wise one as Canada made a good showing in the fastest kind of company, especially in the singles, where the team led the brilliant field, amassing 19 points, the Metropolitan Golf Association team totalling 18, Pennsylvania 15, and Massachusetts 8. As a result of the two days' play they ended up in third place.

Last year they were in last place.

A despatch from Mamoroneck, October 6th:

"The Lesley Cup was won by the golfers from the Metropolitan District at the Winged Foot Golf Club to-day. They amassed a total of 31 credits, bringing their score for the two days to 56½, while Pennsylvania trailed with 47½. Canada was third with 42 and Massachusetts, which has had the custody of the historic trophy for the past two seasons, finished fourth with 34 points.

The leading foursomes besides Sweetser and Lowery was composed of C. Ross Somerville, the Canadian Amateur Champion, and Max Marston, National Amateur Champion of this country in 1923. It was Somerville who played the best golf. He not only overwhelmed Lowery by 7 and 6, but he defeated both former United States National champions, Sweetser by 3 and 1, and Marston by 3 and 2.

Somerville, who was out in 36, would have ended his match against both Sweetser, who was struggling with his game, and Marston, earlier, were it not that he himself misjudged an approach shot at the eleventh and then three-putted at the fifteenth. Had he holed a 5 there he would have closed his match against both Marston and Sweetser as he had already beaten Lowery by 7 and 6. But he had to go two more holes before he made certain of his victories.

Somerville seemed to be an inspiration for the rest of his team, for the Canadians played the best golf of any in the singles, including the Metropolitan representatives. The players from the Dominion scored 19 points in the singles, the Metropolitan players totalled 18, Pennsylvania scored 15, and Massachusetts 8.

In the summaries the Metropolitan players are listed first; Massachusetts, second; Pennsylvania, third; Canada, fourth.

The New York papers were quite enthusiastic about Somerville's remarkably fine showing and one or two critics went so far as to state that he deserved to rank second only to Bobby Jones in the American Amateur standing. On the play of the two days, Hoblitzel deserves 2nd place on the Canadian team, Cameron 3rd, Hodgson 4th, Norman Scott 5th, and Gordon Taylor 6th.

The teams during the matches were entertained to a most delightful dinner by the Metropolitan Golf Association, presided over by the president, Mr. Walter Z. Shaffer. Mr. Anderson ably replied to the toast of "Canada" and Mr. Ross Somerville to the toast of the "Canadian Team".

It will be good news indeed to hear that it was unanimously decided to hold these outstanding matches next year in Canada—the first time that this country has been so honoured.

RAPID WORK ON NEW BAYVIEW COURSE

A WEEK after George Cumming and Captain Melville Millar had been authorized to go ahead with the construction of the new Bayview course, Toronto, the southerly part of the new work, comprising eight holes had been completely roughed in and work started on the tees and greens. The layout of the new course will be a great improvement over the original and will provide a number of characteristic and sporty holes which will combine to make Bayview a great test of golf. Weather permitting it is the intention to have everything in shape so that little or no delay will be occasioned in the opening next spring. The work under way just now will not interfere with play over the original course. The new course when completed will have a length of approximately 6,500 yards with a par of 74. Only a few years ago it generally took two years to lay out and build a golf course fit to play over. Certainly "Times change and things with the Times."

RECORD ENTRY FOR MONTREAL LADIES' FIELD DAY

THE concluding field day of the Quebec Branch of the Canadian Ladies' Golf Union held over the course of the Mount Bruno Golf Club, Montreal, attracted a record field of 172 entrants. With the very good score of 93 over the very difficult Bruno course Miss Kate Robertson, of Beaconsfield, led "the pack." Mrs. David Wanklyn, Royal Montreal, was second with 95, while Miss Dora Virtue, Whitlock, provincial titleholder, turned in a 96. Other scores of 100 or better were, Mrs. H. R. Pickens, Marlborough, 97; Mrs. C. C. Ronalds, Mount Bruno, 98; Miss M. Lockhart, Royal Montreal, 99; Mrs. R. H. Irwin, Royal Montreal, and Miss Levasseur, Quebec, 100. The scores were somewhat high, the rolling greens of the Mount Bruno course proving a stumbling block for the lower handicap players.

Of the original entry of 184 for the final event of this popular series, there were only 12 scratches. No post entries were accepted, though some 20 were offered. The large field finished before dark, the following being prize winners for the day:

Silver Division—Low gross, Miss K. Robertson, Beaconsfield, 93; low nett, Mrs. David Wanklyn, Royal Montreal, 82.

Bronze Division—Low gross, Miss Levasseur, Quebec, 100; low nett, Mrs. Bruce Robb, Kanawaki, 78.

First nine for 36 handicap—Mrs. F. W. Tetley, Marlborough, 67; best 18 for 36 handicap players, Mrs. O. Irwin, nett 80.

The Kate Campbell Cup for team play in the bronze division, a season's event, was won by the Kanawaki golfers, who, down five to Summerlea's team starting out yesterday, won out.

The luncheon, distribution of field day prizes won this season and the annual meeting will be held at the Mount Royal Hotel on Monday, Nov. 19th.

SOME ECHOES OF THE LADIES' CHAMPIONSHIP

Open Event at Beaconsfield, Montreal, is a Record One in Every Respect. Mrs. Leonard Murray Re-elected President of the C.L.G.U. at Annual Meeting Held During Tournament, and Mrs. M. K. Rowe, Hon. Secy.-Treas.

(Special Contribution to Canadian Golfer)

HEREWITH in tabloid form the outstanding incidents at the Canadian Ladies' Open Championship at Beaconsfield, Montreal, the week of September 10th. As already reported in last month's issue of the "Canadian Golfer" the championship was won by Miss Virginia Wilson, Onwentsia Club, Lake Forest, Ill., who defeated in the final Miss Peggy Wattles, of the Buffalo Country Club, Buffalo, N.Y., by 5 and 4:—

One hundred and fifteen players teed-off on the opening day.

The field was the most representative one in the history of the Championship.

Seventeen Canadian players and fifteen American players qualified for the Championship Flight.

One English entry, Miss Theodore Tetley, Denham, lost in the play-off for last place. Scores of 78—Miss Virginia Wilson and Miss Peggy Wattles—lowest in the qualifying round, and 95 highest, showing standard of ladies' golf greatly improving each year.

Among the Americans competing of National rating besides the winner and runner-up were Miss Helen Payson (last year's title holder), Mrs. Lee Mida, Miss Edith Quier, Mrs. Dalton Raymond (who defeated Mrs. F. J. Mulqueen, Toronto, at the 19th hole), Miss Jane Brooks, Miss Norma Toerge, Miss Rosalie Knapp and Miss Dorothy Richards. Mrs. F. C. Letts, a particularly well known U. S. player failed to qualify.

Miss Marian Wilson, of Victoria, the B.C. champion, was a British Columbia entry. She qualified with 86 and her play was much admired. Subsequently beaten by Miss Evelyn Mills, Royal Ottawa. Miss Mills played consistently good golf throughout the week as did also Miss Helen Paget, Royal Ottawa (semi-finalist), Mrs. F. J. Mulqueen, Toronto, and Miss Dorothy Virtue, Whitlock, Montreal (Quebec Provincial Champion).

A number of juniors distinguished themselves. Notably Miss Catharine Beer, Beaconsfield, who qualified, and the 16-year-old Miss Barbara Tooke, daughter of the President of the Ladies' Section of the Beaconsfield Golf Club.

There were four entries from the Maritimes and literally a Coast to Coast entry, showing the National character of the Championship.

Too much praise cannot be vouchsafed Captain Forster, President of the Beaconsfield Golf Club; Mrs. F. A. Tooke, the Lady President of Beaconsfield, and their Committees for their splendid co-operation throughout Tournament week. "Beaconsfield out-did Beaconsfield" in kindness and hospitality.

A particularly able golfing executive—Mrs. Leonard Murray, Toronto, for the tenth time has been elected President of the C. L. G. U.

Miss Campbell, President of the Quebec Branch of the C.L.G.U., Mrs. J. W. Ross, Mrs. E. P. Christian, Hon. Secretary, and other officers of the Quebec Branch co-operated enthusiastically with Mrs. Leonard Murray, President, Mrs. M. K. Rowe, Hon. Secretary, and other officials of the C. L. G. U. under whose auspices the Championship was so successfully conducted.

The thanks of the C.L.G.U. and entrants are also due and heartily extended for many courtesies received at the hands of Mrs. F. A. Mann, chairman, and members of the Accommodation Committee, whose arrangements were greatly appreciated. To the men members of Beaconsfield for so graciously giving up their rooms for the week. To Mr. F. B. D. Larken, of Beaconsfield, the secretary, for his unflinching kindness and attention at all times. To Albert H. Murray, Beaconsfield's efficient professional, who rendered much assistance, and to A. D. Hill, the greenkeeper, and his staff, who worked so energetically and well in keeping the fairways and greens right up to "concert pitch" throughout a "divotting week."

Mrs. M. K. Rowe, Toronto, re-elected Hon. Secretary-Treasurer of the C. L. G. U. "and a right good Secretary, too."

The dinner at the club house Wednesday evening, Sept. 12th, was of a most delightful character. All the players were the guests of Mrs. Tooke and members of the Ladies' Section of the Beaconsfield Club, who proved themselves hostesses worthy of the best Montreal traditions.

The following is the official prize list. In addition to the Championship the matches in all the flights were very keenly contested. The prizes this year were particularly handsome:—

Champion—Miss Virginia Wilson, Onwentsia Club, Lake Forrest, Ill. Duchess of Connaught Gold Cup and Replica, special prize presented by President and Directors of the Beaconsfield Golf Club, beautiful rose bowl.

Runner-up—Miss Peggy Wattles, Buffalo Country Club, Buffalo, N.Y., Sheffield salver, prize presented by the Royal Canadian Golf Association.

Best Gross (18 holes of qualifying round)—Miss Virginia Wilson, Miss Peggy Wattles, scores 78 (tie), special prize presented by Mrs. Murray. Mrs. Lee Mida, Miss Helen Paget, Miss Edith Quier, scores 81 (tie).

Best Nett (Canadian player)—Mrs. Maude Ross, Royal Ottawa Golf Club, gross score 81, nett score 74, C.L.G.U. Bowl.

Semi-finalists—Mrs. Lee Mida, Butterfield Country Club, Chicago, Ill.; Miss Helen Paget, Royal Ottawa—C. L. G. U. prizes.

Canadian team shields, R.C.G.A. Shield, four team prizes—Royal Ottawa Golf Club, Miss Helen Paget, Mrs. Maude Ross, Miss Frances Sharpe, Miss Evelyn Mills. Toronto Golf Club team second.

Championship Consolation—Winner, Miss Rosalie Knapp, Women's National Golf and Tennis Club, Glenhead, L.L.; runner-up, Miss Evelyn Mills, Royal Ottawa.

First Flight—Winner, Miss Kate Robertson, Beaconsfield; runner-up, Miss Eileen Kinsella, Senneville Golf Club.

Second Flight—Winner, Mrs. H. R. Pickens, Marlborough; runner-up, Mrs. J. W. Nicoll, Beaconsfield.

Third Flight—Winner, Mrs. Victor Sifton, Toronto Golf Club; runner, Miss Peggy Yuile, Royal Montreal.

Fourth Flight—Winner, Mrs. A. W. Horwood, Royal Ottawa Golf Club; Miss Anne Foster, Beaconsfield.

Fifth Flight—Winner, Mrs. E. M. Rougire, Royal Ottawa; runner-up, Miss M. Nicoll, Beaconsfield.

Annual Meeting of the C. L. G. U.

On Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 12th, the annual meeting of the Association was held at the Beaconsfield Club House with a large and enthusiastic attendance. Mrs. Leonard Murray, President, Toronto, was in the chair and other national officers present were Miss Campbell, Montreal, President of the Quebec Branch; Miss Haslett, Hamilton, President of the Ontario Branch; Mrs. H. H. Matthews, Ottawa, National Handicap Manager; Miss Evelyn Mills, Ottawa, Chairman of the National Pars Committee, and Mrs. M. K. Rowe, Toronto, Hon. Secretary-Treasurer.

Many matters of importance were discussed. Three invitations for the Open Championship in 1929 were received, viz., from the Maritimes, Hamilton Golf and Country Club, and the Brantford Golf and Country Club. The incoming executive will make the selection later on.

The following officers were unanimously elected: President, Mrs. Leonard Murray, Toronto; Mrs. M. K. Rowe, Hon. Secretary-Treasurer; Mrs. H. H. Matthews, National Handicap Manager; Miss Evelyn Mills, Chairman National Pars Committee.

Mrs. Murray tendered her resignation to take place next year "or when a suitable successor could be appointed," but the meeting would not listen to such a proposal.

In a very able and comprehensive manner, the very capable Secretary, Mrs. M. K. Rowe, who succeeded to the position last December upon the resignation of Miss Inez Allan, in the course of a comprehensive report referred to the satisfactory financial standing of the Association, a substantial cash balance being carried forward. There are now 171 clubs affiliated with the Association, an increase of 14 over the previous year. Reference was made to the Western trip last April to form an Alberta Branch during the course of which the Manitoba and Saskatchewan Branches were also visited. The past year had witnessed advancement "all along the line." The Provincial reports submitted were also most interesting. Altogether a wonderful and most encouraging meeting. To-day the C. L. G. U. is truly a "National Organization."

THE REAL NEED

Recent press cables report that British golfing authorities are contemplating making the game of golf more difficult.

The game of golf's too easy, so
 The experts now declare,
 And plan their best to make the test
 More difficult to bear.
 The ball they would increase in size
 And make it so much lighter,
 Yet most of us still fume and fuss
 Because we dub the blighter.

I don't much mind a bigger ball.
 But still, upon my soul,
 I think with me you'll agree,
 We need a bigger hole.
 A hole that will relieve the strain
 Of putting that we suffer,
 And help us all to sink the ball—
 (This goes, for star or duffer.)

TORONTO PRO-LADY HANDICAP

THE 3rd annual Toronto 36-hole handicap competition for professionals and women players of their respective clubs, always so eagerly anticipated, was held Oct. 11th over the course of the Mississauga Golf Course which was in fine shape for the event. Quite appropriately, a Mississauga pair, Mrs. B. L. Cumming and "Bob" Cunningham, annexed premier honours with a nett score of 148, four strokes less than Mrs. Fisher and Andy Kay, of Lambton, who were two strokes better than Miss Wadsworth and Willie Lamb, of the Toronto Golf Club, who had 154. Three pairs tied for the best gross score, Mrs. F. J. Mulqueen and George Cumming, of the Toronto Club; Miss Ada Mackenzie and Lou Cumming, of the Ladies' Club, and Mrs. Fisher and Kay, all of whom had 161's. Kay and Mrs. Fisher had the best card of the day with 78 in the afternoon, while George Cumming and Mrs. Mulqueen had a 79 in the morning to lead the field, and in the afternoon Miss Mackenzie and Lou Cumming turned in another 79. In all 36 ladies and professionals competed, which is a record field for the fixture. The leading twelve scores were:—

Mrs. Cumming and Cunningham, Mississauga.....	82	87	169	21	148
Mrs. Fisher and A. Kay, Lambton .....	83	78	161	9	152

U. S. WOMEN SENIORS DEFEAT CANADIANS

A TEAM of thirteen members of the Canadian Women Seniors' Golf Association journeyed to Rye, N. Y., the week of October 10th and engaged in friendly matches with the U. S. Senior Women's Association over the celebrated Westchester Biltmore course. The U. S. Association has some very strong players in its ranks famous in their day in National Championships and were altogether too strong for the Canadian visitors. The scores:—

Total .....	35	Total .....	4

Mrs. Payson, who Lady Baillie defeated by two points, is the mother of Miss Payson, Canadian Lady Open Champion last year. Unfortunately the Canadian team was without the services of Mrs. Sidney Jones, this year's champion. It is understood a return match will be played in Toronto next season. After the friendly match the Canadian players participated in the U. S. Senior Championship. Altogether they report a most enjoyable visit.

GREAT BRITAIN AND OVERSEAS

Interesting Happenings on the Courses of England, Scotland, Ireland, Wales and the British Overseas Dominions

ROYAL St. David's won the Welsh Team Championship on their own course at Harlech, beating Chester in the final round by seven matches to nil. John Ball, eight times amateur champion of Britain, and now 65 years of age, reappeared after a long absence from competitive golf, and played on the Chester team. H. W. Higginson won the Corbett Challenge Cup with a return of 2 up, and the Carnarvon Cup was won by J. Tudor Owen (Royal St. David's) with 2 up.

FORE—Mr. G. W. Wright, the Proprietor, especially will appreciate a visit from Canadian and U. S. Golfers. They will be made heartily welcome. The best meals and wines and spirits in London are served at "Ye Olde Cock Tavern," and at the most reasonable rates.

Many Canadian golfing friends of Miss Cecil Leitch will be interested to hear that the famous ex-champion golfer has decided to embark upon a commercial career and has gone into business with Mr. Alfred Spero and Mr. Gerald Kerin, at the Clifford Street, Bond Street, international authorities on antiques, furniture, bronzes and porcelains. Miss Cecil has always taken a keen and intelligent interest in such things and will undoubtedly "score heavily" in her new venture. Golfers throughout Great Britain, the United States and Canada will wish her every success in her new sphere of activities.

A writer in the Daily News the other day had a real good story to tell concerning Glorious Gleneagles. Near the King's Course, he tells us, there is a cairn, a pile of stones which was erected from the course during the time when it was being built. It serves as an ornament in the landscape, though the local club legend has it that Sir Harry Lauder, when playing, lost his ball, and that the cairn was erected to the memory of his caddies, who died of starvation looking for it.

Miss Diana Fishwick, of North Foreland, defeated Miss Marion Jolley, of West Runton, by 3 and 2 at Stokes Poges for the Girls' Championship which she also won last year, thereby creating a record in this interesting event. Among the entries for the first time was a German girl, Fraulien Weyhausen. She came over with a reputation that she justified to the full in the practice play, but in the championship proper she did not give her best—she was, however, playing under the handicap of indisposition—and fell by the way in the first round. Her conqueror was Miss Jean Forsyth, West Runton, who won by 5 and 4.

Mr. Ivo Whitton, one of the best known amateurs in the Antipodes, has just won the Queensland Open Championship. The match was played on the Royal Queensland course at Eagle Farm, the winner's score being 296. The feat was a fine one, for there was a big entry of top-notch professionals and amateurs, including Tommy Howard, who won last year on the Yeerongpilly links with a card of 286. Whitton himself was successful as long ago as 1922 at Yeerongpilly.

An interesting feature of this year's match-play championship at Stoke Poges was the appearance among the the contestants of five winners of the Open Championship. They were A. G. Havers, winner in 1923; George Duncan, in 1920; H. Vardon, six times open champion; E. Ray, successful in 1912, and J. H. Taylor, five times open champion. Past winners of the "News of the World" tournament in the field were

H. Vardon (1912), Abe Mitchell (1919-20), R. G. Wilson (1923), J. H. Taylor (1904 and 1908), and G. Duncan (1913). Of these, J. H. Taylor was the only one to reach the third round.

Enid Wilson, eighteen-year-old Nottinghamshire girl, became the English women's closed golf champion this month when she defeated Dorothy Pearson, of Tunbridge Wells, 9 up and 8 to play at Walton Heath. The weather was unsettled, but a large crowd gathered to watch the 36-hole match between Miss Wilson and her 21-year-old rival.

Both players were obviously nervous during the first eighteen holes and play during the morning round was generally poor. Miss Wilson finished four up on Miss Pearson, but had a score of 90, her worst performance of the week's play. Miss Pearson started the afternoon round by scoring the first birdie of the match, when she holed a 15-yard putt for a three. The second hole was halved. Thereafter Miss Wilson won five holes in a row, and was eight up at the seventh, Miss Pearson having had a number of adventures in the heather. The eighth was halved, Miss Wilson winning the ninth to become dormie. A magnificent pitch and run approach to within four feet of the flag for an easy half enabled Miss Wilson to win the match on the 28th green.

The £1000 News of the World Tournament at Stoke Poges which is looked upon as the Professional Championship of Great Britain at match play, produced the most sensational golf witnessed this season. Early the favourites, Abe Mitchell, George Duncan and others were eliminated and the final developed into a battle royal between C. A. Whitcombe of Crews Hill, and T. H. Cotton, Langley Park, generally looked upon as the best of the younger school. Out in the morning with a brilliant 68 to Cotton's 72, Whitcombe established the commanding lead of four holes up. In the first 9 holes of the afternoon round Cotton carded an amazing 32 but Whitcombe had a 34 and was still 2 up. Such golf was never before witnessed in England. Whitcombe eventually won the championship by 4 and 2. Both players had scores of 60 for the final 16 holes played—golf of a superlative character. The following shows how Whitcombe and Cotton "came through":

C. A. Whitcombe beat Len Holland (Gerards Cross), 3 and 2; A. J. Miles (Merton Park), 2 and 1; J. Bradbeer (Porters Park), 4 and 3; R. Walker (Penarth), at the 20th; J. J. Taylor (Potters Bar), 7 and 6; T. H. Cotton (Langley Park), 4 and 2.

T. H. Cotton beat J. W. Gaudin (Alwoodley), 3 and 2; L. T. Cotton (Coulson Court), 4 and 3; H. Swain (Walsall), 7 and 6; W. G. Sanders (North Hants County), at the 21st; H. C. Jolly (Foxgrove), 7 and 6.

THE PASSING OF MR. E. L. KINGSLEY

Representative in Canada of the North British Rubber Co. Ltd., Toronto, and Other Prominent Golfing Firms, Succumbs after Brief Illness.

IT IS with particularly personal regret that the Editor is called upon to record the passing of Mr. Ernest L. Kingsley, general manager of the Toronto Branch of the North British Rubber Co. Ltd., of Edinburgh, one of the largest and most outstanding rubber goods firms of the British Empire. After a brief illness his demise took place on Saturday, September 29th, at his residence 46 Hawthorne Avenue, Toronto.

The late Mr. Kingsley, who was 63 years of age, was born in the United States, coming to Toronto as a lad of 19 and entering the business of his uncle, the late John D. King. After the retirement of his uncle he established a connection with the North British Rubber Co. Ltd., and since that time has carried on their Toronto business in a most successful manner. He was an active church worker and for many years acted as treasurer of the Central Methodist Church, which after Union was absorbed in the Westminster United Church. During the past few years he has been attending the Timothy Eaton Memorial Church. He was a member of both Zetland and Harcourt Lodges, A. F. and A. M., the Scarborough Golf Club and the Ontario Club. He is survived by his widow, Edith Catherine Kingsley, and two daughters, Mrs. E. N. Harcourt and Mrs. D. C. Bastow.

For many years Mr. Kingsley was keenly interested in golf and the golf business of Canada. In addition to the North British Rubber Co. Ltd., manufacturers of golf balls and bags, he also represented in this country, several other well known British manufacturers of golf goods, including Tom Auchterlomie, of St. Andrews, and Tom Stewart, of St. Andrews. For many years he travelled in the interest of these firms from Coast to Coast in Canada and also extensively in the United States and was known and highly esteemed by all the leading dealers in golf goods and professionals.

Mr. Kingsley was a devoted husband and father and a warm and sincere friend. He will be sorely missed in the home circle and by golf and business associates throughout Canada. To the sorrowing widow and daughters heartfelt sympathy will go out from sorrowing friends in all parts of the Dominion.

Life's race well run,
Life's work well done,
Life's crown well won,
Now comes Rest.

THEIR SERVICES ARE IN GREAT DEMAND

FOR some time past Mr. Geo. Cumming and Capt. Melville Millar have contemplated joining forces and devoting a portion of their time to golf course construction, but it was not until recently that they really got together and completed their plans.

No sooner had they done so, however, than they were besieged with requests for reports on contemplated work, both at home and abroad.

Both of them being more or less tied up with their own clubs they have, for the time being, decided to confine operations to Toronto and vicinity and have already made splendid progress with the new Bayview course which they started around the first of the month.

A great many of the better known courses throughout Canada have been laid out by the Toronto Golf Club expert, and in every case have been pronounced perfect, while Capt. Millar has had many years' experience in actual construction work and financing.

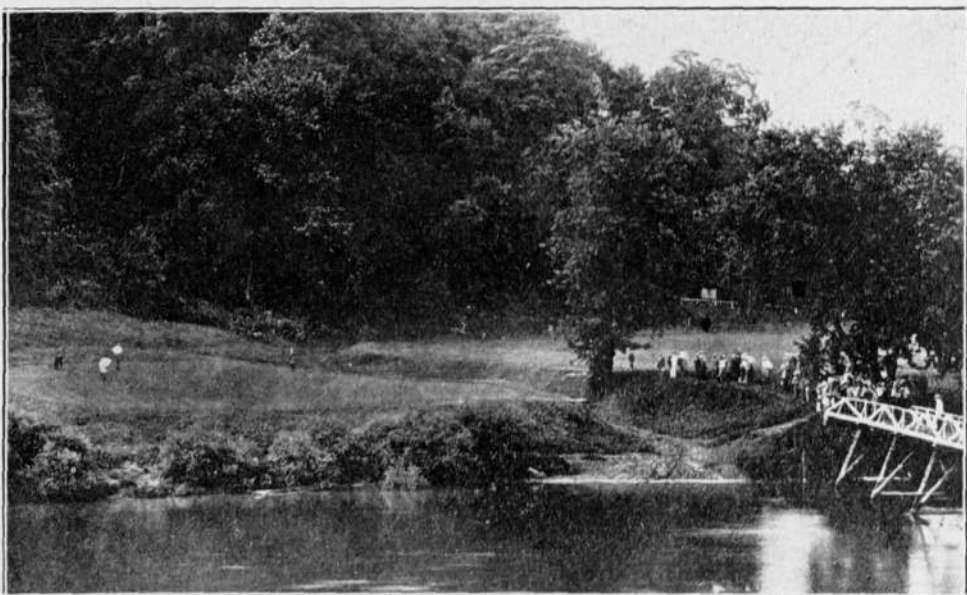

With Mr. Cumming's reputation for layout and Capt. Millar's reputation for painstaking work and economical methods of construction this combination should appeal to any organization that contemplates either the construction of a new course or the revamping of present one.

They have taken on their staff as construction foreman Mr. Geo. Daniels, who for many years was the Stanley Thompson Co. right hand man and in fact, Capt. Millar also joined up with the Thompsons for a time after he gave up Muskoka Lakes.

WORTHINGTON MOWER COMPANY "GOING" STRONG

MR. JOHN C. RUSSELL, manufacturers' agent, 132 St. Peter Street, Montreal, the Canadian representative of the internationally known Worthington Mower Company, Stroudsburg, Pa., has just returned from spending a week at the Company's headquarters. He states that the Worthingtons not satisfied with their past record performances, are still looking for continual improvements in their equipment and making intensive experiments always to that end, all of which is passed along eventually to golf and other clubs and through them to their members.

Their business has increased so much that they are now completing an extension to their plant which will increase the floor space by 100%, with new machinery in proportion, so that they will be amply able to take care of not only increased business in their lawn tractor and fairway mowers, but also for their new power triple putting green mower as well as their 18" high speed hand mower.

All new equipment is tested on their own 18 hole championship course at Shawnee-on-Delaware, which is acknowledged by experts to be one of the most beautiful in Pennsylvania. The links lie in a valley alongside the Delaware River and are surrounded by wooded hills. At this time of the year the colourings of the foliage are literally beyond description.

During Mr. Russell's visit quite an interesting match of International importance took place on this commanding course. Paired with Mr. R. Vanderbeken, Mr. Russell, on the last green and on the last putt, scored a victory for Canada against two of the leading officials of the Worthington Company.

TOLLEY AGAIN WINS FRENCH OPEN

With a Brilliant Score of 283 Defeats All the Leading British and French Professionals

EVERYONE will be glad, including many Canadian friends, that Cyril Tolley, who has been very much out of the picture the past year or so, again has demonstrated that he is still a master of wood and iron. He staged a very notable come-back last month at La Boule, France, when he won in the classiest kind of a field, composed of the leading British and French professionals, the French Open Golf Championship with the particularly brilliant score of 283 for 72 holes or five under par, and La Boule is acknowledged to be a stiff course. His cards were quite out of the ordinary, containing as they did a second round of 68 and a final round of 69—and that is golf at the peak.

Four years ago Tolley also won the French Open with the fine score of 290 (seven strokes, however, more than this year) which was three strokes better than Walter Hagen, the runner-up, who had 293. As a matter of fact, this is the last championship of importance that Tolley has had to his credit before again annexing the French title the other day. He is still only 32 years of age and therefore in his golfing prime. He first sprang into prominence and fame when he won the British Amateur Championship in 1920, defeating "Bob" Gardner, twice U. S. Amateur Champion, on the 37th hole in the final at Muirfield, running down a birdie two to accomplish the American star's downfall, in one of the most thrilling matches ever played in the British Amateur.

Mr. Cyril Tolley, who wins French Open with a record score.

Tolley is generally admitted to be the world's longest amateur driver. In the Open Championship at Troon in 1923 on fourth round he drove to the first green, a distance of 350 yards, and holed his putt for a two. During his visit to Canada in 1924 with the Walker Cup team he had some mighty drives to his credit on the Toronto and Hamilton courses, several well over the 300 yard mark. Putting in the past has been his bete noir. But for his weakness on the greens, he would unquestionably have had many more premier events to his credit. At La Boule, his putter was working beautifully. Perhaps he has at last acquired a consistent putting touch. Let's hope so.

Runner-up to Tolley was Henry Kinch, Surrey professional, who was only one stroke behind. Altogether the British invaders monopolized honours. Charles Whitcombe and Harry Cotton tied for third with 286, while George Duncan and H. C. Jolly were 287. Aubrey Boomer, English-born, but a French entry, finished with a great round of 68, to total 287, making it a three-cornered tie for 5th place. Stuart Dixon-Steffel, American youth, who won the English boys' championship recently, turned in 312.

Abe Mitchell, Arthur Havers, ex-Open champion, and Armand Massy, ex-Open champion, all withdrew after the first day's play as a result of poor scores which effectually put them out of the running.

STOP PRESS NEWS

IT HAS just been announced that the deciding match of the series between Hagen and Farrell for the so-called Professional Championship of the World will be played at St. Louis, on Sunday, Oct. 28th. Each have now two wins to their credit. Following the final match they will go on a barnstorming trip through the Northwest, playing a number of exhibition matches at $500 per. It is also likely that Farrell will remain on the Coast long enough to play in the Oregon Open, the Hawaiian Open and the Los Angeles $10,000 Open Tournaments. Hagen will proceed from San Francisco on his tour of Australia, New Zealand and other countries, returning to England in time to defend his British Open title next May and compete in the Ryder Cup matches. Both aces will pick up the next few months, dollars, ad galore. The winter season is now more lucrative for the leading pros than the summer season.

Diegel Presented with $1,000 Cheque

Leo Diegel, Saturday evening, Oct. 13th, was the guest of honour at the Fenimore Country Club, White Plains, N.Y., where he is the head professional, in celebration of his victories in the Canadian Open and Professional Golf Association's Championships. Elaborate plans were made to make the affair one fitting the winner of two of the most important events of the golfing year. Leo during the dinner, was presented with a cheque for $1,000 tendered him on behalf of an appreciative club membership. He expects to leave for the Coast this month to take part in all the big money tournaments scheduled there the next few months and will play exhibition matches en route in New Orleans, Denver, Colorado Springs and Pueblo, to break the monotony of the trip.

Johnstone-Kay Again Win

Almost immediately after taking the measure of Bob Cunningham and Willie Lamb, Jimmy Johnstone and Andy Kay were challenged this month to another $500 encounter by the well known Eastern professionals, C. R. Murray, the Royal Montreal Golf Club, twice Open Champion of Canada, and Ernie Wakelam, of the Brockville Country Club.

The first 18 holes were played at the Royal Montreal Golf Club, where the Toronto experts led by three holes.

Next day at Brockville they increased this lead to seven up.

The third 18 holes were played at Lambton, and here the Easterners had to submit to a further defeat, their opponents making it "ten up."

Rosedale witnessed the conclusion of this interesting encounter. It was only necessary to play eight holes of the final eighteen, Johnstone and Kay recording a 11 and 10 victory. The winners played exceptionally fine golf throughout the series. Kay for the 63 holes carded a total of 255 or a fraction over fours.

Frank Locke, St. Andrews, Toronto, and Davie Spittal, Uplands, Toronto, have now challenged Johnstone and Kay for another $500 bout.

MRS. WHITTINGTON WINS TORONTO CLUB CHAMPIONSHIP

THE ladies' section of the Toronto Golf Club held their official closing October 10th, when the final of the club championship competition was played, a field day held and the prizes presented to the winners of the various matches conducted during the season. The feature event of the day was the final for the club title between two former provincial champions, Mrs. E. W. Whittington and Miss Ada Mackenzie, the match being won by the former by the smallest possible margin, 1 up. In the semi-final round Mrs. Whittington eliminated Mrs. F. J. Mr. Alex. Simpson, of Minnesdosa, Man., recently left there to take up his residence in Toronto. Before his departure the Football Club tendered him a banquet where he was presented with the Hodgson Cup as captain of the Victoria Hodgson soccer team. Mr. Simpson, who has taken part in many branches of sport, is perhaps best known for his ability as a golfer, being a finalist in the Winnipeg Free Press tournament of 1927. A few nights previous to the football's club presentation, Mr. Simpson was banqueted by the local golf club, when he was presented with a suitable token as a mark of the respect in which he is held. He was the winner of the Swaisland Golf Cup this year.

There is a town in Ontario having only four ratepayers, and last year it appropriated $30,000 for sports (including the upkeep of a particularly interesting 9-hole golf course), according to Hon. William Finlayson, Minister of Lands and Forests, who addressed the Electric Club of Toronto recently. Iroquois Falls, he stated, has four ratepayers—the Orange Lodge, the Knights of Columbus, the Royal Bank of Canada and the Abitibi Power and Paper Company. The Municipal Council is elected in the same manner as the civic heads of any other town. The power and paper company paid all the taxes for the population of about 4,500. "It is a very interesting experiment in Labour that seems to be working out satisfactorily," he believed.

For the second time in as many years Nicol Thompson, Jr., annexed the Hamilton city and district championship. Playing over the Glendale course against 64 of the best local amateurs, he turned in a card of 78. He had to be at his best, as his brother Joseph, Harvey Somerville and C. L. Carey were close throughout, the trio turning in cards of 79 to be prize-winners.

G. F. Clark and A. R. Tarlton tied for the low nett prize with 72, with W. A. Kennedy and H. E. Rowland in a tie for second place with 73. The other prize-winner in this event was Dr. McLeod, with 74.

Following the amateur match the four local professionals played for the President Ellis Cup, and this resulted in victory for James Hunter, Glendale professional, with a card of 76. Nicol Thompson, Sr., Ancaster, was second by one shot, and Alf. Sims, Chedoke, third, with 78. Andy Anderson, Burlington, brought up the rear with an 85. A party of golfers from Detroit visited Simcoe, Ont., recently to look over the place from the standpoint of its facilities as a short vacation jaunt in summer. They were received by as many members of the local Golf Club who played the course with them and entertained them to lunch at the club at noon. In the evening the visitors turned hosts and entertained their hosts of the day to dinner at the Battersby House. It was 10 o'clock when the party broke up and the visitors protested that they had found an ideal spot for a respite and recreation. They will come again next year.

Some thirty professionals and assistants competed in the 36-hole medal competition at the Weston Club, Toronto, October 10th, and although the scoring was somewhat high, owing to the strong and changing wind that prevailed both morning and afternoon, there was close competition and two players tied for first prize and two more for fifth. Two former titleholders, Jimmy Johnstone, of Rosedale, 1925 and 1926 Canadian P.G.A. champion, and Andy Kay, former Ontario Open champion, tied for first prize with 152's, while the present Ontario titleholder, Arthur Hurlbert, of Thornhill, was third with 156, and Willie Lamb, the P.G.A. titleholder, was fourth with 158.

Par for the course is 71 and the unofficial record is 66 but neither was threatened at any time. Johnstone had a 75 in the afternoon to catch Kay, who had two consistent rounds of 76, while Willie Lamb came from quite a distance back at the halfway mark to finish fourth with a 75 in the afternoon. Kay was setting the pace at noon with a 76, closely followed by Johnstone and Davie Ferguson, the Weston pro, with 77's. Hurlbert made a 76 in the afternoon, while L. H. White, of Glen Stewart, came in with a 77 to tie Frank Lock, of St. Andrew's for fifth place, Lock having two 80's. There were six prizes for the professionals and three for assistants, the prize winners in the latter class being W. P. Crompton, of Weston, 164; Jack Littler, Scarborough, 165, and Archie Bloor, York Downs, 166.

The annual golf match between the Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs, London, Ont., provided no end of enjoyment to about 50 players at the Highland Golf Club. After the match, which the Kiwanians won by 36 to 19, a banquet concluded the affair, which proved to be a beneficial get-together event, as it was decided to accept a trophy to be awarded by J. J. McHale for a five-event competition between the two clubs, to include volleyball, alley bowling, spelling match, golf and softball, commencing early in January. Committees were appointed to arrange the details, and a step toward better citizenship was launched, as it was decided to name a citizens' committee to bring out real business men as representatives of the city in municipal affairs. Dr. Percy C. Banghart presented D. T. Thompson, Chairman of the Kiwanis Sports Committee, with a trophy, emblematic of the golf championship. This was a novelty in which a tea-pot, funnel, grater, egg-beater and three golf balls were welded together in a beautiful design and silver plated.

Floyd Marshall and John A. Nash, respective Presidents of the Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs, spoke at the banquet.

Mr. J. Forbes captured the principal event of the fall field day of the Cedar Brook Golf and Country Club, Toronto, when he won the low gross prize for the match with a score of 84. H. Bengate and A. J. Meade tied for low nett with scores of 71. Stringing aluminumware across the first fairway, 175 yards from the tee, to be awarded to each player as he struck a piece with his drive, the committee in charge provided a unique feature to the match. Arthur Allison was the only player to win a prize in this event, and carried home a kettle. The remainder of the aluminumware was given to the women players who finished their eighteen-hole rounds. Prizes for the match were donated by W. Phelan, A. E. King, C. Howard, George Edmunds, G. Z. Reynolds, Mrs. Leyland, Mrs. Fanning, Miss Cory and James Hewitt.

The results were:

Low gross—Jack Forbes, 84. Low nett—H. Bengate and A. J. Meade, 71.

Driving—Fred Dufford, 702. Putting—Stanley Lawson.

The greatest number of 4's—John Fanning (7).

Low gross—Mrs. J. Garrick, 103. Low nett—Mrs. J. Garrick, 103-22—81.

Driving—Miss N. Morrison. Putting—Mrs. J. Hewitt.

Sealed hole—Miss S. Baldwin.

Despatch from Moncton, N.B., Oct. 2:—

"His Excellency the Governor-General arrived from Grand Falls, by special train on the Canadian Pacific Railway last night. This morning His Worship Mayor C. J. Jones, waited upon His Excellency, informally, and extended greetings on behalf of the corporation and people of the town of Woodstock. An invitation to play over the course of the Woodstock Golf Club was accepted by His Excellency and with the mayor he spent the morning playing golf. Luncheon was served aboard His Excellency's train. This afternoon the Governor-General again went over the golf course with Mayor Jones and enjoyed the game under excellent weather conditions."

The ex-service members of the Rosedale and Lambton Golf Clubs to the number of 36 a side headed by Col. Royce for Lambton and General R. Rennie for Rosedale engaged in a friendly match last week at Rosedale. Strange to relate the match ended in a tie, each team scoring 47 points. R. M. Gray returned the best card of the day, a snappy 72. Following the game the Lambton players were the guests of the Rosedale Club at dinner.

Three golf champions—Johnny Farrell, U.S. Open title holder; Leo Diegel, Canadian Open title holder and new king of the professionals, and Walter Hagen, British Open winner—conferred last week in New York with Hans Samek, Berlin clothing manufacturer and golf booster, over details of a trip by the members of the American Ryder Cup team to Berlin next year to play in the German Open tournament. The trip to Germany is virtually assured. The dates of the German Open will be fixed accordingly, either for the last Saturday or Sunday of April or for May 15 and 17, which would be after the British Open and the Anglo-American Ryder Cup matches.

A despatch from Belleville, Oct. 10th:—

"Nicol Thompson, of Hamilton, one of the popular golfers of Canada and who has won many championships, was to-day the guest of the Belleville Country Club. He is an architect of note in dealing with golf courses and after playing eighteen holes over the course offered suggestions to the directors of the country club as how to best improve their course. A dinner was held in the evening at the club house at which the Hamilton expert gave valuable information relative to beautifying the golf course and grounds."

Despatch from Windsor, Ont, Oct. 16th:—

"The Windsor Park Commission to-day promised to consider William R. Woollatt's offer of a 100-acre site for a golf course in return for the use of the city-owned Jockey Club Park for another two weeks of racing next summer.

"The site Woollatt offers is in Sandwich West Township, near the River Canard, and eight miles from the City of Windsor. Mr. Woollatt says it is ideally located for a golf course, and offers the deed in return for a lease of the Jockey Club Park for two weeks' racing in 1929."

The Southern Ontario Professional Golfers' Association members played hosts to a number of their enthusiastic boosters among the amateurs at a special and final pro-amateur gathering at Beach Grove. Twenty-one enjoyed the month's most ideal weather for the outing.

With three prizes for professionals and three for amateurs, the chief honours went to Bill Fox, St. Clair pro, and W. G. McGregor, Essex amateur.

Fox turned in a 74 to lead his rival professionals. He played 14 holes in par and had two eagles, but a seven on a par-four hole, the fifth, left him two over par for the eighteen. He came home in 35, one under even fours. His card read:

Out .....544 473 444—39

In ..... 353 444 444—35—74

Jimmy Boyle, of Little River, was the runner-up to his old boss at St. Clair. He was out in 37, but slipped a bit coming home, taking a 38, for a total of 75. Jack Burns, of Essex, was two strokes back, with a 77, and Bob Whittle, of Roseland, fourth, with his 78. Bob McKelvie and Andy Wallace, of Beach Grove, Bob Grey, of Leamington, and H. Dixon, of Kingsville, were all on the 80 mark.

McGregor, in winning the amateur section, shot a 90, and his handicap of 24 gave him the unbeatable nett count of 66. Bill Schacht, of St. Clair, followed with a 87-15—72, and third prize went to C. Ripley, of Beach Grove, 101-28—73.

The annual ladies' field day of the Norwood Golf Club, Winnipeg, resulted as follows:

Mrs. McKinnon and Miss Fortier won the two-ball foursome. Miss K. Vanetta won the driving competition, and Mrs. Cradock the approaching and putting competition.

The following competitions were also concluded:

President's prize—Best medal score handicap for 36 holes, won by Mrs. A. F. McKinnon.

Bruce Trophy—Handicap play-down, won by Miss Nancy Thompson.

Ringer board for the season, won by Miss Eva Quigley.

A new ladies' golf champion was crowned at the Norwood course, Winnipeg, this month when Mrs. Fletcher Bowser defeated Miss K. Vanetta, the former titleholder. The contestants played splendid golf throughout the entire 18 holes and Mrs. Bowser was taken to the final green before the match was decided.

Jack Cuthbert came back to form this month to win once again the championship of the Norwood Golf Club, Winnipeg. Playing brilliant golf the many times champion defeated Bryan O'Kelly decisively by 12 and 11. The winner's long game was not quite up to his best standard, but he excelled in every department of the short game, and putted brilliantly throughout. His scoring was good, he finished the first 18 in 75, and was 2 over fours for the balance of the game.

Walter Hagen, British Open Champion, carded a 71 to lead three other professional stars in an 18-hole medal-play exhibition at the Westchester-Biltmore Club, Rye, N.Y. The exhibition was for the benefit of the Catholic Writers' Guild of America. The Haig was out in 36, even par figures, and came back in 35, one under par. The 71 total was three strokes better than the next best score, made by Johnny Farrell, American Open titleholder. Billy Burke, North and South Champion, was third with 75, and Leo Diegel trailed with a round of 77.

The ladies of the Cataraqui Golf and Country Club, Kingston, certainly believe in an early start, and it is a good idea, in getting ready for 1929 activities. This month they elected their officers as follows for next season:

President, Mrs. T. A. McGinnis; vice-president, Mrs. E. C. D. McCallum; secretary, Miss Clara Farrell; assistant secretary, Mrs. Fraser Armstrong; treasurer, Miss Edith Caruthers; handicap committee, Mrs. Halloway Waddell (captain), Mrs. Gilbert Beeman and Miss Caroline Mitchell; house committee, Mrs. Stewart Robinson and Mrs. Ernest Sparks; entertainment committee, Mrs. Horace Lawson.

Mrs. J. G. M. Porter won the Gilbert Medal for the third consecutive year at the St. Thomas Golf and Country Club, St. Thomas, Ont., defeating a large field of women golfers. Her score was 94 for the 18 holes, which with her handicap of 17, left her with a nett score of 77.

Quite a pretty romance of the links is reported from Paris. Mlle. Nanette Le Blan, the French holder of the British Women's Open Championship, it is just announced has become engaged to the brother of Mlle. Simone Tion de la Chaume, the only other French player who has ever held the British women's title.

The Winnipeg Free Press every day runs a "Looking Back" column of 35 years ago. In its issue of October 2nd, 1893, the "Free Press" called attention to the fact that golf was being introduced into the United States and was making a great hit and published a description of "how to play the newly arrived game". This makes rather amusing reading to-day considering Winnipeg has now over a score of clubs and thousands of golfers who certainly do not require to be taught "how to play the game."

So many of my friends have made the Hole-in-Two this year that I am determined to win the beautiful Mercury prize myself either this season or next.

That's the Spirit!

Many ladies have written us to know if there is to be another Mercury Hole-in-Two Competition next year.

Some wish the opportunity of winning another set of Mercury Silk Lingerie and Full Fashioned Hosiery. Others wish a still further chance to enjoy this thrill for the first time.

While it is a little too early to say positively, we rather think that the very popularity of the competition gives it every right to be continued another season.
