Rules of the Royal & Ancient At a recent meeting of the Championship Committee of the Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrews, as will be noted in reference to by the official report published elsewhere in these columns, Selected Balls some important rulings were handed down.

and Amateur Expenses. It is not generally known, except to the initiated, that for some years now, both in Great Britain and the United States, and to some small extent perhaps in Canada, leading amateurs and professionals have been supplied by manufacturers with special balls. That is, not a specially manufactured ball, but "hand-picked" balls from the regular stock—balls that are carefully tested as regards weight and spherically perfect. The R. and A. has now gone on record as strongly disapproving of these selected balls being used in Championship competitions. And rightly so, too, as they distinctly favour the fortunate owner.

In regard to the much vexed question of out-of-pocket expenses to amateurs The R. and A. has previously ruled on this matter, but again lays down the law emphatically. A Committee may not pay such expenses to members taking part in a competition unless they are playing for their club in a team Match or Team Competition. In International Matches, players may receive out-of-pocket expenses without forfeiting their Amateur status, but such expenses must be paid through or by the ruling authority of their country. For instance, the Royal Canadian Golf Association, in sending a team of Amateurs to compete in the forthcoming Walker Cup Competition in the States, will be perfectly justified if it sees fit to pay the out-of-pocket expenses of the team. For the past two years the U. S. Seniors' Golf Association and The Canadian Seniors' Golf Association have paid the railway expenses of the teams participating in the International Match for the Duke of Devonshire Trophy and were well within the Amateur ruling in doing so. The out-of-pocket expenses of individual competitors however, in a competition or championship would both disqualify and professionalize them.

Much Golf is The "Canadian Golfer" has to thank Dr. George Price of Wick-being payed in low, Hon. Secretary of the "Golfing Union of Ireland," for a Ireland, notwith- copy of the 1922 year book. Canadians may be surprised to standing dis- hear that golf is very much in evidence in the "distressful Isle" tressful con- there being no less than 135 clubs in active operation made up ditions. as follows: Ulster 55, Munster 24, Leinster 47 and Connaught 9.

A particularly good feature of the Irish Union's activities is the rendering of financial assistance to small clubs which are unable to employ a permanent professional, so that they may enjoy the benefit of a travelling professional occasionally. These professionals are guaranteed 60 shilling a week, Sundays excluded, and are allowed to take any earnings over that amount in each week. Railway fare is also provided for. This is a most excellent idea, one that might be considered by The Royal Canadian Golf Association in this country, although of course here the guaranteed salary would have to be greater than sixty shillings per week. It is a question though, whether the guarantee would ever be called upon. There are many small clubs in Canada which for a couple of weeks or so would keep such a travelling professional busy from morning till night at a good remuneration. Dr. Price writes:—

"We are, I think, one of the oldest Unions in the British Islands—if not the oldest, and we claim to do everything possible for the promotion and encouragement of the game of Golf in Ireland. So far we have been very successful, and there is every prospect of a great extension of the game, especially amongst the working classes in the towns."

An Epoch in Next month, on May 24th, will witness quite an epoch in Cana-
Canadian Golf dian golfdom because that date will witness the official opening
History of the two eighteen hole courses of the Royal Montreal Golf
Scheduled for Club at Dixie and the throwing open of the doors of the mag-
May 24th nificent new $350,000 Club House. The Royal Montreal has the unique honour, the very unique honour, of being the oldest Golf Club on the continent of America. It was in November, 1873 that golf was first played in an organized way in the commercial metropolis of the Dominion. It was not until fifteen years later, or to be exact, in 1888, that the United States "got into the game" at Yonkers, N. Y., where Mr. Reid, the "father of golf" in that country, a Scotchman by the way, rallied round him a few enthusiasts and laid out a little course of six holes. The Royal Montreal, running true to form, will have this year the only two eighteen hole courses in Canada and easily the most magnificent club house in the Dominion. In fact it is doubtful if any Golf and Country Club in America has a more perfectly planned or more artistic golfing home. Every detail and every requisite for the comfort of the members has been looked after, from locker rooms up to dining room and grill room and billiard room and card room and bedrooms flooded with light and overlooking the courses and Lake beyond. The two courses—and after all, "the game's the thing"—are of championship calibre, the one 6,204 yards, par 71 and the other 6,320 yards, par 72. There are many "character" holes and "character" holes are what count on every course. The old course of The Royal Montreal, so familiar to golfers throughout the Dominion and the States, which has now been revamped, was only 5,610 yards. It was the scene of many notable events and the venue of the Canadian Open Championship in 1904, 1908 and 1913 and the Amateur in 1897, 1900, 1902, 1904, 1908 and 1912. It is now some ten years since any major event has been held at Dixie. With its two magnificent courses, one new and one virtually new, the home of the Royal Montreal will in the years to come be greatly in demand for championships of the first calibre.

(The Editor is always glad to answer questions about the Rules, and other golfing matters, but owing to so many of these requests coming in every month, he must ask in future that a stamped-addressed envelope be enclosed with all such communications, otherwise they will not be answered.)

Miss Alexa Stirling, ex-U. S. and Canadian Lady Champion, who is now engaged in the task of successfully selling Bonds in New York, is a great believer in the Indoor Golf School and during the past winter has kept golfing and physically fit by putting in practice on the indoor courts both with the wood and iron.

In the Mayoralty bye-election in Brantford caused by the lamented death of Mayor Wedlake, President and General Manager of the Cocksbutt Plow Company, ex-Ald. C. J. Parker was returned triumphantly at the head of the poll. Mayor Parker is a recent devotee of golf and is a valued member of the Brantford Golf and Country Club.

“Golf Illustrated,” London:—

“The sympathy of most golfers in this country will go out to Mr. Donald J. Ross, the former Scotch golfer (and well-known golf architect), now stationed in America, on the death of his wife, also a native of Scotland. Leaving Scotland many years ago for the United States, Mr. Ross settled in North Carolina, and so active was his interest in golf that he soon took a prominent part in golfing affairs in that State. For many years he has been Secretary and Treasurer of the Pinehurst Country Club, North Carolina.”

“Golfing,” London:—

“We hear that an insurance company which recently brought out a new ‘golfer’s policy’ has already paid a claim arising out of a fire loss through a lighted cigarette end being dropped by a caddie into a player’s bag. In another case a woman golfer tripped in a rabbit’s scrape, and drew £6 a week while her sprained ankle incapacitated her from work and golf.”

In Canada the golfing accident policy is making its appearance this season and many players are taking them on. They are quite cheap—$3 per $1,000 for one year, or $7 for three years, whilst still another policy which covers loss by fire and the breaking of clubs is $10.

A recent despatch from Bermuda:

“The new mid-ocean golf course at Tucker’s Town, which is declared by those who have seen it to be one of the world’s wonder courses, opened for playing on Wednesday. The splendid links, the club appointments and the magnificent views and location make it notable among the important golf playgrounds of the world. The St. George Hotel, adjacent to the new course, is now open. Over a hundred and fifty thousand dollars have been spent in re-modelling this famous old hotel.”

Commissioner A. B. Perry, C.M.G., head of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, on March 31st at Ottawa said good-bye to his fellow-officers and associates, having formally tendered his resignation to the Government and announced his desire to retire from active life after 42 years’ active service. Commissioner Perry, when in the West, took an active interest in the game of golf, especially in Regina. He is a member of the Canadian Seniors’ Golf Association.

Weston Golf Club this year has issued a circular letter to all its members explaining several changes in regard to the management of the club house and course and giving all information in reference thereto. An excellent idea, this "heart-to-heart" talk between a Directorate and its members—one well worthy of emulation. Among other Weston improvements which will be greatly appreciated is the arranging of a through telephone connection with Toronto. That will certainly be a boon.

"There is no more insidious fault than slicing, that is, hitting the ball so as to make it curl in the air from left to right. It is difficult to cure, because it has many causes. One cause is that the right foot is too far advanced. Another is that the player is too near the ball, and so is hitting it off the heel. A third is that the left hand is held too tightly in proportion to the right, and yet another, the most common cause, is that the arms are being contracted and drawn across the body, instead of following through after the ball."—Miss Cecil Leitch.

The edition of 10,000 of the new Books of the Rules published this month by the "Canadian Golfer" has met with a heavy sale, many clubs ordering 500 copies (which gives them the privilege of having the name of the Club printed on the front cover), whilst clubs from Halifax to Victoria have placed orders. The indications are that the complete issue will be quickly exhausted. Single copies up to 100 are 25 cents per copy. If desiring quantities of these handsome "up-to-the-minute" Books write "Business Manager," "Canadian Golfer," Brantford, Canada.

Editorial note, "Toronto Globe":—

"Mr. W. H. C. Mussen, President of Mussen's, Limited, Montreal, which went into liquidation seven years ago, has paid off his last cent of indebtedness. His name deserves an honored place in the business history of the country."

Mr. Mussen is a "charter subscriber" of the "Canadian Golfer" and a loyal friend of the magazine from its inception. He is an outstanding golfer and golf official of Montreal and District. The "Globe's" deserved tribute to Mr. Mussen will undoubtedly be appreciated by him as it will be by golfing friends throughout the Dominion.

Francis Ouimet, former U.S. National Open and Amateur Champion, has definitely decided against the trip to England to participate in the British Amateur Championship Tourney. It was also stated Jesse Guilford, the U.S. National Amateur title-holder, who was reported as being certain to make the journey, had not definitely made up his mind regarding participating in the British Tourney. Thus far only one of the star U.S. players has definitely decided to make the journey. He is H. R. Johnston of St. Paul, runner-up to "Chick" Evans in the Western Amateur Tournament last year, and a young player of very great promise indeed.

A despatch from Tokio:—

"The Crown Prince of Japan and the Prince of Wales are all signed up for the most royal little golf game ever staged in these parts. Their twosome will be one of the events of the visit of the Prince of Wales to Japan, where he will arrive April 15th from India, to return the visit of Hirohito to England. Hirohito has gone in for golf with much zest of late, and is said to play a snappy game. It is probable that this Imperial interest in golf will cause the game to gain in favor throughout Japan. Special links for the exclusive use of Crown Prince Regent Hirohito and the Prince of Wales are being constructed in one of the great palace grounds in Tokio. The British residents of this country are willing to bet all sorts of real money on the Prince of Wales—but the trouble is the scores will very probably not be made public. The indication is that "officially" there will be no scores and no spectators. The present position of the authorities is that it would be undignified as well as undiplomatic to allow the two Crown Princes to break into the sporting pages—or to admit that either one had vanquished the other."

Not to be outdone by its rival Oakville, Burlington this month decided to get into the golf game and already has secured a membership of over one hundred which ensures the successful starting of a club in that old and charming resort on Lake Ontario. When the Burlington Links are in commission there will be no less than seven golf courses adjacent to the Highway between Hamilton and Toronto, viz., Humber Valley, Toronto, Lakeview, Mississauga, Lake Shore Club (which is laying out a nine hole course this season), Oakville and Burlington. Spending a day on each course, the enthusiastic golfer will soon be able to put in a solid week's play along the forty miles of the Highway. Thus is the game spreading. Soon, courses will be literally "linked" up between the principal cities in Canada, as they are now in Great Britain and the United States.

Death has certainly taken a very heavy toll recently of prominent members of golf clubs—Senator Frederick Nicholls of the Toronto Golf and several other golf clubs; Mr. Thomas Findley of Lambton; Mr. Gordon McGregor of the Essex Golf and Country Club and now, Sir John Eaton of the Lambton Golf Club. These four were all great Captains in the realms of manufacture and commerce—none greater in the Dominion—but they all found time for rest and recreation in a round of the links. Sir John Eaton, only of late years took up the Royal and Ancient. He made no pretense of being a player in the strict sense of that term, but he did thoroughly enjoy a match with two or three congenial friends from time to time. Canadian golfdom has never before been called upon to suffer the loss of so many prominent devotees of the sport as has been recorded the past few months. The coming season they will all be greatly missed in the club house and on the course.

“The Detroit Golfer” :—

“The death, in Montreal, of Gordon McGregor, member of the Essex County Golf and Country Club, removes from the Detroit District one of the finest characters hereabouts. We cannot, of course, quarrel with the Infinite, but it does seem a pity—a tremendous pity—that a fine, upstanding sportsman like Gordon McGregor could not be spared to the rest of us a little longer. But, even so, his fairmindedness and his unflinching courtesy should linger with us long and help us all to play the game as it should be played.”

The millenium for golfers is now rapidly approaching, for according to a sporting goods Company announcement in Chicago, the indestructible golf ball has been at last made a reality. This everlasting rubber core moreover will sell for not more than 75 cents. The Company says the cover cannot be cut by a topped shot or gashed by impact with thorns or nails. The ball will retain its roundness and smoothness of cover even after all paint has been worn off. Whether it will retain its resiliency through years of play remains to be seen. The ball, it is said, will suit all players except possibly the most expert, who may want a more sensitive sphere.

Mr. B. L. Anderson, Secretary of The Royal Canadian Golf Association, has issued a circular letter to all the clubs in the Association, giving the dates and venue of the forthcoming Canadian Championships and the ruling re ribbed or grooved clubs. The letter concludes :—

“May we again call your attention to the Green Section of the United States Golf Association and the monthly periodical which they issue to promote the betterment of golf courses. This Association has appointed a member to act on this Committee, Mr. A. H. Campbell, 4 Wellington St., E., Toronto. Members of this Association may subscribe for this service at the same rate which is paid by members of the U.S.G.A., which is $15 per annum. All communications should be sent to W. B. Lydenberg, P. O. 676, 11th St. Station, Washington, D. C.

We should also like to bring to your attention again, the subject of Invitation Tournaments and urge that more Clubs give two-day invitation tournaments. These Tournaments have proven a success. They are most enjoyable and conducive to better golf. We suggest that you put one on your programme for this year.”

Three new clubs are being organized in Winnipeg and vicinity this season, namely, Windsor Park, East Kildonan and Sandy Hook. These additions to the golf club strength brings the total up to thirteen. In the vernacular, "Some golfing city," Winnipeg. Toronto's club total is fifteen and Montreal's nine, with two or three in the making.

The idea that some people have that the Exhibition game stunt by leading experts is getting "played out" is not borne out by facts. There are thousands of golfers who are always willing to contribute a dollar or so to see the experts perform, and who will dare gainsay that they do not get the full worth of their money, both from an enjoyment and educational standpoint. The "Canadian Golfer" understands that in Canada and the States the dates already have been pretty well booked for the Taylor and Herd tour. They're a pair of grand veterans, the one a Devonshire man and the other from gray Auld St. Andrews herself, with any number of good shots yet in their bags and they will be well worth following over the verdant greens the coming record season. To see Taylor play a mashie shot to the pin will alone be well worth the "price of admission."

Major E. G. Fellows, Hon. Secretary of the Royal Ascot Golf Club, Berks, sends the "Canadian Golfer" a programme of the Boys' Amateur Golf Championship to be held at the Royal Ascot, Monday, September 4th and Saturday, September 9th. The present holder of the Challenge Cup is A. D. D. Mathieson, Edinburgh Academy, and the runner-up, G. H. Lintott of Felsted School. Entries will be restricted to boys who will be under 17 years of age on September 9th, 1922. Major Fellows adds:—

"As a Canadian myself, I sincerely hope that some Canadian boys who may happen to be coming over to England this Summer, may enter for the Championship. I will do all I can for their comfort."

Certainly a very cordial invitation and the "Canadian Golfer" sincerely hopes that one or two of our young players will be able to take advantage of the Major's kindly wish that Canada should be represented at this most interesting event.

The Norwood Golf Club, Winnipeg, at its recent Annual Meeting, went unanimously on record that the Western Associations—Alberta, Manitoba, Saskatchewan and British Columbia—should this year approve of the stand of the Calgary Golf and Country Club in arranging for an exclusive Western Golf Championship. The Norwood Golf Club boasts, and boasts rightly so, too, that it is the oldest golfing organization in the spacious West and it therefore speaks with some authority. The West is unquestionably right in backing up this idea of a Championship apart from a purely Canadian Championship. There are to-day from Fort William right on to British Columbia almost as many clubs and almost as many golfers as from Fort William to Halifax and there is no reason whatever why this huge territory should not work out its own golfing destiny, subject, of course, to the rulings of the parent body, The Royal Canadian Golf Association. In the years to come it is quite within the realms of possibility that there will be a Western Golf champion and an Eastern Golf champion, both of course being overshadowed by a Canadian representative of golfing supremacy, both East and West.

A survey of the Prince's (Sandwich) Course was made recently, and the figures are particularly interesting in view of the fact that the Oxford vs. Cambridge match, the British Ladies' Championship, and the British Open Championship Qualifying Competition will be played there within the next few weeks. Calculating from the very back tees, the outward half of the course measures 3,369 yards, and the homeward nine holes, 3,686 yards, or a grand total of 7,055 yards. It is not anticipated that all of the back tees will be used in any one of the fixtures mentioned, but the total length of the course probably entitles it to rank as the longest in the world. Contestants in the Canadian Open Championship at Mount Bruno, Montreal, July 28th and 29th may be interested to know that the official measurement of that course is 3,224 yards out, 3,299 yards in, or a total of 6,523 yards which makes it the longest course in Canada, and yet it is properly parred at 70—35 in and 35 out! And that will take "some doing" next July by the most expert amateur or professional either native or foreign-born and the indications are that some of the world's greatest golfers will be at Mount Bruno for our major event of 1922.

THE INTERNATIONAL TEAM MATCH

Great Britain and Canada Will be Represented in the Walker Cup Competition.

GREAT Britain, having decided this year to enter a team of four players for the Walker Cup, which it is sought to make emblematic of the amateur championship of the golfing world the same as the Davis Cup is in tennis, the Royal Canadian Golf Association will also enter a team. The event will be played, it is more than probable, immediately after the United States Championship at the Brookline Country Club, Mass., which is scheduled for September 4 to 9.

The 1922 Amateur Champions for all three countries will unquestionably head the respective quartet of players. It is not thought, however, that the runners-up in the amateur championship will necessarily earn a place on the team; for instance, it is generally conceded in the States that no matter how the amateur goes there, "Chick" Evans, Francis Ouimet and Jesse Guilford, as a result of their past records, are sure of being included in the first four. Rather far away yet to predict any of the choices for Canada, but the team will probably be selected from Frank Thompson (present amateur champion), the ex-amateur champions, C. B. Grier, W. McLuckie, G. S. Lyon and G. H. Turpin, T. Gillespie, C. W. Hague, W. J. Thompson, G. P. Shaw and A. A. Weir, whilst other players in the running are J. T. Cuthbert, F. G. Hoblitzell, F. R. Martin, Marcus Greer, Stanley Thompson and Seymour Lyon. The coming season may, of course, bring out a "dark horse" or so, but the above names at the present writing just about exhaust our possibilities. In addition to the team of four, two substitutes will also be selected.

THE CANADIAN LADIES' GOLF UNION

Semi-Annual Meeting Held in Toronto. Organization Increasing in Membership Throughout Canada.

THE Semi-Annual Meeting of the Canadian Ladies' Golf Union was held at the Sherbourne House Club, on Tuesday, April 4th at 3 o'clock. The President was in the chair and there was a large attendance of members including out-of-town representatives.

The President gave a brief address and then, as there were no minutes, the Secretary-Treasurer presented her report. The organization is increasing in membership throughout the different provinces and in Manitoba it is likely that the M. L. G. A. will dissolve and be replaced by the Union. The finances were in a satisfactory condition.

Telegrams of regret at being unable to be present at the meeting were read from the Quebec Vice-President, the Winnipeg Vice-President and from the President of the Halifax Club. Correspondence from the Women's Metropolitan Association, the Buffalo Country Club, the Rosedale Club, the Toronto and Lambton Clubs, relating to Tournaments was read and discussed. Copies of the annual letter were distributed among the members.

The President read the names of the Nominating Committee appointed at the preceding meeting of the Executive. Mrs. Donald, Convenor; Miss Sydney Pepler, Mrs. A. N. Mitchell, Mrs. French, Miss Ada Mackenzie, Miss Gladys Atkinson, Miss Frances Cassidy, Toronto; Miss Agnes Climie, Hamilton; Mrs. Ernest Smith, London; Mrs. Frank Leeming, Brantford.

The resignations of Mrs. Hunter, Handicap Manager for the London District and of Miss Schell, Handicap Manager for Brantford, were read and regretfully accepted. It was left to the Executive to appoint their successors.

A resolution was passed that the trophy for the Canadian Championship should be bought in Canada.

The question of parring the courses brought forth lively discussion. Although the C. L. G. U. has not authority to dictate arbitrarily, it was suggested in the best interests of sport, that members of 18-hole courses should so far as possible, earn their handicaps on 18-hole courses and not on 9-hole ones. The Pars Committee will endeavor to standardize handicaps by playing over all 9-hole courses and reparring those that have been parred from a score card.

At the conclusion of the meeting the members were the guests at tea of the President and Secretary-Treasurer.

PUBLIC GOLF COURSES

Leading Vancouver Newspaper Heartily Endorses Such Praiseworthy Institutions.

(Editorial, "Vancouver World")

"If that Scots king of olden time who endeavored by royal decree to stamp out the growing curse of golf could see the grip the game has to-day upon the peoples of the world, he would surely turn over in his grave.

In the past decade or so, golf has grown from the pastime of a few to the sport of millions. In a dozen countries courses are springing up practically over night. Even the stiff initiation and annual fees levied by private clubs have apparently proven insufficient to curb the growing interest in the game, and the rapid increase in the number of such institutions seems quite unable to keep up with the demand for playing facilities.

To such an extent has the desire to play golf spread in recent years among those who find the expense of belonging to private clubs prohibitive, that a large number of the more progressive cities, particularly in North America, have established public links, where the ordinary citizen can enjoy relaxation and exercise at reasonable cost. In every case, not only have the public shown themselves eager to seize the opportunity afforded for play, but the course has proved at once a paying investment and a valuable civic advertisement.

In Seattle, Portland, Los Angeles and other United States cities, citizens and visitors have thronged the links to such an extent that new courses are being opened or old ones extended. In Edmonton and other Canadian centres the demand for increased facilities promises soon to have a similar result. Financially, these municipal enterprises have not only proven self-sustaining, but have in most cases returned handsome profits. Seattle, for instance, had a $10,000 surplus last year.

As an advertising medium for attracting tourists, the California and Texas cities have found golf invaluable. Thousands of visitors are attracted every winter from localities less favored climatically.

And in addition to all this, there is to be considered the benefit wrought to the public by the provision of the opportunity of indulging in a sport that is recreative both to body and mind, and at the same time, with the low charges found sufficient on public courses, well within the reach of all.

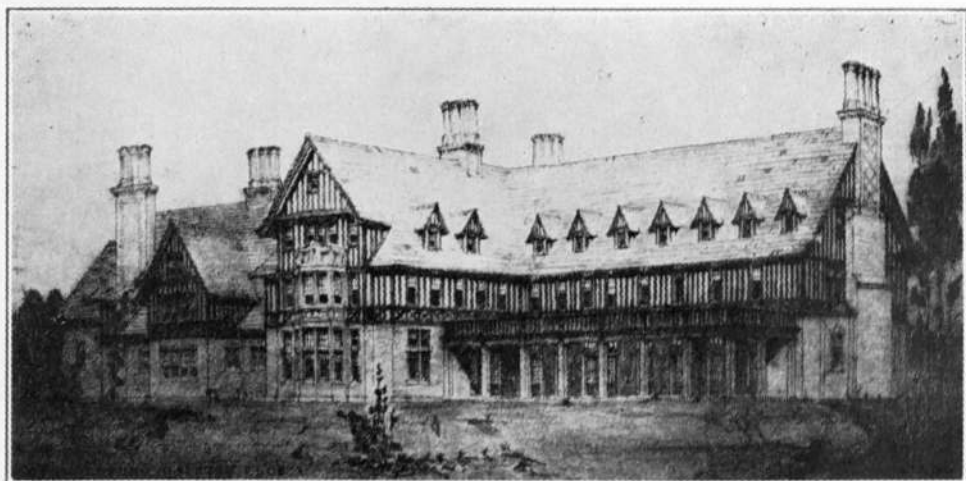

The construction of a Municipal course in Vancouver, already commenced at Hastings Park this winter, is something that should prove an excellent investment, not only financially, but also as an attraction for tourists and from the viewpoint of the public benefit. It is a project which should be carried to completion with the least possible delay. Moreover, this should be only one of several public courses in this city where the game can be played throughout almost the entire year."

MOUNT BRUNO COUNTRY CLUB

The Testing Eighteen-hole Montreal Course which will Witness the Open Championship, July 28th and 29th and also Probably the Canadian Professional Golf Association's Championship.

(By R. J. R. Stokes)

THE Mount Bruno Country Club is one of the several new clubs in the Montreal district, having been established in 1918. The Club property covers an area of 380 acres, and is situated on the mountain side of Mount Bruno, or Montarville, about 16½ miles from Montreal on the Grand Trunk Line to Portland and Halifax. By road it is about 18 miles, and the best part of the distance is over the Montreal-Chambly Highway, which is now in excellent condition. The railway stop of Montarville adjoins the property, and the Club House is situated about 600 yards away. From a transportation standpoint, the Club is well situated, although a more frequent train service would be a great advantage. However, for the Open Championship this year, a special service will be operated.

The Magnificent Club House at Mount Bruno, which will be erected later on. (Photo from Architect's Plans).

The entrance to the Club property is about 50 yards from the station, and turning onto the road one runs up to the Club House situated on the ridge, passing across, or under if you prefer to say, the tenth fairway.

Not until you arrive at the Club buildings are you able to obtain a good view of the course, as every advantage was taken of the best part of the available land to place every hole above the Club House.

From the commencement the Directors decided to concentrate all efforts upon the building of a championship course, and not to build elaborate quarters. Apart from the Pro's house, all buildings are of a temporary nature, large enough, however, to give comfortable accommodation until the completion of the main building. The latter will be one of the finest on the North American Continent, being 287 feet in length, three storeys in height, and following the Elizabethan style of architecture.

The accommodation that will be given to competitors in the Championship this year will be all that can be desired, but in passing I would like to say that owing to the Club being situated in a prohibition area of the Province of Quebec, supplies for the 19th will not be obtainable at the Club. Still, Montreal is only thirty minutes away.

The course was laid out by Willie Park, who writes as follows:

"It is my opinion that the Mount Bruno Country Club have a golf course equal to any in the world. The location is indeed most exceptional, and I have noticed that even in the hottest weather one always gets a pleasant breeze. The character of the land is all that can be desired, being a nice, undulating and sporting character, with no hill climbing. The soil is of a light, sandy nature, permitting the development of a very fine golfing turf."

The first hole is 360 yards, and is a simple proposition provided one keeps straight ahead. For the man who pulls there is ample trouble, and there is also an inviting trap at good driving distance for a slightly sliced ball.

The Spacious No. 1 Green at Mount Bruno

The second is an exceptionally long hole, being a par five for 575 yards. This has a tricky approach and calls for your best play to obtain par. The green is beautifully situated at the end of a bunkered entrant and surrounded by maples and silver birch.

The next is short and looks simple, and so it is to the man who gets on to the green from the tee. If you fail, then there is some heavy trapping for fozzled shots.

Four, five and six are all par fours and not difficult to the careful player.

Coming down seven you play up to one of the most perfect greens of any course. This is heavily trapped on both sides, and if you play over you may require as many as Miss Leitch did upon her initial appearance on this side of the water. She found all the trouble for one day and took eight for a par four.

Eight is short and well guarded and looks exceedingly easy, but I venture to think that many an aspirant to the Open honour will crack here.

Homeward bound at the end of the first half we have an inviting par four of 345 yards. This hole requires plenty of judgment, the hard hitter having to guard against landing into a ditch, and if he falls short he will probably be faced with a blind second. The green is large and built up, but calls for an accurate approach to enable you to get down in par.

Starting off on the second half we play the short tenth with its big trap guarding the green.

The eleventh is a dog leg, calling for a drive of 220 yards to get well placed for the second.

The twelfth is 595 yards, and is probably the longest hole in Canada. The fairway runs up into the woods, and in autumn the beauty of the surroundings is likely to take your mind off the game. A slightly sliced ball is out into the woods and a well placed bunker takes you right under its wing if you attempt too big a pull. This fairway has a pronounced slope to the left and any run on the ball will probably land you into one of the numerous traps. The green is beautifully situated and requires accurate approaching.

Thirteen runs down through the woods with an open fairway, but not too easy a green.

The fourteenth is "a peach of a hole," the tee being exceptionally well placed in a high position, giving a wonderful vista of open country. In the distance beyond the green is the Club House, looking all too small for its surroundings.

Close-up View of No. 3 Green and No. 4 Tee at Mount Bruno.

The fifteenth is a good par three with an undulating green 220 yards from the tee.

The sixteenth is a dog-leg with the green so placed it calls forth your admiration of the architect's art.

Seventeenth offers you trouble for your tee shot, but get away to a good drive and your task should be easy.

The last hole offers full scope for a good tee drive and a perfect approach, finishing a test of golf that is going to try many a laurel hunter on July 28th and 29th.

In summing up, I would say that all the greens call for a different approach shot, and the fairways were so built that good drives are not penalized.

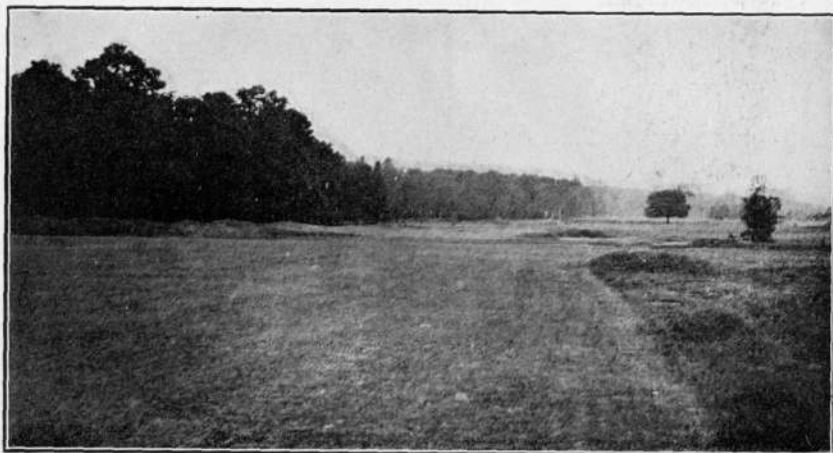

The card for the course is as follows:

	Out	Par		In	Par
No. 1	360 yds.	4	No. 10	150 yds.	3
No. 2	575 yds.	5	No. 11	335 yds.	4

The full course at Mount Bruno has been in play since September, 1920. The Amateur record is 71, made by Mr. D. V. Williams on the day following that on which he was runner-up to Marcus Greer in the Quebec Championship. This is also the course record, as the best Pro's score is 73, made by Albert Murray of the Country Club of St. Lambert.

It is rather worth while to reflect upon the above scores when anyone tells you that Mount Bruno is an easy course.

There are any number of Montrealers who would tell you this, but all the same only on two occasions has anyone managed to get within four strokes of par figures. Probably both of these scores will go by the Board this coming year, for in addition to the Open Championship there is every possibility that the Province of Quebec Championship will be decided over the same course. If it should be so, it will afford Quebec contenders for the Open title a fine opportunity of getting around under competitive conditions.

No. 4 Fairway and Green at Mount Bruno

Whatever galaxy of talent may take part in these Tournaments, I do not think there will be many scores of par or under.

The Club is fortunate in having a strong Board of Directors, as the following list of officers will show:—

Patron, Lord Shaughnessy; Hon. President, Sir Vincent Meredith; President, E. L. Pease; Vice-President, H. W. Beauclerk; Directors, A. J. Brown, K.C., C. E. Neill, Sir Herebert Holt, Howard Kelley, Sir Mortimer B. Davis, P. P. Cowans, James Carruthers, W. A. Black, E. W. Beatty, K. C., F. W. Molson, C. R. Hosmer; Secretary-Treasurer, R. J. R. Stokes; Professional, F. P. Glass.

The course will be open for intending competitors during the week commencing July 23rd, but care should be taken that you alight at Montarville stop, and the Montreal terminus is Bonaventure Station.

GOLF FOR LLOYD GEORGE AT GENOA

Despatch from Genoa, April 9th:—

“Genoa is priding herself that her hospitality rises to every occasion, so on a steep hillside back of the Villa Alberti workmen are clearing a space for a two-hole golf course for Premier Lloyd George. When Mr. Lloyd George arrived with his golf clubs his hosts were embarrassed, but they are doing the best they can, although if the Premier fozzles his drive the ball will go bounding down to the Mediterranean, half a mile away.”

RULING OF ST ANDREWS

When and How an Amateur May be Paid "Out-of-pocket Expenses. "Hand-picked" Balls in Competitions Strongly Condemned.

THE Secretary of The Royal and Ancient of St. Andrews, Mr. Henry Gullen, sends in the following recent important rulings of his Committee under date of March 15th, to Mr. B. L. Anderson, Secretary of The Royal Canadian Golf Association:—

"I have the honour to inform you that a meeting of the Championship Committee of The Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrews was held on Thursday, 2nd inst., when the attention of the Committee was called to the fact that some manufacturers provide certain competitors in the Championships with special golf balls which are not obtainable in the open market.

My Committee strongly disapproves of this unfair practice, and I have issued a statement to the Press expressing the hope that attention has only to be called to it to ensure that it shall cease.

I am sure your Association will support my Committee in this decision, and, if the practice is at all prevalent in your country you will no doubt advise us in order that we may take steps to deal with the matter.

AMATEUR STATUS

With regard to the conditions of Amateur Status, I send you herewith copies of two decisions which my Committee has given.

SUNDERLAND GOLF CLUB—May a Committee pay the ordinary out-of-pocket expenses, i. e., train fares, green fees, etc., to members who take part in a competition, without affecting the Amateur Status of such members?

ANSWER—Any payment of the nature described would be an infringement of the conditions of Amateur Status, and accordingly in accepting it the players would forfeit their Amateur Status. This disqualification would not, however, extend to the payment by a Club to its members of out-of-pocket expenses when playing for such Club in a Team Match or Team Competition.

LADIES' GOLF UNION—May a player in a County or Territorial Match receive her expenses without forfeiting her Amateur Status?

ANSWER—Players in a Club, County or Territorial Match may receive out-of-pocket expenses without forfeiting their Amateur Status, provided such payment is made by the player's Club or County Union or similar body.

My Committee has also decided:—

1. Players representing their Club or County, or similar body, playing in a Team Match may receive out-of-pocket expenses from the body they represent without forfeiting their Amateur Status.

2. In International Matches, players may receive out-of-pocket expenses without forfeiting their Amateur Status but such expenses must be paid through or by the ruling authority of their country.

From these decisions you will see that whereas my Committee approves of the payment of expenses when the player is representing his Club or County in a Team Match, it does not permit of payment of expenses when the player is competing as an individual."

THE ENERGETIC MR. WILKES

Establishes an Endurance Record at Del Monte, California.

Mr. Tom Wilkes, a prominent business man of San Francisco, who has been identified in sports as the President of the Golden Gate Gun Club, and in field trails, has established at Del Monte, California, what is claimed to be somewhat of a record. Wilkes made a stay of thirty-eight days at Del Monte, and during that time played 1,459 holes of golf. This makes not less than thirty-six holes of golf on any day, and on one occasion he played as high as sixty-three holes in a single day. Figuring that a total of approximately four and one-half miles of walking is required to play eighteen holes, it makes something like four hundred miles that Mr. Wilkes travelled while getting in all of his golf play. There have been many cases of where golfers have gone in strong for the game, but Wilkes without doubt, holds a record in California's golf centre. He is an old-time golfer, and when he started playing golf on the first day his score ran from 101 to 108. The last week cut the figures to 83 and 90, and the last day he achieved the distinction of going around in eighty.

AN OUTSTANDING CANADIAN

The Death of Mr. Gordon M. McGregor of Windsor, One of the Dominion's Greatest Manufacturers, is Mourned Throughout Canada. A generous Patron of the Royal and Ancient and a Keen Follower of the Game.

THE passing of Mr. Gordon Morton McGregor, Vice-President, Treasurer and General Manager of the Ford Motor Company of Canada, in Montreal last month in the Royal Victoria Hospital following an operation, came as a great shock to the whole of manufacturing and commercial Canada.

He was an outstanding son of Canada and, during his all too brief career (Mr. McGregor was only 49 years of age last January), had made for himself an enduring niche in the Hall of Canadian fame. His was a life's race (all too short) well run; his was a life's work well done. He was easily the foremost citizen of the Border Cities. The following is the succinct summing-up of his career in the "Border Cities' Star" of Windsor:

Born in Windsor, January 18th, 1873.

Married on Nov. 2, 1898 to Miss Harriett Dodds, Detroit.

Organizer of the Ford Motor Company of Canada in 1904.

A former Chairman of the Essex Border Utilities Commission.

Past President of the Automotive Industries of Canada.

Keenly interested in war work, charitable work, hospital work and other forms of public service.

A Director of the Ideal Fence & Spring Co., Ltd., and interested in many other financial ventures.

A prominent member and chief financial supporter of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church.

A good citizen!

To which from a golfing standpoint might very well be added, "A keen golfer and one of the most liberal supporters of the Royal and Ancient in Ontario."

Columns have deservedly appeared in the press about Mr. McGregor's notable manufacturing and financial activities, but it has not been so generally featured the great debt of gratitude the residents of the Border Cities have been under to him in connection with the game of golf. Always fond of outdoor games, Mr. McGregor was one of the first residents of Windsor to take golf up enthusiastically. The Essex Golf and Country Club at Sandwich is to-day one of the leading clubs of Ontario, and Mr. McGregor is largely responsible for this. It was he who "backed up" financially and otherwise the members in enlarging the 9-hole course to 18 holes and in greatly enlarging and improving the club house. He was President of the Club from July, 1916 to February 1919, and since that time has continued to take the keenest interest in its welfare. After resigning from the Presidency he acted as Chairman of the Green Committee and in no perfunctory manner either—rest assured of that. One of his very last acts was to secure the appointment of a Scottish professional for his Club, he as late as Saturday March 4th, or just one week before his lamented death, writing to the "Canadian Golfer" in reference to this and other golfing matters.

A Great Canadian—The Late Mr. Gordon Morton McGregor (Vice-President, Treasurer and General Manager of the Ford Motor Company of Canada.)

A charter subscriber of this Magazine and a very prompt, courteous and kindly correspondent at all times, the passing of Mr. McGregor will be long and sincerely mourned by the Editor in company with golfing friends many, throughout Canada.

The funeral on March 14th was impressive in its extreme simplicity. Thousands lined the streets with bared heads as the cortege of Windsor's most revered citizen proceeded from the house to the cemetery. Among the many notables in attendance were: Henry Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Edsel Ford, Ernest G. Liebold, private Secretary to Mr. Ford, and a number of the Executive and departmental heads of the Highland Park plant.

In addition to the Essex Golf and Country Club, Mr. McGregor was a member of the Windsor Club, Walkerville Tennis Club, Elmcourt Country Club, Detroit Athletic Club, the Detroit Club, the Detroit Golf Club, the Beach Grove Country Club and the Ontario Club, Toronto.

He is survived by a loving wife, one son William and three daughters, the Misses Harriett, Elizabeth and Nancy; also three brothers, Lt.-Col. Walter L. McGregor (a former President of the Essex Golf and Country Club), Malcolm P., a prominent Detroit Attorney and W. Donald McGregor of Windsor. Mr. McGregor was "the worthy son of a worthy sire," his father being the late Mr. William McGregor, ex-M. P.

At a meeting last month of The Essex Golf and Country Club it was moved by Mr. W. R. Campbell and unanimously adopted that the undermentioned letter of condolence be embraced in the Minutes and a copy thereof sent to Mrs. McGregor:—

"We, the Directors of the Essex County Golf and Country Club, on behalf of the Board, the Members and Staff, desire to express to Mrs. McGregor and family our deep sympathy with them following the death of Mr. McGregor, and at the same time give expression of our own sorrow and sense of great loss at what must always appear as the untimely termination of a most useful and honourable life.

"As fellow-Directors with Mr. McGregor we are deeply sensible of the privileges which we have for so many years enjoyed of sharing in the joy of his companionship and the wisdom of his counsel. It is but the truth to state that no one contributed as much as Mr. McGregor to the success which the Club has been able to attain and it is thus fitting that there was no one whom the Club and its members so honoured and loved.

While we share with the rest of the community the realization that a great public figure has been taken from us there will always be linked with this remembrance the more personal and poignant feeling that the Essex Club and its members have lost the fine fellowship of a true friend and great gentleman."

*"His life was gentle; and the elements
So mixed in him, that nature might stand up—
And say to all the world, this was a man."*

CANADA AND RIBBED CLUBS

Thus Mr. Harold H. Hilton in "Golf Illustrated," London:—

"The Canadian Golf Association have decided not to fall in with the view of the Rules Committee on this side of the water and bar the ribbed faced iron club. Aside and apart from the justice of the decision, they are perhaps wise in that this manner of marking a club face is not barred in the U.S.A., and if the Canadian Association did do so there might be a few unpleasant complications when the American golfer made an appearance on Canadian soil and brought with him in his set a few clubs with deeply scored or corrugated faces. One can recognize the value of these deeply and sharply ribbed faces, at least when a certain class of shot has to be played. Occasionally one comes across a situation when it is almost an impossibility to impart sufficient underspin to the ball in order to induce it to remain anywhere near the hole, but in the ordinary course of every-day golf these occasions are not very frequent, at least in the British Isles, and an ordinary muchly lofted club with the customary lines or dots on the face will, when in the hands of an expert, amply suffice for the task."

CANADIAN SENIOR GOLFERS PLAY WINNING GOLF AT WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS VA.

Mr. C. A. Bogert, Toronto, General Manager of the Dominion Bank, who has been spending two or three weeks at White Sulphur Springs, Virginia, has been playing fine golf there. Last week he won the finals in the Amateur Tournament, defeating Mr. J. R. Sullivan in the finals by 1 up. Mr. Bogert is an International Senior golfer. Mr. Frank L. Patten, another Canadian Senior, Superintendent of the Dominion Bank in Winnipeg, also made an excellent showing, winning his flight in the finals by defeating Mr. F. M. Weed of New York, 6 and 4.

THERE WERE GIANTS IN THOSE DAYS

THE above group of great golfers of the old days from "Golf Illustrated," London, will be of interest both to the old and young followers of the game in Canada. These old-timers did much to lay the foundation of the game which has now spread its tentacles throughout the Anglo-Saxon sporting world. In the above group will be noticed "Auld Tam" Morris, who won the Open Championship belt in 1861, 1862, 1864 and 1867, to be followed by his son, "Young Tam," who captured it three times in a row, 1868, 1869 and 1870—a feat duplicated by Jamie Anderson, the last figure on the right in 1877, 1878 and 1879.

None of the above "giants of the green" of years lang syne are to-day in the land of the living with the possible exception of Willie Dunn. He was in Canada some seven years ago, but dropped out of sight during the war and since then has never been heard of. Whilst in Canada he did some golf instruction in one or two of the smaller Ontario towns. He, however, had "lost his grip" in more senses than one.

ANOTHER COURSE AT MURRAY BAY

The Manoir Richelieu Golf Club has Ideal Surroundings for its Well-planned Links.

MURRAY Bay, which already has a very fine 18-hole golf course of which the ex-President of the United States, the Hon. Chief Justice Taft, is President, is to have another links this season, the "Manoir Richelieu Golf Club," laid out by James A. Black, the well-known professional of the Beaconsfield Golf Club, Montreal. A correspondent writes:—

The new course is situated within easy driving distance of the hotel. The drive is one of the most delightful to be found anywhere and follows the boulevard to where it joins the Riviere Mesillaux road to the North. About five minutes along this road brings us to the golf course.

The view from this point is one of inspiring beauty, and extends down the Cap a l'Aigle peninsular and across the broad St. Lawrence.

The golf links offer a course of unusual and pleasing variety as, after playing the first two holes, each succeeding hole offers something different. The third hole has a water hazard to negotiate. The fourth has a side hill to keep clear of and the hole is situated in a natural bowl (a regular punch bowl). The fifth has a most interesting bit of hill to go over. The sixth is down-hill and crosses over to the east side of the course. The seventh, too, is wonderfully situated on the edge of a natural descent, and a brook has to be crossed on the way. The green is situated in the midst of park-like surroundings of rare beauty. The eighth hole is also down a hill and over a water course and is calculated to tax the skill of the experienced golfer. The ninth hole is on the level and the green is close to the club house and is situated amid a group of pine trees and is most picturesque."

Visitors to Murray Bay the coming season will certainly have the opportunity of enjoying golf, and good golf, too, under most ideal conditions. The new course is about five minutes' drive from the old course and in a somewhat different direction from the hotel. It will greatly relieve the congestion on the old course which of recent years has often been very unpleasantly crowded.

GOLF IN THE ANCIENT CAPITAL

THE Quebec Golf Club, the second oldest on the Continent, has now in full play the 18-hole course at Montmorency Falls, which has been in process of extension for the last few years. In all some $14,000 has been expended on improvements and the Ancient Capital golfers have now one of the finest and most picturesque properties in the Province. The crest of the Club is a beaver with a thistle and maple leaf between crossed golf clubs and the date 1874 underneath, the whole surrounded with the inscription: NEC TEMPERE NEC TIMIDE—a very dignified design, indeed. The officers of this interesting club (which every season is visited by golfers from all parts of the world), for 1922 are:—President, A. J. Welch; Vice-President, A. H. M. Hay; Hon-Secretary, Geo. von Felson; Hon. Treasurer, George Doak; Captain and Chairman of Match Committee, C. H. F. Mills; Chairman Green Committee, J. A. Ruddick, C. E. Other Directors, J. A. Larue, F. S. Stocking, C. Simard and A. R. M. Boulton.

St. Petersburg, Florida, boasts "The one man golf course." Not that one man plays on it. No! no! One man built it. This man happens to be C. Perry Snell. It is no new thing to have a wonderful golf course erected in a city. But it is a great thing and of considerable news value, as a newspaper man would say, to record the fact that one man took it upon himself to build as beautiful a links as the Coffee Pot of St. Petersburg. No outside financial help, no assistance from anyone, C. Perry Snell fought along for three years and more to develop

The club house is of a Japanese style, with an adjoining Japanese garden. The course was built and is owned by Mr. Snell as a part of his "North Shore" development work. The course is now in its second year. The fairways and green are in splendid condition for so young a course. Last winter it certainly sprang into popularity, and over 200 players a day have been going the rounds of the links. We lift our cups and drink to Mr. Snell and his "Coffee Pot."

from the Calgary Club, sponsored by Tom Gillespie and Charlie Hague, will be submitted to the delegates for consideration and possible action. The Norwood resolution, drafted by the council on authority given at the annual general meeting by the members, gives the aims and purpose of the proposed association. The resolution reads:

"That in view of the great increase in the number of clubs and players in the Western provinces in recent years, as a result of the growing popularity of the game amongst all classes of the community, and the proved impossibility of bringing together at a Dominion championship a field of representatives of the various parts of the Dominion, it would be greatly in the interests of the game that a Western Canada Amateur Championship should now be instituted, to be held annually in the different Western provinces in rotation, and, if possible, under the auspices of the Royal Canadian Golf Association.

That a copy of this resolution be sent to the Manitoba Golf Association, with a suggestion that that Association approach the Associations of Saskatchewan, Alberta, and British Columbia, and ascertain their opinions in the matter."

DANVILLE IS TO BE ENVIED

Mr. Greenshields of Montreal has Placed His Beautiful Private 9-hole Course at the Disposal of the Residents of the Town.

THE residents of Danville, Quebec are certainly in luck from a golfing standpoint. Mr. Greenshields, the well-known Montrealer, some two or three years ago had Willie Park lay out a beautiful 9-hole course of 3,060 yards on his summer property at Danville. He has now decided to allow the residents of Danville the use of the links, and a Club has been formed known as the Danville Country Club, with the following officers:—President, R. H. Stevenson; Vice-President, J. R. Pearson; Secretary, J. B. Brooks; Captain, Wm. Currie, and Chairman of Green Committee, O. M. J. Ingalls. Other Directors, J. N. Greenshields, C. G. Greenshields, D. Parmalee and C. H. Cleveland. C. Baxter has been appointed Professional.

The residents of Danville are to be envied their good fortune and Mr. Greenshields heartily congratulated on the munificent manner in which he has forwarded the interests of the Royal and Ancient in the Province of Quebec.

"Joe" Kirkwood is Given a Subscription of £750 to Help Defray His Expenses in Great Britain, the United States and Canada.

"THE Australasian," Melbourne, a copy of which most interesting publication was recently kindly sent to the Editor by Mr. A. S. Patterson, formerly of Woodstock, Ontario, now Manager of The Massey-Harris Company in Australia, contains the account of a meeting in Melbourne where the sum of £750 was raised by golfers there to again send "Joe" Kirkwood (accompanied by his wife) to compete in the British, United States and Canadian Championships this season. Think of that sum, nearly $4,000, Canadian Associations and Clubs, which consider a $100 contribution or so to help a Canadian pro. take part in an outside Championship a handsome donation! The leading golfers of the Antipodes believe such a princely sum is wellspent in advertising Australia on the golf courses of the world. And it is. Australians are certainly liberal patrons of sport. The Captain of the successful cricket team, Warwick Armstrong, which toured Great Britain last season, was the other day banquetted and given a cheque for £2,500!

This same copy of the "Australasian" contains a beautifully illustrated description of the enthronement of Dr. Harrington Clare Lees, formerly Vicar of Swansea, England to the Archbishopric of Melbourne and Metropolitan of the Province of Victoria. This exalted position, it will be remembered, was proffered Archdeacon Cody of Toronto, but declined. Archbishop Lees in his Cambridge days captained cricket and football teams and also played lacrosse and fives. He is now a keen golfer in his leisure time.

EXIT OUTREMONT

Well-known Montreal Club, as a Result of the Builders' Encroachments, Has to Give up its 9-hole Course.

AT the Annual Meeting of the Outremont Golf Club, Montreal, held last month it was decided by the members of the Club present to officially cease to exist as an active organization. The Club was officially closed after the meeting. There was a very fine dinner served, which preceded the Annual meeting. It was the earnest desire of all those present to keep the Club together in name, and following this desire, officers were again elected for the Club. Dr. H. Tatley was re-elected as President. Other officers include: Dr. J. T. Novinger, Vice-President; John Fairlie, Honorary Secretary-Treasurer; Executive Board: J. B. Trow, F. M. McRobie, G. A. Mercier, J. C. Russell and D. N. C. Hogg. Membership in the Club will be continued without fees, it being agreed that should favorable opportunities arise the Club could re-open as an active unit. President, Dr. H. Tatley was presented with some beautiful silver plate by the members of the Club.

This "passing of Outremont" as a result of the encroachments of the avaricious builder will be generally regretted not only by the members of the Club but by golfers generally. Outremont has an interesting 20-year history and its sporting 9-hole course has been the scene of many an interesting match and competition. The majority of the members belong to Kanawaki, in fact, Outremont is virtually "the mother" of that fine Montreal Club. It was a very graceful thing for the members to keep the old flag flying by re-appointing the old Board of Directors. Who knows but what the time-honoured name of Outremont will be yet again on the roster of Canadian golf clubs. Here's hoping!

FROM FAR-AWAY AUSTRALIA

Canadian Golfer Writes That The Courses There Make a Player "Play Golf."

MR. S. B. Chadsey, Manager of the Massey-Harris Company, Brantford, and a Director last year and Chairman of the Finance Committee of the Brantford Golf and Country Club, who, in company with Mr. J. N. Shenstone of the Massey-Harris Company, Toronto, is making a business tour of the Antipodes, writes the "Canadian Golfer" from Melbourne, Australia, under date of March 14th:—

"We have reached Australia safely, having arrived at Sydney on the 7th inst., and I am very pleased to tell you that our journey was a very enjoyable one from first to last. I have conveyed your greetings to Mr. Patterson (Manager for the Massey-Harris Co. in Australia) and he desires me to say that he is very glad indeed to hear from you once more and to tell you how much he appreciates and enjoys your publication. He says that he passes it on to his friends and they, in turn, are very glad of the opportunity of reading it. I found on his desk at the office the latest copy—that is, the latest copy possible for Australia, and enjoyed looking into it, although I had already seen it in Brantford.

I have been on two golf courses, one at Sydney and one at Melbourne. They are interesting, but quite different from those which we have at home. In particular they make a very much greater feature of the "rough" than we do. Between the teeing green and the fairway there is an interval of from 100 to 150 yards, which one is obliged to cross in driving, and if the drive is not a fairly good one, or if it is to right or left, the player is very severely penalized. One is expected to play golf out here and there is no mercy shown to the careless or to the unexpert.

I shall take some pictures of different courses which may be of interest to you later on."

SENIORS' TOURNAMENT AND INTERNATIONAL MATCH

THE dates of The Canadian Seniors' Golf Association's Fifth Annual Tournament have now been definitely decided upon. They are as tentatively announced, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, September 6th, 7th and 8th at the Scarboro Golf and Country Club, Toronto. The Annual Dinner will be held on Thursday evening the 7th, at which the U. S. Seniors' team will be the guests of honour, followed by the International Match on Friday, either morning or afternoon (this to be decided upon later on). The indications are for a record attendance of some 200 Seniors from all parts of Canada. Mr. Frank Presbrey of New York, President of the United States' Association writes the Hon.-Secretary of the C.S.G.A.:—

"I am glad the dates of the Seniors' Tournament in Canada are confirmed; these accord exactly with ours, which will be the week following, and we are looking forward with keen anticipation to meeting your team in Toronto."

MOTHER AND DAUGHTER TOURNAMENT

The first Mother and Daughter Tournament ever staged at Pinehurst was wound up April 7th, with the first prizes awarded to Mrs. Nash Rockwood of New York and Miss Emily Rockwood, aged sixteen, who led the unexpectedly large field with a net best ball score of 108, 15—93. The second prizes went to Mrs. Myron W. Marr of Boston and Miss Virginia Burrage Marr, who finished with 112, 15—97. The prize for the best gross joint round went to Mrs. F. Talfourd Keating of New York and the Agawam Hunt Club and her daughter, Miss Clarissa Metcalf, golf champion of Wellesley College, who played from scratch and had a best ball score of 52, 49—101. The Junior section of the field ranged in age from the six years of Virginia Pierce, daughter of Leslie Dean Pierce, up to the more uncertain ages of married daughters with children of their own. "Father and Son" Tournaments are very popular in the States, but the "Mother and Daughter" stunt is a new one. In Canada a "Pater et Filius" competition would unquestionably be in the nature of a "walk-over" for Mr. George S. Lyon and his son, Seymour.

The J Ball

At Pinehurst, the American golfing centre during the winter weather, the famous "J-H" has been the most popular and widely played ball. With the opening of the northern season this spring, all indications point to the fact that the "J-H" will sustain its enviable position at the top of the field in Canada and the Northern States.

It is standard in weight and size and at $1.00 the most economical ball to play.

The "J-H" is the famous tournament ball, created and played by J. H. Taylor—the Dean of English Pros, and five times winner of the British Open Championship. Standard weight and size; a wonderful ball for hard hitters. Gives great distance, hits firmly on the green and stands up under heavy punishment.

A WELL BELOVED GOLFER

Mr. Horace L. Hotchkiss, Honorary President and Founder of the United States Seniors' Golf Association and Honorary Member of The Canadian Seniors' Celebrates His 80th Birthday.

New York Herald, March 27th:—

"Mrs. Arthur Lucien Niles of 315 West Eightieth Street, gave a dinner tonight at her home to celebrate the eightieth birthday of her father, Mr. Horace Leslie Hotchkiss, of this city, who has a country place, Hyde Manor, Sudbury, Vt.

Mr. Hotchkiss is Honorary President of the United States Seniors' Golf Association and last January he was elected Vice-President of the Union League Club. In spite of his four score years, Mr. Hotchkiss keeps up his interest in golf and he recently returned to his home from Camden, S. C., where he passed two months at the Kirkwood, playing eighteen holes a day. His wife, who died a few years ago, after fifty-four years of married life, was Miss Clara Taylor, a cousin of the late Henry A. C. Taylor.

Mr. Horace Leslie Hotchkiss, Jr., and his wife, who was Miss Dora Toffey, with their children; Mr. Horace Leslie Hotchkiss, 3rd, who married Miss Alta J. Fitch, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Winchester Fitch, and Miss Dora Hotchkiss, were included at the dinner. There also is a fourth to bear the name of his great grandfather, Horace Leslie Hotchkiss, 4 years old.

One of the daughters of Mr. Hotchkiss, who was Miss Josephine Hotchkiss, first became the wife of the late Waldron Williams, and after his death she was married to Mr. W. Eugene Kimball. Her death occurred two years ago, but her children by her first marriage were at the dinner. They are Mrs. John T. Terry, Jr., who was Miss Consance Williams; Mrs. W. Ross Proctor, Jr., formerly Miss Joy Williams; Mr. Barent W. Williams and Miss Hope Williams. The children of Mr. and Mrs. Niles are Mr. Philip B. Niles and Mr. Jonathan H. Niles. Their son, Arthur

L. Niles, died as a result of shell shock during the war.

Mr. Hotchkiss is a member of the Grand Army of the Republic. During the Civil War he served in the United States Navy under Admiral Farragut, the Gulf squadron."

Many Canadian golfing friends join with hosts of U.S. golfers in wishing "the greatest veteran golfer of them all" many more years of usefulness and happiness both on and off the links. When the Canadian Seniors' Golf Association was formed in April, 1918 it was Mr. Hotchkiss who gave the Canadian promoters most invaluable encouragement and support. He followed this up by gracing with his presence the first Annual Tournament of the Association at The Royal Montreal Golf Club at Dixie in the following September and ever since has taken a most paternal interest in the C. S. G. A. Quite properly he was made an Honorary Life Member of the Canadian Association—a very rare honour indeed. It is the general hope and wish of Canadian Seniors that the most distinguished of all Seniors will find it possible to accompany the U.S. International Senior team to Scarborough next September and be the guest of honour at the Annual Dinner. Hardly necessary to say what his welcome will be.

East Kildonan and Sandy Hook Branch Out in Golfing Ventures

A Winnipeg correspondent sends in the following clipping:—

"The lure of golf is affecting suburban districts and summer resorts alike, and, while there is considerable talk of new courses along the banks of the Seine River, projects have materialized at East Kildonan and at Sandy Hook. The East Kildonan Golf Club held its first regular business meeting in the Municipal Hall recently when officers for the year were elected as follows: President, Dr. E. L. White; Vice-President, Thomas Mackay; Secretary-Treasurer, B. A. Everitt, care Hudson's Bay Land Dept.; Executive, Arnold Campbell,

Robert Gray, Harold Matheson, Arthur H. Allardyce, E. R. Siddell and Ward Williams. East Kildonan is a suburb of Winnipeg, the other side of the Red River from the Municipal Course, which is in West Kildonan.

The Club has already received applications for membership equal to half the limit set, and work will be started on the course before the end of this month. It is hoped to have nine holes ready for play early in the season. Temporary buildings only will be erected this year. Membership is not confined to East Kildonan residents only, but the club is open to receive applications from golfers from other districts. The new nine-hole course at

Hearty congratulations from the "Canadian Golfer" and hosts of Canadian friends, to Mr. Horace L. Hotchkiss, of New York, Hon. President and Founder of the United States Seniors Golf Association and an Honorary Life Member of The Canadian Seniors' Golf Association, who has just completed his "80th round" of Life's course, and is still "going strong."

Sandy Hook, a quarter mile from the shores of Lake Winnipeg, and but three miles beyond Winnipeg Beach, has been completed and will be ready for play at the opening of the summer season. The course was designed to meet the playing needs of shareholders who spend the summer at the lake. The nine holes were laid out by Ernest Penfold, professional to the Winnipeg Golf Club, and work was carried out to his plans by Laurie Anderson, formerly professional to the Winnipeg Hunt and Riverside Clubs, who has accepted a similar appointment with the new Sandy Hook Club.

The fairway and greens were put into shape last Fall, and as the greater portion of the fairway is meadowland turf, twenty-six years old, no extensive surface treatment is necessary. The course is laid out on 180 acres which comprised the old Sigurdson farm, and its length is 2,700 yards. Many of the holes are given character by flanking trees, some being very picturesque. Details of the course follow: 1, 224 yards; 2, 150 yards, the green being set back of a dried-up slough which lends sportiness to the approach; 3, a dog-leg, 300 yards; 4, 250 yards; 5, 300 yards; 6, slight dog-leg and reverse, 400 yards; 7, 225 yards, with carry from tee over bush; 8, 225 yards; 9, 296 yards.

Membership for this season at least will be limited to shareholders in the Company formed to institute the new course. The President of the Company is R. I. Clancey; the Vice-President, Ralph C. Duncan and the Board of Directors includes W. G. Manders, H. V. Hudson, Dr. J. Currie McMillan and J. S. Menzies. Play will begin on the course just so soon as weather permits.

WILL TAKE UP PRIVATE PRACTICE

Mr. W. J. Thompson, Well-known Barrister and Golfer, Resigns From the Clerkship of the County Court, Toronto.

MR. W. J. Thompson, one of the best-known Amateur golfers in Canada, and member of a famous golfing family, is taking an important step this month, he having resigned his position as Clerk of the County Court, Toronto, and will, starting May 1st, engage in the private practice of his profession.

Mr. Thompson for some years now has had a wonderful experience in the County Court where hundreds of cases are tried every year, and this varied experience will be invaluable to him in his private practice.

For many years in Championships and International contests on the golf courses of Canada and the States Mr. Thompson has taken a very prominent place indeed. He is not only a particularly well-equipped golfer, but a particularly well-equipped lawyer and there can be no question of the success which will follow him in the important change he is now making. He will undoubtedly receive the generous support not only of golfing friends in Toronto and District but from many well-wishers in outside cities and towns. The "Canadian Golfer" most cordially wishes Mr. Thompson an unbounded success in his private practice of the law. He is deserving of it in every sense of the word.

In the Herts County Alliance Tournament at St. Albans, Ted Ray partnered with Mr. E. W. Shearer, handicapped 4, won the event with an aggregate of 74 and 69—143 for 36 holes. Ray had little if any support from his amateur partner but played himself superbly. There was an incident in their game at the first hole in the afternoon when Mr. Shearer's ball displaced his partner's ball on the putting green. Ray replaced his ball and holed out, and his action in so doing was deemed to have been in order by the committee. Harry Vardon, who was partnered with Mr. J. J. Hamilton, had to be content with 16th place. Vardon thinks that nobody makes the game really easier for himself by very long driving. "Of the reputedly big hitters in the professional ranks," he observes, "Edward Ray has secured the British Open Championship only once, and Abe Mitchell has yet to win it. Nor have long drivers been conspicuously successful in the Amateur Championship. True, Mr. C. J. H. Tolley won in 1920, but it happened on that occasion that he sacrificed length from the tee by driving with his spoon—which, perhaps, was precisely why he triumphed."

Competitors will be required to drive three shots with balls conforming to the specifications from time to time laid down by the Rules of Golf Committee and purchasable in open market; and three shots with balls of their own choice, one in each class to count. The winner will be the player who covers the greatest aggregate distance by carry and run combined with his two counting shots. These conditions may be modified on the day of competition to suit conditions of wind and weather. The course will be delimited on either side, and no ball

A MEDAL PLAY QUESTION AND ANSWER

To the Editor, "Canadian Golfer."

Will you give an opinion, through the columns of your valuable medium, on the following in regard to selected score contest:

A. holds that as it is medal play, all should start from the first tee, and any card turned in by a competitor, beginning at number Ten should be disallowed. In this special instance the first hole is much the more difficult, so that the player arrives there at the top of his game, and in better form to negotiate its difficulties, and also avoids the gallery.

B. holds it makes no difference as long as the competitor completes one continuous round from the tenth.

Answer: The Rules of Golf Committee of the Royal and Ancient is on record in its "Decisions on the Rules" that in medal play competitors MUST all start from the first tee, otherwise, disqualification.—Ed. "Canadian Golfer."

SOUTHWOOD GOLF CLUB, WINNIPEG

Next Season will have One of the Finest 18-hole Courses in the West, Laid out by Willie Park and Replete with "Character" Holes.

acquired a lease of the hunters' property, on which a nine-hole course had already been established. With this as the foundation of their plans, and recognizing that nine holes would not meet the requirements of the club in a city so "golf enthusiastic" as Winnipeg had become, an area of 90 acres immediately adjoining the Hunt Club quarters was secured, which, with an additional purchase of 18 acres, is being developed to function as a permanent 18-hole course.

The property adjoins that of the Agricultural College on the south and runs between the Pembina highway and vantage of the presence in Winnipeg of Willie Park of Musselburgh, Scotland, twice a British Open champion, and a golf architect of International reputation, and engaged him to map out 18 holes on the area secured. Work was started in the Fall of 1919, and the majority of the fairways had to be cleared, for the property was heavily wooded. No sooner had the clearance been effected than the snow came, which caused plowing operations to be postponed. In the following Spring further delay in this essential operation was forced by the late departure of the snow, but late in 1920 this was completed, but snow again came in to delay seeding. Last year an early start was made, and the fairways were entirely sown, 75 per cent. of the seeding being successful, resulting in a strong, heavy growth, promising excellent "lies." The remainder, seeded during a dry spell, required discing and the whole has been re-seeded to date.

The greens are rapidly being whipped into shape, and the majority of these, following the fashion of the day, are being raised. It is intended to bunker the greens judiciously, but the fairways will be practically untouched, as the evolution of the golf ball is liable to necessitate in the near future the complete alteration in the prevailing system of fairway trapping. Water will be led to all greens, the foundation of the pumping station having already been laid.

The Club hopes to secure permanent possession of the commodious premises owned by the Winnipeg Hunt Club, which are at present held on lease, and with every essential detail adequately met, the Southwood Club should prove a popular local institution.

The main feature of the course from a golfing standpoint is the wood-hazard encountered at the majority of the holes, some of which were literally "hewn out of the woods." The terrain is devoid of contour, the course being uniformly flat, but the woods give character to the holes, while the soil is eminently adapted for purposes of a golf course. The fairways on the old property have, perhaps, better turf than any other Winnipeg course, and the new fairways should develop even better, if it be possible for man to improve or assist nature in this respect.

The course as laid out by Willie Park has eliminated the necessity of driving over either the car tracks or road, which intersect at the centre of the property. The first hole (375 yds.) parallels the road, the green being situated in a corner of bush made by the intersection of tracks and road. The second tee is reached by crossing the car line, and the green is distant 505 yards, flanked on the left by woods and on the right by the road leading to the clubhouse. Three is a short hole, 210 yards, cut out of woods and completely surrounded, making accuracy essential. Four is a long dog-leg, 545 yards, the curve to the right made by an angle of the property. The fifth, 195 yards, is practically similar to the present short hole, requiring an accurate drive over an intervening bluff, which is not too thick to exclude vision of the flag. The green is raised and will hold a solid shot. The sixth, 455 yards, is wooded for half the distance and round the green, the reverse being the case in the 355-yard seventh. The eighth, 165 yards, is similar in many respects to the third, being cut out of dense woods. The ninth is the same as at present, with the exception that the tee will be advanced over the car tracks, the new hole being 385 yards back to the club house. The first, fifth and ninth are practically the only holes retained from the present course.

The tenth is an exceedingly sporting little hole of 130 yards, on the banks of the river, the tee being behind the Hunt club house, and the green, with slight intervening ravine, across near the old house on the river bank. Accuracy will be strongly indicated. The eleventh, 310 yards, runs parallel to the river with wood between fairway and stream and also on the other flank. The twelfth, 355 yards, lies along the edge of the property, and is wooded on both sides near the green. The thirteenth tee lies across the car tracks, and the hole runs along the edge of a densely wooded area, which will be used by the Club in the event of the deal with the Winnipeg Hunt Club falling through. It is 420 yards long, while the fourteenth, 195 yards, lies along the Pembina highway, but screened by a fringe of bush. The fifteenth follows the road back to the intersection with the college tracks, 575 yards, the green being surrounded by trees. The sixteenth tee is over the car tracks, the green 375 yards away, while the seventeenth reverts to the tracks through an avenue of trees. The eighteenth carries back to the old house on the river bank on the line of the roadway leading to the club house. It is 355 yards in length, and also featured by its woody hazard. The accompanying chart of the course shows the general layout, and indicates that in the area secured by the Southwood Club there is ample scope for good golf over the 6,275-yard course.

The course is excellently balanced, 3,270 yards out and 3,005 in, or a total of 6,275 yards, the first half being on the south side of the road which cut the property, the second half being on the north side, every hole being entirely new. The fairways in this area give excellent promise, growth being heavy in the majority of instances, while there should be little difficulty experienced in fetching the backward parts in line with the best on the terrain. Should the club house be purchased from the Hunt Club, Southwood will be well fitted out, possessed of a commodious home and first-class course within easy reach of the City. Membership is limited to 600 shareholders, and 525 have already been subscribed, leaving a balance of 75 shares in the treasury. With success so assured, the Club confidently expects to complete its membership without difficulty, as some of the shares have already been sold at a premium. Intentions are to continue play over the present course this year, under the same conditions that proved so successful both from a playing and financial standpoint during the 1921 season. Weather conditions being favourable this season, it is quite possible that the full 18-holes will be in play by next October.

The officers of this most promising Winnipeg Club for 1922 are: President, John Walker Smart; Vice-President, C.

Rice-Jones; Secretary, G. W. Fairbairn, (c/o. Maw & Co., 112 King St. East, Winnipeg); Captain, G. B. Saunders, Chairman Green Committee; J. W. Smart; other Directors, J. H. Riley, (Hon. Sec.-Treas.); C. H. Attwood, W. A. Rule, E. J. Townsend, J. H. Parkhill, A. M. S. Ross, A. J. Innis, E. Craig, A. J. Richardson and H. P. Cox.

The Club is fortunate in having this season as professional, Hugh C. Fletcher, one of the best players and instructors in the West. He has a very fine record as a player, evidence of which is his remarkable feat over the Elmhurst course last season, when he negotiated that difficult course in 68 strokes. Earlier in his Winnipeg career he hung up records for the old Elmhurst club course, Alerest, and also at the St. Charles Country Club. Fletcher was born at Nailsworth, a village in Cheshire, England, and has just turned 30. His first appointment as a professional came at the age of 18, when he filled the position at Clipstow Club in Wales. He came to Canada about ten years ago, and was for a time assistant pro. at the Country Club, afterwards going to Elmhurst.

WITH THE PROFESSIONALS

Several More Appointments Announced in the Various Provinces. Interesting News About the Pros in Canada and Other Countries.

There are a number of professional changes reported from Calgary. At the Calgary Golf and Country Club this season is "Bob" Smith. He is a native of Aberdeen, Scotland, where he was a member of the Victoria Golf Club on whose team he played as a scratch player for fifteen years. In 1910 he won the Amateur Championship of North of Scotland over the famous Cruden Bay course. Afterwards he left for San Francisco to accept a position as head of the Golf Department of A. G. Spalding & Bros. He has laid out courses in Australia, the United States and Canada, including Christchurch, Hobart, Sydney; Nelson, Cranbrook, Moose Jaw, Lethbridge, Blairmore and Red Deer.

* * *

At St. Andrews Golf Club, Calgary this season will be found W. E. Thompson, so well-known to visitors to Banff where for the past 12 years he has been in charge of that famous course on the roof of the world. Thompson came out from Scotland 15 years ago to the Winnipeg Golf and Country Club. He is considered one of the best teachers and club-makers in the West.

* * *

J. Munro Hunter, the former Amateur Champion of Alberta, who took up professional duties last year at the St. Andrews Club, Calgary, has accepted a fine position at the Milwaukee Golf Club. His departure from Canada is a distinct loss to golf here. He is an outstanding player—by many good judges considered the best in the West.

* * *

Still another well-known Western Amateur has joined the ranks of the professionals. A. E. Cruttenden, who has many Tournaments to his credit in the West, has accepted the professional position at the Bowness Golf Club, Calgary. A very sound player, indeed, is Cruttenden, and he is sure to make a success of his new profession. Here's wishing him luck!

James A. Smith is another British pro who has recently come to the States to take a position in Denver, Col., where his brother, Ralph Smith, the Scottish International player, is located. J. A. Smith was for many years at the Handsworth Golf Club, Birmingham.

notable recruit to the professional ranks of Canada:—

“John Burns, son of Jack Burns, St. Andrews, who won the Open Championship in 1888, sails to-day to take up the post of professional at the Essex County Golf and Country Club, Ontario, which is one of the most lucrative appointments in Canada. Burns, who is a plus 1 player in the St. Andrews Club, will be much missed in local golf. He has played for several years in the St. Andrews team against Carnoustie and Leven, and has done well in the club competitions. He tied for the club's autumn scratch medal last September, but lost in the replay. The club to which he is going is situated in the heart of a keen golfing province, and neighbouring professionals are Harry Hampton, Leo. Diegel, Mike Brady and Ernest Ford.”

Oakville, Ontario, has appointed as professional, Bert Tew, who learned his game with Frank Freeman of Rosedale. He is a most promising young player.

The Southern Open Championship, staged by the New Orleans Country Club, has been won by the sensational young Pittsburg pro., Gene Sarazen, who led a classy field by no fewer than 8 strokes. The scores of the leaders:—

Experts generally concede that Sarazen, if he “keeps his head down,” has all the attributes of a coming National Champion.

Jas. R. Skinner, for many years professional at the Waterloo Golf and Country Club, Galt, now Superintendent of the Algonquin Golf Course, St. Andrews, N.B., left this month for St. Andrews again where he and his family will now permanently reside. He is doing splendid work at St. Andrews.

The Fordson on the Fairway

PUBLIC PARKS BOARD,
City of Winnipeg.

4th February, 1922.

H. C. Oliver, Esq.,

Prairie Motors Limited, Winnipeg, Man.

Dear Sir:

In reply to your enquiry re Fordson Tractor purchased last spring for use on the Municipal Golf Course, may say that it was in actual use 136 days, average running time per day over the season being about ten and one-half hours.

Coal Oil consumed, 610 gals.; average cost 21c. Total, $128.00.

No record was kept of gasoline used to start tractor, as a small gas tractor was also being used, but the foreman estimates use of one pint per day, or approximately 18 gallons for season, cost $7.20.

Apart from a few spark plugs, repairs were practically nil.

The Fordson was used chiefly for pulling a set of lawn mowers on the fairways, but it was also used for hauling roller, wagon with loads of sand, spreading manure, etc., hauling mower to cut long grass on "the rough," and finished up by doing a job of plowing.

It did everything a good team could do and did it much more easily and quickly.

The foreman on the grounds and myself were satisfied with its performance in every way.

Yours truly,

(Signed), G. CHAMPION,

General Superintendent, Public Parks Board.

Phil Taylor, who is a very fine golfer indeed, writes from Victoria where last year he took up the professional duties at the well-known Oak Bay course, that he is making arrangements this Summer to take in both the U. S. Open at Skokie, Chicago, and the Canadian Open at Montreal. He states that he is still kept very busy eight hours a day giving lessons and that he has recently had a house built for himself and will move into it this month. Oak Bay is one of the best professional berths in the Dominion. The course is visited during the year by hundreds of touring golfers and the green fees are easily the greatest in Canada. They will approximate this year $9,000 which is greater than the whole revenue of many a club.

Arthur C. Binks, formerly at Guelph, entered his new duties at the Sarnia Golf Club on April 10th. He is anticipating a very busy season.

* * *

The professional position at Fredericton, one of the best clubs in New Brunswick, has been filled by the appointment of Wm. Ducat, a Scotchman with a good playing record in the Old Country and an instructor of ability. He takes the place of T. J. Devlin who goes to Knowlton, Que.

The Civic Golf Club of Hamilton which has been given the name of "Chedoke" and which will be put into operation next month with a membership of 1,000 or so, has appointed R. Cunningham as professional—a very good choice. The Chedoke has the great advantage of having the old 18-hole course of the Hamilton Golf Club to successfully start off with. The old course is a very good one and it ought to be comparatively easy to whip it into shape in short order.

The place of Richard Holden, who left this month to take up his important duties at Elmhurst, Winnipeg, has been filled by the appointment of a young Toronto pro., A. F. Moss. Oshawa will have 18 holes in play this season which constitutes a record in Canada for a place of its size. And a particularly interesting course it is, too. Moss is assured of a busy season, as Oshawa has a large and enthusiastic membership.

"Jock" Hutchison, British Open Champion, and Jim Barnes, U. S. Open Champion, recently played on opposite sides at Pinehurst in a four-ball match staged on the championship course, in which Hutchison and Tom Kerrigan won by 2 up, and from Barnes and Ayton. Hutchison and Kerrigan had individual rounds of 72 each and a best ball of 33—33—66. Two other well-known pros., Joe Kirkwood, the Australian wizard, and Gene Sarazen of the Highland Club, Pittsburg, were defeated by Pat O'Hara of Richmond County, and Cyril Walker of Englewood.

"Jock" Hutchison of Chicago, British Open champion, won the Open Golf Tournament at the Columbia Country Club, Washington, D.C. with a 72-hole total of 295. John Farrell of Quaker Ridge, N. Y., was second with 299, and Walter Hagen, New York, third, with 303. Farrell, who had led the field up to the final round, started out with a two-stroke lead on Hutchison. A series of missed putts by Farrell, coupled with brilliant play by Hutchison, put the British titleholder two strokes in the lead at the turn, a lead he never relinquished. He picked up two more shots on the young Quaker

Ridge opponent, on the second nine, finishing with a card of 72 to Farrell's 78. Mike Brady, of Detroit, runner-up in the Canadian Open Championship last year at Toronto, was in fourth place, with a 72-hole total of 304, while

The new club "Sandy Hook" which is being put into operation this season at Winnipeg Beach, will have for its professional L. Anderson, formerly with the Winnipeg Hunt Club.

The Hermitage Golf and Country Club at Magog, Que., which has an interesting 9-hole course of 3,200 yards, will be looked after professionally by W. Madden. The Hermitage is a very popular summer resort club.

Kelowna, B. C., which has a very pretty 9-hole course, is branching out this season and has appointed James Gourlay as professional. The Kelowna Club has an enthusiastic membership.

Charlie Murray of The Royal Montreal Golf Club, returned the end of Playing fine golf throughout, Walter Hagen won the second Open Golf Tournament at White Sulphur Springs, Virginia, April 8th, with a total of 284 for the 72 holes. For the first three rounds it resolved itself into a race between Hagen and Johnny Farrell, the young Quaker Ridge pro., but eventually Hagen won by a margin of six strokes. The best round of the Tournament was a 69 on the last lap by Joe Kirkwood, the young Australian trick shot artist. Ferrell sustained the fine reputation he made at the Columbus, D. C. Tournament, where he finished second to "Jock" Hutchison. Kirkwood finished the last nine holes in an extremely spectacular manner, playing the last six holes in 19 strokes.

Jas. N. Ogilvie, who has been conducting a successful Indoor School at Welland since last January, has been appointed professional at the new Look-out Point Club, Welland. He was formerly at the Ferenze Club, Barrhead, Scotland and comes to Canada highly recommended. Ogilvie is an Ayrshire man and learned his golf round the Championship course at Prestwick and then Troon. He served in the Gordon Highlanders during the War and the Machine Gun Corps. After his discharge from the Army he decided to take up golf as a professional and, coming to Canada, received the Welland appointment. He had a fine record as an Amateur and is sure to make good as a pro.

"Davie" Black of Shaughnessy Heights Golf Club, Vancouver, Canadian Professional Champion, writes under date of April 2nd:—

"In reference to entering a team of professionals from Canada for the U.S. Open at Chicago, I feel sure if the matter was gone into that it could be accomplished O.K. It would be a good boost for Canada, and also give us a little more experience in competition, which we don't have much of. I am quite sure if the right men were approached that funds could be raised to pay expenses without any trouble, as we have a number of very well-to-do men belonging to the different Clubs throughout Canada who would be only too willing to contribute to send a team into the States. Have been in touch with Phil Taylor and he is in favor of the scheme, and hopes it will go through alright."

T. Jackson-Williams, who learned his game in the Old Country and who served with the First Canadian Expeditionary Force, has been appointed professional this season at Digby, Nova Scotia, which is rapidly becoming one of the most popular resorts in Canada. Last year Jackson-Williams was at Granby, Quebec.

J. R. Skinner, formerly pro at Galt, Ontario, now Superintendent of the far-famed course at St. Andrews, N. B., writes under date of April 10th:—

"Just a note to let you know I have arrived at St. Andrews, N. B. and found everything O.K. The course is in lovely shape—fit for playing on already. I have never seen the course so dry at this time of the year."

QUEBEC PROVINCIAL CHAMPIONSHIP

Will be Held Over the Mount Bruno Course June 9th and 10th. Mr. W. W. Walker Elected President of the Association.

THE Provincial Golf Championships will be played over the Mount Bruno Country Club course on Friday and Saturday, June 9 and 10, according to the decision reached at the Annual Meeting of the Province of Quebec Golf Association held April 3rd. The Open and Ladies' Championships will be played on June 9 and the Amateur Championship and Handicap event will be held on June 10. There is a possibility that the Ladies' Association will have complete charge of their own event this summer. The limit of handicaps for the Men's Championship events was set at 10 and for the Handicap event at 14.

Mr. W. W. Walker, last season the representative of the Beaconsfield Golf Club to the Provincial Association, was elected President of the P. of Q.G.A. to succeed the retiring President, Mr. J.

L. McCulloch. Besides the prominent position he occupies in golfing circles, Mr. Walker is well-known as a curler and during the past year was President of the Montreal Curling Club, the senior organization in the Canadian Curling fraternity.

Mr. G. H. Turpin was elected Vice-President, and Mr. R. J. R. Stokes of the Mount Bruno Country Club, Honorary Secretary-Treasurer. Mr. E. L. Pease was chosen Chairman of the sub-committee which will have charge of the Championship events at the Mount Bruno Club, the chief Executive officers of the Provincial being ex-officio members of this committee. Other members of the sub-committee include Messrs. E. A. MacNutt, E. S. McDougall, J. Buchanan, G. A. Wendt and C. B. Grier.

WINS HANDSOME TROPHY

Lambton Young Lady Golfer Makes A Record at Long Beach, California, in a Clock-golf Tournament.

“THE Daily Telegram,” Long Beach, California, contains the following golfing item which will be read with interest by Toronto golfers:—

“Displaying an accuracy that could not be gainsaid, Miss Mary M. Curren, of Toronto, Canada, (a member of the well-known Lambton Golf and Country Club) captured the first prize, a beautiful silver trophy, in the clock golf tournament that has just been finished at the Hotel Virginia.

Miss Curren recorded an enviable score. The par for this unique course is 24. Miss Curren hung up a score of 22, or two below par. In other words she averaged below less than two strokes for each of the 12 holes.

Miss Kimball and Miss Margaret Williams tied for second place with a total of 25 each.

The tournament continued throughout the month of February. It attracted a large entry. Many of the contests were witnessed by good galleries.

Clock golf is really a unique game. A big dial is laid out on the lawn. The hours are marked off at proportionate intervals. In the centre of the circle is a hole. The golfers endeavor to drive the ball into the hole in the centre of the dial from each hour in as few strokes as possible. Two strokes from each hour on the Virginia's clock is the par allowance. Generally the score totals more than 24 strokes. Miss Curren made three holes in one stroke each, eight holes in two strokes each, and one hole in three strokes.

Though the Canadian belle claims she was lucky, her friends maintain she earned the low score she recorded by her consistently skillful play.

This is the third time Miss Curren has been at the Virginia Hotel. With her are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. H. Selby, and her cousin, A. R. Mulholland, who resides at Port Hope, Ontario.

ROSEDALE'S ANNUAL MEETING

One of the Leading Clubs of Canada Has a Banner Season Ahead of it. Improvements to the Magnificent 18-hole Course Now All Completed.

AN enthusiastic meeting of the members of the Rosedale Golf Club, Toronto, took place on Saturday, March 25th at the Club House, there being an attendance of some 200 members.

The report of the Directors and the financial statement were submitted by the President, and the shareholders authorized an assessment upon the men of $20.00 and $5.00 upon the ladies. This will complete the financing of all the improvements undertaken upon the course reconstruction and club house additions. The total amount spent within the past two or three years considerably exceeded $100,000.00, and the Club is to be congratulated in having accomplished this without increasing their outside liabilities.

Messrs. T. Rennie, J. Lindsay and C. W. Defoe were elected to replace the three retiring members of the Board, Messrs. W. B. Woods, J. H. Hall and John Martin, all of whom have given invaluable service during their term covering the past three years. With the election of the three named above working with the remaining members of the Board, Messrs. Despard, Dunlap, Gibson, Lumbers, Band and Pearce, the Club is assured of careful and efficient management. Mr. W. H. Despard was again chosen as President by the Board, following the Annual Meeting—a most popular appointment, Mr. Despard having occupied the chair with great acceptance the past two years.

The outlook for the season is bright, and the course should be in a better condition than for some years past. Extensive work was undertaken last autumn upon the fairways and the greens. The course has wintered well, and the coming summer will undoubtedly be one of the best in the history of this very representative Ontario club.

The total membership of Rosedale is now 842 made up as follows: Men, resident, 478; men, non-resident, 37; lady, resident, 288; lady, non-resident, 15; life members, 5; juniors, 19. The income for the year was $52,245, $39,635 representing annual fees, $3,147 green fees and $1,722 locker fees. The extensive plans and improvements recommended by Donald Ross have now all been completed and Rosedale has now a championship course right up to concert pitch.

Extracts from the interesting 29th annual report presented by Mr. Despard on behalf of the Board of Directors:—

"The climatic conditions of the winter and the extremely hot summer were very unfavorable for the new work upon the course, and considerable additional expense was incurred. Any work undertaken during the past summer was carefully and well done, and will show results this coming season.

An addition to the main Dining Room was built, greatly increasing the capacity which was essential to accommodate members.

The Club is to be congratulated upon having practically rebuilt the entire Club House and course during the past three years, involving the expenditure of a large sum of money, without having increased the capital indebtedness, and, with the completion of the present financing with no other debts.

The Club has taken over the sale of golf balls, and will retain the profit accruing therefrom. A booth has been built at the first tee for their sale, for visitors' tickets, etc., and will be in charge of a Caddie-master. The caddies this year will be properly instructed and graded first and second class, and will be under control of the Caddie-master.

Four new storm shelters have been built on the course; a gift to the Club by the Directors.

At the request of many of the members, the sheep have been dispensed with.

The general scheme of beautifying the grounds surrounding the Club House has made good progress, a large number of trees and shrubs having been transplanted during the winter.

Your attention is called to the most excellent work of the Steward and Mrs. Hitchcock. The service throughout the Club House has been of a high standard, and their efforts have been greatly appreciated by the members."

YOUNG PROVIDENCE WONDER

Wins the Womens' North and South Championship at Pinehurst, North Carolina

MISS Glenna Collette, the young Providence girl who led the field in the qualifying round of the last U. S. National title event, won the Women's North and South championship title and trophy at Pinehurst, March 29th, defeating Mrs. M. Johnson Scammell of Uniontown, Penn., in the final contest, 4 up and 2 to play. The bye-holes were played out, Miss Collette finishing with the medal score of 41-42-83, and Mrs. Scammell with 43-46-89.

Miss Harriet Shepard of Hartford, Conn., won the major consolation trophy, defeating Mrs. John D. Chapman of Greenwich, Conn., one up, at the end of a plucky up-hill battle, in which Miss Shepard was never in the lead until she won the last hole and the match.

Both final matches were staged on the championship course. The championship contest was featured by an almost perfect long game on the part of Miss Collette, who rarely used more than two strokes to get on the sand on the two-shot holes, and by brilliant recoveries from apparently insuperable difficulties achieved by both contestants.

Time and again one or the other player recovered from bad lies in bunkers to within putting distance of the cup, and on one occasion, on the play of the fourth hole, Miss Collette trapped sixty feet away from the green, holed her recovery shot for a "birdie" 3. She followed this up with another "birdie" score on the par 5, fifth hole, where she reached the green on her second shot. Many good critics consider her to-day

TO STIMULATE INTEREST

A Well-known Vancouver Golfer is Giving a Cup for Competition Between Four-men Teams in British Columbia.

FOR the purpose of stimulating participation in the B. C. Championship Golf Tournament by Clubs outside of the leading cities, Mr. Wilkie Fowler, Manager of the Gutta Percha and Rubber Company, Vancouver, has offered a Cup for competition between four-man teams representing the various clubs whose members take part in the title play.

Each club will nominate as its team four players who enter the championship qualifying round, and the two teams having the lowest aggregate in has no excuse for existing. It is a non-golfish situation which it presents to the player. What is the fundamental principle of golf? Is it not that the player shall be allowed to overcome the natural obstacles of the course, the bunkers, the rough, the wind, the rain, etc., without any interference by the opponent? Neither with an arm nor a leg, nor any part of his body is he allowed to intercept the ball of the opponent. Nor is he allowed to permit any part of his equipment, his gloves, or his cap or his clubs to interfere. Nor is his ball allowed to interfere with the other's play from the tee to the green. If the ball of the opponent interfere with the player's shot even in a hazard, it must be lifted if the player so wills.

But observe that as soon as the putting green is reached another kind of game comes into being. It is a sort of cross between billiards and golf. Just as in billiards one of the balls may form an obstruction for the cue ball, causing what is known as a "line-up," so the opponent's ball is permitted to become an obstruction, not between the player's ball and another ball but between his ball and the cup. The cup assumes the relationship of the second object ball in the "lineup" in billiards.

Thus with the permitted stymie we allow a billiard situation to enter the game, a situation which is distinctly opposed to the basic idea underlying the game that the opponent shall not interfere in any way with the playing of the other's shot. This principle is recognized in medal play from which the stymie is excluded.

The chief reason advanced for the stymie presents a beautiful non sequitur. This reason is that the stymie forces a skillful shot. Yet at the same time it has a limit of six inches. Why? So that it will not be too difficult. Observe the cogency of that reasoning. Difficulty is given as the reason but the difficulty must not be too great. And now Mr. Ross would make it still less. As a matter of fact, certain players like Kirkwood, Travis and others can negotiate a stymie with only three inches separating the balls more easily than most players can at the six-inch limit.

Francis Ouimet was always angered when he laid his opponent a stymie in the old days, for he did not wish to win with the stymie, but on his merits as a player. He realized that the stymie was just as much an unfair obstruction as if the rules had absurdly allowed him to lay his putter across the line of the other's play. More than ten years ago, in Harper's Weekly, I indicted the stymie in a half-page article entitled "The Iniquity of the Stymie." Since that time I have never seen a logical answer made to the points there raised against it. In fact, the only answer attempted has been that the abolition of the stymie would remove a difficult shot. This, instead of being an answer, is a pure begging of the question, for it is not a question of whether a shot is difficult or not; it is whether it is a legitimate shot. To jump a putter laid across the line of his play would be a difficult shot for a player, but it would not be a justification for permitting such interference with the opponent's play.

CAMBRIDGE BEATS OXFORD

Tolley's Mighty Drive at the 11th Quite One of the Features of the Event.

THE first big golf event in the list of British 1922 competitions was the meeting of the Oxford and Cambridge University teams at the Prince's course, Sandwich, March 28th and 29th. The first day, which was devoted to two-ball foursomes, saw the Cambridge team one match to the good and when the singles of the second day gave five matches points for each side, Cambridge came through victor by the single point.

Cyril Tolley, the British 1920 Amateur Champion, clashed with C. H. Prowse, Captain for Cambridge. Tolley won by 3 and 2, but not till Prowse had given the Oxonians a scare. At the end of the first five holes of the 36-hole match, Prowse had the former champion 4 down. But at the turn Tolley had cut this lead to one hole, and on the 11th, with one of the greatest drives ever seen in a match, squared the contest.

The hole is 426 yards long and Tolley's drive finished only 56 yards short of the green. At noon Tolley was 3 up and eventually was 5 up with 7 to play, but Prowse pulled this lead down to 2, Tolley winning by 3 up on the 34th green. Prowse played in the United States last season in the Intercollegiate Championship at Greenwich. J. A. Bott of Cambridge also was a competitor at Greenwich and lost his match March 29 to A. H. S. Vivian by 1 up.

NORWOOD HONOURS EX-PRESIDENT

Mr. R. C. S. Bruce, for Seven Years in the Chair, is Made Honorary President and Life Member.

THE Annual Meeting of the Norwood Golf Club, Winnipeg, was held last month at the Fort Garry Hotel, with a large attendance of members. All reports submitted were of a gratifying nature, showing the Club to be in a healthy state, and re-organization was effected without controversy.

With Mr. R. C. S. Bruce, President of the Club for the past seven years, expressing a definite intention to retire from active participation in the affairs of the Club, the members unanimously decided that some testimony of their appreciation of the valuable services rendered by Mr. Bruce during his long connection with the Club, should be made. Consequently, to meet the situation, a new office, that of Honorary President, was instituted, Mr. Bruce being unanimously elected thereto. In addition, he was elected a life member of the Club, the highest honour within the gift of the members. The recipient of this dual honour at the hands of the members of the Club, which he has done so much to foster and encourage, learned his game in Scotland. He was, by the way, the first golfer in the West to join the Canadian Seniors' Golf Association.

Several of the members spoke in glowing terms of the success which the Club had achieved under the Presidency of Mr. Bruce, who, it was pointed out, had been primarily responsible for its re-organization and survival as the Norwood Club. Strong efforts were made to have him retain active interest as an official, but he resisted, and E. J. Townshend was elected to the position. Other officers elected were: Vice-President, R. L. Denison; Secretary, W. F. Minty; Committee, F. E. Bissell, T. S. English, W. Hatley, A. G. Macdonald, E. W. S. MacVey, B. O'Kelly and W. Sinclair; Auditors, J. M. Manhood and

Mr. R. C. S. Bruce, of Winnipeg, elected Hon. Life Member of Norwood Golf Club.

W. T. Chisholm; delegates to Manitoba Golf Association, R. C. S. Bruce and E. J. Townshend.

At a subsequent meeting of the Directors the following Chairmen of Committees were appointed: Green, E. W. S. MacVey; House, W. Hatley; Match and Handicap, B. O'Kelly; Membership, T. S. English.

THE PASSING OF MR. WILSON

Head of the Well-known Sporting Goods House of Harold A. Wilson, Ltd., Yonge Street, Toronto, Succumbs at Saranac Lake, after an Illness of Some Duration.

THE sudden death took place last month at Saranac Lake, N. Y. of Mr. Harold A. Wilson, well-known Toronto sporting goods dealer. Mr. Wilson had gone to Saranac Lake to undergo treatment as he had been in failing health for the past two years.

The Late Mr. Harold A. Wilson, a Leading Pioneer in the Canadian Sporting Goods Business of Canada.

Mr. Wilson was born in Sarnia 55 years ago and in the course of his business life rose to be head of one of the largest sporting goods concerns in the country. He began his business career with the P. C. Allen Company and worked up to the position of Manager. Subsequently he purchased the business and moved it from King Street, Toronto to its present site on Yonge Street.

He was a valued member of St. Paul's Anglican Church and for many years had been a member of the National Club, the Royal Canadian Yacht Club and the Lambton Golf Club. The late Mr. Wilson is survived by his widow, four daughters and one son, John. The daughters are Mrs. Stanley B. Lee, Toronto; Miss Mona, who served in the American Red Cross in France; Jane and Margaret. Lieut. Harold Mackenzie Wilson, another son, was killed in France in 1916, while with the 48th Highlanders.

Mr. Wilson never quite got over the shock of his gallant son's death in France and for some time had been in failing health. Years ago he was greatly interested in cricket and bowling but of later years, golf was his chief consideration.

The Editor of the "Canadian Golfer" for a quarter of a century or so had been interested with Mr. Wilson in cricket, bowling and golf activities and can testify to his sterling worth. He was a loving husband and father, a loyal friend, a clever business man, and his passing will be regretted by friends throughout Canada. To the bereaved family, the sympathy of golfers and all lovers of amateur sport, will be sincerely extended in this their great bereavement.

KINDERSLEY ELECTS OFFICERS

Kindersley, Saskatchewan, which last year took up enthusiastically with the game at its annual meeting, March 30th, elected the following officers for 1922: President, W. R. Gordon; Vice-President, G. H. Winstanley; Secretary-Treasurer, John Knox; Executive:

W. A. Prouse, H. O. Roberts, Dr. J. A. Murison, I. E. Hann, J. J. Dixon, Mrs. T. M. Goldie; Green Committee: G. H. Winstanley, Chairman, H. O. Roberts, Dr. Murison; Handicap Committee: W. R. Gordon, Chairman, John Knox, I. E. Hann.

A member of the Brightwood Golf and Country Club, Dartmouth, N. S. writes:—

"The new club house scheme was discussed at the Annual Meeting, but was deferred for a few weeks to give the members an opportunity to consider the matter before coming to a definite conclusion. The Glendale Golf and Country Club Limited, Hamilton, has extended the privileges of the course to all those entered in the Canadian Amateur Championship this coming June at the Hamilton Golf and Country Club Course at Ancaster, for the week preceding, as well as the week in which the Championship is held. There will be no charge for green fees. This thoughtful action upon the part of the Glendale Directors will be greatly appreciated by the entrants in the Amateur event.

Mr. Charles L. Millar, the Canadian representative of such well-known firms as the Burke Golf Company, Newark, Ohio; Stell's, of Scarborough, England and Miller & Taylor, Glasgow, has found it necessary, owing to the great increase in his golfing business from Coast to Coast, to move into new and greatly enlarged quarters in the Mappin Building, Montreal. He is also placing a representative on the road in order to look after the wants of his increasing clientele to be found in every Province of the Dominion.

The Winnipeg Canoe Club, golf section, has decided to limit the lady membership to 150 and the men to 250. Last year the Club had 225 lady members and 303 men, so it will be seen there will be a "cut" in the ladies' membership of 75 and in the mens' membership of 50 odd. This step is being taken to do away with congestion on the course. The total receipts last year of the golf section of the club was $7,678—a very good showing, indeed. This year the fees and green fees will be increased.

At a meeting of the Ladies' Golf Section of the Winnipeg Canoe Club, held in the Y.W.C.A. recently, the following officers for the year were elected: Captain, Miss Jean Billington; Vice-Captain, Mrs. Maxwell; Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. C. The "Canadian Golfer" thinks the M.L.G.A. is well-advised in merging its Association with the C.L.G.U.

In the ever-growing domain of golf, the marvellous of yesterday becomes the common-place of to-day, and it is never safe to assume that the records of yester-year still stand. A contemporary recently alluded to the golf course at Gulmarg in Kashmir, 8,500 feet above the sea level, as if it were the "highest ever." Alas, they were only 5,000 feet out. The honour of using the highest tee is now claimed for La Paz Golf Club, in Bolivia, whose course is fairly on the roof of the world, 13,500 feet above the ocean. Excelsior!

The Hon. Wallace Nesbitt, K.C., of Toronto, Vice-President of The Canadian Seniors' Golf Association and Mrs. Nesbitt returned this week from an enjoyable three months' tour of South America.

The late Mr. Gordon M. McGregor of Windsor, ex-President of the Essex Golf and Country Club, left an estate (principally to his wife) of over $1,000,000. In his will he requests Mrs. McGregor to continue during her life to give to the many philanthropic institutions in which he was so much interested.

Many golfing friends will be sincerely glad to hear that Mr. S. Alfred Jones, K.C., ex-President of the Brantford Golf and Country Club (a former Controller of the City of Toronto) has completely recovered from a recent operation for appendicitis.

Mr. W. R. Baker, C.V.O., President of The Canadian Seniors' Golf Association, has returned to Montreal from a most enjoyable visit to Havana, Bermuda and other well-known winter resorts. He writes the Editor:—

"The new Club House of The Royal Montreal Golf Club at Dixie is nearly finished and is going to be very attractive. It will be a credit alike to Montreal and the whole Dominion."

The Glen Stewart Golf Course, Toronto, will be officially opened for the season on April 29th, when a match will be played between the President's and Vice-President's teams.

Mr. James L. Chambers, a well-known Toronto golfer, has recently returned from visiting the home of golf. Incidentally he says: "Saw quite a lot of the "Canadian Golfer" in Scotland."

The West, too, is getting the Managerial idea in connection with golf clubs. Mr. W. Petrie has this season been appointed Manager at Medicine Hat, which fair Alberta town boasts a very progressive club.

Mr. J. S. Livingstone, Treasurer of the New York Downs Golf and Country Club, Ltd., Toronto, writes:

"You may be interested to know that the stock is now flowing in freely, as many as eight and ten shares a day, and this is running up the list of members very fast, and the best of all is, that the class of people subscribing are amongst our best people."

Mr. W. W. Wilkinson, President of the Waterloo Golf and Country Club, Galt, who has been spending several weeks at Nassau, Bahamas, writes that the golf links there command one of the most beautiful views in the world. Quite a number of Canadians were golfing visitors to Nassau this season.

The two magnificent new courses of The Royal Montreal which will be open for play at Dixie this season are the capital lengths respectively of 6,204 yards, par 71, and 6,329 yards, par 72—36 each way. The old course, which has been revamped, and the new course, are both from the plans of Mr. Willie Park. The 18th greens of the two courses end up in front of the magnificent new club house which is now nearing completion, the formal opening being scheduled for May 24th next.

No better clubs made in the world than those turned out at the factory of A. H. Scott, Elie, Scotland, golf club maker to H. M. King George V. and the Royal Ramily. The firm is the original inventor of the socket clubs now universally used. The sole Canadian distributor for A. H. Scott is Harvey Bowles and Co., 141 Bannalyne Ave., E. Winnipeg, which firm carries a complete stock of these justly celebrated clubs. Harvey Bowles & Co. are also Canadian agents for another famous Scottish firm, Miller and Taylor, the Reliance Works, Camlachie, makers of "The Perfect" and other well-known lines of most reliable golf balls which are having every season an increasing vogue amongst Canadian golfers. Harvey Bowles & Co. have an enviable reputation for integrity and worth amongst the professionals and golf trade of the Dominion. They are a good firm to do business with.

Mr. E. L. Cockshutt of Brantford, who in years gone by has given liberal support to golf and bowling clubs, this month gave the very handsome subscription of $3,000 to the Brantford Parks Board to be expended in improving the Athletic Field at Mohawk Park. There are no conditions attached to the generous gift, which makes it all the more acceptable.

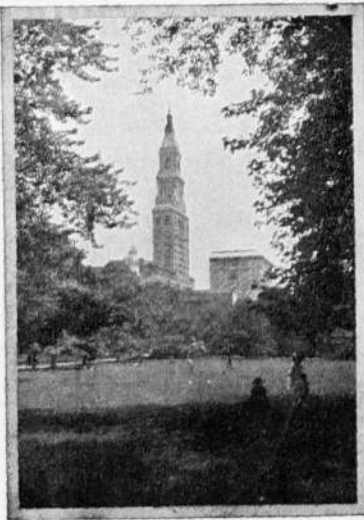

Mr. H. B. Bristol, President of the Picton Golf Club, returned recently from spending two months in Florida. He reports Belleair one of the best courses in the South, but played a great deal, too, over the Coffee Pot links at St. Petersburg, Fla.—the quite unique and interesting course described elsewhere in this issue.

Another interesting Western course which will be put into play this season is that of the Dauphin Country Club, situated 8 miles from Dauphin, Manitoba. The course is 2,800 yards and exceptionally well-situated and laid out. The officers of this latest Manitoban Club are: President, J. A. Bowman; Vice-President, A. L. Bonnycastle; Secretary-Treasurer, G. H. Crimes; other Directors: W. Arnett, J. A. Campbell, C. K. Guild, Dr. J. R. Gunne, J. W. Johnston and W. Robson. Success to Dauphin!

A very pretty summer-resort course which will be open for play this season is that of the Briars Golf and Country Club at Jackson's Point, Ontario. The 9 holes were laid out last season by Mr. Stanley Thompson and will provide an excellent test of golf. The Club has already 160 members comprising many well-known Torontonians. Mr. R. A. Stapells is President, Mr. J. F. Brown, Vice-President and Mr. J. D. Sibbald, Secretary and Mr. J. E. Proctor, Chairman of the Green Committee. The course is situated some 50 miles from Toronto via Newmarket and Sutton.

Mr. George R. Binger, Honorary Secretary of the Kelowna Golf Club, Kelowna, B. C., in an interesting letter to the Editor, says:—

"Our links are very prettily situated on rolling land among the pines and overlook Okanagan Lake and Kelowna and to the north are the orchards of the Glenmore Valley. The eastern boundary is Dilworth Mountain with its sheer cliff rising several hundred feet, which makes a very striking background. Our Club House overlooks a pond of about 4 acres and from it can be seen 8 of the 9 holes. It is a very sporting course and we have ample room to make an 18-hole course of 5,100 yards. Our present membership is 110, but this will be greatly increased this season."

Certainly a very pretty picture. That membership, too, of over one hundred with prospects of a great increase, is certainly most creditable.

The 1922 meeting of the Maritime Golf Association will be held at Charlottetown, which has the unique honour of being the only golf club in Prince Edward Island. The dates have not yet been fixed. The officers of the Association this year are: J. H. Malcom, President; W. K. Rogers, Vice-President; D. B. Stewart, Secretary-Treasurer, all of Charlottetown, and W. A. Henry, K.C., Halifax (a Director of the Royal Canadian Golf Association), Stewart McCawley, Lingan Golf Club, Sydney, N. S.; W. H. Semple, Truro, N.S.; P. C. Black, Amherst, N. S. and H. N. Stetson, St. John, N. B.

The great British golfers, J. H. Taylor and "Sandy" Herd, will open their Canadian tour at Glendale Golf and Country Club, Hamilton, on August 14th. On August 16th they will play at Brockville; August 19th, Weston, Toronto and August 23rd, The Royal Montreal Golf Club. Unlike Vardon and Ray, and Duncan and Mitchell, Taylor and Herd, during their tour in the States and Canada, do not intend to play every day. They will take matters quite leisurely and are well advised in doing so.

One of the most charming summer resorts in Canada "down by the sounding sea" is Digby, Nova Scotia, a place which every year is becoming increasingly popular with golfers, the result of the greatly improved golf course there. By all means "put Digby on your itinerary this Summer." You won't regret it, both from a health-giving and golfing standpoint. The place for your headquarters at Digby is "Lour Lodge," Mr. Aubrey Brown's famous hostelry. Mr. Brown also has furnished cottages. Added attractions—"good bathing," and, think of this! "no flies nor mosquitoes."

Mr. Frank Reid of Simcoe was among many other Canadian Senior golfers who enjoyed a round of the Florida links the past winter.

The Oshawa Golf Club is erecting a $10,000 club house this season. The game is becoming very popular at Oshawa, over 20 new members having joined the Club already this Spring.

The Beach Grove Country Club Directors at Walkerville have decided to proceed at once with the building of a particularly handsome new club house. The plans show one of the most artistic golf buildings in Ontario.

The formal opening of the Brantford Golf and Country Club will take place on Friday, May 5th when a dinner-dance will be held. Mr. R. C. H. Cassels, K.C., President of The Royal Canadian Golf Association, will be the guest of honour.

A contract has been let for the erection of a beautiful new club house at Colwood, Victoria. It is expected to have the building erected in time for the Pacific Northwest Championships which are to be held at Colwood, June 5th to 10th. Mr. P. Leonard James is the architect. It can be mentioned that the main floor alone will include a spacious dining room thirty feet by sixty feet, while all the windows will be of plate glass. In the front of the building a fifteen-foot terrace has been provided for and this convenient promenade will continue round to the south side. The lower floor will be entered by a large hall and that again will contain a comfortable grill room of dimensions sufficient to cater to large numbers at one time. Its size will be thirty feet by thirty feet. Both floors will be equipped with large and airy card rooms as well as ample shower baths. It is generally conceded that the course at Colwood is one of the finest on the Continent. The new Club house will round out the property to perfection.

Abe Mitchell won the East Kent Professionals' Competition on March 29 with 77-74-151. J. Rimmer, the Bidstone pro., the same day captured the Championship of the Liverpool and Professional Golfers' District Alliance with 74-78-152. The titleholder, A. G. Havers, took 80-77-157.

The dates of the Toronto and District Championships have been fixed for Friday and Saturday, June 9th and 10th at Lambton. The present holders of the Championships are: Amateur, Mr. George S. Lyon; Professional, George Cumming. There promises to be a record number of entries this year.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Wallace of Harvard Avenue, Toronto, had a nerve-racking experience and a miraculous escape from death on Good Friday afternoon while crossing the G.T.R. tracks on the Dixie road leading from the Lakeview Golf and Country Club. Despite the fact that the rear of their closed car was practically torn off by the G.T.R. train which left Toronto at 1.10 p.m., and which passed the Club about 1.30, neither Mr. nor Mrs. Wallace suffered any bodily injuries, except for a severe shaking up.

The Windsor Park Golf Club, which is the latest club to be started in Winnipeg, "the city of many courses," has a very ambitious scheme indeed, it being the eventual intention to have two 18-hole courses and one 9-hole course, which will put it in a class by itself in Canada. The officers of Windsor Park are: President, the Hon. J. W. Armstrong; Vice-President, J. D. Suffield; Secretary-Treasurer, J. D. Reid, 1107 McArthur Building, Winnipeg and Messrs. J. T. Beaubien, Arthur Bradley, W. F. Hull, Wm. McLellan, C. B. Rittenhouse, Dr. Washington and D. C. Whyte. The property is situated three miles from the corner of Portage and Main Streets and is a ten minutes' run from the centre of the city by automobile and twenty minutes by street car, thus making for a most "getatable" course. The dues for 1922 have been placed at men, $35; ladies, $20; married couples, $50. Each player male member is required to hold two shares of stock and each lady members one share. In addition to golf there will be facilities for bowling and tennis. The River Seine winds through the centre of the property, affording water hazards and adding beauty to the course. The links are now being laid out and it is also the intention to proceed with the erection of a capacious club house this year.

Last week the Dentists of California held their Annual Tournament and the winner turned up in Dr. Charles Hartley, a former Brantfordite, who had a brilliant career in the Dental Colleges at Toronto and Chicago and subsequently went to Germany where he established a fashionable practice in Berlin, having many Royalties among his clients. Whilst in Berlin, Dr. Hartley took up the game of golf which, before the outbreak of the Great War, was becoming very popular in the German Capital, a magnificent Golf and Country Club having been put into operation. After the opening of hostilities, Dr. Hartley returned to Canada, in so doing giving up very valuable property in Berlin. He did not stay here, however, but took up his profession again in California. He ranks very high in dental circles and incidentally is a very good golfer indeed, capable of going round any course in the eighties, and sometimes better. The Doctor learned his game in Berlin from the well-known English professional, Butchart, who was afterwards interned by the Germans for four years or more and also had all his large stock of golf goods confiscated. Butchart, too, is now in the States.

Golfing friends throughout Ontario will sincerely sympathize with Mr. S. F. Washington, K.C., ex-Crown Attorney of Hamilton, who on April 13th was called upon to mourn the great loss of his wife. Mrs. Washington had taken a leading part in patriotic work, having been the first Regent of Malcolm Crerar Chapter I.O.D.E. One son, Lieut. Hubert, was killed in the Great War, and the only surviving son, Capt. Lawrence Washington, is seriously ill.

It will be good news to golfers of Canada to see by an advertisement in another column that the Canada Golf Ball Mfg. Co., 21 Prescott Avenue, Toronto, is now in a position to recover old golf balls, with a guarantee that they will be "as good as new" and at a price, too, of only $4.40 per dozen. There will be a great scouring in locker rooms and attics for old "brunette beauties" as a result of this announcement, throughout the country.

Mr. Willie Park, the well-known golf architect arrived in Calgary on Good Friday and is going over some of the courses in that city with the object of recommending improvements and changes.

The Annual Meeting of the Ladies' Section of the Paris Golf Club was held at the residence of the President, Mrs. Goldie, on Monday, March 20th. The Secretary-Treasurer's and Captain's reports were read and found to be very satisfactory. The election of officers took place and resulted as follows: President, Mrs. S. N. Moffat; Vice-President, Mrs. Lovett; Secretary-Treasurer, Miss Marion Thomson; Captain, Mrs. Adenay. Tea Committee: Mesdames Hidder (Convenor), Williams, Stanton, Inksater and Whitby. A pleasant incident took place when Mrs. Adenay (Captain) presented the Silver Medal for 1921 (L.G.U.) to Miss D. Thomson and the Bronze Medal to Miss Wickson. After various plans for the coming season were discussed the meeting was brought to a close.

THE PASSING OF ARTHUR WOODWARD

Ex-Quebec Professional Champion Plays the Last Game of All. A Fine Golfer and a Most Capable Instructor. He Will be Greatly Missed on Canadian Courses.

IT is now about twenty-five years since the first professional made his appearance in Canada and during that time the death of a prominent member of the profession has never been recorded. The exercise and out-of-door life naturally makes for health and longevity. Now word comes from Montreal of the death there of Arthur Woodward, a fine type indeed of the men who have done and are doing so much to improve the game in the Dominion. Woodward won the Quebec Championship in 1920 at the Country Club, Montreal, when, with well-put-together rounds of 74 and 76 for a total of 150, he led the field, three ex-Open Champions of Canada, C. R. Murray, Albert H. Murray and Karl Keffer tying for second place, with 152. Last winter in company with Harry York he conducted a successful winter school at Blumenthal's Departmental Store in Montreal. Taken down with pneumonia, he was removed to the hospital, but despite every care and attention, succumbed to the attack. Woodward was born in Bedfordshire, England, and learned golf in his 'teens. Coming to the States, he was for some years assistant to the celebrated Alex Smith at Jersey City. Then he came to Canada and for the past few years has been in Montreal, first with the Country Club and last season with Outremont. He was a very sound golfer indeed but possibly excelled as a teacher. He was possessed of unfailing patience and displayed both courtesy and kindness in helping the novice to master the rudiments of the game. His untimely death will be regretted by golfing pupils and friends throughout the Dominion. He leaves a widow and three children residing at St. Lambert. Walter Woodward, green-keeper at the Country Club, Montreal, is a brother.

In connection with this lamented death, C. R. Murray of The Royal Montreal, ex-Open Champion, writes the "Canadian Golfer"—

"As you know, Arthur won the Quebec Championship in 1920 with very fine golf. I don't think he ever did much in the Open, not that he could not play well enough, but he had the misfortune to strike the off days in Tournaments. He played quite a number of Red Cross matches along with Albert and J. Black and myself and he always played very well in these games.

At the opening of Whitlock Golf Club I tied with him for first place and he lost in the play off, but there never should have been a play off as he played fine golf that day, but had very bad luck on one hole which spoilt a very good card and allowed me to tie him. He was a very long driver for a man of his size. I do not think he weighed more than 110 pounds, but there were very few could get much past him. George Duncan told me himself that he surprised him the length he got from the tee.

There was quite a good turnout of golfers at the funeral. The C.P.G.A. sent a very nice wreath and the Montreal boys sent a pillow with the words "From Brother Pros." worked in flowers on it."

Under date of April 10th, a well-known Montrealer, a member of the Canadian Seniors, writes:—

To the Editor,

The "Canadian Golfer," Brantford.

Sir:

It was with the greatest sorrow that I learnt this morning of the unexpected death of Arthur Woodward. You are sure to be writing an obituary notice in your April number, but as one who has been in close touch with him for over two years, I would like to say to your readers, that his sad and premature death will come as a shock to many of the younger generation in Montreal. Having on many occasions been present when he was giving lessons to beginners, I can testify to his excellence as a teacher, to his unfailing patience, and to the courtesy and kindness which he always showed in helping others in this greatest of games.

This small tribute is from

Yours truly,

"A CANADIAN SENIOR"

YOUNG MONTREAL GOLFER

Is Playing this Season for Cambridge University—A High Golfing Honour.

OXFORD and Cambridge golf teams are at present enjoying a busy season of matches in the Old Country. On the Cambridge team is Mr. H. G. Joseph, referred to in the London "Times" as a "clever American player." Mr. Joseph is not, however an "American," but a Canadian, a graduate of the Royal Military College, Kingston and a son of Mr. Henry Joseph, a well-known member of the Royal Montreal Golf Club. He has been winning several of his matches and should be heard from in the years to come in Canadian golfing circles. It is a very high honour indeed to be chosen to play for either Oxford or Cambridge as both Universities have hundreds of splendid young golfers to pick from. The "Canadian Golfer" rather thinks that this is the first time a Canadian has ever played on a Varsity golfing team. Possibly the two leading amateurs to-day in Great Britain are Oxford men—R. N. Wethered, who tied Prominent Golfers Who Will Look After Team Matches and Competitions the Coming Record Season in Canada for Over One Hundred Clubs.

A CAPTAIN of a prominent golf club wrote the Editor of the "Canadian Golfer" this month asking him if he could not publish the list of Captains of golf clubs in Ontario as he thought such a list would be a "ready reference table of great value to all Captains when corresponding with reference to inter-club matches, etc., as many of us do not know whom to write to."

The "C. G." always appreciates good suggestions such as the above, so here is a representative list of 1922

Captains not only in Ontario, but in all the Provinces:—

GENEROUS GIFT

Mr. Weldon, a Director of Summit, Donates Valuable Piece of Land to the Club which will Greatly Obviate Congestion at First Tee.

THE advent of Spring sees much activity starting in connection with the Toronto Summit Golf and Country Club's affairs.

A pleasant piece of news for the members will be that Mr. I. H. Weldon, one of the Directors of the Club, has donated another piece of land to further improve number one fairway, so that sliced balls from the first tee will not be out of bounds and much congestion at the first tee will therefore be obviated. Mr. Weldon's generous action, needless to say, is greatly appreciated.

The Green and House Committees have had meetings lately, and many improvements will be carried out in both departments. A great attraction for non-playing members will be extensive improvements of the grounds around the club house, a space being provided as a putting green. Another contemplated improvement is the building of a bridge across the gully of the annex. A special committee composed of Mr. Herbert Parker, Captain of the Club, Mr. Frank Sewell of the House Committee and the Secretary, Mr. F. C. Doran has these important matters in hand.

A steward with many years' experience in the best clubs and hotels on the Continent has been engaged, and it is hoped to open the locker room accommodation this month.

The greens and fairways have all weathered the winter, and are looking, even now, in good shape.

Many new members have recently been accepted, and inquiries from prospective members are numerous. Summit prospects for the 1922 season are of the very brightest.

GOLF BOOKS GALORE

Toronto Public Libraries Well Supplied With Literature on the "Game of Games." A Valued Toronto Subscriber Complained.

A VALUED Toronto subscriber complained to the "Canadian Golfer" the other day that he was unable to find any golf reference books in the Public Library in that city. The matter was reported to the "power that be" and Dr. George H. Locke, chief librarian, comes back with the following tidy little list, so it will be seen that the Queen City does look after its big golfing constituency (some 10,000 men and women) very well indeed, from a Public Library standpoint:—

Allingham, Richard: Letters of a Modern Golfer to His Grandfather. Arranged by H. Leach. 1910. 3 copies. Bantock, Miles, comp.: On Many Greens—a book of golf and golfers. 1901. # ECONOMY TRAVELLING SPRINKLERS

FOR LARGE LAWNS, BOWLING AND PUTTING GREENS

WITH IMPROVED NOZZLE AND LARGE CIRCUMFERENTIAL TRAVEL OF SPRINKLER HEAD, WATERS TEN TO TWENTY TIMES MORE AREA THAN ORDINARY SPRINKLERS.

Has it occurred to you--- THE DUPLEX ECONOMY TRAVELLING SPRINKLER is the surest means to save on Course maintenance. Set it at night. Take it off in the morning. No more attention needed. $1.00 to $1.50 a day to water 18 greens. 35 feet less hose on each green needed. Figure the saving. Travels around the green, over hose and hills of 30° with ease. With improved nozzle and large circumferential travel of sprinkler head the Duplex Economy waters ten to twenty times more area than other sprinklers. Will cover a circle of 65 feet on 10 lb. pressure. Gives unequalled distribution of well-broken water. No fire pressure needed. Works on as low pressure as common type. Used on the best greens in Canada and United States. Money returned if Sprinkler does not fulfill our statements. We ship on approval.

No duty to pay. Complete description on request.

Order to-day, Price each $20.00 Write for price per dozen.

Nine Hole Course Will be Opened Next Month or June at Latest. Prominent Windsorites on Executive.

WINDSOR'S Public Golf course, to be known officially as the Devonshire Golf Club, will be opened some time in May, or, at the latest, early in June.

The course, which has nine holes and measures 3,260 yards, was built by the Devonshire Race Track organization and has been turned over to the Border municipalities. It is located at Devonshire, about 2½ miles from the centre of Windsor and easily reached by street car.

Part of the land is wooded, and, although flat, is ideally suited for a public course. Ernie Way, Detroit professional, had charge of the construction. It cost $20,000 to build, and further expenses were borne by the Devonshire Association. A club house is to be constructed this Summer, this expense also to be met by the racing association, which also will assume responsibility of keeping fairways cut and in good condition. The track expects nothing in return, except the good-will of the community.

The course has been turned over to five men prominent in golf affairs of the district, who will represent Windsor, Walkerville, Ford City, Sandwich and Ojibway, and direct the supervision of the links. They are: President, W. Campbell; Vice-President, T. Healey; Secretary, W. Bartlett; Treasurer, W. B. Perley, and Chairman of the Green Committee, C. S. King. The above named are the "Citizens Committee" who will handle the club for the community. It is expected the fees will be placed at 50 cents per day for everyone.
