THE GOLFING ANNUAL

(Golf Clubs of the Empire)

1930 Edition

As complete a survey as it is possible to make of all clubs, facts and statistics of the golfing world has been compiled and classified for the 1930 edition. During three years of publication, "The Golfing Annual" has been extended and re-arranged at very great cost. It is now beyond all doubt a work of the highest class, and as an authentic and accurate reference book on golf will take its place in the literature of the game.

The special Directories of Golf Clubs throughout the British Empire have been classified according to countries, Provinces or States, providing easy and quick reference. The whole work is profusely illustrated, and clearly printed and well bound, blocked in gold. A handsome addition to your golf library!

See the Wonderful Canadian Section!

Over 50 pages devoted solely to the golf clubs of the Dominion, Championship tables, and illustrated reports of 1929 Championships, etc.

Take the "Golfing Annual" with you on your European Trip!

You can plan your golf on some of Great Britain's famous courses before you leave, with the "Golfing Annual". The fullest particulars are given, and in addition, the Map section will help you plan your tour.

Simply pin a $2.00 bill to a slip with your name and address and send to the address below, and a copy of the 1930 edition of the "Golfing Annual" will reach you by return mail.

Quebec Golf Association Sets a Fine Example.

The executive of the Province of Quebec Golf Association this season is taking a very strong and laudable stand in connection with the strict observance of all rules and regulations in regard to entries for the various championships and field days which come under its jurisdiction. The Association publishes the starting time for both morning and afternoon at least two days ahead, and all competitors are warned if they are not on the first tee on time, that they will be disqualified.

An incident occurred only last month at the Spring Tournament in Montreal, when a player turned up and was in the club house at his starting time, but presumed that as the weather was a little bad, the tournament committee would permit laxity on the part of the players. This man turned up at the tee twenty minutes late, only to be informed that his arrival was of no avail. Altogether five competitors were disqualified from not starting on time and the Association also refused the entries of fifteen or twenty, through non-observance of the conditions governing the tournaments.

In the past, committees governing major golf events in this country, have permitted competitors to re-arrange their starting time and practically do as they wish. This is all wrong. The action of the Quebec Association, which, it is satisfactory to know, has met with the warm endorsement of its players generally, should be followed by every Golf Association throughout the Dominion. In the past there has been altogether too much laxity not to mention "favouritism" in the conducting of championships and tournaments in Canada. Hats off to the executive of the P.Q.G.A.—a very virile golfing body indeed.

Jones' Marvellous Record in the Old Country. For nearly three decades Harry Vardon has generally been accorded the proud distinction of being the greatest golfer of all time but this title is now freely accorded to Mr. R. T. Jones by the British press and the British golfing public—always so fair and generous.

A few weeks ago, this peerless American amateur sailed across the ocean on the greatest adventure of his golfing career. And this is what happened as succinctly stated by Mr. Guy C. Campbell in "Golf Illustrated", London:—

"He came primarily as captain of the United States Walker Cup team. His team won, and he won his singles. A few days later he won the Golf Illustrated Gold Vase in competition with some of his own team and a representative field of our best amateurs. In doing so he picked up and wiped out a lead of five strokes gained by Brownlow in the morning. A week later he took part in the Amateur Championship at St. Andrews, and by the end of that week he was Amateur Champion, this time in direct competition with the flower of amateur golf in America, this country and overseas. What followed? A short rest and then once more a signal triumph at Hoylake. Personally I, who saw all of his play at Sunningdale, St. Andrews and Hoylake, consider it the outstanding performance in golf since the two tournaments were instituted. I doubt if it will ever again be equalled. To travel over 4,000 miles as a start and then to bring off the double on such links as the Old Course at St. Andrews and Hoylake at its most testing, and in such company, is as near a miracle as we are likely to get in an age of sceptics."

Praise indeed, from an authoritative source, but praise, richly earned and richly deserved. And then on top of the British triumph, Jones annexes the U.S. Open for the fourth time. Yes, a super-golfer is the pride of Georgia.

a new delicious table water

LONG AGO "Canada Dry" won Canadians and the world with its flavour, its purity and its quality. Now the makers of "Canada Dry" are introducing to the public a new table water . . . made under the same exact standards, proportioned according to the same careful methods, equaling "Canada Dry" in purity and quality. Try this remarkable beverage. When you open it, it gushes forth in a clear, crystal stream. When you taste it, you will like its sharp, crisp quality. Mixed with fruit juices or other beverages, it makes a cool, refreshing drink. Used alone as a table water, it is highly palatable. The prestige which has followed "Canada Dry" attached itself to Canada Dry's Sparkling Soda. It is the best there is. That is why it will appeal to you. That is why you will want to order it today. Made by Canada Dry Ginger Ale Limited, Toronto, Edmonton and Montreal.

Jones' victory in the Championship locally was very popular. Found Westward Ho!, Turnberry and Gleneagle courses in excellent condition."

Despatch from Del Monte, California, July 10th:—

"Hotel Del Monte will officially celebrate its fiftieth anniversary with a great golden jubilee celebration, Aug. 21-24, it was announced here to-day by S. F. B. Morse, president of Del Monte Properties Co. A great gala dance featuring 'Fifty Years After' entertainment numbers, together with a golden jubilee golf tournament, special tennis, swimming and other sport events, will be included in the anniversary programme.

The original Hotel Del Monte first opened its doors in the summer of 1880. Twice fire destroyed the hotel, first in the late eighties and then in 1924. The present new Hotel Del Monte opened May 8, 1926."

The keeper of a thousand royal secrets, Lord Stamfordham, recently celebrated his 81st birthday. Next year Lord Stamfordham will complete 30 years' service as private secretary to His Majesty King George. But despite his 81 years, this courtly gentleman has spent far too busy and interesting a life to grow old. When the Court is in town he is often to be seen taking a brisk walk across St. James Park in the very early morning, and he still enjoys horse exercise and a game of golf.

The British sporting papers are still frankly "handing it out" to the amateurs of that country as a result of their dismal failure against the Americans in the Walker Cup matches. The consensus of opinion seems to be that the Britishers in future should play more with the leading professionals. As one paper has it they must be "continually hammered" by the pros. Not a bad idea which possibly might be introduced into Canada, too. Many of our amateurs could stand playing more with the professionals, plus a little polishing up by them.

That very progressive Toronto Club, Cedar Brook, doesn't apparently believe in depending upon the beginning or end of a season to issue a report about the year's doing. What's that!

You've never seen the golf ball you couldn't cut?

Then let us introduce you to the Kro-Flite!

Here are the two balls that made the best showing against the Guillotine. On the left is the Kro-Flite. On the right is the next most durable ball of the few balls that are comparable to the Kro-Flite in distance.

You may have hacked every golf ball you've ever played. If so, we'll bet you've never played a Kro-Flite.

Kro-Flite is the toughest golf ball in the world. If you can cut it, you're one of those supermen who can bend iron pipes, tear up telephone books, and bite holes in silver dollars. For not even the murderous Guillotine has ever been able to cut a Kro-Flite.

This Guillotine is a heavily weighted steel knife that drops on a golf ball, hitting it exactly as a clubhead does on a viciously-topped iron shot—only harder! It is the most ruthless test ever given to a golf ball.

First honors for Kro-Flite!

Time after time, these Guillotine tests have been made with every reputable ball in the world. And in every single instance the Kro-Flite has carried off first honors...in every single instance, the Kro-Flite alone has come through unscathed.

Most of the others were total losses. All the others were cut so badly that they were utterly unplayable. Yet the Kro-Flite never showed more than a barely visible dent.

The Kro-Flite has distance, too

The Kro-Flite not only is the toughest ball in the world, but it is the only ball that combines first-grade distance with maximum durability.

In recent Driving Machine tests at Chicopee, Mass., Putney, England, and Pinehurst, N. C., the Kro-Flite once again proved that it is one of the longest golf balls made.

For in these tests, the Kro-Flite fell but a trifling distance behind its famous brother, the Spalding Ball. And this Spalding Ball, this mighty ball of the Champions, is recognized by golf's greatest players as the longest ball the game has ever known.

So try the Kro-Flite. Let it show you why the golfing world has given it the title of the Toughest Golf Ball in the World. It comes in dimple or mesh... plain white or multidot marking.

Despatch from New York, July 3rd:—

A misunderstanding between Cyril J. H. Tolley, former British amateur golf champion, and Bobby Jones, new wearer of the crown, held up the Broadway Limited for two minutes to-day as the golfing stars of two continents searched frantically for each other a dozen blocks apart.

Down in the Pennsylvania station Bobby, surrounded by Atlanta friends and dyed-in-the-wool New York golfers, carried his hopes and insistence to the point where Pennsylvania Railroad officials held back their crack flyer from starting on scheduled time.

Over in the Grand Central Station Tolley peered anxiously among the throngs that swarmed the concourse, wondering why Jones and his travelling companions failed to appear for the imminent departure of the Twentieth Century Limited.

But the two will complete their journey to Minneapolis together, for Cyril will rejoin Bobby in Chicago to-morrow morning.

"I must have misunderstood Bobby," he said, ruefully, "but I was certain he said the Grand Central Station—oh, well!"

"Bobby did not play well in Britain—that is for Jones," he said. "But I am confident he will be Bobby himself again in the West, and if he is, the Championship is over before it starts."

Prince Puts Royal Approval on Royal and Ancient

CABLE from London, July 8th:—

"The Prince of Wales was the guest to-night of the Lucifer Golfing Society, which entertained golfers of the Empire at a banquet.

The Prince, in fine spirits, told funny golf stories during his speech as the principal guest, and put the final stamp of royal approval on the Royal and Ancient game. He said:

"We have all played more strenuous games, but golf is a game you can go on playing forever, and I once made so bold as to say that when you are too old to play golf, you had better die."

The British heir said he understood that it was proper at a golf dinner to tell some funny stories.

"I know some very good ones," he said, "but I don't think I can tell them here."

The Prince, however, told some of more or less recent vintage as golf stories go, and the evening was voted a great success."

Winnipeg Leads All Cities in Canada in Facilities for Public Golf

WINNIPEG with two fine 18-hole courses, Kildonan and Windsor, under the capable and paternal charge of its Parks Board, can lay claim to providing the best facilities for public golf in Canada. No other city in the Dominion compares with the Western Capital in this respect. Winnipeg is not only the "golffiest city in Canada" but looks after its golfing citizens not in a position to join the more or less expensive private clubs of which there are a score or so, as no other city does.

Public golf at Kildonan Park was first inaugurated in 1921. From the start the venture was a success both financially and from a golfing standpoint.

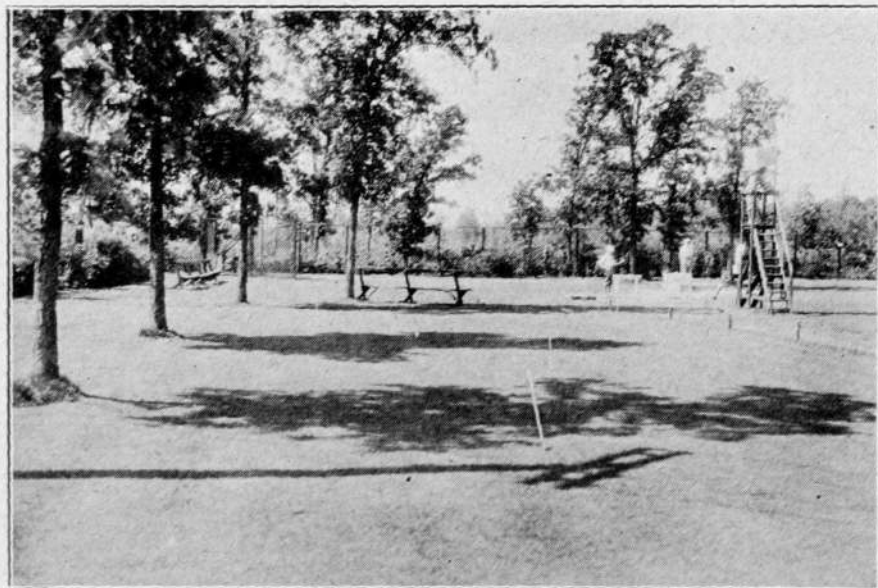

The charming new club house at the Windsor Park Municipal Golf Course, Winnipeg, Manitoba.

So great were the crowds at Kildonan that in 1925 the Parks Board decided to acquire the links of the Windsor Park Golf Club and they, too, have proved an excellent investment. Some idea of the popularity of the two courses can be realized when it is stated that on the week-end of June 21st 2,069 players were registered as playing over the two courses. Certainly remarkable figures.

The very capable superintendent of the Parks Board, Mr. G. Champion, who takes a particularly keen interest in the Royal and Ancient game, writes the Editor that both of the courses are in fine shape this season and enjoying a particularly large patronage. The Kildonan course is 5,474 yards in length and Windsor 5,424 yards. Both courses, which are exceedingly well trapped and kept right up "to concert pitch" are within a trifle over 3 miles from the city and are easily accessible either by street car or automobile. It is interesting to note that the amateur record at Kildonan, 69, is held by Mr. A. A. Weir, amateur champion of Manitoba, and at Windsor Park, 71, by Mr. J. T. Cuthbert, who has only just won the amateur championship of Alberta. The professional record at Windsor is 66, held by Jimmy Rimmer, the newly crowned open champion of Alberta, and at Kildonan, 68, by Hugh Fletcher, of Moose Jaw, Sask.

Last year, it will be remembered, that the club house at Windsor Park was completely destroyed by fire, but the Parks Board took prompt action to replace it and provide its Windsor patrons with club house facilities that leave nothing to be desired. The pretty new building is equipped with a large main lounge with fireplace, sunroom and a bright, clean lunch counter, men's and ladies' locker rooms with showers and steel lockers. In short, a building that offers a fitting start or finish to a game of golf on a course that is complete in every shot the game can offer. Happy indeed the lot of the public course golfer in Winnipeg.

Miss Helen Hicks Swats One for Fair

HOW far can a woman drive a ball? is a question often asked. The fair sex have unquestionably lengthened out their tee-shots by many yards of recent years and drives of 200 to 230 yards no longer call for comment. Miss Helen Hicks, the Canadian lady champion, is generally given credit for perhaps being the longest woman driver in America. During her visit to England for the Ladies' Championship this summer, in a practice round at Sunningdale, she is authentically credited with a mighty swat of 292 yards. Two hundred and ninety-two yards are 876 feet and that's farther than any man can hit a baseball or cricket ball. Incidentally the record drive for a man is awarded to E. C. Bliss, Herne Bay, England. The distance of this drive, measured by L. H. Lloyd, government surveyor, was 445 yards. Cyril Tolley, the British ex-amateur champion, who this month participated in the U.S. Open, is generally looked upon as the world's longest amateur driver. Tolley, on more than one occasion, in championships, has reached greens with his tee-shot of 350 to 365 yards in length.

A Record Installation of Sprinklers

THE Agua Caliente Golf Club in Mexico, where the $25,000 tournament is again scheduled to be held next winter, recently purchased and installed 1,100 sprinklers, which is believed to establish a world's record, in the number of sprinklers of any kind for a golf course. The installation cuts the cost of watering to the extent that the only labour required is one man to open and close the valves. Watering is all done at night and play is not interfered with during the day. What with improved mowers and other machinery, soon even Metropolitan courses will be run and maintained with a staff of three or four men, instead of a score or so. It is a mechanical age all right.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Coverdale recently entertained at the Manoir Richelieu, Murray Bay, in honour of Their Excellencies Lord and Lady Willingdon. This golf group of the guests are Mrs. Gerard Power, of Quebec, J. H. Gundy, of Toronto, Mrs. Gundy, Hon. Gerard Power, and Miss Patricia Power.

Archie Compston Compares British and American Swings

ARCHIE COMPSTON, the Manchester Giant, comparing British and U.S. swings:—

“The contrast between American players and our own is tremendous. It is like comparing a modern matched set of clubs with a bagful of weapons that have been collected haphazardly.

“The Americans differ only in minor details. Bobby Jones has a narrow stance and his hands are above his shoulders at the start and finish of his driving swing. George Voigt has an unusually flat swing that takes the clubhead back low along the ground. Dr. Oscar F. Willing has a painstaking machine-like style. Don K. Moe always ducks his shoulders slightly at the moment he meets the ball. But they all have more or less of the grooved swing that is so typically American, not alone with the drive, but with every club.

“Harry Vardon is really the father of the American style. When Vardon visited the United States in 1900, everybody who saw him wanted to imitate his swing, and the Americans finally compromised on what might be called a semi-flat style, a sort of halfway to the old Scotch flat swing. It is a style best suited to the Americans, whose early athletic careers were associated more or less with baseball. In their golf they reproduce the smooth-grooved horizontal swing that is used in batting.

"The British differ in nearly every way from the Americans. The grooved swing and the unbroken rhythm of the Americans is lacking. Cyril Tolley and Tony Torrance, who did the best work against America in the Walker Cup matches, are both beautiful swingers, but they do not quite succeed in making the 'one-piece movement' of it that the Americans do.

"You can always tell a man who has learned golf in the United States by his leg and hip movements. The difference in the two styles is the difference between the two national games, baseball and cricket. The cricketer concentrates on playing the ball, the baseball player tries to meet the ball in the groove of his swing.

"Climatic conditions have enabled the Americans to develop the style which is so delightful to the British eyes. American golfers learn to play the game on inland courses. They rarely play in a strong wind. They can retain evenness and rhythm. Nearly all the leading British golfers learned to play the game on seaside courses, where they were continually fighting head and cross winds. More often than not they are playing in half a gale. The British golfer constantly has to change his style to meet weather conditions. He cannot keep a one-piece swing, and neither could the Americans if they had to play under the same conditions.

"The British have discovered that a flat swing is best suited to the conditions generally found here. Constantly changing their style, they look awkward in comparison to the Americans and much less scientific.

"You cannot very well display any rhythm when you are doing all in your power to keep the wind from blowing you off the tee and trying to hit a ball at the same time. It is impossible for British players to stay in a groove. They cannot practice one style long enough to make it permanent. The American can and does."

Advertising Men Play Golf

THE third annual championship tournament of the advertising men of Toronto, open to members of the advertising department of any newspaper, magazine, trade paper, manufacturing company or retail firm or members of any advertising agency, was held at the Royal York Golf Club and about eighty-five competed in the eighteen-hole medal round while a number of others attended the dinner and presentation of prizes in the club house in the evening. Scott Stockwell, of the Campbell-Ewald Company, won The Mail and Empire Trophy for the best nett score with a 68, while Howard Batten, of Battens, Ltd., won the Campbell-Ewald Trophy for the best gross score, turning in an 85. John MacLarne, president of the Campbell-Ewald Company, presided at the dinner in the evening. It was decided that in future tournaments will be held each year, one in the spring and the other in the fall. The prize winners were:—

Best nett score—1, Mail and Empire Trophy, Scott Stockwell (Campbell-Ewald), 68; 2, Canadian Wm. A. Rogers Trophy, George Donald (Davis Printing Co.).

Best gross score—1, Campbell-Ewald Trophy, Howard Batten (Battens, Limited), 85; 2, W. G. Hague (Campbell-Ewald).

Golf at Goderich and Grand Bend

THE Editor during an altogether too brief a week-end motor trip to Goderich and vicinity was delighted to find that golf is flourishing apace in this charming Ontario resort, which is patronized not only by many prominent Canadians but by residents of Detroit and other American cities.

The Maitland course at Goderich is in fine shape this season and large numbers of players are to be seen there every day. Green fees from visitors will create a record this summer. Jack Fraser is again the particularly popular professional at Maitland.

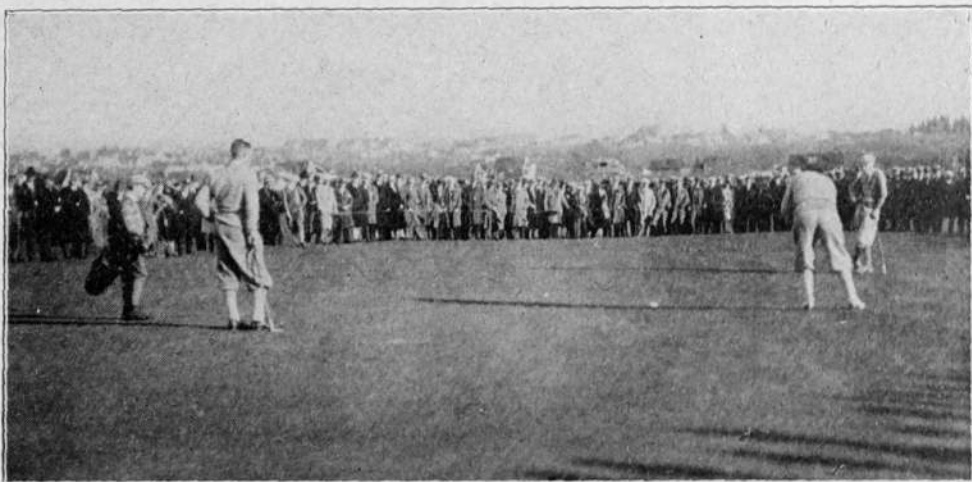

At Grand Bend, near by, C. M. Walker & Son have a most attractive 18-hole course which is patronized by hundreds of visitors. The links are most sporting, whilst the artistic log club house is an added attraction. The Messrs. Walker this season have just opened up a number of most attractive log cabins on their property equipped with every convenience. These cabins are very much along the same lines as those at the celebrated Jasper Park, Alberta, and are bound to be immensely popular with golfers desirous of spending an ideal vacation on "The Blue Water Highway". Altogether golf in Goderich and Grand Bend is being developed along most progressive and successful lines.

Wonderful Record of Langara, Vancouver

MR. E. S. McCADDEN, Manager of the Langara, C.P.R. Golf Links, Vancouver, B.C., writes the "Canadian Golfer":—

We have just finished our fourth year in "business" and although we have had increases each year over the previous year, yet this past year, in spite of the fact we were closed for 2 months owing to frost and snow, yet our increase this year is very gratifying, in fact golf is now so popular here that we have found it necessary to have a booking sheet each day of the week. It does not follow that we get so very many bookings, but for the man who does not care to take chances on waiting at the tee, he can call up by phone and we will book him, insuring him of getting away at the hour he wishes. Four "Tom Thumb" courses have been opened in the city and also a number of "Learn to Drive" courses.

The number of games played on the course in the four years has been two hundred and seventy-three thousand, eight hundred and eighty-four (273,884). This figure does not represent fifty cents apiece (our green fees) for we issue a yearly ticket for twenty-four dollars ($24.00), eighteen holes a day and our sale of these tickets is large. The popularity of the course has enabled us to spend a large amount of money on improvements resulting in beautiful greens and perfect fairways and we have planted trees to beautify the fairways and endeavouring to make this 160 acres a park with a golf course in it. The general opinion of the playing public, both local and visitors, is that our course is second to none. We have now in Vancouver three (3) eighteen-hole public courses and they all are kept busy seven days a week, and I believe another eighteen-hole course is being contemplated.

Our biggest week-end was May 10th and 11th, when we passed through the starter's gate eleven hundred and fourteen players (1,114). Play started at 3.45 a.m. and continued to 9.15 p.m. Sunday, the 11th.

Needless to say the Canadian Pacific Railway have established a great playground for the people of this city, at a very low rate of cost to the players.

("Langara" is certainly to be congratulated on the great things it is doing for golf in Vancouver. The C.P.R. which has so generously "fathered" the course, the manager and all the officials associated with the links have every reason to feel proud of the wonderful showing recorded the past four years. It is quite an outstanding one in the annals of golf in Canada.—Editor "Canadian Golfer".)

"Jack" Cameron is Ranking Player in Quebec

THE Province of Quebec Golf Association has through its par and handicap committee just handed out its list of handicaps for the 1930 season. The Quebec Association is the only one in Canada which gets out such a handicap list and its action in this respect is well worthy of emulation. In all 400 players are given handicaps of 14 strokes or better.

It is interesting to note that the leading player of the Province is Jack Cameron, former hockey star, of the Rivermead Club, Ottawa, and Mississauga, Toronto, and who plays for Ontario and is a member of the Ontario Interprovincial team. He is the only player in the 3 handicap class. The following is the complete list of players with 8 handicap or lower. The Canadian Amateur Championship this year is open only to 8 handicap players or better.

Handicap 3—Jack Cameron, Rivermead, Ottawa.

Handicap 4—C. C. Fraser, Kanawaki, Montreal (ex-amateur champion of Canada); W. M. Hodgson, Royal Montreal; J. B. Mickles, Royal Montreal; T. G. McAthey, Kanawaki; W. McLuckie, Kanawaki (ex-amateur champion of Canada); Norman Scott, Royal Montreal.

Handicap 5—Jack Cowans, Kanawaki; A. B. Darling, Whitlock, Montreal; J. A. Fuller, Royal Montreal; H. H. Richardson, Kanawaki; Melville Rogers, Rivermead, Ottawa; Carroll Stuart, Fairmount, Ottawa; J. W. Yuile, Royal Montreal.

English Woman Player Stars at Hamilton

WITH an entry exceeding all expectations and making the day one of unequalled success, the ladies of the Hamilton Golf and Country Club held their annual field day at Ancaster, July 6, with 242 taking part. The entry included golfers from 26 clubs, among them the Mosley Hurst Club of Hampton Court, England, Winnipeg, Toronto, Hamilton and clubs from all over Ontario were also included.

Despite an early start, the attractive programme required considerable time to run off and the able work of the committee in charge with officers of the ladies' section facilitated the handling of all events in wonderful fashion and added materially to the general enjoyment.

It was fitting that the entry from farthest away, Miss M. Cleehyenden, of England, should figure as a prize winner. This entry accounted for the best aggregate and best single drive in the silver division. Also, appropriately enough, two junior players of the host club, Miss Evelyn Hart and Miss Vivian Hamilton, were winners of best aggregate and best single in the bronze division.

The medal round produced many splendid scores with a star Toronto player, Mrs. E. W. Whittington, the Toronto City Champion, leading the field with a gross of 80. She was closely followed by two other Torontonians, Mrs. R. W. Gouinlock and Mrs. H. C. MacKlem with scores of 81. The first nett brought a tie between an Ancaster junior, Miss Douglas McIlwraith, and Mrs. D. Catto, of Toronto Ladies, with cards of 72.

Mrs. P. H. Brooks, of Burlington, was the leader over the short course, in medal round play with 88, while Miss Francis Moodie, of Ancaster, scored a nett of 61 to lead this class. The prize winners:—

Gross scores—1, Miss E. W. Whittington, Toronto Golf, 80; 2, Mrs. R. W. Gouinlock, Toronto Golf, and Mrs. H. C. Macklem, Toronto Golf, tied with 81.

Nett scores—1, Miss D. McIlwraith, Hamilton Golf and Country Club, tied with Mrs. D. Catto, Toronto Ladies, 72; 3, Mrs. Gouinlock, Mrs. Macklem and Mrs. Van Zant, Rosedale, tied with 73; 6, Miss B. Coulson, Miss Vivian Hamilton and Miss Cooney, St. Catharines, tied with 75.

Short Course—Gross scores—1, Mrs. P. B. Brooks, Burlington, 88.

Nett scores—1, Miss Francis Moodie, H. G. and C.C., 61; Mrs. E. R. Eyres, Burlington, 66.

Approaching and putting—Miss E. Nesbitt, Ancaster, and Mrs. Hair, York Downs, tied with 8; Miss Nesbitt won play-off.

Putting on green—Mrs. F. Sherman, 36 for 18 holes.

Silver Division Driving—Best aggregate—Miss M. Clechyenden, Mosley Hurst Golf Club, Hampton Court, England, 577 yards; second best aggregate, Mrs. Gouinlock, Toronto, 546 yards.

Best single drive—Miss Clechyenden, 200 yards.

Bronze Division—Best aggregate—Miss Evelyn Hart, Ancaster, 506 yards.

Best single drive—Miss Vivian Hamilton, Ancaster, 180 yards.

Miss Collett Wins Buffalo Invitation Tournament

THE invitation ladies tournament at the Buffalo Golf and Country Club last month as usual took on an International complexion, many of the leading women players of the States and Canada being among the entrants. Three Montreal players qualified for the championship flight, Miss Dora Virtue, Whitlock, Miss Eileen Kinsella, Senneville, and Mrs. Dagenais, Laval. Miss Virtue especially distinguished herself in the qualifying round, her score of 85 placing her in 4th place. Miss Glenna Collett, U.S. lady champion, was the medallist with a sparkling 76, which topped the former course mark set a year ago by Mrs. Harrison, Country Club champion, who registered a 77. Mrs. Harrison is a native of Shermingham, England. All three of the Montreal representatives were defeated in the first round of the championship, which was eventually won by Miss Collett, who defeated in the final Mrs. O. S. Hill, of Kansas City, 4 and 2.

Mrs. W. G. More, of the Toronto Golf Club, played splendid golf in the beaten sixteen flight, going to the final, where she was defeated by Miss Edith Quier, of Reading, one of the ranking players of the United States. Miss Quier, it will be remembered, last year at Hamilton was runner-up to Miss Helen Hicks in the Canadian Ladies' Open Championship. The tournament as usual was a most pronounced success.

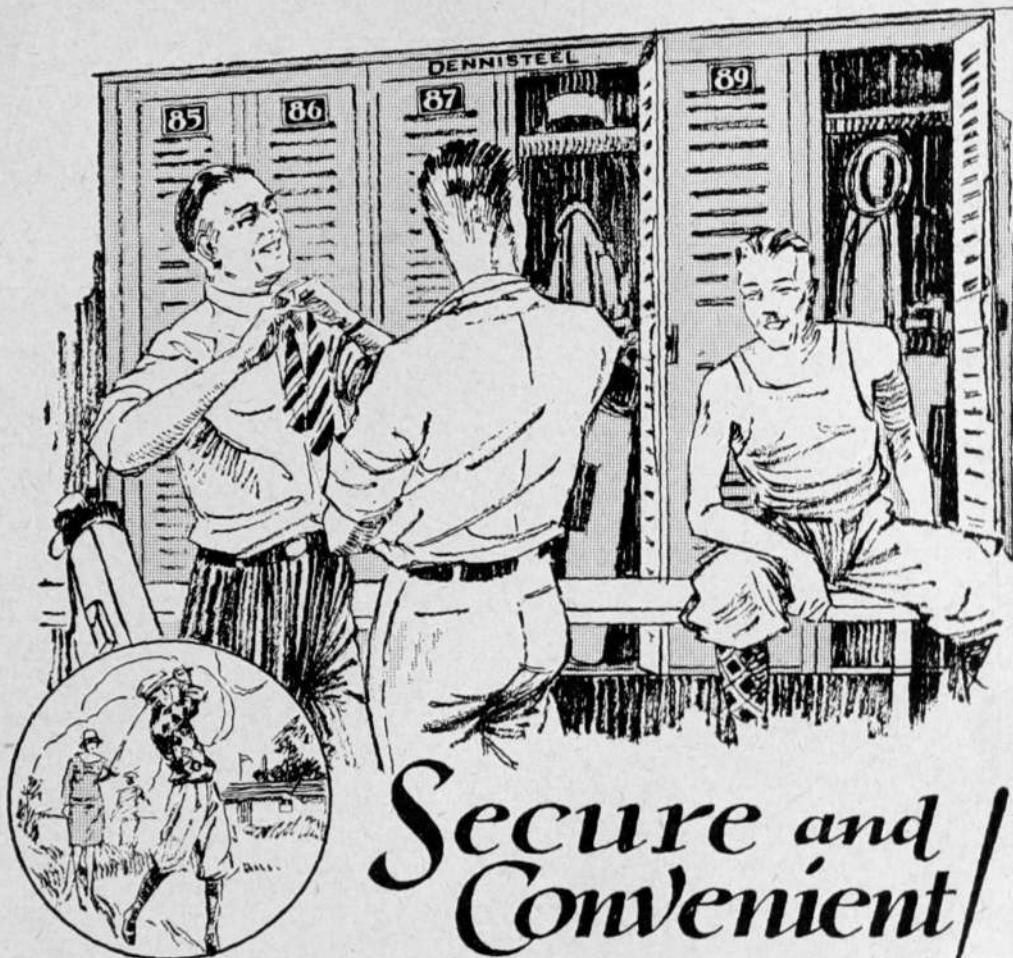

Miss Eileen Kinsella, of Montreal, won the prize in the beaten eight of the beaten sixteen of the first flight. The Montreal girl, simply romping through this division, defeated Mrs. H. D. Sterrett, former western champion, 5 and 3.

Bobby Jones Gets a Big Welcome Home

BOBBY JONES was given a royal reception in New York on his return from winning the Amateur and Open Championships of Great Britain. By train and by airplane up from the land where the golfers grow, came 250 beaming Georgians to-day to see Atlanta's most prominent citizen get a Broadway welcome.

"Luck was with me, or I never would have won," the champion of champions said between blasts of ships' horns welcoming him back, the first American to capture both the British Amateur and Open Championships.

Chatting and jesting with a score of golf writers, all old friends, on the Macom, New York's official greeting vessel, the first golf citizen of the world declared he felt "fine". He looked it.

"I never felt better," he said. "I have been in perfect health throughout the trip."

Bobby reported that stories of his clubs being left behind in a London hotel were greatly exaggerated.

There was a sigh of relief from his friends when it was officially announced that his bag of par-wrecking clubs, including "Calamity Jane," the veteran putter, and "Genevieve, his battle-scarred driver," was intact along with his nameless but important spoon.

"Suppose you win all four major titles this year, will you quit then?" he was asked.

"I have given no thought to winning all four," he said, adding, "not a thought."

Muskoka Lakes Golf and Country Club

THE Muskoka Lakes Golf and Country Club Limited, held their annual meeting on July 5th at their lovely club house on Lake Rousseau. There was a large attendance of enthusiastic members present, who were loud in praise of the great improvement to the golf course. The financial statement for the year ending April 30th, 1930, was well received, and showed a substantial surplus after all liabilities had been taken care of. Two new names appear on the Board of Directors this year, James Y. Murdock, and H. L. Steele.

A view on the beautiful course of the Muskoka Lakes Golf and Country Club.

At the board meeting held immediately after the annual meeting, Colonel J. R. Moodie was again unanimously elected president; Colonel A. E. Gooderham vice-president, and J. F. Christie, secretary-manager.

Col. Moodie, of Hamilton, for some years has taken a very keen interest in the Muskoka Lakes Club and a great deal of its pronounced success is due to him. He is an outstanding executive and is recognized as such throughout Canada.

Notable Gathering of Greenkeepers

Toronto is Host to Leading Members of the Executive—Men Who Have Done and are Doing Great Things for the Golf Courses of the United States and Canada.

IN the June issue of the "Canadian Golfer" reference was made to the visit to Toronto for the first time in its history of the executive of that very important golfing organization "The National Association of Greenkeepers of America". It is very satisfactory to know that the men who know golf courses better than anyone else were extremely pleased with the Toronto courses they visited and extremely pleased with their jaunt into Canada. May they come more often.

Mr. W. J. Sansom, of the Toronto Golf Club, third vice-president of the Association, writes the Editor most entertainingly:—

"Regarding the recent visit of the executive board of the National Greenkeepers' Association of America, all members of that body were present, also Mr. Lundstrum, of Brooklyn, and Mr. R. Power, the president and Editor of "National Greenkeeper", with visiting greenkeepers from Buffalo, all members of the association. They arrived at Toronto Sunday, June 22nd, leaving for home Tuesday evening, June 24th. During that period we made the best of our welcome visitors' time. Sunday afternoon and evening we spent visiting Scarboro and the Cedarbrook courses, driving back through the residential part of Rosedale through to the west end of Toronto to High Park. Driving along the lake front to the Royal York Hotel, their headquarters, our visitors were very much impressed by our beautiful city, the charming homes and the avenue of trees.

Monday morning we started visiting the various courses around Toronto, the first on the list being my own (Toronto), going carefully over the course back to the club house to luncheon at one o'clock. Mr. Mulqueen, our chairman of the green committee, presiding. Mr. Armitage, our secretary-manager, and George Cumming, our pro, having luncheon with us. Mr. Cassels, our president, sending his sincere regrets at his inability of being present with us.

Our next visit was Lakeview, then on to the Mississauga, from there to the Islington course, then to the Royal York, from there to the Lambton course. Driving back to the Old Mill at the Humber for dinner, all our greenkeepers from our local organization being present at the dinner and also many of our secretaries, managers. Being president of our own local organization I presided and I believe the dinner was a great success. Col. John Morley gave a most interesting address which was well received by all.

Tuesday the executive held their business meeting at the Royal York Hotel. We had many important matters to deal with, leaving just enough time to visit the Rosedale Club, where we were met by Mr. Bowyer, the secretary. Our visitors were one and all much impressed with the natural beauty of our courses and the magnificent trees that are everywhere in evidence. They spoke very highly of our courses, the texture of the turf, the conditions of our greens, general appearance, as well as the layout and stated that our courses rank high with the best courses in America. On visiting the Rosedale course in the late afternoon standing on the first tee one could not help but admire the natural beauty of the Rosedale property, the magnificent trees, the beautiful fairways. It was a wonderful sight that will long be remembered by our visitors. Mr. Lloyd, the greenkeeper, is to be congratulated on the wonderful condition of the course at Rosedale. I am pleased to say that our courses have improved wonderfully this past month after the long dry period that we experienced late last summer right through to the fall. Our fairways suffered during that dry time and had no chance to recover last fall, and winter starting in so early and then a very backward spring to contend with, taking a long time to recover and get back to their usual form.

I might say these meetings with the different greenkeepers are very interesting and educational with the members of the National Greenkeepers of America, men that have been in the game for so many years, men representing so many States of the Union, experimenting with all known grasses and fertilizers, with so many and varied conditions, climatical and otherwise, that they are an authority to discuss any problems that arise at any time. Club members would do well to see that their greenkeepers attend our monthly meetings locally, and more especially to attend our annual convention and golf show in February each year. It would be money well spent for the educational part of the convention is outstanding."

This picture shows Leo Diegel (right) who is defending his title of Canadian Open Champion at Ancaster this month, who was one of "the star turns" at Hoylake, Liverpool, where he tied for second place, 293, with Macdonald Smith, two strokes back of the winner Bobby Jones. His strangely effective putting style and excitable mannerisms kept the English galleries amused.

Montreal Will Be Venue of 1931 Amateur Championship and Toronto the Open

THE executive of the Royal Canadian Golf Association comprising members from Ontario and Quebec, were the guests recently of the president, Mr. Alfred Collyer, of Montreal, at his charming summer residence at Knowlton, Que., when many matters of importance were discussed. Those present in addition to Mr. Collyer were:—A. W. White, London, Ont.; A. Raymond, Montreal; W. H. Plant, Toronto; G. H. Forster, Montreal; L. M. Wood, Toronto, and B. L. Anderson, Toronto, secretary-treasurer.

It was decided that the 1931 Amateur Championship shall be held in Montreal, and the Open Championship in Toronto, the dates and venues to be decided upon later on.

It is satisfactory to know that the R.C.G.A. is making progress with its green section arrangements through the Provincial Associations and the secretary expects to have something definite to report to the executive in the near future. It is understood that green section plots such as are carried on in Washington under the supervision of the Department of Agriculture will be inaugurated in the several Provinces of the Dominion so that the results of the experiments will be available to a larger number of golf clubs at a time when needed. It may be of interest to clubs to know that seven hundred thousand pounds of grass seed were imported into Canada last year.

Very little is known about the quantity of seed produced in Canada, although Prince Edward Island of recent years has been an important factor in regard to the production of bent grass, now used so much in seeding greens.

Record Field of Entrants at Ottawa Field Day

UNDER the auspices of the Quebec Branch of the Canadian Ladies' Golf Union the Ladies' Field Day at the Ottawa Hunt and Golf Club was a great success. There was a record field of entrants, 130 all told.

The surprise of the day was the brilliant playing of Mrs. George E. Stanley, of the Ottawa Hunt, who with 45 and 47 for 92 headed the field. This is a very good score indeed over the tricky Hunt Club course. Only one stroke back of the winner was the clever young Laval player of Montreal,

The 36-handicap prize for the best score on the first nine went to Miss E. Purkiss, Chaudiere, with a 52, while the second nine honours went to Mrs. W. B. Waugh, of the Ottawa Hunt Club, with 54.

"A Doggie He Would A-golfing Go"

THE question which is now puzzling the members of the Oxford Golf and Country Club, Woodstock, Ontario, is whether the shot of all shots should be called an "eagle" or a "doggie". On Sunday, the 6th of July, "Chubbie" Karn, well known local athlete, very ably assisted by Mrs. Wilmot's dog "Tommy", negotiated the fifth hole on the Woodstock course in one stroke. Charles played his mashie off the tee, and the ball alighted on the green. The dog, roaming around, seized the ball and very generously deposited it in the hole. The Rules Committee of the Royal Canadian Golf Association will have to be called in to decide the very debatable point, whether Karn is entitled to the various prizes given in Canada for the hole-in-one stunt or Mrs. Wilmot's canine. There are no "dog collars" or "boxes of biscuits" given for the feat, otherwise the award could be quickly made.

Niakwa Golfers, Winnipeg, Retain Inter-Club Championship of Manitoba.
Mrs. B. P. Pellenz Wins Winnipeg and District Championship.

THE Manitoba Provincial Inter-Club Golf Championship was retained by the Niakwa team when the annual event was staged on the sporting Niakwa course, Winnipeg. Nineteen teams entered from thirteen clubs, including three teams from outside the precincts of Winnipeg. The champions led the aggregate scores with a total of 328. Norwood No. 3 slipped into second place with 338, ten strokes behind the leading Niakwa team.

The medal honours of the day were secured jointly by Charles Hodgman, of Niakwa No. 1, and A. Campbell, of Pine Ridge, with sparkling 78's. Dan Kennedy, of St. Charles, E. Anderson, Norwood No. 3, and Ernest Talmen, Canoe Club, followed closely with 79's.

It is a fact worthy of note that the Norwood No. 3 team completely eclipsed the other two teams of higher rank to obtain second place. But in these very surprises lies the charm of the game of golf.

Contingents from Portage, Gladstone and Brandon enhanced the tournament with their presence. The Brandon No. 1 team led the visiting teams with an aggregate of 376 strokes. Portage was in second place with 388. Gladstone carded a total of 391 to reach third place.

The high hidden hole prize was won by Jack Blair, of Alcrest, with a 16 on the 14th hole.

The aggregate scores of the teams with 360 or better are as follows:—

The Winnipeg City and District Ladies' Golf Championship, the first event on the programme of the Manitoba Branch of the C.L.G.U., held at the three beautiful courses of the St. Charles Country Club, the Southwood Club and the Niakwa Club, was won by Mrs. B. P. Pellenz, of the Elmhurst Club, Winnipeg.

Mrs. B. P. Pellenz, ever a colourful figure in ladies' golf events in Manitoba, with capital rounds of 87, 87 and 88 for the three successive days of the tournament, swept aside all opposition to gain first place with the total of 262—a fine performance indeed.

In the silver division, Mrs. F. Bearisto, of the St. Charles Club, tied with Mrs. George Koester, of Niakwa, for second place with aggregate scores of 275. In the play-off, Mrs. Koester was successful in eliminating Mrs. Bearisto and gaining 2nd place by a sensational putt on the 18th green. The respective putt scores of Mrs. Koester and Mrs. Bearisto in this exciting play-off were 92 and 93. They too are dominating figures in women's golf in Manitoba.

The bronze division was captured by the youngest entrant in the tournament, Miss Frances Fletcher, who played excellent golf to card 93, 98, 98—for a total of 289.

Miss Fletcher's creditable showing deserves great praise, and augurs well for future triumphs.

A tie resulted in the second place of the bronze division between Mrs. R. J. Hennessey, of Elmhurst, and Mrs. R. M. Simpson. In the play-off Mrs. Hennessey came off victorious.

The low nett in the silver section with a three-day total of 235 was won by Miss Lois McLaren, St. Charles, and the low nett in the bronze division was won by Mrs. William Toot-hill, of Niakwa, with an aggregate of 233.

An interesting inter-club match was held recently when the Southwood Club, Winnipeg, entertained sixteen members of the Norwood Club, Winnipeg. The matches were best ball foursomes in which the Norwood contingent captured six and one-half points to the one and one-half points acquired by the Southwood team. All the matches were strongly contested, despite rather unfavourable weather conditions. After the matches, the Southwood golfers entertained their doughty rivals at dinner. The scores were as follows:—

Bryan O'Kelly and W. P. Over 1, Geo. Haston and A. A. Shelford 0.

F. F. Tribe and H. R. Parker 1, G. L. Leggo and C. W. Chappell 0.

W. Booth and E. Anderson 1, D. M. McDonald and M. J. Marshall 0.

R. L. Denison and I. Woolley 0, Senator Sharpe and F. J. Sutton 1.

B. Woolley and W. Milne ½, D. A. Cuthbert and M. W. Wales ½.

E. W. S. McVey and J. Congalton 1, H. B. Wilcox and D. G. Elliott 0.

W. M. Sinclair and H. J. Hanson 1, E. J. Townshend and Dr. E. J. Robb 0.

J. R. Dillabough and B. Donovan 1, Keith Vogan and P. M. Williams 0.

Mrs. Rupert Morrow, Winnipeg, established a new course record for ladies when she won the hidden hole competition at the Southwood Golf Course. In company with Mrs. Harry Lewis, Mrs. Morrow went out in 43 and came back in 41 for the total of 84, to shatter the old record of 85 held by Mrs. Hutchings, the well known International golfer.

A large crowd of entrants were attracted on Dominion Day to the spacious links of the Norwood Golf Club, Winnipeg, to compete for the club cups. Mr. Bryan O'Kelly won the class "A" cup with a nett 69 and in the "B" class, Mr. A. Cooper's nett 70 acquired for him his second trophy this season.

The eighth annual competition for the "R. Y. Eaton" Trophy, held for the employees of the T. Eaton Co. Ltd., Winnipeg, at the difficult Elmhurst course, was won by Mr. H. Steele, who carded a nett 69. Mr. A. Glennie with a nett 71 was in second place. The best gross score was a 76, obtained by Mr. Alex Black. At the same interesting course the "H. M. Tucker" Trophy was competed for by the employees of the T. Eaton Co. Messrs. N. Taylor and J. Irwin tied for first place, but in the play-off Mr. Irwin ousted his opponent to win the beautiful trophy. Best gross score was obtained by Mr. N. Taylor.

The second annual golf tournament of the Stratheona Curling Club, held over the sporting Deer Lodge Golf Course, Winnipeg, was won by Mr. William Booth, with a sterling 76. Mr. Geo. Johnson with a creditable 77 was the runner-up. Low gross Bill Booth, 76; Leo Johnson, 77; Don Rollo, 84; P. D. Evans, 86; A. Caldwell, 88; Harry Weremy, 88; R. J. Gourley, 88; C. Strindlund, 89; W. Nason, 92; J. A. Wilson, 92; Line Johnson, 92; G. M. Hudson, 95; R. Kennedy, 99; W. Kirkwood, 99; Dr. Murray, 99; J. B. Haig, 99; J. J. Kelly, 100.

In addition to the aforementioned medal round, there were hidden hole events in which Messrs. A. Caldwell, J. A. Wilson, R. J. Gourley, A. E. Lockerbie, C. Hudson, and N. Wise won prizes.

Dr. Matthews won a prize for the highest gross score. This was his first game of golf.

Inter-Provincial Ladies' Match Suggested

THERE is every likelihood that an Inter-Provincial women's golf match between Ontario and Quebec will take place in Montreal this year. The project was discussed at the semi-annual general meeting of the Quebec Branch of the Canadian Ladies' Golf Union, held this month at the Royal Montreal Golf Club, and was heartily endorsed by the members present. The project was moved by Miss Evelyn Mills, of the Royal Ottawa Golf Club, and will be discussed further by the executive. The tentative date is set shortly before the Women's Closed Championship at Laval in September.

This is an excellent idea and the "Canadian Golfer" sincerely hopes that the fixture will be arranged. It would be in the best interests of women's golf in the two Provinces.

Interesting Happenings on the Courses of England, Scotland, Ireland, Wales and the British Overseas Dominions

A MATCH, consisting of four-somes, took place between a team of High Commissioners and Agents General for the Overseas Dominions, partnered by members of the West Middlesex Committee, and a team chosen by the Captain of the Club. In the top match, Major-General Sir Grenville Ryrie and G. Short beat L. C. S. Lawsey (Capt.) and A. W. Porter by 3 and 2 after being one down at the turn, but the visitors and their partners were successful in only one other match, Lucien Pacaud, Secretary of the Canadian High Commissioner's Office, and R. M. Lockner beating C. B. Haines and T. V. Ruston by 2 and 1.

Ernest Whitcombe won the French Open Championship at Dieppe with 282, which is the lowest aggregate ever returned in the event. He won by a single stroke from A. Boyer, of Nice, Henry Cotton being third with 288. Whitcombe's success was gained by a magnificent final round of 68—the best round in the championship. He played remarkable golf to go out in 30, and he took 38 for the home-ward half. Cotton had a chance, for he was four under 4's with five to play (says Reuter), but finished badly in 4, 5, 6, mainly through poor second shots.

Whitcombe now holds the French, Irish, and Dutch titles.

And this is how they reached the final in the Amateur Championship at St. Andrews:—

Bobby Jones beat:—S. Roper, 3 and 2; C. Shankland, 4 and 3; Cyril Tolley, at 19th; G. O. Watt, 7 and 6; Harrison Johnston, 1 up; Eric Fiddian, 4 and 3; George Voigt (semi-final), 1

Why a _____ DUNLOP goes far-t-h-e-r

A perfectly balanced, symmetrical ball will go farther than a ball that's out of true.

Dunlop Golf Balls are favored by champions and Professionals wherever golf is played because of their perfection of balance. They are so true.

That's one reason they go farther.

There's another reason—the quality of the rubber wound into the ball. Dunlops are made of the best rubber the world affords. Tested and weighed at every stage, Dunlop ball is accurately made and balanced.

You are at your best with a Dunlop. Buy from your Pro or sport goods dealer.

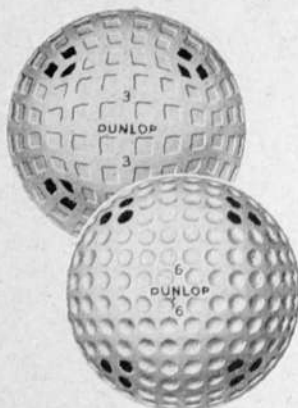

The Dunlop range of golf balls includes:

DUNLOP Maxfli, recessed or latticed design—plain or Spotwick marking, 75c. Blue DUNLOP Maxfli, the new large size (proposed U.S.G.A. Standard), 75c.

Herbert Jolly, the Foxgrove professional, won the "Yorkshire Evening News" Tournament, defeating in the final Owen Sanderson 3 and 1.

This is the second occasion in which Jolly has been successful. It will be remembered that in 1923, the first year in which the event was played, Jolly gained a notable victory over Walter Hagen, and has since reached the final stage three times, only to find the victory snatched from his grasp at the eleventh hour.

Henry Cotton, who led in the qualifying rounds with the fine aggregate of 143, was prevented through illness from participating in the match-play stages. Cotton was suffering badly from an attack of tonsillitis during the qualifying rounds and was compelled to return to his hotel and take to his bed.

Abe Mitchell, by defeating Leo Diegel in the final match at Verulam 4 and 3, won the rubber of the so-called professional championship of the world. At Moor Park Diegel won by 1 up, but Mitchell defeated him at Blackwell by 3 and 2, and then clinched the series at Verulam, making it 2 matches to 1.

Old masters, Vardon, Braid, and Ray, and the present-day master, Bobby Jones, the British Amateur and Open champion, took part in a four-ball exhibition match in aid of the Professional Golfers' Alliance Benevolent Fund at Oxhey. Jones, who looked more like the Jones of old now that the strain of championship golf is over, obviously enjoyed his round in partnership with Braid, and he delighted the big crowd with a display of his best golf. His perfect swing was the envy of all, and although the American consistently out-drove Vardon and Braid by many yards the gallery noticed that he had little to spare with burly Ted Ray from the tee. Jones got his famous putter, "Calamity Jane" to work very early, and he holed two putts of four yards to halve the second and give his side the lead at the next. Ray held on to him very pluckily, once or twice lipping the hole with long putts. Bobby, however, got a brilliant three at the ninth, where he sank another long putt and enabled his side to turn for home with a two-hole lead. Yet another perfect approach with one putt gave Jones another three at the 10th. After the next four holes had been halved, Jones hit a wonderful tee shot to the short 15th, and sank his putt for a two, and his side won the match by 4 and 3. From the 15 holes Jones had an approximate score of six under fours. At the conclusion the American golfer was presented by Oxhey Club with a gold cigarette case, the inscription being "To a great golfer and a great sportsman."

Lambton Pair Win Ladies' Foursome

UNDER the auspices of the Toronto Committee of the Canadian Ladies' Golf Union most successful foursomes, so deservedly popular in the Old Country, were held at the Toronto Golf Club on July 4th. 98 couples or 196 players in all participating in the event.

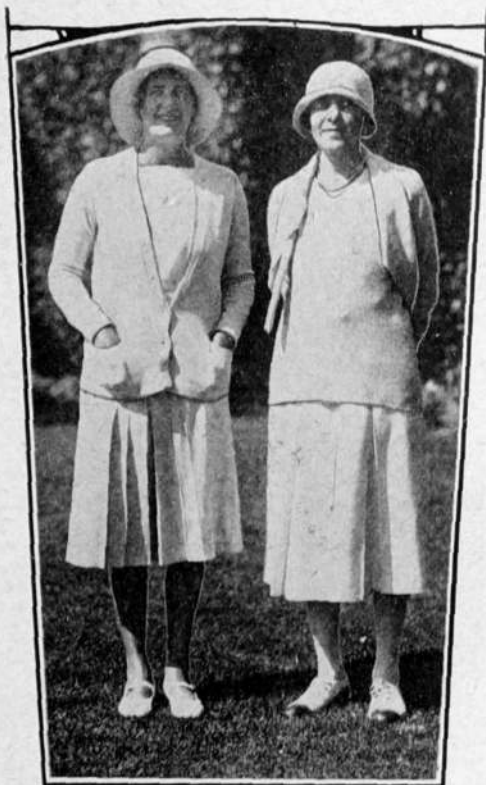

The lower handicap pairs were the first to tee off, and the best score was turned in by Mrs. A. B. Fisher and Mrs. S. G. Bennett, of Lambton, members of the first foursome, while Misses Cecil and Maude Smith, of the Toronto Golf Club, the other half of the initial foursome, took second place after a tie with Mrs. E. W. Whittington and Miss Myriam Elmsley, clubmates, with 88's, two strokes behind the leaders. Only ten pairs bettered the hundred, with Miss Edna Cumming and Aileen Aked, two of the younger school, finishing fourth with 95 and Mrs. G. McMillan and Mrs. H. C. Lefroy fifth, another two strokes behind.

Misses Cumming, Islington, and Aked, Toronto Ladies, won the nett score prize, being three strokes better than their handicap, while Mrs. J. Duncan and Mrs. A. E. Fraser, of Islington, took second prize with a nett 77, after a tie with Mrs. George Evans and Mrs. Hamilton Cassels, of the Toronto Golf Club. Mrs. A. E. Wedd and Mrs. C. J. Nichols, of Thornhill, were fourth with a nett 78. The special prize for the best nett for nine holes, exclusive of other prize-winners, was won by Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Davis, of Pine Point, with a 37 for the first nine. Special prizes were also given for two's, and the winners were Mrs. Fisher and Mrs. Bennett, an eagle on the seventeenth, Mrs. P. K. Heywood and Miss Helen Reid and Mrs. R. McCallum and Mrs. A. V. Piddington.

Playing and course conditions for the competition were ideal, and the players exhibited great interest in the event. Of the 98 pairs only four failed to turn in scores.

Following the return of the last foursome the prizes were presented on the lawn in front of the club house. Mrs. A. B. Fisher, chairman of the T.P.C., presided, and called upon Mrs. Murray A. Stewart, secretary, to make the presentations. The prizes for the third gross score were donated by Mrs. J. M. Lyle, president of the C.L.G.U., for the second nett score by Mrs. M. K. Rowe and Mrs. Eric Ryerson, and for the fourth gross score by Mrs. J. J. Ashworth.

A feature of the day's competition was the dispatch with which it was conducted. The first four teed off at 9 o'clock, and George Cumming had the last away 10 minutes ahead of time. Despite the size of the field, the prizes

Mrs. Stuart G. Bennett, runner-up for the Canadian Close Championship 1929, and Mrs. A. B. Fisher, chairman of the Toronto Committee C.L.G.U., both members of the Lambton Club, winners of best gross score.

MR. JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER, the world's richest man and the world's greatest benefactor, on July 8th celebrated his 91st birthday and this was the natal programme:—

He arose at 8 o'clock, an hour later than he did on his 90th birthday. After breakfast a digest of the world's news was read to him by his secretary. At 9.30 he dictated for a while to his secretary, and at 10 he proceeded to his private golf links, where he played until about noon.

After a light luncheon he spent the afternoon with his family. Despite the absence of his son, John D., Jr., who is in the West, the usual birthday dinner was served at night in the main mansion of the spacious residence near Tarrytown. Among the guests were Mrs. Rockefeller, Jr., several of her children, Mr. and Mrs. David Milton and their daughter, Abbie Rockefeller Milton.

At the Rockefeller estate it was said that he is in "the best of health", and that he continues to ascribe this happy condition largely to the beneficent effects of golf.

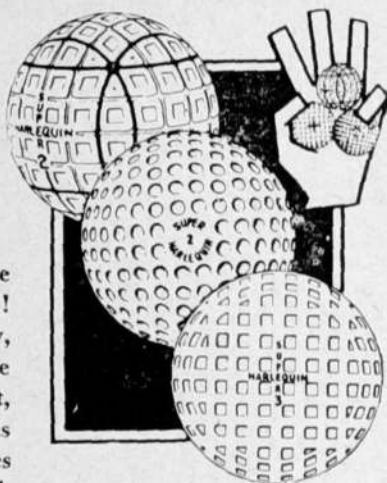

His addiction to this game, incidentally, shows no decline with the passing years. He generally regis-land, Lord Justice—Clerk of Scotland, and Secretary for Scotland, both in the Asquith and Lloyd George administration, Lord Alness had exceptional opportunity of meeting the most prominent public men of Great Britain, many of whom are the subject of brief biographical sketches which will be found both interesting and authoritative. Other delightful chapters of this important publication are travel sketches in Europe and the Old Country, also miscellaneous sketches on such intriguing subjects, as “Christmas at the Savoy”, “Church Union in Scotland”, “Was Shakespeare a Lawyer?”

“Looking Back” is divided into three parts, the latter part being devoted to extracts from special speeches on varied subjects of universal interest, political, judicial and social, all of which are replete with astute reasoning, human understanding, and the broad sympathy of a noble nature. We predict a large demand for this book in Canada, where Lord Alness is known, not only as a jurist of International reputation, but as an enthusiastic golfer, member of “Mighty Muirfield”, and an active member of the British Senior Golfers Society.

Home Players Win at Grand Mere

DESPATCH from Grand Mere, Que., June 29th, by Gazette staff correspondent:—

The invitation tournament staged on Saturday by the Grand Mere Golf Club, under the auspices of the P.Q.G.A., proved a signal triumph for the home club. The players who make the difficult course in the Laurentian Hills their home club, successfully repelled the bid for honours made by golfers from both Quebec and Montreal, and romped away with all four prize awards.

A young player who shows considerable promise, Len Anderson, captured gross honours for the 36 holes of medal play. He turned in a card of 164, made up of two rounds of 82, to lead C. C. Fraser, of Kanawaki, by one stroke. The latter had an 84 in the morning round, and his 81 in the afternoon just fell short of tying the score of the Grand Mere player. Nett honours for the 36 holes went to W. H. McLean, of Grand Mere, with a card of 89-84—173—145. The prize for the best gross for 18 holes went to Joseph Goodacre, of Grand Mere, with a 79, while the nett prize for 18 holes was gained by W. Geddes, also of Grand Mere.

Despite the inclement weather, golfers from the Montreal, Quebec and Three Rivers clubs turned out. The driving rain and cold in the morning played havoc with the cards turned in, and although a warm sun shone down in the afternoon, the fairways and greens were still soggy and the figures were consequently higher than usual. Par for the tricky Grand Mere course is 70, a figure very seldom attained by the amateurs of the district.

Montreal golfers were generally up in the list. C. C. Fraser was second in the gross list with 165, while Hugh Jaques, of Whitlock, came fourth with 173, made up of rounds of 87 and 86.

Our Hole-in-One Club

They are Recording the One-shot Stunt with Rhythmic Regularity from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

THE advent of the summer months brings as of yore a deluge of announcements of holes-in-one made by successful participants in the Royal and Ancient game from one end of the Dominion to the other. Herewith the tale:—

The curtain rises on the "sporting" course at Antigonish, N.S. Here, while pursuing the noblest of pastimes, Dr. W. F. MacKinnon, in company with Mr. C. S. Agnew, covered the seventy-five yards of the second hole in less than two strokes of par.

We must traverse nearly four thousand miles to recount the exploit of F. W. McIntosh, a junior member of the Shaughnessy Heights Golf Club, Vancouver, B.C., who while playing on the beautiful Quilchena course, found "tin from tee" at the fifth hole—128 yards in length.

Again the "Gateway of the Pacific" is the scene of another stunt. A perfect stance, a perfect swing, and a perfect shot enabled Mr. E. H. Cotter to claim that he had reached the golfer's Utopia, when he made a hole-in-one on the elusive seventeenth hole—a full one hundred and forty yards.

On the interesting Chedoke Civic Golf Course, Hamilton, Mr. H. J. Dawson, while consorting on the links with A. H. McIntosh, played a 100 per cent. mashie shot to reach the cup of the tenth hole, 160 yards distant, in one shot.

Mr. A. J. McLatchy, a charter member of the Uplands Golf and Country Club, Toronto, attained the golfer's crown of immortality when he bagged a "oneer" at the deceptive sixty-yard fourth hole.

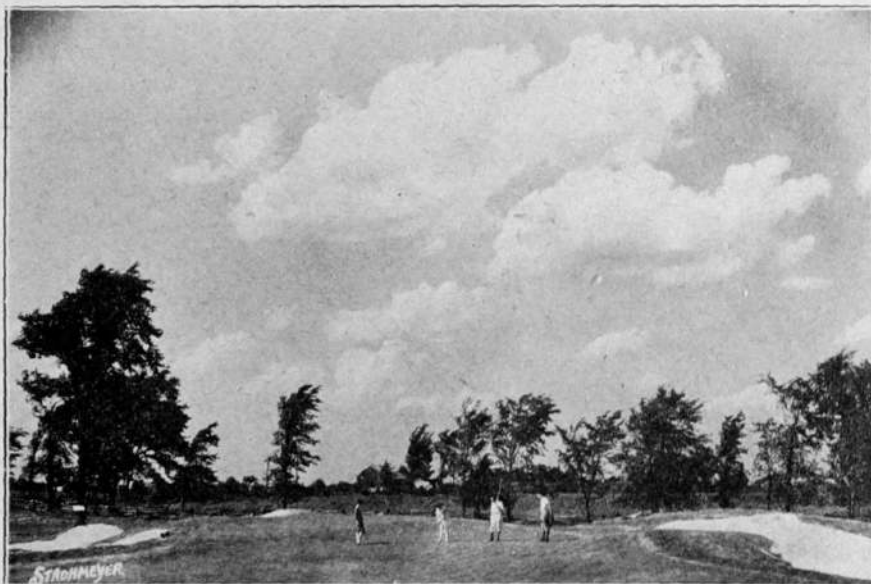

This time a member of the fair sex lays claim for golfing laurels. Mrs. J. R. Musgrave exerting the indubitable charm of her sex, persuaded her ball to wend its way with a negligible deviation from the "straight and narrow" to its ultimate resting place in the cup of the fifth hole, 77 yards, on the charming Thornhill course, Toronto.

Mr. R. H. Hall received "the dividend" of his golfing investment when he sank his tee shot on the fourth hole—125 yards—of the Prince Albert Golf Course, Prince Albert, Sask. Mr. R. C. Tollemache witnessed the paying thereof.

Again a "ladye fayre". Mrs. E. J. Ashton, while enjoying a round with Mrs. S. H. Stewart, took out a membership in our Hole-in-One Club by placing her ball with unerring accuracy in the cup of the tenth hole—170 yards—of the Rivermead Golf Club, Ottawa.

The caprice of Golfiana wafts us again to the shores of the restless Pacific. Dr. Wesley T. Davison, of Carmel, California, a member of many years standing of the Victoria Golf Club, while playing with Lieut.

Col. Lennox Irving, drove "straight and true" to make a "hole-in-one" on the 174-yard 13th hole of the Victoria Golf Links, Victoria, B.C.

On the Stratford, Ontario, Golf Club another miraculous shot was enacted by Mr. G. J. Campbell, of Toronto. Mr. Campbell brought Stratford into the limelight when he negotiated the third hole—197 yards—of the "Shakesperian" course with an "inimitable iron" shot.

The Bowness Golf Club, Calgary, Alta., "hits us hard" with three entries for the golfer's hall of fame. Here are the culprits—Mr. F. J. Huff astonished his opponents by sinking his tee-shot at the tricky third hole—176 yards.

Mrs. C. H. Nelson upheld the honour of her sex by driving a goodly 148 yards to reach the "tin" of the eighth hole.

Mr. J. Bishop is to be congratulated on conquering the 207-yard 17th hole with his trusty "spoon" in one shot only.

Donning the seven-league boots of storied fame, we sprint across the Rockies to Esquimalt, B.C. Here, Mr. W. Herbert, of Victoria, B.C., while playing with Mrs. Herbert and Major and Mrs. W. C. Angus, annihilated Old Man Par when he "socked a scorcher" from the tee of the 148-yard 9th hole on the Macaulay Point Golf Links.

Mr. S. M. Simpson, of Esquimalt, B.C., also recorded a "one" at Macaulay Point when playing with Mr. F. D. Morten.

In recording the hole-in-one made by Dr. Wardlaw, of Galt, in the June issue it was stated that he was probably the first Senior golfer in Canada to record the feat. As a matter of

We are particularly glad to welcome a member of the Fourth Estate to our Club of the Elect. Mr. M. Grattan O'Leary, Editor of the Ottawa Journal, and "a right good Editor, too," playing with another distinguished journalist, Dr. P. D. Ross, president of the Journal, and Mr. R. B. Farrell, with a No. 5 mashie negotiated in one the tricky 12th water hole at the Chaudiere Golf Club, Ottawa, distance 165 yards. Mr. O'Leary is by nature of his profession inundated with papers and magazines but perhaps now and again he will find time to scan the columns of the

"C.G." during the next year. Here's hoping he will.

Probably one of the most remarkable incidents in Canadian golfing history occurred on June 26th and July 1st on the links of the Royal Ottawa. On the former date Mr. E. R. Bremner, vice-president of the club, partnered with Mr. Henry Gill against Col. J. Stanley Scott and Mr. Crawford Gordon, manager of the Bank of Commerce, negotiated the 6th hole "Sandy", 150 yards, with a fine lofting shot which dropped within four feet of the pin and then ran gently to the hole. Mr. Bremner is a very popular member of the club and was warmly congratulated upon his entrance into the Hall of Fame.

Then on Dominion Day at the same hole Lt.-Col. Arthur R. Mortimore, playing with Mr. G. B. Greene against Vice-President Bremner and his son-in-law, Mr. J. Rogers, of Winnipeg, accomplished the same feat. The fact that the same hole was made in one twice within less than a week was the subject of much comment around the club house. Being the National holiday the congratulations were unusually numerous and hearty.

Again the Quilehena Golf Club! These snappy "one-shotters" have been in evidence (drat 'em) on the records of our "Hole-in-One Club" since its inception. The latest arrival is Mr. E. A. Garrard, Vancouver, B. C., who has inscribed his name with indelible ink on the roll of fame by an initial mashie shot at the 180-yard eighth hole.

Mr. G. F. Drewry celebrated the National holiday, July 1st, by winning a year's subscription to Canada's national golfing magazine, when he sank his tee shot at the 170 yard 15th hole of the Weston Golf and Country Club, Toronto.

Mr. Charles MacGregor, the well-known portrait artist, of Toronto, proved conclusively at the 15th hole—150 yards—of the Lake Shore Golf and Country Club that he was a past master of the mashie as well as the brush when he reached "tin from tee" in one shot. Messrs. Colin Mac-Gregor and E. E. Soehner witnessed this manifestation of golfing prowess.

Once more the "Canadian Golfer" extends felicitations to a lady golfer, Miss Helen Thompstone, of Guelph, Ontario, while playing with Miss Hilda Hewit on the very clever links of the Guelph Country Club, bagged a "one" at the 100-yard 7th hole. Miss Thompstone has the signal honour of being the first woman golfer to record a "hole-in-one" on the Guelph course, founded in 1912—18 years ago.

Then Mr. R. N. Dickson, another Toronto golfer, chose the 6th hole at the Pine Point Golf and Country Club to record the stunt—a tidy little swat of 212 yards.

Thistledown Golf and Country Club, is again in the picture. Mr. J. W. Willis playing with Mr. B. T. Huston, Vice-president M. J. Hutchinson, and R. G. Milne, made an ace at the 4th hole, 185 yards.

The Briars Golf and Country Club has a very charming course at Jackson's Point, Ontario. The 7th hole here is 110 yards. Mr. J. J. English, of Toronto, tinkled up the cup here with a perfect mashie tee-shot.

Mr. D. O. O'Donoghue, a non-resident member of the North Bay Golf Club, "got his" at the 6th hole on the North Bay course, 135 yards.

Sarnia is in the picture this month with two performances. Mr. R. G. Findlay, the popular secretary of the club, chose the 10th hole, 169 yards, for the performance and Mr. F. L. Riffin, of Port Huron, Mich., the 136-yard 14th.

The first hole-in-one made on the Stratheona Municipal golf course, Port Arthur, Ontario, in the four years of its operation was the Dominion Day performance of F. J. Holt, steward of the Prince Arthur Hotel. Mr. Holt was playing during the afternoon in a friendly foursome with J. Henderson, A. Metcalf and C. Rogers. At the seventh hole, 177 yards, and down grade to the green, the shortest hole on the course, Mr. Holt teed off with a mashie. Most golfers, setting aside their drivers for this hole, use a mid iron, but Mr. Holt preferred a more "lofty" club. He lifted the ball well in the air. It took ground nicely in front of the green, rolled gently across the grass square and settled inside the cup.

The Quilchena Golf Club, Vancouver, is certainly making it a continuous performance this month. Here is still another "one" from that club. Mr. W. R. Dunwoody negotiated the feat at the 5th hole there, 128 yards.

Then Hanna, Alberta. Playing with the president of the club, L. D. Warwick, E. Cochrane and J. Shouldice, Mr. David Grossert, of Cessford, a member of the Hanna Club, "tickled up the tin" at the 3rd hole, 158 yards. Mr. Grossert has been playing golf for 30 years and has represented many times the Hanna Club in district competitions.

Biggar, Saskatchewan. Mr. Ed. H. Erickson chose the 7th hole on the Biggar course to register the 20,000 to 1 shot. He was playing at the time with Dr. Brace and W. Brownlee.

And the final performance to be recorded this month. Captain Lindsay Gordon, of Ottawa, a visitor to the popular Bigwin Inn Golf Course, Lake of Bays, Ont., put a beauty over at the 8th hole to join the immortals.

On Making a Hole-in-One

(Editorial Ottawa Journal)

A Journal man went out to the Chaudiere Golf Club on Dominion Day, made a hole-in-one. Since then he's been showered by congratulations, has been 'phoned to by young things with nice soprano voices, has had telegrams (some of them collect), has been promised two whole boxes of balls and a new sweater, and has taken on a new importance even in the eyes of caddies.

What all this is about, or why, we don't quite know. There's really no trouble at all in making a hole-in-one. We know whereof we speak, because only a few days earlier we had a lot more trouble and worry (and language) making the same hole—in nine. Moreover, there was no reason in the world why our ball shouldn't have found that particular hole, seeing that it has been in every other hole all over the course all summer, and they with no smooth green around them at all. As a matter of fact, the wonder is that there aren't more of those one-hole performances. Last year we played for a week out in Calgary, and every day we shot a ball right in a gopher hole, which is much smaller than a hole on the green, and surrounded by prairie grass as well. The only thing we didn't like about that was that gophers, apparently, have expensive tastes.

However, we've been giving this hole-in-one business some deep-sea thought, and we've about concluded that the reason so many seem unable to do what we did with so little trouble is that most golfers are Scotch. There's no need to labour the point.

However, we're going to try to get even. We now know exactly how to make the shot on that twelfth hole in one, and if enough golfers are particularly keen to do it, we're willing to turn pro and tell them just what we did—for five dollars apiece. If that doesn't work, then we know what we'll do. The next time we make that hole or any other hole in one, it's going to be at night. It's just as easy to make it at night as at any other time, anyway.

The Alberta Provincial Championships

Record Fields Participate in the Annual Event at the Beautiful Golf and Country Club, Edmonton. "Jack" Cuthbert Adds Still Another Championship to his Belt. "Jimmie" Rimmer, of Jasper, wins the Open.

THE Edmonton Golf and Country Club, which boasts one of the most interesting courses in the West, provided the brilliant venue for the 1930 Provincial Championships of Alberta. Edmonton welcomed the leading men and junior golfers of the Province in a right regal manner and the Championships were generally voted the most interesting and enjoyable ever recorded in the history of the game in Alberta. Great interest centred in the three main events, the Open, the Men's Amateur and the Junior Championship, all of which attracted stellar fields of entrants. The Country Club course was in exceptionally fine condition and nothing was left undone by the officials of the Club and members to make the Championships successful in every particular. And they were.

In a large field the following qualified to play off in the Amateur Championship:—

Harvey Day, Jr., 77; Jack Cuthbert, 77; Wit Matthews, 77; Hugh Borthwick, 77; Morris Stewart, 79; Ed. Wright, 81; W. Alexander, 81; J. Bell, 81; G. MacWilliams, 84; C. Roenisch, 82; H. Black, 82; S. Van Aalst, 83; Tip O'Neill, 83; G. Alexander, 83; A. Briscoe, 83; N. Lee, 83; E. MacFadyen, 84; R. Bradburn, 84; R. MacWilliams, 84; J. Hutcheon, 84; G. Hunt, 84; H. Patzig, 84; S. Campbell, 84; H. Gaetz, 85; F. Wells, 85; H. Smith, 86; L. Campbell, 86; E. Culver, 86; W. E. Smith, 86; W. R. Willis, 86; G. Hutton, 87; G. Tetzlaff, 87.

There were three big upsets in the first and second rounds. The 1929 champion, Gordon MacWilliams, of Calgary, who made golfing history in the Canadian Amateur at Jasper Park last year when he defeated W. Lanman, of Columbus, Ohio, after being six down after the morning round, was beaten by his brother, Ronald, on the 19th hole. Both played brilliant golf. Then Harvey Day, Jr., Edmonton, considered a big threat for the title, was eliminated by George Hutton, of Edmonton, former Canadian champion, on the 20th hole, and H. T. Borthwick, of the Regal Club, Calgary, was taken into camp by Sammy Campbell, of the Edmonton Municipal Club. Borthwick, it will be remembered, in 1927 was quite one of the best young golfers in Ontario and loomed large that year both in the Ontario and Canadian Championships. Hutton, then a resident of Montreal, won the Canadian Amateur in 1911, or 19 years ago. He defeated on that occasion at the Royal Ottawa the late

A. E. Austin, of Toronto, one of the best beloved young golfers in Canada.

Jack Cuthbert, of the Edmonton Country Club, who won the qualifying medal in the play-off against Day, Matthews and Borthwick, all of whom scored 77, reached the last eight by defeating George Tetztaff, of the Bowness Golf Club, Calgary, and J. Hutcheon, also of Calgary. Then he proceeded to defeat, 2 and 1, Ronald MacWilliams, of Calgary, after a hard fight, and in the semi-final, W. Matthews, of the Mayfair Club, Edmonton, 2 and 1. Cuthbert in this match with a brilliant 73 equalled par of the course.

Morris Stewart, of Edmonton, the popular chairman of the tournament, accounted in the first round for Wm. Alexander, of Edmonton, in the second round Alfred Briscoe, of Calgary, and in the third round S. H. Campbell, of Edmonton. In the semi-finals he met Hutton and defeated him 2 and 1. Pretty good work for the Country Club player, who was largely responsible for the smooth running of the championships.

In the final, Stewart did not play up to the form displayed in the previous rounds of the Championship and his hard-hitting clubmate, Cuthbert, rather romped away with titular honours, registering an 8 and 7 victory. The cards:—

Cuthbert, who lived for many years in Winnipeg, has more or less dominated amateur golf in the West for some years. He only recently took up his residence in Edmonton and is the ranking player in the Edmonton Golf and Country Club. He has Western Championships galore to his credit and has also on more than one occasion made a most creditable showing in leading events in the East. Last year at Jasper in the Canadian Amateur he reached the demi-semi-finals. He learned his game in the Old Country and learned it well. He only weighs 118 lbs. but drives a longish ball, depending, however, more or less on a brilliant short game for his many notable successes. The Editor of the "Canadian Golfer" said of him at Jasper Park last year and it is worth repeating:—

"Cuthbert has done more for golf in the Middle West than any other golfer. He is a stylist and many a young Westerner has to thank him for first inculcating in him the love of the game. And what is more, instructing him in and laying the foundation of a sure and sound game."

In addition to the Championship many interesting flights were participated in by the players who did not qualify for the "Main Show". Here are the results:—

First flight—Semi-finals—F. C. Dickins beat W. Broadfoot. D. N. McLean beat Wm. Broekie.

Final—F. C. Dickins beat D. N. McLean.

Second Flight—Semi-finals—John Olesky won from Wm. McAfee by default. C. L. Freeman beat Dr. Dodds.

Final—C. L. Freeman beat John Olesky, 2 and 1.

Third flight—Semi-finals—A. G. McKinnon beat J. W. McClung. Dr. Williamson beat J. Thompson.

Final—Dr. Williamson beat A. G. McKinnon, 5 and 4.

Fourth Flight—Semi-finals—Jack McClory Jr. beat W. Darling. W. Jarvis beat John Gaunt.

Final—W. Jarvis beat Jack McClory, 2 and 1.

Fifth flight—Semi-finals—Fred Heath beat C. McMillan.

Joe Tyrrell beat Fred Kemp.

Rimmer Wins the Open

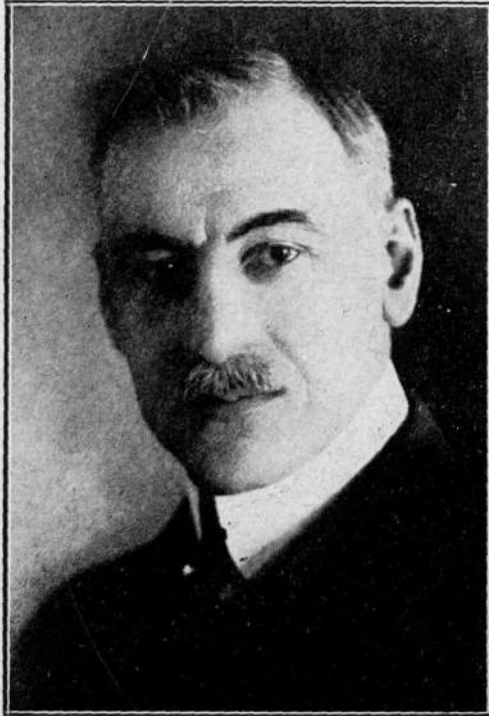

Very often a great deal of fun is poked at the making of a hole-in-one, beginner's luck and all that sort of thing. But once in a while, the stunt comes off at the physiological moment. For instance, in the British Open at St. Andrews, in 1921, Joek Hutchison made a one which enabled him to tie with Roger W. Wethered, the famous amateur, and in the play-off he won the Championship. If it had not been for that fortunate ace, Wethered would have been crowned

Mr. Hugh Borthwick, of Calgary, formerly well known young Ontario player, who tied for first place in the Alberta Championship Qualifying Round. In 1927 he was runner-up to Ross Somerville in the Ontario Amateur Championship.

Open Champion. Then in the Alberta Provincial Open Championship at Edmonton, Jimmie Rimmer, the popular pro of famous Jasper Park, recorded the trick in the second round and that very materially enabled him to win the Championship with a score of 149 for the 36 holes. Rimmer is a golfer of recognized ability. He learned his game in Scotland—that says a lot. He is a very finished player indeed. In 1927 when the British Ryder Cup team of professionals visited this country he was chosen to represent Canada in the matches at Toronto and Montreal. In Toronto he was in great form and led the field with a 76 and 69 for a total of 145 which won for him first prize of $250.00. He ranks deservedly as one of the best professional players in the Dominion and it is a pity that he is not seen more often in the Eastern events.

Mr. H. Milton Martin, prominent golf executive of Edmonton and vice-president of the Royal Canadian Golf Association.

The Scottish professional from Jasper who led with four others for second place in the morning round with a score of 77, required but 72 strokes to negotiate the 18-hole journey in the afternoon thus giving him a total of 149. He was two strokes better than his closest rival for the title, Duncan Sutherland, Vancouver Point Grey Club professional, who turned in cards of 78 and 73 for his two rounds.

Joe Pryke, youthful former professional of the Edmonton Country Club, led the field in the morning with a 76 and was considered a serious threat to crash through to take Gordon MacWilliams' title won last year. His afternoon card of 77 was not good enough to give him the crown, however, falling short of equalling Rimmer's winning score by four strokes.

Three amateurs, Messrs. H. Thompson Borthwick, of Calgary, Jack Cuthbert and Witt Matthews, both of Edmonton, were next to Pryke with total scores of 154. Giff Owen, of Calgary Regal, followed them with a 157, while Gordon MacWilliams(of Calgary, another amateur, was in eighth place with 158.

Rimmer's performance in cutting 5 strokes off his morning's card in the afternoon was easily the highlight of the afternoon's play, and he was helped in this, as previously noted, by a hole-in-one on the fourth hole. News of this most unusual happening in tournament play spread like wildfire over the course and the near-perfect golf he was playing on every hole practically assured him of victory. He was one under fours on the outgoing nine in the afternoon, and one over on the home nine. His card:—

"Jack" Cameron Scores Again

Leading Amateur in the Quebec Provincial Golf Association Wins the First Amateur Tournament of the Season.

PLAYING up to his rating as the ranking amateur of the Province of Quebec, "Jack" Cameron in the opening amateur tournament last month over the sporting course of the Marlborough Golf Club, Montreal, held under the auspices of the Province of Quebec Golf Association, won the event with a score of 152. Right at his heels were the promising Summerlea players, G. B. Taylor and W. D. Taylor, who each carded 153. In fourth place, but 9 strokes back of the leader were C. C. Caddies Will Play For $1,000

THE caddies are certainly well looked after in California. At the Ranco and Sunset Fields Country Clubs, August 11, 12 and 13 a tournament will be staged for their benefit and cash prizes amounting to no less than $1000 will be distributed amongst the winners in addition to gold medals, a set of kitchen hardware to the married caddie having the lowest gross score for 72 holes and other prizes. Caddie masters, too, have not been forgotten. They will compete for cash prizes amounting to $200. Mr. J. B. Faby has given $1,000 for the prize list for the caddies and Mr. A. H. Painter raised the money by subscription for the caddie masters. Splendid idea this, which could be followed to advantage in Toronto, Montreal and other large centres in Canada, where there are hundreds of caddies.

With the Professionals

Interesting News of the Men Who Do So Much for the Royal and Ancient Game, from Coast to Coast.

ROBERT KERR, the professional at the Cornwall (Ontario) Golf Club, was formerly a well known Scottish amateur playing at Edzell, Forfarshire. He is doing fine work at Cornwall.

At the recent 36 hole medal competition staged by the Ontario Professional Golfers' Association at the Thornhill Golf Club, Toronto, Andrew Kay, for many years a leading light in Canadian professional golf, was the victor with a splendid score of 143.

His right to first place was by no means a foregone conclusion for he was strongly opposed by Willie Lamb, the Canadian professional champion, who finished in second place with a score of 144, one stroke back of Kay.

Herewith the cards of Kay and Lamb:—

Jack Bond, a well known St. Andrews (Scotland) professional, who is looking for a position in Canada next season, and he would be a good man for any club, writes:—

Roland Brault, a very clever 14-year-old golfer.

"By the way, I had an interesting game over the Old Course here the other day with Mr. B. H. L. Symnes, of Toronto, with whom I believe you are very well acquainted. The game was most enjoyable. I also played recently with Dr. C. W. Haentschel, of Haileybury, Ontario."

The following from the "Boston Post", Boston, Mass., will be read with interest by many former Canadian golfing friends of O. Brault (father of young Ronald), who was for several years a well known professional in the Province of Quebec:—

"Roland Brault, age 14, son of Professional Ollie Brault, of the Country Club, has been playing some very sensational golf recently, but it was not until yesterday that he turned in a really miraculous round for a youngster. The boy playing in a foursome made up of S. McMullen, B. Ladrie, Bill Wilbur and himself, scored a 77 on the difficult course, just a few strokes above the course record. Young Brault was playing every club perfectly and shot a 39 going out on the first nine. He played the second nine in 38. His club, Barre, Vermont, is sending him to the State Amateur Championship at Manchester, Vt."

Jim Cook, the professional at Stratford, had rather the unusual experience of seeing his tee-shot plump squarely into the 190-yard hole on the Stratford course and then jump out again. It was a "bulls-eye" all right but not "a counter" for one-shot honours.

Newell Senour, the professional at the Scarboro Golf Club, Toronto, has just patented a very clever device whereby the weight of a wooden club can be easily adjusted by a series of brass rings in the sole of the club. The idea has been favourably passed upon by experts and will probably be taken up by one of the leading golf club manufacturers of America. It looks all over like "a winner".

Dan Russell, professional at the Oxford Golf and Country Club, Woodstock, Ont., formerly of Brantford, set a new record for the course while playing a round with George Ewens, well known hockey player. Russell's score was 34, the old mark being 35 and par 37. He was never above par on any one hole, and on three of the nine was one below par. In the round he came close to making a 31, three of the shots just lipping the hole.

The record card:—

Russell	344 435 434—34

Nicol Thompson, professional of the Hamilton Golf and Country Club, where the Open Championship of Canada is being held this week, recently recorded a 66 over the course—a good augury for him for championship week.

John Madash, the young Ontario professional who is this season at the Boule Rock Golf Club, a popular resort at Metis Beach, Que., recently made a record score for the course, a 33 made up as follows:—

Par534 434 335--34
Madash443 443 344--33

Good going that. Madash writes enthusiastically about the Boule Rock course, which has a background of the most wonderful scenery. Fairways and greens he reports as in particularly good condition this season and much golf is being played.

Bobby Cruickshanks, the wee Scotch professional Bobby Jones defeated in a play-off at Inwood in 1923 to win his first Open Championship, won $10,500 through the Atlanta wizard's victories in three straight major tournaments this year.

Cruikshank, who failed to qualify for the tournament Bobby won at Interlachen on Saturday, played $50 at big odds last April on Jones to win the British Amateur crown, the British Open and the United States Open. Bobby's triple triumph brought Cruickshanks $210 for each $1 of his own investment.

"I saw Bobby in the Savannah Open, knew the shape he was in, and made the best bet of my life," Cruickshank said at his club at Purchase, N.Y. "I let my father-in-law have half the bet, but that's all right, it's all in the family."

As briefly mentioned in "Stop Press News" in the June issue, A. F. McPherson, of the Marlborough Golf Club, Montreal, won the first Open Tournament of the Province of Quebec, staged on the Marlborough course.

Driving rain, a sloppy course and subsequent blinding sunshine failed to halt the formful popular Marlborougher as he collected two effective and consistent rounds of golf to gain premier honours. McPherson's morning round was 75, and he proved just as steady in the afternoon to turn in a score of 76 for a total of 151 for the 36 holes.

Close behind the Marlborough pro came Jack Cameron, Rivermead, Ottawa, amateur, considered the best amateur under the jurisdiction of the P.Q.G.A. Cameron had a total of 152, made up of rounds of 77 and 75. Tied for third place were Charles R. Murray, Royal Montreal professional, and

A. F. McPherson, who wins the First Quebec Open Tournament.

Joek R. Brown, of Summerlea. Each had a total of 154. George Elder, Whitlock professional, and Gordon B. Taylor, youthful Summerlea amateur, followed with equal cards of 156.

Three professionals found themselves deadlocked for seventh place. They were Redvers Mackenzie, Elm Ridge, Nelson Young, Royal Montreal, and Albert H. Murray, Beaconsfield. They played off for the prize in a sudden death contest on the first hole, and Mackenzie came through to win, when both Murray and Young found bunkers on either side of the first green.

The prizes were presented by Mr. James Ballantyne, president of the Marlborough Golf Club. Mr. G. H. Forster, president of the P.Q.G.A., made a few remarks, in which he paid tribute to the club for the success of the event.

New Golf Ball's Championship "Hat-Trick"

A striking commentary on the playing qualities of the new Super-"Harlequin" ball, is the remarkable championship "Hat-Trick" just completed by the great victory of E. R. Whitcombe in the French Open with the lowest aggregate ever recorded in a leading open tournament, bar one. The other two sweeping successes of the new Super-"Harlequin" were in the French Native Championship, won by M. Dallamagne with a record low score for the event, and in the Irish Open, won by C. A. Whitcombe, who also broke the course record.

Entirely new principles in the manufacture of the new Super-"Harlequin" Ball have been creating a great deal of interest lately. In fact, the demand, in spite of increased manufacturing facilities, has consistently exceeded the supply for the past three months, and is showing a steady increase week by week.

Until the advent of the new Super-"Harlequin" it had been thought impossible to produce a golf ball that would stand up to heavy punishment from topped shots and that would retain its shape and its paint for round after round, except at the expense of length and that sweet "feel" off the club-head which is one of the greatest delights in the game. It is, therefore, no small achievement of Mr. G. W. Beldam, the patentee, to have produced so revolutionary a ball. The cover is specially "tempered" to withstand cuts and gashes, the accurately wound and "centred" inner core is, moreover, pressed into the cover by methods which ensure absolute adhesion and amalgamation, and by minimizing "spread" on impact not only gives full value to the blow but prevents a slice or a pull from being unduly penalized in flight.

The manufacturers therefore claim a double economy in using the new Super-"Harlequin"; an economy in strokes, due to greater steadiness through the air and on the green; and in pocket, due to its long-lasting qualities. A member of the Sandown Club, Isle of Wight, recently sent a Super-"Harlequin" with which he had played no fewer than 17 rounds (certified by the club professional) and the ball was absolutely uncut and still playable, having lost but a negligible fraction of its "tension". The outstanding playing qualities of this ball indeed have been welcomed by golfers everywhere, as one can judge by the sales reports of professionals and sports dealers all over the country.

The Eastern Canadian agents for the Super-Harlequin are the well known sporting firm of Harold A. Wilson Co. Ltd., 297-299 Yonge St., Toronto, and in Vancouver and District W. G. Langdon, 2464 Cambridge Street, Vancouver B.C. They report big sales this season of this outstanding ball.

"Big Four of Quebec Golf"

Dominate Ladies' Championship of Quebec. Once Again Mme. Dagenais and Miss Virtue Meet in Final and for the Second Time in Three Years, the Latter Wins Title on the 20th Green, Creating a Record in Golfdom.

UNDER ideal weather conditions July 7th the Province of Quebec Women's Championship under the auspices of the Quebec Branch of the C.L.G.U. opened with the qualifying round on the magnificent course of the Royal Montreal Golf Club. In a field of 100 of the leading lady players of the Province Miss Dora Virtue, of the Whitlock Golf Club, former champion, with 78 captured medallist honours. Out in 41 Miss Dora came home with a scintillating 37 which easily put her in the van, her nearest competitor, Mme. J. Dagenais, of Laval-sur-le-Lac, defending champion, being six strokes back of her. Miss Virtue's outstanding card was only three strokes over par. Scores of 96 qualified to play off in the championship. There were two 96's—Mrs. Papineau and Mrs. J. P. MacIntosh, of the Royal Montreal. In the play-off the former won. The qualifiers:—

The Beaconsfield team carried off the C.L.G.U. Team Shield for the aggregate score for the first four members of any club, this competition being decided as a result of the scores in the qualifying round. The winning team was composed of Miss P. Abbott 91, Mrs. J. W. Nicoll 95, Mrs. J. W. Ross 95, Miss C. Beer with 91. They had a nine-point margin over Laval-sur-le-Lac whose aggregate score of 381 was made up of Mrs. Dagenais 84, Miss Rolland's 91, Mrs. Papineau's 96, and Mrs. E. Savard's 110. The Shield was won by Royal Ottawa last year.

And this is what happened in the Championship play-down at match play:—

First round—Miss D. Virtue, Whitlock, beat Mrs. L. Papineau, Laval, 2 and 1.

Miss C. Beer, Beaconsfield, beat Miss P. Abbott, Beaconsfield, 7 and 5.

Miss E. Mills, Royal Ottawa, beat Miss R. Wilson, Royal Montreal, 4 and 3.

Mme. J. Dagenais, of the Laval-sur-le-Lac Club, Montreal, who loses Quebec title on the 20th green.

Miss E. Kinsella, Senneville, beat Miss E. McNaughton, Thetford Mines, 8 and 7.

Miss M. Kirkham, Forest Hills, beat Mrs. J. W. Nicoll, Beaconsfield, 4 and 3.

Miss L. Rolland, Laval, beat Miss L. Lessard, Thetford Mines, 5 and 4.

Miss D. Taylor, Summerlea, beat Miss L. How, Whitlock, 8 and 7.

Mme. J. Dagenais, Laval, beat Mrs. J. W. Ross, Beaconsfield, 3 and 1.

Second round—Miss Dora Virtue defeated Miss Beer 5 and 3.

Mme. Dagenais defeated Miss Doris Taylor 4 and 3.

Miss Kinsella defeated Miss Evelyn Mills 3 and 2.

Miss Kirkham defeated Miss Lucille Rolland 6 and 4.

Semi-finals—Mme. Dagenais defeated Miss Marjorie Kirkham 6 and 5.

Miss Virtue defeated Miss Kinsella 3 and 2.

Final—Miss Dora Virtue, Whitlock, defeated Mme. Dagenais on the 20th green, 1 up.

Known as the "big four" in Quebec women's golfdom, Mme. Dagenais, charming French-Canadian player from the Laval-sur-le-Lac Club, and the Misses Dora Virtue, Whitlock, E. Kinsella, Senneville, and M. Kirkham, of Forest Hills, all members of Montreal clubs, and all young players, again dominated the championship, reaching, it will be noticed, the semi-finals. Here Madame Dagenais and Miss Virtue for the third year in succession reigned supreme and accounted for their rivals rather easily.

In the final once again a large gallery witnessed a titanic struggle between the fair representatives of Laval and Whitlock which was not decided until the 20th green, where Miss Dora was again crowned the golfing queen of the Ancient Province. In 1928 she won the title from Mme. Dagenais, also on the 20th green, by sinking a putt for a three. Last year her rival took revenge by defeating Miss Virtue, not however, until five extra holes had been played. Such a closely contested final between two players three years in succession creates a record in Canada or for that matter any other country. The encounter really ranks as a golfing classic.

The final, which was replete with thrills, was followed by a gallery of 500 enthusiasts. Going to the 10th hole Mme. Dagenais had the comfortable lead of two holes but from there on Miss Virtue played sterling golf to end all square at the 18th and 19th and then amidst great applause win the 20th, her chip shot resting a few inches from the hole, whilst her opponent had a five-foot putt which she just failed to negotiate, to keep the hard-fought match alive. Both players had cards of 82—good golf.

The prize winners in this thoroughly well run and colourful championship were presented their trophies in the club house immediately after the final:—

The C.L.G.U. Cup went to Miss Virtue as well as the prize presented by the Royal Montreal Golf Club. Mme. Dagenais captured the prize for the runner-up offered by Mrs. A. E. Mussen. Miss Virtue also took the prize for the best gross in the qualifying round presented by Mrs. T. Arnold, while Miss L. How, of Whitlock, took the prize for the best nett in the silver division offered by Miss K. Campbell. The best gross of players with handicaps of 28 and over went to Mrs. O. S. Ransom, of Summerlea, while the best bronze division gross award was taken by Mrs. R. Lawson, Royal Montreal.

The consolation flight finals resulted as follows:—

Championship consolation—Mrs. J. W. Nicoll, Beaconsfield, beat Miss P. Abbott, Beaconsfield, 4 and 3.

First consolation: Miss P. Yuile, Royal Montreal, beat Mrs. S. R. Saunders, Royal Montreal, one up.

Second consolation: Miss H. Bernard, Royal Montreal, beat Miss F. Sharpe, Royal Ottawa, 5 and 4.

Third consolation: Mrs. W. Laurie, Summerlea, beat Miss H. Hutchison, Royal Montreal, one up.

Fourth consolation: Mrs. H. Webb, Kanawaki, beat Mrs. S. Chillas, Beaconsfield, on up.

Fifth consolation: Mrs. C. Henderson, Summerlea, beat Mrs. R. C. Ronalds, Beaconsfield, by default.

Sixth consolation: Miss J. B. Smart, Marlborough, beat Mrs. J. B. Bell, Beaconsfield, two up.

Miss Eileen Kinsella, Senneville Club, Montreal, who for the second year in succession reached the semi-finals in the Quebec Championship.

Manoir Richelieu Invitation Tournament

Despatch from Murray Bay, Que., July 11th:—

“Premier honours in the first annual woman's invitation tournament held over the Manoir Richelieu golf course went to American entrants when Miss R. Knapp, of the Women's Golf Club, of New York, won the championship with a gross 96, while Mrs. E. S. Knapp, of the same club, was second with a 105 score in the 18 holes of medal play here to-day. The third gross prize went to Miss Hope Cushing, of the Kanawaki Club, Montreal. Miss Cushing's card showed a 107, and she was tied with

Mrs. Leslie, of the Whitlock Club, Hudson Heights, Que., but won the prize in the resultant draw.

Miss I. Donohue, of the Quebec Golf Club, took the best nett honours, her card being 113-31-82. Mrs. Leslie Clegg, of Whitlock, and Mrs. J. Tessier, of the Quebec Golf Club, were tied for the second nett with 84's but the Whitlock golfer took the prize on the draw, and third went to Mrs. Tessier.

The two New York prize winners also took the driving competition, Miss R. Knapp having the best average and Mrs. E. S. Knapp the best drive.”

Jones Makes it Three in a Row

Atlanta Star Wins U.S. Open Championship With a Shattering Score of 287, Within One Stroke of the Record for the Classic. MacDonald Smith, Runner-up, Two Strokes Back of the Winner.

IF there was ever a lingering doubt that Mr. Robert Tyre Jones, Jr., distinguished young citizen of Atlanta, Ga., was not the greatest golfer, amateur or professional, of all time, it was dispelled and decisively dispelled, this month on the sun-scorched course of the Interlachen Club near Minneapolis. To register a score of 287, to lead all the aces of the game, in a temperature hitting 100 or more in the shade, was a physical and mental performance, plus uncanny skill alike with his wood and iron clubs, never before equalled in the annals of the Royal and Ancient game. Great are the Joneses and the greatest Jones of the whole family, is Bobbie of that ilk.

"Bobbie" Jones, who for the fourth time wins U.S. Open Championship Cup.

Lloyd's 50 to 1 wager that he would not bag all the four major championships this season has taken on a sickly hue. He has three now, and the U.S. Amateur next September at Philadelphia looks as though it was at the mercy of his celebrated mashie and putter—the two clubs he handles with such uncanny skill, although every club in his bag, is more or less in this category. Jones' world-beating record now stands: U.S. Open won four times; U.S. Amateur, four times; British Open, three times; British Amateur, once. Mr. John Ball, the celebrated English player, won the British Amateur eight times and the British Open once. Harry Vardon six times won the British Open and once the U.S. Open. Walter Hagen four times won the British Open and twice the U.S. Open. None of these records, outstanding as they are, now compare with Jones' showing, namely, twelve major championships to his credit—and still in the zenith of his power and going stronger than ever.

Jones generally stages one superlative round during an Open Championship. At Interlachen he pulled it on Saturday morning, when playing phenomenal golf, he carded a 68 for the third round of the tournament. On the concluding 18 holes he slipped a bit but that sparkling 68 enabled him to finish with a total score of 287, made up of a 71, 73, 68 and 75 and it was generally conceded that that would clinch the championship and it did, although the dour Scot, MacDonald Smith, and the young pros, Horton Smith and Harry Cooper, eventually gave him a run for the title but Jones was too strongly entrenched to be overhauled.

Allan Gould in a despatch from Minneapolis tells the story of the dramatic final:—

The king of all the golfers, flushed with the heat of one of the greatest battles of his career, strode to the home hole Saturday with his throne a trifle shaky, the professional light brigade in hot pursuit and a 40-foot putt over the rolling turf before him. While close to 10,000 spectators held their breath, Bobby Jones stepped up briskly and hit the ball straight and true into the cup for a birdie 3 that closed the door to all challenges, clinching his fourth victory and successful defence of the Open golf championship of the United States.

All that Bobby needs to do now to make it a clean sweep for 1930, with all four major British and American titles dangling from one man's belt for the first time in history, is to recapture the United States amateur crown at Philadelphia in September.

Jones, with successive rounds of 71-73-68-75, finished his conquest with a total of 287, the second lowest total in the history of the American Open and only one stroke short of the record set 14 years ago by Chick Evans at the nearby Minikhada course. It gave him a winning margin of two strokes over his nearest rival, the veteran MacDonald Smith, of New York, who made a gallant, sensational fight.

Mac. Smith, alone of the star professionals to stand the gaff of the final day after Jones had burned up the course with a record-breaking third round, finished with rounds of 70-75-74-70 for a total of 289 to clinch second place.

Horton Smith, the 22-year-old Missouri professional, who shot himself into the lead at the half-way mark only to crack under the strain yesterday, wound up in third place, five strokes back of Jones, with 72-70-76-74—292. Fourth place went to Light-horse Harry Cooper, of Chicago, with figures of 72-72-73-76—294, while the rest of the professional clan, including such early threats as Tommy Armour, Johnny Farrell, Charles Lacey, and Walter Hagen, fell by the wayside.

To show just how badly beaten the big stars were, Armour finished ten strokes to the rear with 297, Lacey wound up with 298 after making a "dark horse" threat, Farrell finished with 299, Leo Diegel with 301, Hagen with 303, Denny Shute with 305, and Gene Sarazen with 306.

Jones, as it turned out, really clinched the championship he has now won four times, since 1923, by shooting an almost flawless 68 on the third round, the lowest he has ever scored in the American Open and a mark that might just as well have been as low as 66, but for some shoddy work on the last two holes. His round in figures:—

Par—Out	443 534 445—36
In	455 344 434—36—72
Jones—Out	443 433 345—33
In	444 344 345—35—68

This gave Jones a five stroke margin at the end of 54 holes over his nearest rival, Cooper, and a seven stroke lead over MacDonald Smith. Yet, with all this "velvet" to rest on, Bobby suddenly found himself in the midst of one of the stiffest fights of his career to hold an advantage that seemed insurmountable at the outset. Into his closing round was packed most of the drama of the final day as Jones shook himself free from one bad spot after another to avoid being overhauled by the sharp shooting Mac. Smith.

Three times, on the short holes, Jones performed the almost unbelievable and took fives, two over par each time as he either got into trouble or was unable to make his putter work. Twice, in succession, he three-putted, something he doesn't do even once in a blue moon. Yet, after each calamitous short hole, the king manifested the sort of ability that has kept him on the throne. Three times he came back with birdies to offset 50 per cent. of the previous damage. These three comebacks, each worth a stroke, furnished the margin by which Jones was able to beat Smith and show the tremendous gallery why he is the champion of champions.

Bobby Gets Great Reception

Atlanta, Ga., July 14.—There have been many "red letter" days in the life of Robert Tyre Jones, Jr., but Bobby to-day expressed assurance that July 14, 1930, will be the greatest in his memory. That statement was part of his brief and hesitant message of thanks to possibly 40,000 persons who formed the greatest crowd ever to welcome a returning hero in this city's history, and to some 300,000 more of his fellow citizens who found it impossible to receive him first hand. And the spontaneous cheers answering the greatest golfer's brief speech were something more than those of ordinary hero worship; they were tempered with a sort of next-door-neighbor regard, which added sincerity.

Bobby Jones came home from Interlachen, Hoylake and Royal Liverpool with three of golfdom's major titles in his pocket.

At the stroke of noon, prearranged signal for bedlam of noise from whistles, bells, auto horns and sirens, the parade began. There were police officers, regular army troops from Fort McPherson, American Legion and disabled veterans, firemen and apparatus, Chamber of Commerce members, and scores of business and civic groups.

The feature of the parade, as far as Bobby was concerned, was a squad of 250 negro caddies marching behind the Negro Elks' Band. They carried a banner reading: "Mr. Bobby's calamity Jane done brought de bacon home again." Bobby's face, set in a half-grin during the march, broke into a broad smile then, and some said his eyes glistened.

Bobby filed in at the end of the column and advanced to the City Hall across the street, where Mayor I. N. Ragsdale waited for the official rites. He presented the champion with a huge golden key to the city, and the "hearts of all the southland." Then the hero spoke:—

"Your welcome makes it impossible for me to say much. I never could say much before large crowds, and this reception has taken my breath away. I had no idea any such affair as this was planned. As a matter of fact, I had expected to be met at the station by a taxi and nothing more. I appreciate all the things you have done for me, more than I can tell you, and I just want to say that you all can't possibly think any more of me than I do of you.

"If I had known what you planned to-day, I almost believe I would have passed up Interlachen and rushed straight home. I know I will never see the day when this will not be the greatest in my memory. I hope I shall continue to hold your respect and confidence."

Cobourg Has a Charming Golf Club

ONE of the most popular summer golfing resorts alike with prominent Canadians and residents of the United States is Cobourg, Ontario. Situated on the lake this pretty little town has one of the finest settings in the Province. The beach of fine sand is of great extent, and its bathing facilities are ideal, an advantage which appeals to visitors who come in increasing numbers annually. There are a number of well managed hotels which provide excellent fare and accommodation. Three-quarters of a mile from the lake front is the golf course which attracts golfers from many parts of the Dominion, and also from the United States. It is a nice layout with many features, and good greens, and each season finds its popularity increasing. There is an excellent club house with catering management and locker rooms with shower baths. The fees are moderate, and a splendid golfing holiday can be spent here. Some of the finest homes in Canada are situated in Cobourg. These beautiful houses and gardens belong mostly to wealthy American families who occupy them in the season. The "ozone" at Cobourg is reputed the purest on the Continent.

Johnstone Wins Dunlop Tournament

Long-hitting Rosedale Professional with 146 Annexes First Prize, Two Strokes Ahead of Davie Spittal.

JIMMIE JOHNSTONE, of the Rosedale Club, Toronto, picked off the biggest plum of the local professional competitive season to date when he led a field of fifty-two pros and assistants in a 36-hole medal competition over his own course July 11th and won first prize of $100. The tourney was put on by the Dunlop Tire and Rubber Company, manufacturers of the famous Dunlop golf balls, and was open to all pros and assistants in the Province. Johnstone was consistent, turning in 73's on each round and he finished two strokes in front of Dave Spittal, of the Royal York, who added a 73 in the afternoon to his morning round of 75. Andy Kay came in third, one stroke behind Spittal and the same distance in front of Willie Spittal and Lex Robson. The best score of the day was a 71 by Willie Spittal in the afternoon, while Willie Lamb, of Uplands, had a 72 in the morning, which gave him a stroke advantage at the end of the first half of the contest. Lamb slipped in the afternoon and his 79 put him in a three-cornered tie for sixth prize with Arthur Hulbert and Bob Cunningham.

The prize winners were:—

Pros—1, J. Johnstone, Rosedale, $100; 2, D. Spittal, Royal York, $75; 3, A. Kay, Lambton, $50; 4, W. Spittal, Oakdale, and L. Robson, Islington, $37.50 each; 6, A. J. Hulbert, Thornhill, W. Lamb, Uplands, and R. Cunningham, $3.33 each.

Assistants—1, G. Brydson, Toronto Golf, and R. Borthwick, Thornhill, $37.50 each; 3, W. Crompton, Muskoka, $15; 4, A. Hunt, Lambton, $10; 5, L. Franks, Mississauga, and W. Cunningham, Mississauga, box of golf balls each.

Scores of 160 or better were:—

Open Championship of Ontario

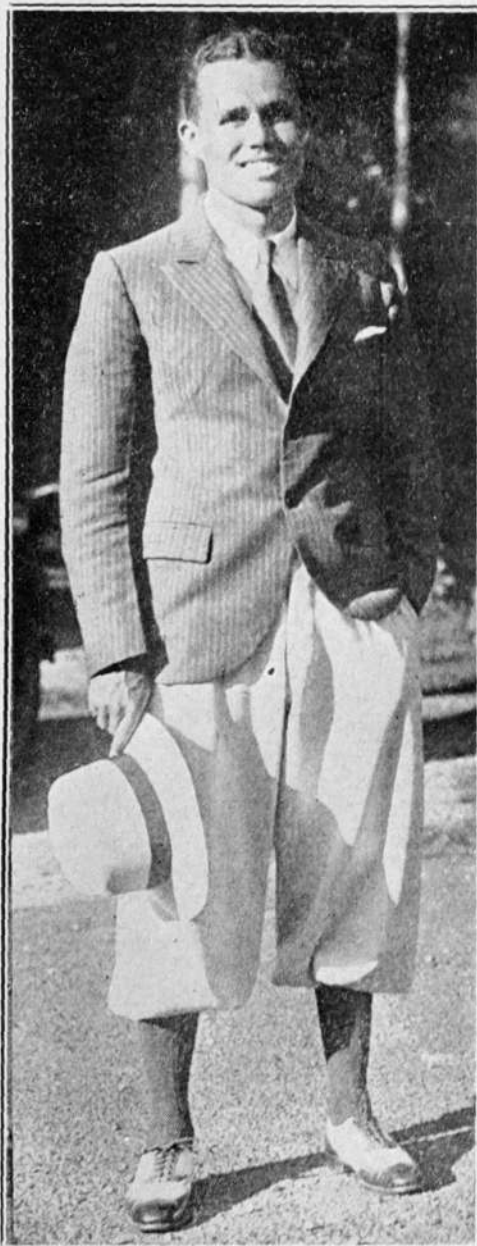

For the First Time an Assistant Professional, Gordon Brydson, of the Toronto Golf Club, Wins the Coveted Event. Plays off in an Exciting Triple Tie With Lex Robson and Ross Somerville.

THE Ontario Open Championship is becoming a bit of a record maker. Instituted only eight years ago it has already witnessed three ties in the play-off for the title. In 1924 Mr. George S. Lyon and Willie Freeman, the well known professional, who as a youngster started his career at the Brantford Golf and Country Club, now of York Downs, Toronto, tied for titular honours at the Toronto Golf Club, and in the play-off Freeman won out. Then at Rosedale, Toronto, in 1927 Andy Kay, Lambton, Jimmie Johnstone, Rosedale, and Lex Robson, of Weston, ended all square and the former won in the triangular bout at 18 holes. This year at the Toronto Club once more there was a three-fold tie. Lex Robson once again, but now of Islington Golf Club, Toronto, Mr. Ross Somerville, of the London Hunt, medalist in the Ontario Amateur, and Gordon Brydson, assistant professional at the Toronto Club, locked clubs and in the play-off Brydson, well known hockey expert, took the measure of the London amateur and the Islington expert after an intensely interesting encounter. This is the first time that an assistant professional has annexed chief Provincial honours in Ontario and that makes Brydson's victory all the more notable and incidentally very popular.

The Toronto course was in splendid condition for the one hundred and twenty entrants, amateur and professional, who teed up on the morning of July 14th to seek Ontario's chief golfing title. The weather was cool and a nasty wind militated against scores of par or better. Under these conditions the cards of the leaders were quite good. Somerville, Robson and Brydson led the pack with 151. All the Stars are at Ancaster

With the exception of Bobby Jones all the golfing stars of America are at the Canadian Open Championship this week at Ancaster. Leo Diegel is there and so are Walter Hagen, MacDonald Smith, Horton Smith, Tommy Armour, Johnny Farrell, Al Watrous, Gene Sarazen, George Von Elm, the third ranking amateur of the U.S., and all the leading Canadian players both amateur and professional.

The greens at Ancaster are in superb shape although the fairways have suffered as a result of more or less lack of rain in the district. It will be a gargantuan feast of golf and galleries in the thousands will be attracted to Ancaster July 24th, 25th and 26th.

It will be noticed that the amateurs did exceedingly well. There were nine prizes for the championship, but Somerville waived his money chances for first place and the other amateurs followed suit.

There were three amateur prizes, Somerville winning the first, Taylor the second, and Lyon being third after winning a toss against Hoblitzel and Nash. Robson and Brydson divided first and second money, amounting to $175, while the other pros to get a cash reward for their showings were Halbert, Johnstone, Noble, Lamb, Len White, Dave Hutchison and Nicol Thompson.

In the play-off for the championship title on Tuesday afternoon, July 15th, at the Toronto Golf Club, some very sterling golf indeed was uncorked. At the end of the 9th hole Robson was leading with a par 37, whilst Somerville was 38 and Brydson 39. Brydson started his winning spurt on the short fourteenth, where he dropped a 20-footer for a two while Somerville and Robson each took four. The winner took the lead at the fifteenth, where he had a four to Somerville five. At the 500-yard sixteenth both Robson and Somerville sliced to the right, but while Robson was able to play a beautiful spoon shot just short of the green the amateur was forced to waste a stroke getting out to the fairway, and after being to the right of the green in three he proceeded to take a seven, and this put him out of it. Brydson was on the green in two and then proceeded to drop one of the several fairly long putts of his round for an eagle three against Robson's birdie four.

Then "the graveyard", the short 17th, of the Toronto course, where many a championship has been lost and won. Here Robson notched a par 3 to Brydson's 4 and left for the 18th hole only one to the bad. He made the green in two about 12 feet from the pin. Brydson gave his supporters a rude jolt when his second shot failed to clear the gully. He was on in three, about 25 feet from the pin, but it looked as if the worst Robson could get was a four and a probable tie and another play-off. Brydson stepped up and his putt for his par four was in the cup all the way. Robson faced a 12-footer for a birdie three and a tie. His putt was just a couple of inches short and the title was Brydson's. The scores:—Brydson, 74, Robson 75, Somerville 77.

Nash, Brilliant Young Londoner

Is Newly Crowned Amateur Champion of Ontario. Defeats Don Carrick in Final. Ross Somerville Wins Qualifying Round, So London "Cleans Up".

THE same day that Jones was making records at Interlachen, an 18-year-old Londoner, Jack Nash, was in a lesser degree doing the same thing on the Scarboro course, Toronto. In the classiest field ever recorded in an Ontario Amateur Championship, this youth, he is only 18 years of age, with a perfect swing, flashed into the limelight and reaching the final in an impressive manner, proceeded to account for the doughty Don Carrick, twice Canadian Amateur Champion, by the decisive score of 4 and 3. It looks as though the Forest City, which already boasts its Sandy Somerville, more or less the newly crowned Ontario champion's mentor, has a Bobbie Jones in the making. Nash, who is the youngest player ever to win a Provincial championship in Canada, has all the hall-marks of a coming player of International calibre. He may yet put Canada decisively on the golfing map.

The Scarboro course was in superb shape for the Championship. It has the past few years been greatly improved and to-day boasts a fairway unsurpassed in Ontario and cleverly trapped greens which call for carefully played and placed pitch-up and approach shots. Scarboro is now a real test of high-class golf as the leading entrants were a unit in testifying. The field was easily the most representative in the history of the Championship and President L. M. Wood, of the Ontario Association, and his executive were naturally delighted as a result. It was the opening championship of the Ontario season and bodes well for future events to be held under the auspices of the Association.

Ross Somerville, of the London Hunt, who has won the event the past three years, was called upon to defend his title against a trio of former champions, Don Carrick, R. M. Gray, and W. J. Thompson, besides a threatening entry of young players and also Jack Cameron, of Ottawa, fresh from golf in his notable career and with a 72 equalled the course record of Scarborough, which was set last year by Arthur Hulbert, professional of the Thornhill Golf Club, Toronto. Somerville was out in 39, but came back with a par-breaking 33. Two strokes back of the champion was his young clubmate, Jack Nash, with a 38 and 36 for a 74. Three putts on the home green was the undoing of Nash for tying for medal honours.

Sixteen players only qualified to play off for the championship instead of the regulation 32. The scores of the qualifiers:—

 Scarborough Club won the team prize with 309, with London Hunt Club in second position with 314.

The surprise of the Championship came in the very first round. Somerville, the champion and medallist, and generally fancied to repeat, was drawn against George Boeckh, of York Downs, and had to bow to a 1 up defeat on the 18th hole. Somerville was distinctly off his game and his clever young opponent took advantage of this fact to put him out of the running. It was a notable win for Boeckh, one of the best of the Toronto younger players. With Somerville also went into the discard two other former champions, R. M. Gray and W. J. Thompson, whilst Jack Cameron, another serious threat was eliminated by Don Carrick.

First Round results:—

Phil Farley, Cedar Brook, defeated T. L. E. Everitt, Rouge Hills, 7 and 6.

J. Armitage, Glendale, defeated R. M. Gray, Rosedale, 4 and 3.

F. G. Hoblitzel, Lambton, defeated J. R. Curry, Scarborough, 6 and 5.

Don D. Carrick, Scarborough, defeated Jack Cameron, Mississauga, 4 and 3.

Jack Nash, London Hunt, defeated Ken Ashman, Lakeview, 6 and 5.

George Boeckh, York Downs, defeated C. R. Somerville, London Hunt, one up.

A. C. N. Gosling, Toronto Golf, defeated W. J. Thompson, Mississauga, 4 and 2.

Joe Thompson, Uplands, defeated Dr. A. Elliott, Scarborough, 3 and 2.

Then in the afternoon the second round resulted as follows:—

J. Armitage defeated Phil Farley, 2 and 1.

Don D. Carrick defeated F. G. Hoblitzel, 2 and 1.

Jack Nash defeated Boeckh, two up.

Joe Thompson defeated A. C. N. Gosling, 5 and 4.

The match which carried the gallery in this round was that between Carrick and Hoblitzel, Lambton's leading player and a member of the Ontario Inter-Provincial team. It was a hard-fought encounter but the former champion was in fine form and registered a 2 and 1 victory.

In the semi-finals Don Carrick had little difficulty in defeating Jack Armitage, of Glendale, Hamilton, who learned his game in the Old Country and who has a lot of good shots in his bag. The match terminated on the 13th green.

In the other half it was a battle of juniors, Joe Thompson and Jack Nash having an interesting struggle, all in favour of the Londoner from the first hole which he won and he was never headed afterwards, recording a 3 and 2 victory.

Then in the final "the veteran" Carrick was stacked up against Nash and was greatly fancied to again win the championship but the youth from "Somerville town", or should it be called Nashville?, was in a brilliant mood. This was by way of being a return match as at the Canadian Amateur at Jasper Park last year in the second round Carrick defeated Nash, but only 1 up. At Scarboro the young London lad had his revenge by the rather convincing decision of 4 and 3. Driving straight and far and approaching and putting well Nash was 1 up on his seasoned opponent at the turn. He then proceeded to win the 10th and the 11th with a birdie 2. The next three holes were halved. Both were about 40 yards short of the green on the 286-yard 15th hole. Nash chipped on, within 15 feet of the pin, and Carrick's approach came to rest but a foot further away. Carrick placed his first putt four inches from the cup, but instead of playing safe for a half this time young Nash ran down the 15-footer to win the hole and the match. A fine performance which deservedly brought unstinted acclaim to the newly crowned and unassuming young Ontario champion.

Nash began his golf some five years ago at the Highland Golf Club, London, under the supervision of Chas. Nixon, who was the pro at the Highland Club, but the last three years has played all his golf at the London Hunt and Country Club, and has been under the capable guidance of Kiernie Marsh, who has put the finishing touches on his game.

He has not devoted all his time to golf for while he attended the London Collegiate Institute he was one of their outstanding athletes. Three years ago he was their champion tennis player, and in the Wossa games which are held in the campus of the University of Western Ontario for Western Ontario Collegiates, he entered twelve events in one day, establishing a record for pole vaulting; and took his share of the prizes in other events.

This is only his second year of real competitive golf. Last year he was runner-up in the Ontario Junior Championship for which he is eligible to compete again this year but as it is scheduled for the same week as the U.S. Amateur Championship at Philadelphia he will not enter as he intends to take part in this outstanding event and it will be a great experience for him and he is well advised to participate in it. Incidentally, and in this respect he resembles Don Carrick, he is also a very good piano player. Even now although golf takes so much of his time he is very enthusiastic regarding the piano; and spends his three or four hours in practice each day.

Results in the other competitions in this particularly brilliant tournament were:—

Championship Beaten Eight—Semi-finals—Jack Cameron, Mississauga, defeated R. M. Gray, Rosedale, 2 and 1. Ken Ashman, Lakeview, won by default from W. J. Thompson, Mississauga.

Final—Jack Cameron defeated Ken Ashman, 4 and 3.

Second Flight—Semi-finals—C. M. Jones, Scarboro, defeated Len H. Biddell, Lakeview, 2 and 1. Basil Morphy, Summit, defeated Alex. C. Carrick, Scarboro, 3 and 2.

Final—C. M. Jones defeated Basil Morphy, 2 and 1.

Third Flight—Semi-finals—George S. Lyon, Lambton, defeated Harry W. Phelan, Scarboro, one up. J. G. Hyghland, York Downs, defeated B. W. Anderson, Simcoe, one up.

Final—George S. Lyon defeated J. G. Hyghland, 4 and 2.

Following the completion of the finals the prizes were presented by C. E. Edmonds, president of the Scarboro Golf Club; Gordon Cassels, vice-president of the O.G.A.; George S. Lyon and W. J. Thompson.

Canadian Amateur Championship at London will have Record Field

THE Canadian Amateur Championship scheduled for the week of August 4th at the London Hunt Club is being eagerly anticipated by all the leading golfers of Canada and many from the United States. The winner last year at Jasper Park, Alta., Eddie Held, of New York, and the runner-up, Gardiner White, of New York, from present indications will not be at London to defend their titles. Already entering for the event, with Mr. B. L. Anderson, secretary of the Royal Canadian Golf Association, from the United States are "Ducky" Corkran, of Nobla, Penn., who made such a fine showing at Jasper; F. W. Ryan, and W. A. Ryan, of Detroit; Brice S. Evans, and James E. Healey, of Boston, and E. S. Knapp, of the National Golf Links, Southampton, L.I., a very fine player indeed. Evans, it will be remembered, was the runner-up in the Championship to George S. Lyon at the Royal Ottawa in 1914, the last time the "Grand Old Man" of Canadian golf for the eighth time annexed titular honours. It is interesting to note that Mr. Lyon, who celebrates his 73rd birthday this month, and who is still "going strong", is an entrant at London.

Other well known Canadians who will tee-up on August 4th are Ross Somerville, London, twice champion; Don Carrick, Toronto, also "two-times" winner of the event; C. C. Fraser, Montreal, champion 1922; Jack Cameron, leading player of Quebec; Jack Nash, recently crowned Ontario champion; Norman M. Scott, Montreal; F. G. Hoblitzell, Toronto, and a flock of young players from Ontario and Quebec. In addition to these and many more outstanding players, all the players in the Inter-Provincial match on Saturday, August 2nd, at the Royal York Golf Club, Toronto, from British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, Ontario and Quebec, are eligible to enter and will provide colourful competition. Altogether it looks like a record-making championship.

Dr. W. T. Brown, chairman of the Tournament Committee of the London Hunt, writes the "Canadian Golfer" that the course is in fine shape for the stellar event of the Canadian golfing season and that nothing is being left undone to provide a setting worthy of the Amateur Championship of the Dominion, which of recent years has taken on an International complexion.

FORE! Mr. B. L. Anderson, secretary of the R.C.G.A., has just received a wire that Held will be at London to defend his title.

Manoir Richelieu Shield

Is Won by Hugh B. Jaques, of Whitlock Golf Club. Runner-up, J. W. Yuile, of the Royal Montreal.

THE Manoir Richelieu course at Murray Bay, Quebec, one of the finest in Canada, was the scene this month of the annual Invitation tourney sponsored by the Province of Quebec Golf Association, the main feature of which is the competition for the beautiful Manoir Richelieu Shield given by the Hotel which is a Canada Steamships property, the mecca every season for hundreds of prominent Americans and Canadians.

A field of 52 teed off for the first round in the morning including many prominent Montreal golfers and representatives of several well known N.Y. clubs. Among the entrants was Dr. Jack Wright, of Laval-sur-le-Lac, who is the ranking tennis star of the Dominion. That the Doctor is an infinitely better player with the raequet than with the driver or putter was demonstrated by his card of 110, but in the years to come he will cut a score or so of strokes off that total.

The fight for the Shield simmered down to a tense battle between the two well known Montrealers, Hugh B. Jaques, the well known Whitlock player, and J. W. Yuile, of the Royal Montreal Golf Club, who has for some years figured successfully in championships. Eventually, however, with rounds of 82 and 76, Jaques emerged the victor by 2 strokes over the Royal Montrealer, who had rounds of 81-79—160. Romeo Trudeau, of Laval-sur-le-Lac, Montreal, was in third place with 165, made up of an 85 and 80.

First nett honours went to Ernest Savard, of Laval-sur-le-Lac, Montreal, with a card of 166-22-144. Savard turned in an 86 in the morning round, and an 80 in the afternoon to take the first nett prize by a wide margin over A. L. Curror, of the Shawbridge Golf and Country Club. The latter had a 90 in the morning and an 89 in the afternoon for a total of 179-28—151.

The only non-Montrealer to figure in the prize list was J. R. Tessier, of Mr. G. H. Forster on the No. 1 green of the Manoir Richelieu Course, Murray Bay. Mr. Forster is president of the Province of Quebec Golf Association, a member of the executive of the Royal Canadian Golf Association and a past president of the Beaconsfield Golf Club, Montreal.

22—154. His gross total was made up of rounds of 92 and 84.

With the exception of previous prize-winners, the best gross was turned in by R. B. Shaw, of Kanawaki, with an 82 on the afternoon round. Shaw had a 92 in the morning. E. G. Rolph, of Kanawaki, had the best nett for 18 holes, a 76. His gross was 85.

The tournament was greatly enjoyed by all the participants. The course was in splendid shape for the event.

The Manoir Richelieu course is today recognized as one of the finest summer resort courses on the Continent. It is a particularly clever layout whilst the surrounding scenery almost beggars description.

Arthur McPherson Wins Tom Thumb Tournament

Arthur F. McPherson, crack professional of the Marlborough Golf Club, gained first honours in the tournament which opened the Tom Thumb miniature golf course on St. Alexander Street, Montreal. The course, which is located on St. Alexander Street, just below St. Catherine, is the first of a series of such courses to be opened in all parts of Montreal.

McPherson had a 41 for the 18 holes to lead the professionals while the amateurs were headed by G. B. Taylor, of Summerlea, who scored a 46. Other good scores were Red Mackenzie, Elm Ridge pro, 48; Paddy Grant, Forest Hills pro, 49; Odie Cleghorn, of Marlborough, 48; J. Paul, Marlborough, 49; W. D. Taylor, Summerlea, 49; Marjorie Kirkham, Forest Hills, 52; John Patton, Rosemount, 52; Babie Siebert, 52; Miss Doris Taylor, Summerlea, 52. Turf is replaced by cotton seed dyed green on the miniature courses and it was pronounced eminently satisfactory by those who played over it.

Saskatchewan Seniors' Championship

General Tuxford, of Moose Jaw, For the Third Time Annexes the Title. Mr. A. C. Froome, of Regina, Runner-up.

GENERAL G. S. TUXFORD, Moose Jaw, again won the Senior Provincial golf championship of Saskatchewan at the tournament which was held over the course of the Moose Jaw Golf Club. The final game was a real championship struggle which was decided at the 18th hole after a dour battle in which General Tuxford defeated A. C. Froome, Regina.

The General, who only took up the Royal and Ancient game after he was fifty years of age, was in his younger days a well known athlete. This is the third time he has won the Senior Championship of "the Province of Broad Acres". He is by the way a valued member of our "Hole-in-One Club", having accomplished the feat last season.

The results of the various competitions of this most successful tournament:—

Championship—Semi-final, General Tuxford, Moose Jaw, defeated J. Harrison, Regina. Final, General Tuxford defeated A. C. Froome, Regina.

Handicap event—Semi-final, Judge McKay, Regina, defeated Dr. Bawden, Moose Jaw. Final, Judge McKay defeated D. C. Gray, Regina.

Consolation event—A. W. Irwin, Moose Jaw, in final, defeated Dr. J. P. Bawden, Moose Jaw.

Judge McKay, Regina, was elected president of the Association at the annual meeting held in the club house of the Moose Jaw Golf Club. Other officers were elected as follows: Sir Frederick Haultain, Regina, honorary president; Hugh Thomson, Moose Jaw, vice-president; J. Kelso-Hunter, Regina, secretary-treasurer. Dr. J. P. Bawden, Moose Jaw, was added to the board of directors and all retiring members were re-elected to office.

Following the election of officers, prizes were presented to the successful contestants by Judge McKay as follows:—Championship Trophy and individual cup to General Tuxford; A. C. Froome, Regina, runner-up, 12 golf balls. Handicap event, first prize, golf bag to Judge McKay; runner-up, D. C. Gray, Regina, six golf balls. Consolation event, first prize, golf bag, to A. W. Irwin, Moose Jaw; runner-up, Dr. J. P. Bawden, Moose Jaw, six golf balls.

It was decided that the championship tournament would be held in General G. S. Tuxford, winner of the Saskatchewan Seniors' Championship.

Regina next season. A vote of thanks was passed to the management of the Moose Jaw Golf Club for the courtesies extended. Those present at the banquet were:—General Tuxford, A. C. Froome, Regina; D. C. Gray, Regina; Judge McKay, Regina; J. Balfour, Regina; Hugh Thomson, A. W. Irwin, J. Harrison, Regina; Dr. Bawden, Moose Jaw.

Three other competitors, Judge F. A. G. Ouseley, Moose Jaw; E. W. Miller, Fort Qu'Appelle, and T. Webb, Moose Jaw, were unable to attend the banquet.

The grand old man of the association is Mr. Hugh Thompson, of Moose Jaw. He is 78 years young and can play two rounds of golf a day. He attributes his longevity to the salubrious climate of Moose Jaw and to the fact that he curls in winter and golfs in summer.

Eaton Employees Have Big Tournament

The Eaton Championship Trophies. On left the Harry McGee Cup and on right the R. Y. Eaton Cup.

THERE were many high lights on Saturday morning, July 5th, when a large percentage of the male staff of The T. Eaton Co. Limited attended the Annual Golf Tournament held at Rouge Hills Golf and Country Club.

Some one hundred and thirty players teed off in a rain which cleared up, however, during the morning.

The players sat down to luncheon at 1 p.m. and prizes were distributed both for the annual tournament and the preliminary competitions.

A tie occurred between S. Hamilton and R. H. Clendinning for the low nett score in the first flight, each returning a 72 and they will play off later for the R. Y. Eaton Cup and replica. Col. W. F. Eaton won the Harry McGee Trophy for the low nett score in the second flight with 67.

Prizes were presented to the following:—

First flight (nett scores) R. Y. Eaton Cup—1st, R. H. Clendinning and S. Hamilton, 72; 3rd, A. Smith, 73; 4th, W. H. Anderson, 76; 5th, G. A. Swalwell, 76; 6th, H. B. Hutchison, 77. (Gross scores) Boothe Shield—1st, J. H. Morris, 78; 2nd, R. C. Stafford, 81; 3rd, H. R. Brown, 82.

Second flight (nett scores) Harry McGee Cup—1st, Col. W. F. Eaton, 67; 2nd, S. Bolton, 68; 3rd, A. E. Apted, 68; 4th, J. E. Bedwell, 70; 5th, J. Cromie, 71; 6th, A. J. Hewett, 71. (Gross scores) J. J. Vaughan Trophy—1st, C. S. Irwin, 91; 2nd, D. Scott, 92; 3rd, W. K. Jamieson, 93.

Low nett first nine, A. Palmer, 34; second nine, W. J. Wilson 30½.

The British Seniors' Golf Team

MR. C. A. BOGERT, of Toronto, president of the Canadian Seniors' Golf Association, is in receipt of a cable from London, advising him that the following will be the team of the British Seniors' Golfing Society participating in the Triangular Senior matches, Great Britain, the United States and Canada at the Toronto Golf Club the first week in September:—Messrs.

Pease, Blackwell, Stephens, Clayton, Boys, Brann, Todd, Morison, Weigall, Hewitt, Greer and Walker.

Only three of the above players were on the team which visited Canada and the States in 1928, Messrs. Pease, Clayton, and Hewitt. Mr. Pease, who is chairman of Lloyds Bank and captain of the team, is a very fine player indeed. In the Canadian Tournament at Lambton in 1928 he had the best score, 160, but was not eligible to win the Championship. He won all his matches against the American and Canadian Seniors, as also did Mr. Clayton, another fine golfer. Blackwell is the famous "Ted" Blackwell, in his time the longest driving amateur in Great Britain. He holds the record for the longest drive with a gutta ball, namely, 366 yards. In 1904 he was runner-up in the British Amateur Championship to W. J. Travis, who was the first American to win the event. He was Scottish amateur champion in 1922. It is understood that the team is very much stronger than the one which visited Canada and the States in 1928. Col. Popham, the popular hon. secretary of the Association, who played on the 1928 team, is apparently not doing so this year, although he will accompany the players.

The Britishers will be entertained at Quebec and Montreal en route to Toronto, playing matches on the golf courses of both these cities. Their visit is being eagerly anticipated.

Halifax, N.S., July 19.—Mrs. D. Leo Dolan, of the Ashburn Club, Halifax, won the Women's Golf Championship of Nova Scotia at the Gorsebrook Club yesterday, leading the field of 60 with a score of 173 for the 36 holes. It was the second time for her to capture the title. Miss Dorothy Holmes, of Truro, Maritime champion, was runner-up with 176. Mrs. W. L. Muir, Halifax, president of the Nova Scotia Women's Golf Association, placed third with 178. Mrs. R. M. Ellis, of Halifax, a second-year player, provided a surprise in her first championship tournament by taking fourth place with a score of 188.

CAMERON WINS OTTAWA AND DISTRICT

Ottawa, July 17th.—Playing steady and consistent golf and demonstrating that form on the links which makes him the peer of all golfers in this district, Jack Cameron, of Rivermead, won the Ottawa and District Championship yesterday for the third successive year. Competing on his home course the Rivermead star led a field of more than 150 players to win the Gerald Lees Trophy, emblematic of golf supremacy in the Ottawa area. Cameron with a gross 154 finished two strokes better than his youthful challenger from Royal Ottawa, Renee A. McDougall, who had a total gross of 156, for the 36-hole play. The contest between these players for the leadership of the tournament was easily the outstanding feature of the day. Par for the course is 73.

Carlton Booth, of the Ottawa Hunt, won the best nett, 141.

COTTON IS CHAMPION OF BELGIUM

Henry Cotton, the celebrated young English professional, won the Open Championship of Belgium on the Royal Belgium Club's course with an aggregate of 281 for 72 holes, the lowest score ever recorded in this event. Cotton's rounds were 73, 68, 74, and 66. His final round of 66 constitutes a fresh record for the course. Archie Compston (Coombe Hill) was second with 292, and Auguste Boyer, the Nice professional, who did so well in the British Open, third with 294.

WILLIE LAMB WINS C.P.G.A. CHAMPIONSHIP

Burlington Golf Club, July 21st.—Willie Lamb, brilliant professional of the Uplands Golf Club, Toronto, for the third year in succession to-day won the Professional Golf Championship of Canada, thus equalling the great record of Davie Black, now of Shaughnessy Golf Club, Vancouver, who won in 1919, 1920 and 1921. Lamb's score was 141. Runner-up, Tom McGrath, Dundas Valley Club, score 142. McGrath in his last round made a 67, a record for the Burlington course.

Interesting Happenings on the Courses of England, Scotland, Ireland, Wales and the Overseas Dominions

The Toronto City Hall Staff boasts many good golfers. Some sixty of them recently enjoyed a golfing outing on the Oshawa Golf Course, and the Hacker Trophy was won by Kenneth Brown, of the Roadways Department with 85—23, nett 62.

A feature of the match was the keen competition, although a number entered without a club handicap, and the committee in charge of the event arranged the handicaps on a general idea from players of their game. The principal three-ball match included Mayor Wemp, City Solicitor Colquhoun and John Sherring, clerk to the Board of Control.

After the match a dinner was served at the first tee. During the dinner the Mayor presented Brown with the Trophy, which had been held by Sam Preston, and prizes in the form of golf balls to thirty players.

Members of the clubs of Toronto and vicinity will be interested in learning that the club stewards have organized the Toronto Stewards Association as Branch No. 39 in affiliation with the International Stewards Association of America. The aim of this Association is the better acquaintanceship among members of the profession and the exchange of ideas and discussion of common problems or in brief to make themselves better stewards for the benefit of all concerned. The first meeting was held in April last and since then some twenty-five stewards have joined the organization and all are quite enthusiastic in promoting its activities. Mr. C. W. Hitchcock, of Rosedale Golf Club, is president, and Fred Davis, of Lambton Golf Club, is Secretary. We wish the stewards every success in their aim of raising the standards of this very important profession.

The course record of the Royal Ottawa, which for years has stood at 67, made respectively by Karl Keffer, the club's professional, and Davie Black, then of Rivermead, but now at Shaughnessy Heights, was broken on July 9 by W. Smithers, Keffer's assistant. Playing in a threesome with Lorne Chamberlain and Rance McDougall, Smithers made a the first 9 holes in 29, and was home in 37, a total of 66. The score included 9 birdies. Smithers is a product of Sunningdale. Three years ago when the

Finish of Swing for Iron Shot

(Arthur Havers)

The idea is to hit the ball crisply, therefore both hands should be equally tight in the down swing. Follow well through the ball, letting the arms go out to the full extent before the final position is arrived at, as shown in illustration; at the same time throwing in the right shoulder. Allow the club to swing the body round. If you have carried out the shot correctly you should finish on the toe of the right foot, the body facing towards the left of direction aimed at, and the hands high up. Keep your feet. Head still. Slow back.

In all shots in addressing the ball be most careful to keep the eye not on the top of the ball but well below the centre of the right side.

Canadian Seniors went to England Keffer requested Col. Courtenay and Dr. P. D. Ross to select a promising young man to act as his assistant. They picked Smithers, and their choice has been fully justified. Smithers is a modest young fellow, if anything of a retiring disposition, a terrific driver, and an excellent teacher.

The Royal Ottawa Championship matches were played during the first week in July. Carleton Monk, last year's champion, was eliminated early in the competition. The winner was A. C. Bethune, who achieved the honour for the third time. Playing a steady game all week he put out A. L. Code in the final 36 holes by 7 and 5.

Notwithstanding a deluge of rain on Natal Day, June 23rd, which seriously interfered with play on all the Halifax, N.S., courses, at the Gorsebrook Club in that city, 27 couples competed in the competition staged there and all but eleven pairs finished. The winner of prizes donated by Lieut.-Governor Tory were:—

Most birdies, A. D. Grayston and Mrs. A. W. Duffus; most holes in par, F. E. Heisler and Mrs. G. M. Wood; best score at No. 8, R. G. McKay and Mrs. F. B. Barnstead; winning game by largest margin, Col. Adams and Mrs. R. M. Ellis; best contested game, Mrs. R. E. McBride and J. Goodeson; braving the elements, Mrs. Wm. Dickson, Mrs. H. S. Freeman, Dr. McMechan, Dr. Colwell.

The ladies' field day at the Brantford Golf and Country Club was participated in by players from London Hunt, London Highland, Galt, Georgetown, Paris, Simcoe, Hamilton, St. Catharines, and Kitchener. Just 36 ladies started from the first tee and 14 of them were brave enough to finish the 18 holes. Mrs. Stevens, Galt, returned the best gross of the day, a very fine round of 88, which is considered a very good score under the best of conditions, but played as it was in a heavy rainstorm it was really remarkable being only 11 over par for the difficult Country Club links. Miss W. Robinson, St. Catharines, finished second with a 91. Miss M. Fleck, Georgetown, and Mrs. B. M. Murtry tied for low nett with scores of 74. Miss Isobel Hunter, Galt, took the prize for the low gross for the first nine holes, with a 43. Miss Farmer, St. Catharines, shot a 44 to take the low gross prize for the second nine. The team prize was won

Despatch from Heward, Sask.:—

"Sparrows are warned to keep off the Highway Golf Course, near here, when Postmaster Charley Leak is at the tee. Charley swung his iron on the home hole cracking a shot dead toward the green; an errant sparrow intervened and died in halting the drive at 125 yards. The golfer, who had hoped to finish with a "birdie," closed with a par score."

A team of eight men from the Belleville Golf Club won the Bay of Quinte Golf Association Trophy staged at Belleville from teams representing Trenton, Picton and Napanee. In the morning round Belleville defeated Napanee by a score of 5½ to 2½, while Trenton won by the same score from Picton. In the afternoon round Belleville won from Trenton by a score of 6 to 2 and Napanee defeated Picton by the same count.

Vince Nolan, of Trenton, registered a 73 in the afternoon to have low score for the day and A. H. Ketcheson, of the winning team, a 144 for the two rounds to be low for both rounds.

The golf was brilliant at times, the fairways and greens being in excellent condition. The players were entertained to luncheon in the spacious club house between the morning and afternoon games. In the evening dinner was served at Dickens Restaurant in the downtown section, where the trophy and other prizes were distributed.

Hole-in-Two
Ladies Competition

You might suppose that each year saw about the same line up of winners. Not so. There's more real sport in it than that. Some players are, of course, good enough at the start to make the Hole-in-Two and win the dainty prize of Mercury Silk Lingerie and Full Fashioned Hosiery. But not many.

With most players it is touch and go—an exciting uncertainty to add zest to the game and an encouragement to better playing.

We know that the next mail will bring the names of those who are prize winners for the first time. We hope we already have, or will soon receive, your own triumphant score.
