It will be well therefore if every club in Canada and golfers generally have this edition in order to be conversant with this new and most important ruling.

"Southpaws" Have Figured in Championships.

George Sargent, the American Open Champion of 1909, has been putting forward a plea for fair play for left-handers, and the formation of a golf association of "southpaws" is suggested, to secure equal treatment for a down-trodden class who are constantly being made to feel that—to quote one American writer—they are "not standard" and more or less "out of step". The left-handers, however, may soon be asking us to save them from their friends if much of the sympathy they receive is of the kind offered by one English critic, who thinks that lack of encouragement is the reason why "it is probably true that no "port-side" player has ever won a championship." "What," says 'Golfing', London, "have left-handers like Len Nettlefield, twice Amateur Champion of Australia, or Peter Gannon, who has held the Amateur Championships of France, Italy and Switzerland, to say in reply to that?"

Not to mention our own Fritz Martin, of Hamilton, the well known "southpaw" who won the Canadian Amateur Championship in 1902 and again in 1910 and the Canadian Senior Championship in 1927 by way of good measure.

In connection with Sargent's suggestion, for two years now a most successful "southpaw" tournament has been staged in Toronto. It would perhaps be a good idea if this tournament was enlarged to a Dominion-wide event or at any rate include left-handed players from Ontario and Quebec. Such a fixture would be thoroughly interesting and would unquestionably attract a large entry.

City Clubs Cancellling Home-and-Home Matches Quite a remarkable change has come over the game the last two or three years in the larger centres in Canada. Until quite recently home-and-home matches were always the feature of every golf season. Some clubs played a dozen or more of such fixtures. This year the leading city clubs have almost completely done away with these interesting events and have substituted instead field days and invitation tournaments.

It is rather a pity that these home-and-home matches have been chucked into the discard. They were the means of making many lasting friendships and more or less enabled golfers to become familiar with clubs and courses throughout the country. It is satisfactory to know, however, that many of the smaller clubs will continue this season to play "home and homers", so a very old and honoured institution will not be altogether blotted out of the picture.

All Golfing Roads Will Lead to the Capital. The next few days will see the staging of two of Canada's major golfing events—the Canadian Open at the Ottawa Hunt and Golf Club, Ottawa, July 7th, 8th, and 9th, and the Canadian Professional Championship at Rivermead, Ottawa, July 4th.

The Open is always a particularly colourful and interesting event as it brings into competition all the leading professionals of America, besides a sprinkling of high-class amateurs. Walter Hagen will be at Ottawa to defend his title. Gene Sarazen, the recently crowned British Champion, will be on hand to try once again for Canadian honours, which so far have always eluded him. Tommy Armour will be there, besides all the aces of the States and Canada, and for good measure the brilliant Argentine Champion, Jose Jurado, and probably the Japanese Champion, T. Miyamoto, both of whom played in the U.S. Open this week at Flushing, L.I. Altogether a gallant gathering of the golfing clans which will draw hundreds of enthusiasts to the Capital the beginning of July.

Then, too, there is the added attraction, July 4th, of the Canadian Professional Championship, which will prove an interesting "curtain raiser to the big show". This fixture will be staged also at a well known Ottawa course, Rivermead, and will be participated in by the leading professionals of Canada. This championship will also provoke a great deal of interest. The holder of the title is Andy Kay, of the Lambton Golf and Country Club. "On to Ottawa" will be the golfing cry in a few days now.

Montreal Women Seniors Hold Tournament

ON June 9th the Montreal Branch of the Canadian Women's Senior Golf Association held a very successful field day at the Whitlock Golf Club, one of Montreal's most delightful courses. The outing was thoroughly enjoyed by "the Seniors". Mrs. W. Garth Thomson, of Kanawaki, the popular hon. secretary of the association, won the event with a card of 96 over the difficult Whitlock course. The best nett prize went to Mrs. A. E. Mussen, of Mount Bruno, president of the Association, who returned an excellent 80. Other prizes were won by Mrs. F. Rankin, of Rosemere; Miss E. McLennan, of Cornwall, and Mrs. J. M. R. Fairbairn, of Kanawaki. The prizes were presented by Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Jaques and George Elder, the professional at Whitlock. Fifteen sat down to a delightful lunch and the afternoon was spent at bridge. It was unanimously decided to repeat the outing at another course in July.

(The Editor is always glad to answer questions about the Rules, and other golfing matters, but owing to so many of these requests coming in every month, he must ask in future that a stamped-addressed envelope be enclosed with all such communications, otherwise they will not be answered.)

Word comes from "Down Under" that the Dunlops are erecting a factory at Melbourne and in future the Dunlop balls will be manufactured entirely there for the Australian market. In addition to the regulation English Dunlop a ball will also be manufactured especially for Australian golf conditions.

Mr. F. N. Robertson, well known St. John, N.B., golfer, was a recent visitor to Toronto and played over one or two courses there. In conversation with the Editor of the "Canadian Golfer" he stated that golf prospects this season in the Maritimes were particularly bright. All the clubs there are looking for a record year.

Clubs in the States may be feeling the depression but not so in this country. Not a course has been closed up, but on other hand several new clubs have been put into play. In Ontario, for instance, courses have been opened this month at St. David's, St. Marys, Stratford, and Teeswater, and other Provinces also report similar activities.

Mr. H. H. Williams, prominent Toronto financier and Governor of the Canadian Seniors' Golf Association:—

"Enclosed please find renewal subscription to 'Canadian Golfer', which I had forwarded to my winter home in Florida and which, after reading, I passed on to the members of the Highland Park Club.

They asked me to congratulate you when I next met you on your excellent publication."

In the sudden death of Dr. Victor Mitchell, K.C., Montreal and Canada have lost a notable lawyer and an outstanding citizen. An Englishman by birth he was educated at McGill, where he took high honours. He was an ardent Imperialist and a keen golfer—a member of the Royal Montreal Golf Club. He was a director of many companies and was active in military and hospital work. He was also a legal author of no mean note.

Several invitation golf tournaments are scheduled for Fort William and Port Arthur this season. There will be such an event at the Fort William Golf and Country Club July 1, 2 and 3, another at the Port Arthur Strathcona Municipal August 6, 7 and 8, and yet another at the Fort William Municipal at a date to be announced later. The district amateur championship is carded for September over the Fort William Golf and Country Club course.

"Old Man Depression" did not put in an appearance on May 24th on the golf courses of Canada. He was very conspicuous by his absence as record crowds were reported by every club. Literally tens of thousands of men and women teed-up on every course from Coast to Coast on Victoria Day, which more or less marks the opening of the golf season throughout the Dominion. Never before was there such an avalanche of "Fores" heard on the courses of Canada.

Says the Sarnia "Canadian Observer" June 9th under the well deserved caption "True Blue Sports":—

"John Newton, Sr., aged 81, probably enjoyed the invitation golf tournament, yesterday, more than any other golfer on the course and he didn't play. This veteran life member of the club with two other life members, Thomas H. Cook and Col. R. Mackenzie, stayed together most of the day and at the eighteenth hole watched the players come in. These three gentlemen were among those who cradled the Sarnia Golf Club and it was a source of the greatest pleasure to them that the old club was having such a day of it. True-blue sportsmen, these."

Scotland, the home of golf, unlike England, the States, Canada, and other countries has more or less frowned upon the courses being opened on Sunday. However, of recent years there has been a growing tendency to break away from this strict Sabbatarian observance and golf is now played on very many links in Auld Scotia. This season especially have numerous courses been opened for Sunday play and it looks as though in the future the game will generally be played throughout Scotland on Sunday the same as in other golfing countries.

A despatch from London, Ont., June 10th:—

"If Westminster Township tries to pass a by-law banning Sunday golf, it will have a legal fight on its hands. Followers of the Royal and Ancient pastime are not going to be deprived of their Sabbath game without a struggle, according to their statements to-day.

"We will take the case to the Supreme Court," one golfer said. "It will not only be Westminster Township and one or two golf clubs that will be affected; any such by-law would set a precedent for the entire Dominion."

"We are not worrying a great deal," stated an official of the Highland Golf Club. "I think any such action on the part of the township would be ultra vires."

The United States Golf Association has just issued the official programme for the U.S. Amateur Championship to be held at the Baltimore Country Club Sept. 12-17. One hundred and fifty players will be eligible who have a handicap rating of 4 strokes or less. These one hundred and fifty will, however, be required to qualify in 18 sectional elimination districts on August the 16th. The nearest course for any Ontario or Quebec players on which to qualify apparently would be Cherry Valley, Garden City, N.Y., Western players Byrn Mawr, Chicago, and British Columbia players, Portland, Oregon.

In the past Ross Somerville, Amateur Champion of Canada, and two or three other Canadians have generally entered for this stellar championship. Entries close Tuesday, July 26th, at the office of the U.S.G.A., 110 East 42nd Street, New York City.

One of the most interesting matches of the English season is that between the leading women and men players which is always held at historical Stoke Poges. The teams consist of 12 players a side and last month was won by the men 11 games to 6 with 1 halved. The women received nine strokes, but in the majority of cases, particularly in the singles, their long game was not so good as that of their rivals, although in the "battle of the champions"—the leading single between Miss Wanda Morgan, English Champion, and Eric Martin-Smith, former British Amateur title-holder—the woman was successful

SPALDING presents BOBBY JONES' IDEAS

Spalding and Jones, now a Spalding director, felt that a redistribution of weight would produce an iron easier to swing and easier to control. The problem was to get more weight into the blade without making the club head-heavy. It was accomplished by lightening the hosel and putting a carefully designed flange on the back of the blade.

This redistribution places the centre of percussion two inches lower than it is on hickory-shafted irons, and an inch lower than it is on other steel-shafted irons. It makes the iron feel sweeter, and makes it easier to control. It gives the impression that it wants to follow through—the blade actually seems to flow through the ball.

Such a redistribution of weight would not be feasible without the Spalding Cushion-neck feature. To achieve the proper balance, it is necessary to use a steel shaft—and Spalding's patented rubber cushioning is the only shock-absorbing feature yet invented that makes a steel-shafted iron a sweet club to play.

The idea of matching the irons in pairs, as to length of shaft and lie of blade, is one that Jones has used in his own clubs for some time. It cuts the number of stances in half—you need only one stance for every two clubs. Of course, every pair is matched with every other pair in swinging weight, so that the same swing and timing are correct for every club in the set!

THE WOODS PACK A NEW THRILL

The new Woods reflect Bobby Jones' skill with, and his feeling for, wood clubs. Any golfer will get a big kick out of them the first time he wraps his fingers around the clubs.

The Spalding Robert T. Jones, Jr., Golf Clubs are offered at the lowest prices ever asked for Spalding's first-line clubs!

Custom-Built Registered Irons are $50 for a set of 6, $67 for set of 8, $75 for set of 9. Cushion-shaft Irons are $5 each. . . . Custom-Built De Luxe Registered Woods are $24 for the pair, $36 for set of three, $48 for set of four.

Custom-Built Standard Indexed Woods are $20 for the pair, $30 for set of three, $40 for set of four. Autograph Woods $8 and $10 each.

"Golf Illustrated", London:—

"America has captured the last stronghold of British golf when her representatives won the first official Ladies' International Match at Wentworth last Saturday. America won by 5 matches to 3 with one match halved. What is more, the Americans thoroughly deserved their success. They played the better and the more consistent golf, and they looked the better players. Their game appeared to be moulded on the better and safer lines. Their swings possessed a greater degree of uniformity and truth. And definitely their nerves were under better control.

Frankly, we did not look for defeat for our women. We knew the power and ability of the first four American players. We expressed our admiration of their games when they were here two years ago. When we saw them this time we realized that they were better than they were then. Whilst Mrs. Vare and Miss Orcutt remain very finished performers, Miss Hicks has recorded the progress we prophesied for her, and Miss Van Wie is about a shot per round better than she was when we last saw her. In spite of this we felt confident, especially with Miss Wethered in the side. But our golfers generally did not play up to their form. That is not an excuse. It is merely a sad reflection."

Mrs. Louis D. Cheney was quite the star of the American women who have been playing in England. In the International match she not only won her singles but also was on the winning side in the foursomes. She did much therefore to win the match for the States by 5½ points to 3½ points. Then the following week in the British championship she kept the American flag flying until the semi-finals, where she was put out by Miss Enid Wilson, the ultimate winner of the title.

“We liked the Master Seven so well we bought two of them,” says M. E. Farnham, Superintendent Philadelphia Country Club.

THE Philadelphia Country Club ranks as one of the ten major Golf Properties in the United States.

The Superintendent, Marshall E. Farnham, is the progressive type who makes it his business to seek and study every important improvement in golf course maintenance.

It is no wonder, then, that when the Toro Master Seven was first announced, Mr. Farnham immediately wrote for complete detailed information.

The result of Mr. Farnham's investigation ended in the order of one machine, quickly followed by the second. His analysis tells the whole story when he said:

“We liked the Toro Master Seven so well that we bought two of them.”

You are making a big mistake if you buy an old fashioned pull type outfit without seeing the Toro Master perform. Write today for information.

Mrs. Cheney, who is better known to the golfing public as Mrs. Pressler, has dominated women's golf more or less in California, where she is the State champion. She is a daughter of a professional and took up golf as a very young girl. Mrs. Cheney is not a long driver relying chiefly on her approaching and putting, which is very sound. She is unfortunately a very slow player and therefore does not appeal to the gallery. She certainly has made a name for herself this season in the Old Country. Mrs. Cheney is, unlike Mrs. Vare, Miss Helen Hicks, and Miss Maureen Orcutt, not known in Canada, never having competed in championships here.

Under an agreement filed at Osgoode Hall, by which the Windermere Golf and Country Club, Muskoka, will acquire a strip of land from Rachel Wyman and Gordon Bogart, litigation that began when members of the Bogart family were discovered digging post holes on ground claimed by the golf club, and which resulted in an injunction to restrain the Bogarts from trespassing on the disputed land, was brought to a close.

A survey of the property showed that the golf club was occupying a strip, seven feet wide at one end and 42 feet wide at the other, that was part of the farm inherited by Mrs. Bogart from the estate of the late Thomas Clark. Finding that they were over the property line, the club claimed title by right of possession, and after negotiations between the parties the golf organization secured a strip seven feet wide, running the length of their course.

To insure the club uninterrupted possession an injunction has now been granted restraining the Bogarts from interfering with the club's peaceful possession.

Two Canadians Qualify for U. S. Open

OVER 20 courses, North, East, South and West in the United States on Tuesday, June 6th, over a thousand golfers teed-up and did their best to qualify for the 116 places which are still left permitting the player to compete in the U.S. Open Championship at the Fresh Meadow Country Club, Flushing, L.I., beginning June 23rd. In the New York district 203 players tried for the 24 places. In Chicago 134 for 16 places, in Boston 63 for 8 places, and so on down to Portland, Oregon, where only 2 competitors tried for the 1 place allotted. Ninety per cent. of the players were eliminated in this intensive struggle.

In addition to the 116 qualifiers on June 6th the following 34 players (making a total of 150) were not required to qualify as a result of the favourable showing they made in the championship last year:—Billy Burke (defending champion), George Von Elm, Leo Diegel, Bill Mehlhorn, Wiffy Cox, Gene Sarazen, Walter Hagen, Morte Dutra, T. Philip Perkins, Macdonald Smith, Johnny Farrell, Al Espinosa, Frank Walsh, Herman Barron, Ed Dudley, Harry Cooper, Al Watrous, Charles Guest, Tony Manero, John Kinder, Olin Dutra, L. B. Ayton, Willie Klein, Eddie Williams, Denny Shute, Johnny Golden, Horton Smith, Henry Ciuci, Joe Turnesa, Tom Creavy, Alex Watson. Also Tommy Armour, who played in the British Open event, and Joe Jurado, Argentine, and T. Miyamoto, Japan.

Only two Canadians qualified to play-off in the championship, Ray McAuliffe, the brilliant professional of the Erie Downs Golf Club, Bridgeburg, Ont., captured the third and final place in the competition at Wanakah Country Club, Buffalo, N.Y. His scores were 73-76—149.

Tommy Filmore, professional hockey player, entering from London, Ont., qualified at Detroit with 76-76—152, which places him in 5th place amongst the six qualifiers at Detroit.

Don Moe, former Walker Cup player, was beaten four strokes by Eldred Zimmerman for the lone qualifying place assigned to Portland, Ore. Chick Evans, former Amateur and Open titleholder, failed to qualify at Chicago, and in the New York district, Cyril Tolley, George Voigt, Maurice McCarthy and Gene Homans, amateurs all, failed to make the grade. Jesse Guilford, 1921 United States Amateur Champion, was beaten off in the Boston district, and Charley Hall, president of the Professional Golfers' Association, failed to qualify at Atlanta. Emmett French, of Southern Pines, N.C., was eliminated in the Cleveland district, and Gus Moreland, Texas Amateur Champion, at Dallas.

Among front-rank stars who qualified were Bobby Cruickshank, Jim Barnes, Paul Runyan, Clarence Clark, Jock Hutchison, Joe Kirkwood, Fred Morrison, Abe Espinosa and Johnny Goodman. In all 106 professionals and 10 amateurs only gained places.

Where to Spend an Enjoyable Vacation

Canada-This Year

SINCE the annual vacation has become a definite part of modern life, the decision as to where it will be spent is of considerable importance. Canada has a particular appeal to the vacationist, for it has an unusual variety of attractions, which may be enjoyed at reasonable cost.

Recreation Areas Easily Reached

For most people, the summer vacation is limited to a few weeks and is really shortened by the time used in travelling to and from the locality selected. Canada has an extensive system of good roads and excellent railway services, which greatly facilitate travel between Provinces.

Attractions Cover Wide Range

Canada presents a striking diversity of natural features—the rugged and picturesque Atlantic Coast; the St. Lawrence River and Great Lakes, the world's greatest inland waterway; the Laurentian Mountains, land of forest and stream; the Prairies; the majestic Rockies; and the beautiful Pacific Coast. Each of these areas has its own attractions of scenic beauty and opportunities for enjoyable recreation. Fishing, hunting, camping, canoeing, and mountain-climbing may all be enjoyed under ideal conditions, while golf and tennis may be played practically everywhere. Accommodation includes everything from camp site to luxurious hotel. Those to whom economy is a matter of concern may spend a pleasant vacation close to nature, at surprisingly small cost.

Travel Information Gladly Furnished

The National Development Bureau, Department of the Interior, at Ottawa, has prepared a series of automobile road maps, showing the main routes from one Province to another, also a number of interesting booklets, including "Vacations in Canada" which describe the tourist attractions of each Province. These will be sent to any of our readers planning a vacation. Applicants should state the areas in which they are interested.

British Walker Cup Team Captain Known in Canada

THE Royal and Ancient officially announces that T. A. Torrance will be captain of the British Walker Cup team, which will visit the United States and also probably Canada this season.

Torrance, who is 41 years of age, and who by profession is a dentist, is perhaps Scotland's outstanding amateur. He won the Irish Open Championship in 1925 and the German Championship in 1927 and 1929. He has always figured well up in the British and Scottish Amateur Championships, although never winning these important events.

He has previously played in the Walker Cup matches in 1924, 1928, and 1930. In 1928 he was the only Britisher to win in the singles, he defeating Chick Evans by 1 up. In 1930 too he was the only British player to score in the singles, he defeating Francis Ouimet decisively by 7 and 6. Ouimet will captain the U.S. team this year so they will again oppose each other as it is generally the custom for the captains to do so.

In 1928 Torrance with other members of the British Walker Cup team visited Toronto, Hamilton, Montreal and Quebec. At Hamilton Torrance was in particularly good form and returned a card of 70, or two under par—a very fine performance for the first time round a course like Ancaster. He made many friends during his tour of Ontario and Quebec four years ago and will be an especially welcome visitor to Canada again this season.

The Passing of Mr. J. L. Weller

Eminent Engineer, Outstanding Rifle Shot and Golfer of Repute.

IN the death last month in Hamilton of Mr. John Laing Weller, Canada not only lost one of its most eminent engineers but a golfer of note. Mr. Weller, familiarly known as "Chief" by countless friends throughout the Dominion, was more or less responsible for the building of the Welland Canal and Port Weller on the canal is named after him.

Mr. Weller, who was a distinguished graduate of the Royal Military College, was in his younger days a crack shot and represented Canada on the Bisley team. Some thirty years ago he took up golf, first playing for St. Catharines and of later years with the Hamilton Golf and Country Club, he having taken up his residence in the Ambitious City. For many years he had a cottage at Pinehurst, N.C., during the winter months and won many golfing trophies there.

He was an outstanding member of the Canadian Seniors' Golf Association and won many Senior cups. He was several times on the Seniors' International team which annually plays against the U.S. Seniors. Mr. Weller was a most consistent golfer playing regularly in the "early eighties" and once and awhile dropping into the seventies. He is one of the last of the "Old Brigade" who three decades ago helped to place golf on the map in Canada.

Mr. Weller was born in Cobourg and was a son of the late William Weller, who operated the first stage coach line between Toronto and Montreal and who himself drove Lord Sydenham from Toronto to Montreal in 35 hours and 40 minutes, and received a bonus of $400 and a gold watch worth £100, which is still in the family's possession.

In 1927, Mr. Weller's services to Canada were recognized by the Government when Hon. Charles A. Dunning, then Minister of Railways and Canals, was instrumental in having an Order-in-Council passed by which Mr. Weller was placed on pension for the remainder of his life.

Mr. Weller entered the Government service in the Department of Railways and Canals in 1883. From then until 1888 he was engaged on the construction of the Trent Canal, and from 1888 to 1900 was principal assistant engineer on the enlargement of the Ontario-St. Lawrence canals. In 1900 he became engineer in charge of the Port Colborne improvements and at the end of that year was made superintending engineer of the Welland Canal. In 1912 the Government reached a decision on the necessity of enlarging that canal, and he was appointed engineer in charge of surveys, design and construction of the new Welland ship canal. The work was interrupted in 1917 owing to the war, but was resumed in 1919 when Mr. Weller became consulting engineer.

He designed many new structures and introduced several reforms in that vast work.

Mr. Weller was in charge of the work when the disastrous break occurred in the Cornwall canal and the south bank, at the crossing of the Ottawa and New York Railway, was breached for a considerable length. Owing to his engineering genius and skill, the break was sufficiently repaired within seventeen days for navigation to resume, while the railway bridge, which had collapsed, as well as the south bank of the canal, were restored before navigation opened the following spring.

The greatest achievement of Mr. Weller's life as an engineer was the Welland ship canal. It was the largest single public work ever undertaken in Canada, and he saw his designs and structures become accomplished facts.

Mr. Weller was an Anglican and Dean Broughall, of the Cathedral, Hamilton, officiated at the last sad rites at the residence, "The Gables", Hamilton, which were attended by many old and prominent friends from all parts of Ontario. He leaves to mourn his loss two daughters, Mrs. E. P. Muntz and Miss Olive E. Weller, of Hamilton, and one son, Mr. W. H. Weller. His wife predeceased him a few years ago.

The Editor of the "Canadian Golfer" who remembers with most fragrant memory, many a game of golf played with Mr. Weller in years lang syne, joins with friends throughout Ontario in sincere sympathy to the bereaved daughters and son. An outstanding engineer, a gallant gentleman and sportsman, has played "the last game of all" and the city of his adoption and his native Province are all the poorer for his passing.

Waterton Lakes National Park

Beautiful Government Property In Alberta Will This Season Boast a Charming 18-hole Golf Course.

MR. HERBERT KNIGHT, superintendent of Waterton Lakes Park, Alberta, writes the Editor in reference to the golf course on this beautiful Dominion Government Park:—

Our course is entirely natural. Being situated, as it is, in the foothills, practically

3. 420 yds.	12. 465 yds.
4. 378 yds.	13. 170 yds.
5. 333 yds.	14. 428 yds.
6. 427 yds.	15. 515 yds.
7. 220 yds.	16. 109 yds.
8. 313 yds.	17. 384 yds.
9. 323 yds.	18. 358 yds.

Total yardage, 2,860 out, 3,240 in= 6,100 yards.

One of the enchanting views on the golf course at Waterton Lakes Park.

no artificial features have been necessary. The fairways are all natural turf, which is very much superior to that found on the prairies, being reminiscent of the natural fairways found in Europe. This is no doubt accounted for by the intermittent mountain showers experienced here practically during the whole of the spring and summer season. The fly and mosquito nuisance to be found on so many prairie courses is somewhat nullified by the prevailing light winds which are experienced in the foothills.

The nine-hole course has become more and more popular during the past few years, and such was the congestion during 1930 and 1931 that it was deemed necessary to extend the course to the full 18 holes. A list of the lengths of these is appended:—

1. 322 yds.	10. 308 yds.
2. 124 yds.	11. 503 yds.

The shorter holes are all of an interesting nature. No. 2 is well bunkered; No. 13 is played over a deep coulee on to a steep hillside; and No. 16 is a blind hole played uphill over a narrow fairway. Hole No. 12, which was part of the old nine-hole course, has been characterized by a well known golfer as one of the best he has seen in Canada. No. 15, which is entirely new, is considered to be even a more interesting hole.

The pleasure of the average golfer, rather than a test of the powers of the low handicap man, has been the main consideration in laying out this course, and the average player will not find it too much of an exertion to play 18 holes. It will be noted that the first 9 holes total only 2,860 yards as against 3,240 for the second nine. As both the ninth and eighteenth holes are close to the club house players not desiring too much exertion can choose the shorter nine.

The course is provided with a club house where refreshments and golf supplies can be obtained, and there are shelters at convenient points on the course. It is operated by the Parks Branch of the Department of the Interior and is kept in good condition throughout the season, which is from about May 24th until Labour Day.

Seventeen-Year-Old "Stan" Leonard

Wins the B.C. Amateur Championship, Also Captures the Qualifying Medal Round.

YOUTH is already demonstrating this season that it will not be denied on the golf courses in the West. "Bobby" Reith, 17-year-old amateur in Winnipeg, showed a clean pair of heels to all the leading professionals and amateurs of Manitoba in the Open Championship of Manitoba this month, and in the British Columbia Amateur Championship, Stanley Leonard, also 17 years of age, over the testing course of the Point Grey Golf and Country Club, Vancouver, not only won the qualifying medal with a 72-74—146, but proceeded to go through a big field of the best amateurs on the Coast—and they have some good 'uns out there, and win the coveted championship. Leonard is a former caddie at the Shaughnessy Heights Golf Club, Vancouver, and apparently has profited by the play there of Davie Black, many times professional golf champion of Canada.

Stan is a stylist. The way he hits a ball with wood or iron makes it look so easy and he certainly can smack them out when necessary. He cracked out a tee shot 310 yards on the 434-yard sixth hole during the championship, which is claimed to be one of the longest drives ever recorded on that fairway.

In the final, Leonard met another youngster, Dan Gowan, of the Point Grey Golf Club, Vancouver, who in the semi-finals had defeated Bobby Morrison, of Victoria, who, it will be remembered, made a name for himself at the Canadian Amateur last year in Montreal. Leonard early established a commanding lead. He was 6 up on the morning 18-hole round, but the young Point Grey player in the afternoon gave a wonderful exhibition of courage and fine play by eventually carrying Leonard to the 34th green before admitting a 3 and 2 defeat. Record galleries followed the semi-finals and finals.

Mrs. J. Hatchett, women's president at the Club Grey Club, and W. Charlton, president of the B. C. Golf Association, presented the prizes at a pleasant function on the lawn. Mr. Charlton's 17-year-old son was only beaten by Leonard in the semi-finals on the 19th.

The first flight was won by Arne Powell, Quilchena, when he beat Mac. O'Neill 5 and 4 in the 18-hole final.

Young Leonard will as a result of his winning the championship be a certainty on the B.C. team which will compete for the Willingdon Cup in the Inter-Provincial match at Lambton, Toronto, in August. He is assured of a warm welcome.

Mr. Bruce Boreham, C.N.R. Press Representative, of Vancouver, himself a keen golfer, writes the Editor:

The feature of the British Columbia Amateur was the work of the youngsters as most of the semi-finalists were almost kids. The style shown throughout was fine and this Province surely has a splendid crop of up and coming young golfers.

Another feature was the play of Jimmy McLarnin, the world's uncrowned welter-weight boxing champion, who won the fourth flight. Jimmy recently won the Rotary tournament with a snappy 74 and thinks golf is a real game.

News from the Middle West

Winnipeg's Two Municipal Courses During a Recent Week-end Had 1,662 Players.

MAY 24th saw thousands of golfers on the links in Winnipeg and other cities and towns in Manitoba, and the 1932 season opened with a "big bang". Many competitions were staged by the various clubs. No less than 1,662 played over the two Winnipeg municipal courses, Windsor Park and Kildonan, during a recent week-end, showing the great popularity of golf in the West. Favoured by glorious weather the first tournament of the Manitoba Golf Association for association medals was participated in by large fields of entrants at all the private courses. The entry fee in this interesting event goes toward helping defray the expenses of the Manitoba golf team to compete in the Inter-Provincial matches at Toronto. Many fine medal scores were turned in.

Recently there was a most unusual happening at the Windsor Park municipal course, Winnipeg. On the 500-yard sixteenth hole, a par five, George McQuitty, C. E. Elsey and E. Miller, playing together, all recorded birdies. McQuitty, first to hole out, went down in four and felt quite sure he had won the hole, but Elsey came along and duplicated the act, and then Miller followed suit.

This match is played on the King's birthday and was won last season by the Telephones. The first match of the season was played at the Elmhurst Golf Club, when the "Telephones" defeated the Civil Service 11½ to 9½.

A "Royal Chef" for Glen Mawr, Toronto

GOLFERS at the Glen Mawr Golf and Country Club, Toronto, vide the Globe, will have their meals prepared by Arthur Shorter, whose colourful career in the culinary art includes 14 years in the Royal household at Buckingham Palace. For the past nine years Mr. Shorter has been engaged at Government House, where he served under Lieutenant-Governors Colonel Cockshutt and Hon. William D. Ross.

Mr. Shorter's father served in the Royal household for a period of sixty years, and he was a prime favourite with Queen Victoria, accompanying her as sergeant-footman on many of her visits to the Continent, during which time he was decorated fourteen times by various crowned heads in recognition of his services.

Following in his father's footsteps, Arthur Shorter entered Buckingham Palace under the regime of Queen Victoria, having been appointed to a position in the Royal kitchen. Promotion followed rapidly, and his tasty dishes earned him much favourable comment from the resident Monarchs and visiting Royalty.

Unusual dishes so tastily prepared brought personal visits to the kitchen from many monarchs, and among the many decorations conferred upon Mr. Shorter are ones from King Edward, Queen Victoria, King George (then the Prince of Wales), King Alfonso of Spain, King Carlos of Portugal and Queen Marie of Rumania. Others to express personally their appreciation were the ex-Kaiser, Czar of Russia, King of Denmark, King and Queen of Italy, King and Queen of Belgium, King of Greece, and many Princes, Princesses, Lords, Earls, Dukes and Duchesses.

One of the most pleasing memories of his services at Buckingham Palace was his selection to accompany the royal yacht Victoria and Albert on many visits abroad.

Mr. Shorter is a model of modesty and pressure must be brought to bear to have him speak of his reminiscences. He takes a personal pride in his art and his charming personality will add much to the pleasure of those who make use of the privileges of the new course in Lawrence Park, whose restricted membership on a pay-as-you-play basis has proved more than popular.

The Dunlop Tournament

Is Won for the Second Time by Willie Lamb, of Uplands. Davie Spittall, St. Andrews, and Jimmie Johnstone, Rosedale, Tie for Second Place.

THE annual tournament of the Dunlop Tire and Rubber Goods Co. Limited of Toronto, manufacturers of the celebrated Maxfli and other golf balls, is now looked upon as one of the outstanding professional events of the season and this month at the Scarboro Golf Club, Toronto, the fixture more than lived up to reputation. There was a record field of over eighty of the leading professionals of Ontario and their assistants and a splendid day's golf was enjoyed alike by participants and the many spectators.

The course was in superb condition and was most favourably commented upon by all the participants. The weather was bright and cool, although a heavy cross wind punished the scores by possibly two strokes a round.

Considering this was the first important tournament of the Ontario season and the professionals have not had much opportunity to polish up their game the scores were remarkably good. It was freely predicted, that from the back tees, 148 would be hard to beat. As it turned out Willie Lamb, the long-hitting and consistent Uplands pro, came within one stroke of this total, he carding 149, which again won for him chief honours in this most interesting tournament which attracted a field which probably will not be excelled in numbers by any professional event this season in Canada. The entrants came from Kingston in the East to Windsor in the West and North Bay in the Northern part of the Province.

Lamb collected a very consistent 74 in the morning round which might easily have been 73 if he had not three-putted the 18th green after being well on with a magnificent drive and second shot. In the afternoon, still playing steadily, he carded 75 for a very consistent 149.

Davie Spittall, of St. Andrews, Toronto, also made a 74 in the morning but had to be content with a 77 in the afternoon. Jimmie Johnstone, of Rosedale, just reversed this performance. With a 77 in the morning he came back with 74 in the afternoon so he and Spittall with 151 tied for second place honours, two strokes back of the Uplands ace. All three leaders uncorked a fine brand of golf as did also Andy Kay in fourth place with 152, J. Armitage, Dundas, fifth with 153, and Lex Robson, Islington, and Arthur Hulbert, Thornhill, who tied for 6th place with 154.

The assistants' competition was won by W. Kerr, of York Downs, with 157, last year he also was the winner. Two strokes back of him was W. P. Crompton, Weston. Kerr has all the car-marks of a coming champion.

The winners of the handsome prizes donated by the Dunlop Co. were:—

Record Score by 14-Year-Old "Shin" Neal

THE "Canadian Golfer" was very much interested last season in the performances of 13-year-old "Shin" Neal, of Windsor, in the tournaments at Windsor and London and in the Ontario Boys' Championship at York Downs, Toronto, and predicted for him a brilliant golfing career. "Shin", who is now 14 years old, this season is already vindicating that prophesy. He recently stroked the quite difficult Roseland 18-hole course at Windsor in the remarkable figure of 70, or 2 under par, which incidentally tied the amateur record for the course made last season by Vic Ripley, the centre-piece star for the Chicago Black Hawks. Here is "Shin's" card, which I am inclined to think the best ever returned by a 14-year-old in Canada:—

Par—Out454	354	434	—36
Neal454	344	434	—35
Par—In445	354	344	—36—72
Neal444	345	344	—35—70

The par 72 at Roseland is by no means an easy one. It has rarely been equalled and many high-class golfers have played over the course in the past few years. A few days afterwards at the London Invitation Tournament "Shin" won the gross prize for the best third nine, a sparkling 35. Some score for a 14-year-old on a testing course like the London Hunt.

"Shin" Neal, 14-year-old Windsor boy, who cards a sensational 70 on the stiff Roseland course.

Mrs. Cowan, of Sarnia, Again Wins London and District Tournament

WITH the very fine score of 88 over the difficult course of the London Hunt Club, Mrs. H. Cowan, of Sarnia, for the second time from a field of over 100 entrants won the championship of London and District. Two strokes back of her was Mrs. John Wallace, of Woodstock, who carded a 90. Other good scores were returned by Mrs. W. L. Hunt, Sarnia; Mrs. L. A. McHugh, Windsor; Miss Farncombe, London Hunt; Mrs. G. Porter, St. Thomas; Miss L. Cook, Sarnia; Miss Garvey, London Hunt; Mrs. A. McLean, London Hunt; Mrs. Copus, Straftord; Mrs. N. George, London, and Mrs. E. G. Davis, London Hunt.

Mrs. J. D. Buchanan, of London Highland, a 35-handicap player, won the best nett for the 18-hole route, a gross of 107 giving her 72 nett.

Sarnia club members scored heavily in competition with a big field that pretty well represented the cream of Western Ontario golfdom. Besides Mrs. Cowan's victory the

Ross Hayes Stars at Sarnia

Wins First Place With Card of 144, or 3 Strokes Better Than Ross Somerville.

THE second annual invitation tournament of the Sarnia Golf Club, on June 8th was a huge success, drawing a large and classy field of golfers from all parts of Western Ontario and Michigan. Honours went to Ross Hayes, formerly brilliant young Sarnia golfer and member of a well known Sarnia golfing family, but now residing in Detroit, where he plays for the Western Golf Club. He turned in two consistent rounds of 72 for a total of 144, which was 3 strokes better than Ross Somerville, the Canadian Amateur Champion. Hayes is playing a sparkling game this season.

Starting at 8.30 in the morning, the players were sent out in flights of four, and after a buffet lunch at noon commenced the final 18 holes. The last foursomes were in about 6 o'clock in the evening. Kernie Marsh, of the London Hunt Club, and Russell Neilson, professionals, did yeoman duties as starters.

There were 20 valuable prizes ranging from travelling bags, kit bags, silver and golf balls. Following the drawing up of the prize winners the presentation was made by Vice-president B. C. Phippen.

Canadian Professional Golf Championship July 4th

THE date of the Canadian Professional Golf Championship has just been announced by the Canadian Professional Golf Association. The date is July 4th and the venue, the Rivermead Golf and Country Club, Ottawa, which will provide a fine test for the event. The Canadian Open Championship is scheduled for July 7th-9th at the Ottawa Hunt Club so that the Canadian professionals will have a good "work-out" three days before the "big show."

The present holder of this important championship is Andy Kay, of the Lambton Golf and Country Club, Toronto, with a record score of 138. He made the third 9 holes in 30, which is also a record for Canada.

The charming home of the Rivermead Golf Club, Ottawa, where the Canadian Professional Championship will be held July 4th.

It is interesting to note that the Championship has been won four times by "Davie" Black, of the Shaughnessy Heights Golf Club, Vancouver, B.C., and three times by Willie Lamb, of Uplands, Toronto. The winner is always recognized as the champion Canadian professional golfer of the year, and the title is a much coveted one apart from the handsome money prize awarded.

The Rivermead Club is located in the Province of Quebec about seven miles west of Ottawa and is easily accessible either by motor or street railway. Situated as it is on the partially wooded slopes of the Ottawa River, the expanse of fairways fringed by trees, gives it a beautiful setting and from many points throughout the course delightful views of the Capital, the Ottawa River and the surrounding country are afforded.

The course has recently been reconstructed and lengthened under the plans and supervision of George Cumming, golf architect, and professional to the Toronto Golf Club. The complete new course is now in splendid playing condition and while bunkering and finishing is still being proceeded with, this work will be completed by the end of June.

The card of the new course follows:—

Hole No.	Par	Distance Yards	Hole No.	Par	Distance Yards
1	4	360	10	3	250
2	4	445	11	4	365
3	5	485	12	4	310
4	5	475	13	3	150
5	3	200	14	5	535
6	4	400	15	5	515
7	3	145	16	5	485
8	5	455	17	3	160
9	4	370	18	4	335
	—	—		—	—
	37	3335		36	3105
			First Nine	37	3335
			Total	73	6440

This is an excellent yardage and it will be noticed that there are many well balanced holes. The course will make for an ideal setting for the Professional Championship on July 4th next.

Whitlock Secures Federal Bird Sanctuary

“BIRDIES” will no longer be rare at the picturesque course of the Whitlock Golf and Country Club in the Montreal District. Last month the club was officially recognized by a Dominion Order-in-Council, approved by the Governor-General as a Federal Bird Sanctuary and that hereafter bird life will be protected and encouraged on the club property. An interesting ceremony took place on the first tee.

Mr. Eugene Hodgson, vice-president of the club, officiated in the unavoidable absence of the president, H. T. Pemberton. Mr. D. H. Taylor announced that the club members and employees would give their heartiest co-operation to the maintenance and improvement of the sanctuary, which he anticipated will prove of real benefit to the community and surrounding district. Golfers who may be discouraged by their failure to include birdies and eagles in their scores will now have the satisfaction of seeing other kinds of birdies accumulated as they carry on their warfare with Old Man Par. Mr. Taylor, with the assistance of one of the head caddies, then unveiled a most attractive 16-compartment martin house erected outside the club house as a definite memento of the formation of the sanctuary. Shortly after the unveiling several pairs of martins inspected the new apartments.

There is no reason whatever why other golf club properties in Canada should not receive similar recognition. Every prominent course in Canada might well be made “vocal with birdies”.

Debunking Golf

(By Charles Herndon, Author of “Golf Made Easier”)

The Swing in Putting

“THE putt is a stroke bearing no relation whatever to any other in golf.”

Some golf writers try to give the impression that the swing in putting is radically different from the swing with other clubs. Unless the swing is made with the wrists alone (which few golfers do) the swing in putting is exactly like the swing in driving—only differing in length.

Backspin

“With the same stroke the backspin will increase when the loft of the club is increased.”

BEAUTIFUL BERMUDA

Here, far from the rush and roar of cities, you may enjoy health, recreation and unbelievable quiet in a semi-tropical setting enriched by centuries of history and romance. Islands of rest . . . jewels of the ocean . . . where nature has lavished all her charms.

*For beautiful illustrated
Booklet, write the Bermuda
Trade Development Board,

The backspin will not increase when a more lofted club is used—unless the speed of the more lofted club is greater.

The ball's trajectory is determined by the loft of the clubface; the rapidity of backspin is determined by the speed of the clubhead. The highest trajectory and the slowest backspin is produced by the niblick; the lowest trajectory and the fastest backspin is produced by the driver.

Wrists Give Distance (?)

"It is the pressure applied through the wrists during the last six to twelve inches of club flight before it hits the ball that does the trick, i.e., gives you the distance required."

It is the speed of the clubhead, generated throughout the downswing that "gives you the distance required"—not "the pressure applied through the wrists during the last six to twelve inches of club flight." During this six to twelve inch space the wrists are not doing a thing but remaining firm and straight.

"Keep the Head Still"

"Once we have settled to our stance and address and the club has left the ball the head should be as immovable as if it were held in a vise."

We doubt if ever there has been a full and rapid swing with a golf club where the head has remained "as immovable as if it were held in a vise." Satisfactory shots cannot be made under such a condition. An attempt to keep the head that still would make muscles tense that should remain supple.

If the body does not sway to right and left or forwards and backwards too much, or does not bob up and down too much, the usual slight movements of the head will not affect the shot adversely.

Long Drawn-Out Final in British Amateur Championship

ONCE more demonstrating that golf is not suffering from the prolonged visit of "Old Man Hard Times" the number of entrants for the British Amateur Championship last month at Muirfield exceeded the 1931 entry by 64, a total of 285 players teeing up on the opening day, including 17 from the States and other countries. None of these, however, were much of a threat and the Britishers after the second round had the field to themselves.

Once again youth asserted itself. All the "old guard" were eliminated and the final was played off between young John de Forest, son of Baron de Forest, a well known London financier, and Eric Fiddian, the winner of the Boys' Championship in 1927 and the English Close Championship last month. De Forest was a little too much for the 22-year-old Eric, three years his junior, and defeated him 3 and 1 after a stubborn battle. The champion was runner-up last year. As a result of this final both de Forest and Fiddian have been allotted the two remaining places on the British Walker Cup team and will therefore be visitors to the States and Canada later on in the season.

The final was doggedly fought out and lasted nearly seven hours. Never has a final occupied so long, and the desperate strain of the struggle was intensified by the terrible weather which prevailed during the greater part of the contest.

Haggard and weary, the two gallant youths battled through the last few holes, and the excitement among the crowd rose to a high pitch as the Birmingham golfer steadily crumbled the apparently invulnerable lead which de Forest had accumulated in the first ten holes.

De Forest was 7 up at the 10th, a position never held by a previous finalist, but Fiddian never lost courage, and at the 31st hole he had a golden chance of drawing level, but the strain of his effort to reduce the arrears was too much, and he let slip a chance which de Forest never allowed to return.

"Youth" Has Given Notice to Older Golfers to "Look Out"

IF the results of the first championships to be played this season in Canada are any criterion, then the older players will have to look to their laurels.

In the B.C. Amateur 17-year-old Stan Leonard, a former caddie at Shaughnessy Heights Golf Club, Vancouver, not only won the qualifying round but went on to annex the Championship from another youngster, Don Gowan. "Bob" Morrison and other older B.C. players who made such a favourable showing in the Inter-Provincial matches at Montreal last year were all swept aside.

Then in the recent Manitoba Open Championship another 17-year-old, "Bobbie" Reith, showed his heels to all the leading professionals and amateurs of the West, including such outstanding players as Eric Bannister, Geo. Daniels, Billy Brazier, and captured the championship with two consistent rounds of 73 for a total of 146—really a remarkable performance, possibly never before equalled in an Open Championship by a player in his 'teens.

The young ladies, too, are coming into their own. In the Ontario Ladies' Championship last week all the seasoned players were eliminated and it remained for the youthful Miss Robinson and Miss Bright, also quite a young player, to fight it out in the final.

So far this season the only older golfer to win a championship is Mrs. Vera Hutchings, of Vancouver, who once again has annexed the British Columbia Championship. But then Mrs. Hutchings is a player with an International reputation and for years has dominated ladies' golf on the Coast. As Miss Vera Ramsay some years ago she was one of the best players in England.

"Youth" has certainly served early notice that it will have to be reckoned with this season in Canada. The principal championships have yet to come. "Youth" will want watching the next two or three months on the courses of Canada. From early indications it is not going to be denied.

The Ontario Ladies' Championships

Miss Honor Bright, Niagara Falls, Wins Interesting Final from Miss Winnifred Robinson, St. Catharines. Record-making Score of 77 by Miss Maud Smith in Qualifying Round.

FOR the first time in the rather long history of the Ontario Ladies' Championship the champion will not be found in Toronto and Hamilton—generally Toronto. At the really beautiful course of the Ladies' Golf Club, Toronto, Miss Honor Bright, of Niagara Falls, and Miss Winnifred Robinson, of St. Catharines, clashed in the finals. The two young players from the "Garden of Ontario" by sterling golf throughout the week had well earned the right to fight it out for the championship. Especially in the semi-finals had they risen to quite great heights. Miss Robinson was in the unenviable position of being three down and four to play against that very steady and sterling golfer, Mrs. C. S. Eddis, of Rosedale, but the St. Kitts girl won the next four holes and the match. But she had to play one stroke better than par to accomplish what seemed the impossible. Miss Bright, too, showed both skill and nerve to defeat the many times champion, Miss Ada Mackenzie, of Toronto. All square at the 18th Miss Bright got a par 3 at the 18th and won an intensely interesting match.

In the final Miss Bright had the edge on the young St. Catharines player throughout and won quite handily, 4 and 3. Her victory was especially a popular one as she is shortly to be married and the Ontario Championship will be more or less of "a golfing wedding gift" from Ontario. Miss Bright plays a great deal in the Buffalo District and is looked upon as quite one of the ranking players in the Bison City and vicinity.

All the leading ladies of the Province competed in the Championship which was faultlessly conducted by the Ontario Branch of the C.L.G.U. Mrs. Lyle, Toronto, president of the Association, and other members of her executive were also in attendance.

The qualifying round resulted in

Miss Maud Smith, of Toronto, a former champion, returning the best score ever recorded in the 23 years the championship has been conducted. Out in 41 Miss Maud came back with a glittering 36 for a total of 77. Her card is well worthy of reproduction:

Miss Honor Bright, dashing young Niagara Falls player, who won the Ontario Ladies' Championship.

Showing the quality of this round Miss Ada Mackenzie, one of the best medal players in Canada, with 85, was tied in second place with Mrs. Fisher and Mrs. Eddis, or 8 strokes back of Miss Smith.

And this is what happened in the play-down for the championship (sixteen qualifiers):—

First round—

Honor Bright, Lookout Point, defeated Maud Smith, Toronto Golf, at 19th hole.

Miss Winnifred Robinson, St. Catharines, who for the second year in succession is "runner-up" in the Ontario Ladies' Championship.

Mary Hunter, Glendale, defeated Betsy Wadsworth, Toronto Golf, 5 and 3.

Mrs. R. W. Gouinlock, Toronto Golf, defeated Hazel Hudson, Toronto Ladies, 7 and 6.

Ada Mackenzie, Toronto Ladies, defeated Mrs. Ronald Holmes, Toronto Golf, at 20th hole.

Mrs. A. B. Fisher, Lambton, defeated Mrs. T. J. Agar, Mississauga, 4 and 3.

Winnifred Robinson, St. Catharines, defeated Caroline Mitchell, Kingston, 4 and 3.

Cecil Smith, Toronto Golf, defeated Mrs. S. G. Bensnett, Lambton, 6 and 4.

Mrs. C. S. Eddis, Rosedale, defeated Helen Reid, Rosedale, 5 and 4.

Second round—

Honor Bright, Lookout Point, defeated Mary Hunter, Glendale, 5 and 3.

Ada Mackenzie, Toronto Ladies, defeated Mrs. R. W. Gouinlock, Toronto Golf, 5 and 3.

Winnifred Robinson, St. Catharines, defeated Mrs. A. B. Fisher, Lambton, 3 and 2.

Mrs. C. S. Eddis, Rosedale, defeated Cecil Smith, Toronto Golf, 5 and 4.

Third round—

Honor Bright, Lookout Point, defeated Ada Mackenzie, Toronto Ladies, one up.

Winnifred Robinson, St. Catharines, defeated Mrs. C. S. Eddis, Rosedale, one up.

Final—Miss Honor Bright defeated Miss Robinson 4 and 3.

It will be seen that in reaching the final Miss Bright defeated Miss Maud Smith, the medallist, at the 19th hole (one of the best matches of the championship), Miss Mary Hunter, the young Hamilton expert, and Miss Ada Mackenzie, many times Canadian and Open champion. Miss Robinson in the other bracket accounted for such fine players as Miss Mitchell, of Kingston, Mrs. A. B. Fisher, Lambton, and Mrs. Eddis, Rosedale. All the seasoned players had to bow the knee to youth—and that is a good omen for women's golf in Ontario.

On the charming lawn in front of the club house after the finals in the various flights the presentation of prizes took place. This delightful function was presided over by Miss Jean Haslett, of Hamilton, retiring president of the Ontario Branch of the C.L.G.U., assistant by Mrs. Leonard Murray, former president of the C.L.G.U., Lady Baillie, Mrs. D. A. Dunlap, Mrs. Alex. F. Rodger and Mrs. Wm. Barclay. The winners were:—

Championship flight: Winner, Miss Honor Bright, Lookout Point, custody of Hamilton Ladies' Trophy and possessor of miniature, C.L.G.U. Cup and Dunlop Trophy; runner-up, Miss Winnifred Robinson, St. Catharines; semi-finalists, Miss Ada Mackenzie, Toronto Ladies, and Mrs. C. S. Eddis, Rosedale.

Championship consolation: Winner, Miss Maud Smith, Toronto Golf; runner-up, Mrs. T. J. Agar, Mississauga.

First flight: Winner, Mrs. N. H. Campbell, Lambton; runner-up, Mrs. Adair Gibson, Lambton.

Second flight: Winner, Mrs. A. B. Taylor, Oakville; runner-up, Mrs. W. S. Ware, Summit.

Third flight: Winner, Miss Jane Morin, Scarboro; runner-up, Mrs. C. A. Bone, Toronto Golf.

Fourth flight: Winner, Mrs. Gordon Plaxton, Summit; runner-up, Mrs. W. E. Young, Scarboro.

Mrs. Vera Hutchings, Vancouver

Once Again Wins the Women's Championship of British Columbia. Mrs. Jackson, Victoria, is Runner-up.

MRS. VERA HUTCHINGS, of the Shaughnessy Heights Golf Club, Vancouver, the former well known International player, Miss Vera Ramsay, is once more the women's champion of British Columbia and in again annexing the title played some of the best golf in her long and brilliant career.

The event was staged at the Quilchena Club, Vancouver, and attracted a large field of the best players of the Province.

Mrs. E. F. Jackson, of Uplands Golf Club, Victoria, playing good golf throughout the week, qualified to meet Mrs. Hutchings in the final, but found the many times champion at the top of her game and had to bow to a decisive 11 and 9 defeat.

The match finished on the twenty-seventh green, at which stage Mrs. Hutchings had a score of 118, three under ladies' par. She carded an 81 in the morning, one under par, and was out in 37, two under, in the afternoon. Mrs. Jackson had an 87 in the morning and a 44 for the nine holes in the afternoon.

Included in Mrs. Hutchings' score were birdie fours on the 450-yard ninth, the 395-yard tenth, the 385-yard eighteenth and 440-yard nineteenth, an eagle three on the 400-yard twelfth, and an eagle two on the 285-yard twentieth, where she sank a seventy-foot approach shot. Mrs. Jackson had birdie threes on the 220-yard fourth, the 395-yard tenth, and a birdie five on the 530-yard fifteenth.

Mrs. M. A. McDowell, of Shaughnessy, won the first flight, defeating her club-mate, Mrs. J. J. Mason, 5 and 4. The second flight went to Mrs. C. E. Dawson, also of Shaughnessy, who beat Mrs. H. King, of Point Grey, 3 and 2. Mrs. D. Firbank, of Quilchena, triumphed over Miss M. Richardson, of Jericho, in the third flight, 5 and 4, while Mrs. J. Vans Macdonald, of Mrs. Vera Hutchings, Internationally known golfer, who again wins B.C. Ladies' Championship.

Shaughnessy, carried off the fourth flight by downing Mrs. A. C. Frost, of Quilchena, 7 and 6. Prizes were presented by Mrs. W. J. Johnston, wife of the Quilchena Club president. Mrs. Hutchings also won the qualifying round of the championship.

Westfield, Picturesque N.B. Club

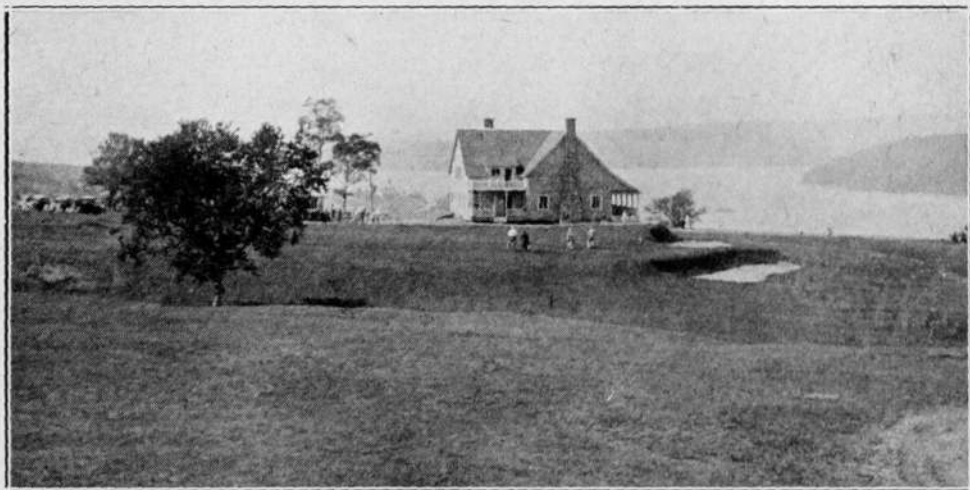

Formally Opens Its New Club House and Enlarged Course with a Gala Day on the King's Birthday.

VERY appropriately June 3rd, the King's Birthday, was chosen for the official opening of the charming new club house and enlarged course of the Westfield Country Club, situated in a most entrancing country a few miles from the capital city of St. John, N.B.

Originally founded as the Westfield Outing Association in 1904 the now for the nine hole course is 2,991, or 5,982 for 18 holes. The par of the course is 70.

Showing how popular golf has become at Westfield, on the official opening day one hundred and four players teed-up. The weather was ideal and the large field of men and women players thoroughly enjoyed playing the course which is one of

The beautifully situated club house at Westfield. On the right the St. John River; on the left the Nerepis River, and in the distance the Douglas Mountains.

club was reorganized in 1920 under the name of the Westfield Country Club and incorporated in 1921. The incorporators and first board of directors were:—

D. W. Ledingham, president; H. C. Grout, vice-president; F. N. Robertson, secretary-treasurer; W. E. Golding, Frank J. Likely, Geo. L. Warwick, F. G. Spencer, H. Fielding Rankine.

It was decided in 1920 by a few enthusiasts to lay out a small 5-hole golf course on the property. Gradually these holes have been extended and improved and on June 3 a fine and interesting 9-hole course was put into play. The new holes are No. 4 and No. 5, the former being 421 yards in length and by far the hardest par hole of the course. The total yardage the most picturesque in the Maritimes. The property will permit of an 18-hole course being built later on if found necessary—and the chances are that it will be if Westfield continues to flourish in the future as it has in the past.

A pleasing feature of the day's proceedings was the presentation of a handsome silver cigarette box to Harry Mealy, the proficient pro of the club, who has also had a great deal to do with the construction of the course.

The new club house is particularly attractive, combining an appropriate "country club" architecture with all the modern conveniences. The large main lounge is open to the rafters, and features unusually interesting lighting fixtures. These consist of lanterns hung from four old oxen yokes and a cart-wheel, which are attached to the rafters. At one end is a large open fireplace made of field stones, collected from the golf course, while at the other end is a balcony, off which open the men's locker rooms and shower baths. Showers are also provided off the ladies' locker rooms

The official opening was brought to a fitting conclusion in the evening when 162 members and their guests participated in a jolly dinner. Small tables were arranged in the dining room and on the mezzanine floor, while long tables were placed in the main lounge to accommodate the large number. Silver cups and club on the main floor, which open into a verandah connected to the men's locker rooms by an outside stairway, the verandah making a convenient meeting place for mixed foursomes and other matches.

On the northwest side of the club house is a glass-enclosed verandah opening off the main dining room. This may be used to enlarge the dining space when necessary, or as a separate tea room. Above the dining room are the quarters for the help.

The lounge is furnished with attractive chintz-covered chesterfields and lounge chairs, with artistically matching curtains and lamp shades, the whole presenting an appearance of luxurious country comfort and cosiness.

trophies filled with bright coloured tulips made most effective table decorations, while on the mantels apple blossoms and violets were artistically used. An orchestra provided dinner music. The president, Mr. Adrian B. Gilbert (St. John's first Rhodes scholar), was chairman, and the special speaker was Mr. H. C. Grout, of Toronto, who was vice-president of the club when the golf course was first organized. Other speakers included Mayor Brittain, of St. John.

Mr. Frank Robertson, secretary of the match and handicap committee and chairman of the celebration committee, who from its inception has done so much for the Westfield Club, during the dinner read a letter from

Mr. John White, who is Canada's oldest golfer and who often plays over the Westfield course. Mr. White first played golf in Canada in 1862, or seventy years ago.

Altogether, Westfield with its panoramic course and charming club house has launched on the "second round" of its career under the most favourable and gratifying auspices.

Quebec Amateur Champion in Form

E. A. Innes Wins First Handicap Competition of the Season. "Happy" Fraser Runner-up.

EDWIN A. INNES, the young Province of Quebec champion, who made such a favourable showing in the Canadian Amateur Championship last year, is off to a good start this season, heading a strong field of over 70 of the best players in the Province at Kanawaki, Montreal, June 9th to win the opening handicap event of the P.Q.G.A. season. He carded a 38 out and a 38 in for a total of 76, good going for so early in the season and considering that the weather conditions were atrocious.

Right on the heels of the winner was C. C. Fraser, former Amateur Champion of Canada, who registered a 77. Another former Amateur Champion, W. McLuckie, returned a 79. Mr. McLuckie has not been heard of much in competitive golf of recent years. It is to be sincerely hoped that this outstanding player will be seen frequently in competitions this season. He has a most natural style and is a dangerous contender in any company. With a nett 72 he tied with G. B. Taylor for the prize and won in the toss-up.

In class B, for golfers with a handicap of 11 and over, Harry Maude, of Forest Hills, was the winner of the best gross award with a score of 86. The first nett prize in this division went to J. P. Mines, of Marlborough, with 92-18-74, and the second nett prize was tied for by S. C. Dalglish, of St. Leonards, and Dr. A. Boisvert, of Islesmere. Each had nett scores of 75. Dalglish won the toss-off and the award.

Mr. P. H. Walker, the newly appointed hon. secretary of the association, presented the prizes. The tournament was under his direction and was extremely well run. The St. Davids Golf Club

RIGHT in the middle of "the Garden of Ontario" is the pretty little town of St. Davids and some two or three years ago two enterprising residents, Samuel Prest, Jr., and Lyon Usher, who owned a desirable property of 50 acres or so, decided to build a 9-hole course and nothing daunted by "Hard Times" stuck to their guns and have gradually evolved one of the prettiest and sportingest little links in Ontario which were formally and successfully opened on May 24th with a field day participated in by players from all parts of the Peninsula. The course is situated just off the main highway at St. Davids. The lay-out is a particularly well balanced one of 3,110 yards with a par of 35.

An enthusiastic membership has already been secured and recently a meeting was held and the following strong board of directors and officers appointed:—

President, H. C. Hegetheimer, Dominion Chain Co. Ltd., Niagara Falls, Ont.; vice-president, F. C. McBurney; treasurer, A. G. Ross; captain, C. A. R. Warren; chairman green committee, S. R. Frost. Other directors, S. Prest, L. Usher, H. L. Bricke, C. A. Saunders, J. R. Matthews, H. R. Tyner, C. L. Jewell, and Dr. R. F. Eager.

With a membership already of some 150, a charming location and a course that is rapidly being whipped into shape, there is nothing but prosperity ahead of this latest addition to the golf clubs of Ontario. All good luck to St. Davids and its energetic board of directors. The club is already very much in the golfing picture.

U. S. Women Win International Match

Miss Joyce Wethered Again Defeats the U.S. Ace, Mrs. Glenna Collett Vare.

ONCE again has an American team triumphed, this time at the expense of the ladies of Great Britain. Last year the Britishers defeated decisively the French team, it will be remembered, and it was generally thought and hoped that they would also take the measure of the

they had made $2\frac{1}{2}$ points in the singles to the Britishers $3\frac{1}{2}$, they therefore won the series by $5\frac{1}{2}$ points to $3\frac{1}{2}$ points.

The only satisfaction Great Britain can take out of this first International encounter with the States is that the great Joyce Wethered, in the singles, Americans, as they have always done in the past in their championships.

The unexpected happened in the foursomes which is a game rarely, if ever, played in the States and Canada, but very popular in the Old Country and it was generally predicted that the Britishers, as a result would have a distinct edge on their opponents in this department of the match. In foursomes each pair plays alternate shots with the same ball, and to the surprise of everyone the Americans made a complete sweep of these matches, collecting three points. As again decisively defeated Mrs. Glenna Collett Vare, the American star, and thus once more demonstrated that she is the world's outstanding woman golfer. Miss Enid Wilson, the British lady champion, also defeated Miss Helen Hicks, the U.S. lady champion, and Miss Diana Fishwick, former British champion, Miss Maureen Orcutt, Canadian lady champion.

Total—United States 5½ points, Great Britain 3½ points.

It will be noticed that in the foursomes the matches were very close indeed and a lucky putt or so might easily have changed the results.

The following week the women of Great Britain took their revenge in the British Open Championship, where the Americans did not make a very favourable showing with the one exception of Mrs. Cheney who reached the semi-finals. Mrs. Cheney was quite the outstanding player of the visiting team. In the International match she won her singles and also was on the winning side in the foursomes. She did very much to contribute to the American victory.

"The Lion's Golfing Tail Again Twisted"

Sarazen Romps Away With the British Open Championship with the Record Score of 283.

THE British lion is getting used to having his "Royal and Ancient tail" twisted by American golfers but it remained for the stocky American-Italian caddie, Gene Sarazen, to give it an extra and exherciating twist in the British Open this month. Gene certainly did tie that tail in knots to the tune of 70-69-70-74—283, or five strokes ahead of Macdonald Smith, another American entry, although "Mac" is Scottish by birth. Tommy Armour, the defending champion, was way down in 15th place.

This brilliant score of Sarazen's is a record for the British Open, beating by 2 strokes the 285 made by Bobby Jones at St. Andrews in 1927 which previously was the best score returned in the long history of the Championship.

Sarazen is exceedingly well known and popular on Canadian courses. He has never won the Canadian Open, although competing for it on several occasions. He won the U.S. Open in 1922 when a mere youth. He is keen to annex the Canadian Championship and will be installed a warm favourite to do so at Ottawa next month.

Thus for the ninth time in succession has the Championship been won by American players and what is even still more humiliating, since 1928 a Britisher has not even been in second place—a sad, sad story.

There is no use in mincing matters. The prestige of British professional golf the past few years has been sadly shattered—in fact, wiped out. A decade or so ago touring British golfers in Canada, Vardon and Ray, Mitchell and Duncan, and Taylor and Herd drew galleries in the hundreds and thousands to see them play. To-day if half a dozen or so, more or less, of so-called leading British pros, with the possible exception of Percy Alliss, who made such a brilliant showing in the Canadian Open last year, visited this country they wouldn't attract a baker's dozen.

If this monotonous and humiliating triumph of the Americans in the British Open continues much longer it would be as well perhaps for the Royal and Ancient to make the world's greatest golfing classic into a handicap affair. All American entrants to play from scratch whilst Britishers should be allowed anywhere from 5 to 10 strokes. This all seriously is apparently is the only thing that will revive interest in the fixture in the future.

The Prince of Wales was an interested spectator the last day of the Championship, walking around with the galleries that numbered about 5,000. He followed Sarazen for a time, but later joined the throng that was watching Havers try to finish with a 69, a score that would have brought the title back to Great Britain after eight years but the best Havers could do was a rather poor 76.

Tommy Armour, the defending champion, apparently almost from the first gave up the idea of again winning the title. He wagered £20 that Sarazen would win out.

This 283 score of Sarazens is not by any means his best in a major event. In 1930 he won the Western Open with 278. He was second in the British Open Championship in 1928 and third last year. He won the U.S. Open Championship in 1922 when only 21 years of age and the U.S. Professional Championship in 1922 and repeated in 1923.

Sarazen Praises British Gallery

New York, June 17.—Another "golden decade" of golf was ushered in handsomely for Gene Sarazen to-day when he returned from England with the British Open Cup to receive the acclaim of thousands of his admirers in an enthusiastic municipal reception. Ten years ago, almost to the day, Gene, shortly risen from the caddie ranks, burst into the big time by winning the National Open crown at Skokie. Since then he has been one of the biggest money winners of all time.

After landing from the Mauretania in a police cutter, the stocky little professional was whirled up Broadway in an automobile parade to the accompaniment of screeching sirens and descending ticker tape. At City Hall Mayor Walker praised Sarazen for his "economy in golf scores" in England, pointing out that the American ace had won the British Open with the lowest figure ever recorded for any major tourney—283 for 72 holes.

Carrying a replica of that cup, a wide smile and a glowing coat of tan, Sarazen replied that his victory had been a great thrill, "but the greatest thrill I ever experienced was the one given me by the goodwill of the English people, who seemed to be pulling for me from the very start of play."

Wins on Wedding Anniversary

Mrs. Sarazen, who had greeted her husband at the pier, was present with him at the reception. Pointing to his wife, Sarazen told reporters she was responsible for his victory. "You see," he explained, "I've been promising this title to Mrs. Sarazen for eight years. And the day I won it happened to be our eighth wedding anniversary."

Sarazen will rest at his home in New Rochelle for a few days, meanwhile playing a couple of rounds daily to keep in top form for the National Open which starts Thursday at Flushing, N.Y. He has been made a 5-to-1 favourite to win. Concerning his future plans, Sarazen said, "Well, I guess I'll just keep on playing golf."

The new British champion could not recover from his excellent treatment in England. His reaction was exactly opposite to that of members of the United States women's golf team who returned recently from British competition. They claimed they had been treated "shabbily."

"Why!" declared Sarazen, "even the Prince of Wales followed me throughout a good part of the Championship and was one of the first to congratulate me."

When asked about the low scoring over the difficult Prince's course, Sarazen said the weather was ideal. If the weather had been bad, he believed a Britisher probably would have won it.

"I knew an American would win as soon as I saw how fine conditions were," he continued. "And I hoped it would be me. I think Macdonald Smith played just as good golf as I did, but poor Mac seems to be jinxed."

Bert Hodson (Chigwell), the 26-year-old British Ryder Cup player, won the "Yorkshire Evening News"

£750 Tournament on the Moortown course, Leeds, beating Fred Robson, a fellow International twenty years his senior, at the 39th hole.

It was a match between the excellent iron play of Hodson and the wooden club shots of Robson. For a while the short game of Hodson, the former Welsh champion, prevailed. He finished the first round 4 up, and it seemed that he had amassed a lead that not even the seasoned Robson could wipe out when he was 5 up at the second hole of the last round.

Having led at the fifth hole in the morning Robson thereafter was trailing behind, but he squared at the 12th of the second round, took the lead at the next, and was 2 up at the 15th. So it seemed youth was to be beaten. Hodson got a 4 to win the 16th, but he could only halve the next, and Robson was dormy one.

A great iron shot to the last hole and Hodson had averted defeat. He got a "birdie" 3, and thus the players finished the 36 holes level. They went on; halved two holes, and then Robson literally threw away the match. He hit one shot to the 39th hole, found the bushes, and it was over. He conceded the hole and Hodson was the winner.

Mrs. "Jock" Gibb, who recently passed away, was a famous Musselburgh player a quarter of a century ago. One of the most notable of the Ladies' Open Championships was that which she, then Miss Maud Titterton, won in 1908. That year was a conspicuous year also for the debut of Miss Cecil Leitch, who at the age of 17 created a first-class sensation by reaching the semi-final.

At that stage she was beaten by Miss Titterton though only at the 18th green. That and other excitements of that big week paved the way for what has been described as one of the most exciting finals ever played anywhere. That was the match between Miss Titterton and Miss Dorothy Campbell, now Mrs. Hurd and well known in the game in Canada and the States.

It was a classic struggle in which Miss Titterton won at the 19th after playing a spectacular recovery from the railway at the 16th. In those days the ball had to be played where it lay or the hole given up. The deceased golfer spent her married life in South Africa, where she twice won the Championship in pre-war days.

Prior to the first golfing outing of the Edinburgh City Business Club, the members had luncheon together in the Caledonian Hotel—when Mr. William Grieve, a well-known golfer, gave a talk on golf. Golf, he said, was the best of all games, and could be played from the cradle to the grave. It had greatly increased in popularity since he started to play in Angus, and was now truly the national game of Scotland. It was computed that there were at least from 15,000 to 20,000 people enrolled in the various golf courses in Edinburgh alone and he thought it might safely be said that more people played the game of golf than the game of football. After giving an historical account of golf and a number of anecdotes relating to the game, Mr. Grieve said golf was one of the best games that business men could engage in, as it provided them with exercise without being too severe. No other game took them into such beautiful surroundings, and gave them that walking exercise which was so essential to health.

Famous "Aussie" Cricketer Keen on Golf

It will interest golfers in Canada to hear that Don Bradman, the world renowned cricketer, who is the chief attraction of the Australian team now touring Canada and the States is very fond of golf. Mr. A. N. Brown, managing Editor of "Golf in Australia", writes me:—

"I really think the Royal and Ancient game holds more fascination for Don than his cricket, probably because he has still quite a lot to learn. He is a fairly good golfer and plays to about a 12 handicap on the par of the course."

It is to be hoped that the golf clubs of Canada will extend the usual courtesies to this world-famous wielder of the willow. He is deserving of every recognition.

English Women Golfers Triumphant

SLASHING Enid Wilson, who plays more or less like a man and who is no stickler for pretty feminine attire but goes in for woollen dresses, stockings and sensible square-toed shoes, simply dominated the British Ladies' Championship at Saunton last month. She swept through the classiest field of International women golfers ever brought together and in the final at 36 holes fairly swamped her opponent, Miss Clem Montgomery, former Scottish champion, by 7 and 6, thus winning this English Championship for the second year in succession. Many experts think that in Miss Wilson, Great Britain has developed a woman golfer equal of the great Miss Joyce Wethered herself.

During her visit to the States and Canada last year Miss Wilson never quite "got into her stride" and it is "some stride". She confessed to the "Canadian Golfer" at the Ladies' Championship at Rosedale that the visibility here worried her a great deal and she was finding great difficulty in gauging distances through the green and up to the pin, and that was where she was losing strokes and also in her putting. Only 22 years of age, there seems no reason why this young British Champion should not in the future rise even to greater heights. To-day there are few men who can concede her much of a handicap. In one of her rounds at Saunton she carded a 72 which is a record round for any woman's championship.

It is good news that Miss Wilson immediately after winning the championship stated that she would again enter for the U.S. Ladies' Championship at Salem, Mass., the week of September 25th and that means that she will in all likelihood also enter for the Canadian Ladies' Open Championship, which will be held two weeks earlier at Kanawaki, Montreal. Mrs. Lyle, president of the C.L.G.U., has already forwarded her a cordial invitation to do so.

To win the championship Miss Wilson beat Miss L. Esmond, North Berwick, 7 and 6, in the first round. In the second Miss Pim, Addington, 3 and 2. In the third Mrs. Vare, ex-U.S. champion, 4 and 2. In the 4th Mrs. Garnham, The Naze, 3 and 2. In the semi-finals, Mrs. Cheney, California champion, 3 and 2, and in the final Miss Clem Montgomery, Scottish lady champion in 1924, by 7 and 6. Miss Montgomery in reaching the final did not meet any of the American players.

Miss Susie Tolhurst, the Australian champion, defeated Miss Diana Fishwick, former English champion, in the first round and then Miss Van Wie, U.S. star, in the second round on the 19th hole, but in the third round was put out by Mrs. Clarke, an English player. Miss D. Parke, Scottish player, in the first round defeated Miss Helen Hicks, U.S. champion, by 3 and 2. Miss Hicks was greatly fancied to win the championship. Miss Oreutt, ranking U.S. player and twice Canadian Open Champion, was also put out the first round by Miss Jean Hamilton, of Tandridge, 2 and 1. Miss Oreutt was also a U.S. threat. None of the French women went very far in the championship. The Britishers therefore fairly swept the boards.

Miss Enid Wilson, who again wins British Championship.

Mrs. Beairsto Again Lady Champion of Winnipeg

WINNING golf titles is almost now a regular habit with Mrs. R. K. Beairsto, St. Charles Country Club star, Winnipeg. This month, over her home course, she carded a brilliant 85 to easily retain the Manitoba Branch, Canadian Ladies' Golf Union, city and district championship. Mrs. Beairsto's final round combined with her scores over Assiniboine and Elmhurst, 89 and 92 respectively, gave her a three-day total of 266.

Nearest to the St. Charles ace in the event was Mrs. B. P. Pellenz, steady Elmhurst player, who came through with a 90 on the final eighteen to finish 12 strokes behind the re-crowned champion. Her aggregate was 278. Mrs. K. C. Allen, Pine Ridge Club, placed third in the competition with 281.

Miss Ruth Dudley, Elmhurst Club, won the low nett prize in the silver division with a three-day total of 234. She shot gross scores of 100, 94, 97, and had a 19-stroke handicap.

Low gross honours in the bronze section of the championship went to Mrs. Charles Kreger, Assiniboine Club, who recorded a total of 317 for the three days of play. Mrs. Ralph Bateman, Niakwa Country Club, and Miss M. Angus, Assiniboine, tied for second in the bronze low gross with totals of 329. They will play-off this morning at 9.30 o'clock over the St. Charles course. Miss Alice McDonald, Assiniboine Club player, won the low nett in the bronze division with 225.

With splendid weather prevailing for the three days of play, the city and district championship was again run off smoothly under the supervision of President Mrs. Iman Salberg, Honorary Secretary Mrs. J. W. Alves, and Handicap Manager Mrs. W. J. Faulkner. Immediately following the conclusion of the competition prizes were presented.

"Our Hole-in-One Club"

Season Opens May 24th and Closes October 1st. Mr. Garth Thomson's
20,000 to 1 Shot.

ONCE again the "Canadian Golfer" is giving a year's subscription to players on a Canadian course who make a hole-in-one, providing that the feat is performed during a full round of the course between May 24th and October 1st and the card is certified to by the opponent and secretary of the club.

The following "one-shots" have already been reported since May 24th—several received before that date have reluctantly under the conditions of the contest not been accepted.

Kanawaki, well known Montreal club, enrolls two members this month. Mr. W. Garth Thomson, popular Montrealeur, has been playing golf for forty years but it was not until June 3rd, appropriately the King's birthday, that he registered a "oneer" on the 12th hole at Kanawaki, 175 yards. He was playing at the time in a competition against par with E. M. McDougall, K.C., Colville Sinclair, K.C., and E. L. Wilson. Mr. Thomson, who is a famous accountant, writes: "I have probably played 500 short holes every year (holes within reach of the tee) for 40 years. On this basis I must have had 20,000 tries before scoring the 'ace'. I think this illustrates the tremendous odds against achieving the feat."

Mr. Arthur Barry is the other member of Kanawaki to join the Hall of Fame. He found "the tin from the tee" on the 110-yard 3rd hole.

The Summerlea Golf Club, Montreal, is also in the spotlight. Mr. J. D. Cageorge on May 24th made a hole-in-one at the 200-yard 6th hole.

On May 24th at the Senneville Country Club, Montreal, Mr. R. Brock Thomson accomplished the stunt on the 8th hole, 160 yards.

Then the Levis Golf Club, Quebec. Mr. Graham Perry, of the Royal Trust Company, Quebec, made a hole-in-one on June 5th at the difficult 7th hole at Levis, 161 yards.

This is the second time only in the life of the Levis Golf Club that this feat has been accomplished. It is needless to say that the members of the Levis Golf Club are jubilant over this event and congratulations are being showered upon the successful golfer.

Vancouver reports two performances. Playing over the Vancouver Golf and Country Club course, Mr. B. A. Rhodes bagged a "oneer" at the famous "Punch Bowl" hole, 130 yards.

Playing over the Westward Ho! course, Vancouver, Mr. Joe Varner "got his" at the 6th, 135 yards.

The first hole-in-one of the golf season in Halifax was scored on the King's birthday on the links of the Gorsebrook Golf Club by G. M. Wood, well known shipping broker. Mr. Wood was partnered with Miss Adele Murphy against Miss R. Walsh and C. E. Jubien in a mixed foursomes match, men's captain vs. ladies' captain. At the sixteenth hole, 147 yards, he drove his iron shot to the green, the ball trickling into the cup.

TORONTO - MONTREAL - HAMILTON - WINDSOR - WINNIPEG - CALGARY

It was not Mr. Wood's first experience. In 1929 he holed out his tee shot at the thirteenth.

Far-away Prince Albert, Sask. Mr. G. A. Barr, K.C., solicitor to the Retail Merchants' Association of Regina, attending the convention at Prince Albert, decided to earn enduring golfing fame by making the 4th hole in one on the Prince Albert course. He was playing with Dr. W. W. Amos at the time. Hearty congratulations to the well known Regina King's Counsel, for some years a valued subscriber of this great "Family Golfing Magazine".

Playing over the Kildonan public course, Winnipeg, Mr. Wm. Brownie "tickled up the tin" at the 18th hole—200 yards.

The pretty new course at St. Davids, Ontario, was only opened on May 24th but on May 26th Mr. E. D. Graydon, of Toronto, made an ace at the 3rd hole. Mr. Graydon is a "fast worker" all right.

Bowness Golf Club, Calgary, enters a member, Mr. E. G. McAuley, for a year's subscription. He made the 5th hole at Bowness in one on June 5th—134 yards.

At Rivermead, Ottawa, Mr. Edgar D. Hardy registered an "eagle" at the well known 7th hole, 175 yards.

While playing with Bertram Willoughby over Mr. J. A. Willoughby's golf course, "Cedar Crest", at Georgetown, Ontario, Sam Mackenzie made a hole-in-one. This was made over the picturesque second hole which is a straight drive of 125 yards over a water hazard. It is the first time a hole-in-one has been made on this course in the fourteen years it has been open.

Humber Valley, Toronto, can always be depended upon to get into the picture. Two from there already this season. Mr. E. E. Thistle, 14th hole—200 yards, and Mr. R. Lomax, the 11th hole, 160 yards.

Then the first "ladye fayre" one-shotter of 1932. Miss M. C. Kerr, a member of the Thistledown Golf and Country Club, Toronto, negotiated the short 4th, 75 yards, on May 24th. Always glad to welcome the dear ladies to our celebrated club which is now in the 17th year of its "onederful" career. Miss Kerr also has the honour of being the first lady golfer ever to make a hole-in-one at Thistledown.

Twelve-Year-Old Gets Hole-in-One

Los Angeles, Calif., June 6.—These hole-in-one stories are getting monotonous. Like, for instance, William Pulisevich, who took his 12-year-old son, Bill, out to show him how to play golf. At the eighth tee the father said: "This is a tough one, my boy. Use your spoon."

"Father," replied Bill, "sometimes you irk me." Whereupon he whammed the ball down the fairway with a driver and it dropped into the cup. The father shook his head sadly and said: "I still think you should have used a spoon."

Phil Farley Stars

At Hamilton Invitation Tournament, Closely Followed by John Lewis, of Brantford.

PHIL FARLEY, of the Cedar Brook Golf Club, Toronto, the brilliant young Ontario champion, demonstrated that he will have to be reckoned with this season when in the first Ontario invitation tournament of the year at the Hamilton Golf and Country Club at Ancaster, he headed a classy field with a 75 and 77 for 152, or just one stroke ahead of that sterling Brantford player, John Lewis. Conditions were anything but ideal for good scoring in the afternoon, especially a heavy downpour of rain militating against low figures. The principal scores:—

Phil Farley, Cedar Brook	75	77	152	6	146
John Lewis, Brantford.....	75	78	153	6	147

In all twelve prizes were awarded and no golfer was allowed to take more than one prize. The team prize for the best 36-hole gross score was won by a quartette from Brantford with a total of 659. The team was composed of John Lewis, 153; I. W. Champion, 173; E. C. Gould, 161, and G. G. Duncan, 172. The best team nett prize was won by Kitchener, the team being made up of C. S. Seagram, 148; George Lang, Jr., 146; W. R. Briker, 150, and L. A. Lauvrey, 145.

Art Dorman, with a nett of 142, won the nett prize. John Lewis, Brantford, who tied with four others for the best gross in the morning, won the draw to take that prize, start on this famous course. And Nicol Thompson, Royal York, turned in a 76 in the afternoon to win the best gross prize for the second eighteen.

W. R. Bricker, Kitchener, had the best nett for the first 18 with a score of 70, and Leo Lauvray, with a 69, won the prize for the best nett for the second 18. The best gross prize for the first 18 went to Joe Thompson, Royal York, with a score of 37.

Phil Farley, Ontario Champion, wins first Ontario invitation tournament.

J. Boeckh, York Downs, who won a set of golf clubs and a golf bag in a raffle, also took down another prize by turning in the best nett for the first nine, his score being 33. The best gross for the fourth nine was made by W. T. Dunmore, with 39, and the best nett for the fourth nine by George Hancock, with 34.

The Ontario Amateur Championship will be held at Ancaster June 23-25, so Farley, the defending champion, is off to a good start on this famous course.

Quebec Ladies' First Field Day

Miss Margerie Kirkham, Montreal Star, Heads a Field of Some 125 Players.

THE first of the medal tournaments under the auspices of the Quebec Branch of the Canadian Ladies' Golf Union was staged June 6th at the Royal Montreal Golf Club and drew out a representative field of 122.

That Miss Margerie Kirkham, of the Forest Hills Golf Club, Montreal, runner-up in both the Canadian Open and Canadian Ladies' Close Championship last year, will again have to be reckoned with this season was demonstrated by her fine gross score of 90, which was two strokes ahead of Miss Doris Taylor, Summerlea Golf Club, Montreal, and Miss M. Lockart, of the Royal Montreal, who each carded 92. These scores were exceptionally good considering the rain-soaked course and the little practice the players have had so far this season.

Miss Kirkham had the best gross for the silver division and best nett honours in the same division were divided between Miss Margaret Lockhart, of Royal Montreal, with 92-7-85, and Mrs. J. P. Macintosh, of Royal Montreal, with 97-12-85.

Mrs. B. Brooks, of Royal Montreal, led the bronze division field for both gross and nett scores. She scored 107-21-86 and was awarded the prize for the best gross. The best nett award went to Miss E. McLennan, of Cornwall, who had a nett 87.

The prize for the best score among the 36 handicap golfers was divided between Mrs. O. A. Lefebvre, of Summerlea, with 130-36-94, and Mrs. J. B. Bell, of Beaconsfield, with exactly the same score.

Royal Montreal golfers carried off the club honours, taking three of the seven prizes awarded.

Other good scores returned in this, the first Quebec Ladies' Field Day, of the season were:—

Mrs. H. Soper, Montreal, 94; Mrs. J. P. Macintosh, Royal Montreal, 97; Mrs. A. B. Darling, Whitlock, 99; Miss H. Hague, Royal Montreal, 101; Mrs. H. R. Irwin, Royal Montreal, 103; Mrs. G. Stanley, Ottawa Hunt, 103; Mrs. W. S. Light-hall, Beaconsfield, 105; Miss J. Beer, Hampstead, 106; Mrs. M. Surveyer, Laval, 106; Miss Dorothy Nichol, Beaconsfield, 107; Mrs. S. T. Blaiklock, Royal Montreal, 107; Mrs. S. R. Saunders, Royal Montreal, 107;

Miss Margerie Kirkham, who starts the 1932 season most auspiciously.

Mrs. B. Brooks, Royal Montreal, 107; Miss Lucille Rolland, Laval, 108; Mrs. C. W. Allen, Beaconsfield, 108; Mrs. A. F. Culver, Royal Montreal, 109; Mrs. N. K. Gordon, Rosemere, 110; Mrs. J. W. McKay, Islesmere, 110; Miss E. McLennan, Cornwall, 110.

Bobby Reith, Young Winnipeg Amateur

Dominates the Manitoba Open Championship. C. Hodgman, Another Amateur, is Runner-up.

THE Manitoba Open Championship this month held over the difficult Pine Ridge course, Winnipeg, was a championship of surprises. None of the well known professionals figured much in the picture but instead two amateurs dominated the event—young "Bobby" Reith and C. L. Hodgman. Both are well known in Western golfing circles. Reith is the son of Charles Reith, professional of the Assiniboine Club and has figured prominently in many fixtures since a mere lad. So has "Chuck" Hodgman, but no one expected that either of them would lead

Young Bobby, posting a morning score of 73, appeared to be on the losing end of the championship when Hodgman, another young golfer from St. Charles Country Club, breezed around in a par-breaking 70. However, in the afternoon "Chuck" struck much difficulty and lost his chance while the youthful Reith continued his steady play to win the event. His second round, also 73, for a total of 146, included two penalty strokes.

Hodgman, who shattered par by two strokes in the morning round, finished second to Bobby with a total of 149. His afternoon score was 79.

Reith's cards were as follows:—

Reith is only 17 years of age and is still eligible to compete for the Manitoba Junior Championship this year.

Other good scores returned by the amateurs besides Reith and Hodgman, were:— D. R. Arnott, Assiniboine, 152; A. A. Weir, The Beaches, 153; H. R. Parker, Norwood, 154; Dan Stack, 156; F. M. Boulton, Norwood, 156; Bud Donovan, Niakwa, 156; George Heffelfinger, St. Charles, 156; Foster Woolley, Norwood, 156; Dan Kennedy, St. Charles, 157; E. Palmer, Canoe Club, 158; A. C. MacWilliams, Elmhurst, 159.

Joe Land, long-hitting star, who is this year unattached, posted the best score among professional golfers with 150. Eric Bannister, last year's Open champion, placed second in the professional ranks with 152, while Tom Ross, pro of the Regina Wascana Country Club, finished third with 76-79—154. Land had 76-74—150, and Bannister 76-76—152. Billy Brazier, of St. Boniface, had 157; Arthur Baker, Canoe Club, 159; Arthur Land, 159; R. J. Henderson, The Beaches, 161; J. W. Lawrence, Dauphin, 162.

Out-of-town golfers made fine showings, although they failed to win. Tom Grace, of Brandon, playing his first time over the Pine Ridge course, did it in 83-81—164. Johnny Dilworth, ex-Winnipegger, who is now professional at the Cliffside Club, Toronto, shot 81-80—161. Jack Vernon, Kenora, went around in 88-87—169, while Larry Johnson, from the same town, recorded a total of 166.

The North Dakota entrants failed to place in either the amateur or professional divisions, but they played under a handicap, as they went directly to the golf course after the long drive from Grand Forks and Minto. They, however, added much interest to the tournament, and their entries will be looked for again next year.

name, carried off the honours, returning a card of 152, or 5 strokes better than Norman Scott, of the Royal Montreal Golf Club, former Quebec champion and a former finalist in the Canadian Amateur Championship.

Two promising young Guelph entrants, Philip Griggs and Howard Tiller, were tied for the low nett with cards of 133, while M. W. Lapp, of Thistledown Golf Club, led the field for the first eighteen holes and captured the prize with a low gross of 75. B. Hedges, representing the same club, was second with 78.

In the driving competition Thompson was also an easy winner, cracking in for unstinted praise, as did the course and club house, the gift to the City of Guelph from Mr. A. W. Cutten, of Chicago, a former resident of the Royal City, whose princely gift it is perhaps hardly necessary to state, is greatly appreciated by his former townsmen. This annual invitation tournament in the years to come is bound to attract the leading players of Ontario in increasing numbers. The course is of championship calibre, whilst the club house accommodation leaves nothing to be desired. It is generally conceded that Cutten Fields has the finest locker room in Canada and the other appointments of the club are in keeping with this magnificent room.

Interesting News of the Men Who Do So Much for the Royal and Ancient Game, from Coast to Coast.

Walter Hagen, Canadian Open Champion, and Jose Jurado, famous Argentine star who is now in this country, are taking part in a number of exhibition matches preparatory to the U.S. and Canadian Open Championships next month. Recently they were in Windsor playing over the Essex Golf and Country Club course. Jurado is quite a colourful little figure and last year looked like winning the British Open, eventually being nosed out by Tommy Armour by 1 stroke. He is a protege of the Prince of Wales, who when in South America took several golf lessons from him and at the British Open last year at Carnoustie followed and "rooted for him" the last 18-hole round. Jurado will be quite one of the features at the Canadian Open next month at the Ottawa Hunt and Golf Club. He has won the Argentine Open Championship no fewer than six times, 1920, 1924, 1925, 1927, 1929, and 1931. He ranks with the world's best players.

"Davie" Ayton, a member of a famous Scottish family of golfers, is this season taking up the professional duties at the Panmure Golf Club, Carnoustie. He is recognized as one of the best coaches in Scotland. He was for five years in Canada, principally with clubs in the West, returning in 1927 to St. Andrews. It is a great pity that his services were not retained in this country. He would have done much for golf in Canada.

Gordon Bain, 19-year-old assistant at the Southwood Country Club, Winnipeg, is the youngest professional golfer in Manitoba, and one of the longest drivers. Bain turned professional just a short time ago. He began playing golf about six years ago and until this year played most Brilliant Rosedale Player Romps Away with the Tenth Annual Toronto City and District Championship. Miss Ada Mackenzie Runner-up.

HEARTY congratulations to Mrs. C. S. Eddis, of Rosedale, Toronto, in winning the tenth Toronto City and District Championship held over the sporting Royal York course this month. Mrs. Eddis has been "knocking at the door" in important events now for the past two or three seasons. Last year, it will be remembered, she reached the semi-finals in the Canadian Close Championship and only a few days ago the semi-finals in the Ontario Ladies' Championship. Mrs. Eddis has made quite a spectacular advance in high-class golf the past few years. There is no player who has so consistently season after season reduced her handicap until to-day she is one of the ranking women players of Canada. Not only did Mrs. Eddis win the championship in a field of some 125 of the pick of the players of Toronto and District, which means, more or less, the pick of Ontario, but she won in a very decisive manner her total for 36 holes, 162, being no fewer than 6 strokes ahead of Miss Ada Mackenzie, Canada's ranking woman player, who carded 168. In third place was Mrs. F. J. Mulqueen, of the Toronto Golf Club, 173. Fourth, Miss Cecil Smith, Toronto Golf Club, 174; fifth, Miss Maud Smith, Toronto Golf, 175; sixth, Mrs. H. C. Macklen, Toronto Golf, 177; seventh, Mrs. A. B. Fisher, Lambton, 178.

To win in such a field of former champions stamps Mrs. Eddis as a golfer of outstanding ability and of very great promise. Her final round of 82 was made notwithstanding a most disastrous 9 on the 11th, or 4 over par. This would have been the undoing of most players but nothing daunted, Mrs. Eddis pulled herself together and came home with a 43 for the last 9 holes, a plucky wind-up which gave her the best single round of the tourney, notwithstanding that "ugly nine".

The prizes were presented in the lounge of the club house with Mrs. A. McD. McBain, chairman of the Toronto Permanent Committee of the C.L.G.U., presiding. Mrs. A. F. Rodgers presented the championship trophy to Mrs. Eddis, while Mrs. Edwin Crockett, vice-president of the C.L.G.U., in the absence of Mrs. Leonard Murray, and Mrs. Lyle, presented the Murray Trophy to Mrs. Eddis for the greatest percentage of reduction of handicap during 1931 in the Toronto District. It was announced that the Summit Club had forwarded an invitation for the 1933 foursome competition. The 1932 foursomes will be played at Mississauga on July 5. The winners were:

Couchiching Country Club, Orillia

THE official opening of the Couchiching Golf and Country Club in Orillia was held on Wednesday, June 1st, and was one of the most successful in the club's history. The club house, profusely decorated with spring flowers, and gay with the artistic new furnishings, provided a charming view of lake and landscape. Two ball mixed foursomes were played at half past two with twenty-four foursomes in the field. The following were the winners of this event:—Miss Marion Evans and Mr. Jerry Matchett were tied with Mrs. C. A. Muir and Mr. A. E. Patterson for first prize, and Mrs. W. E. Brown and Dr. Devine were tied with Mrs. Carter and Mr. R. Matchett for second prize. In the junior contest, Miss C. Kennedy and Mr. D. MacNabb were the winners. There then followed an approaching contest for the ladies, which was won by Miss Marion Evans, who received a mashie club, this prize being the gift of Dr. A. E. Ardagh.

High tea was served to over one hundred members, after which the president, Dr. A. E. Ardagh, presented the prizes to the successful golf contestants. The members continued to play golf and bridge until late in the evening. The tea hostesses were the house committee, Mrs. John Scott, Mrs. C. A. Harvie, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. H. R. British Walker Cup Team Invited to Play in Canada

AT a recent meeting of the executive of the Royal Canadian Golf Association it was decided to make the handicap limit 10 for the Canadian Amateur at the Lambton Golf and Country Club August 8th-13th.

A cordial invitation was extended to the British Walker Cup team that should they decide to return home through Canada they will be entertained by the Ontario Golf Association and the Province of Quebec Golf Association, with friendly matches in Toronto and Montreal, and perhaps other places if they desire.

Open Championship of Canada

Stellar Golfing Event of the Season will have a Stellar Setting at the Ottawa Hunt and Golf Club, July 7th-9th.

THE Open Championship of Canada, looked upon by many followers of the game as the outstanding event of the season, is scheduled for Ottawa next month on July 7th, 8th and 9th.

The venue will be the Ottawa Hunt and Golf Club which for the first time in its history has been given the honour of staging such an important fixture. But the course well deserves such recognition. It is a Willie Park course, having been laid out by the famous Scottish architect and former British Open Champion in 1919. And the leading players of the world foregather at the Capital next month will find it a first-class test of every shot in their bags.

The club is conveniently located on the Bowesville Road, a paved highway, constructed by the Ottawa Suburban Roads Commission, about four miles from the city limits.

The Rideau River forms the western boundary of the property and provides an ideal water supply for the course. The installation of a sprinkler system for watering the course was started some years ago and completed last year.

Eighteen large, beautiful rolling greens, the result of the late Willie Park's vision and handiwork, will test the putting abilities of any golfer.

The par of this championship 6,770-yard course is 73—37 out and 36 back. The course record is held by Mr. J. J. McLaughlin, who also won the club championship in 1927, 1928 and 1929. In 1930, playing under normal conditions, from the back tees, Mr. McLaughlin turned in a sparkling 69. This has never been equalled before or since by either amateur or professional.

The following is the yardage of this exceptionally well-balanced layout:

Hole	Yardage	Par	Hole	Yardage	Par
No. 1	485	5	No. 10	370	4
No. 2	315	4	No. 11	375	4
No. 3	423	4	No. 12	572	5
No. 4	333	4	No. 13	366	4
No. 5	208	3	No. 14	382	4
No. 6	530	5	No. 15	163	3
No. 7	427	4	No. 16	375	4
No. 8	184	3	No. 17	155	3
No. 9	568	5	No. 18	539	5
Total Out	3473	37	Total In	3297	36

Grand total yardage 6,770 yards. Grand total par 73.

It will be noticed that there is especially a well balance of three-shot, two-shot and one-shot holes. Altogether a typical Willie Park course and the "Old Master" was the author of some of the finest championship layouts in Great Britain, the States and Canada.

The Ottawa Hunt is especially proud of its trees. Under the direction of Dr. E. S. Archibald, director of the Experimental Farm at Ottawa, of recent years over 55,000 trees and cuttings have been planted on the property. Already this tree planting is showing its effect in the holding of winter moisture and stopping the great loss by high winds sweeping over the exposed fairways.

The trees obtained for this planting scheme were largely donated by the Provincial Forestry Farms who distribute, free of charge, trees to farmers for tree planting purposes, either as shelter beds or wood lots. It was as a demonstration of this in the Ottawa district that the club was able to obtain these privileges. Some of the more rare species were purchased from the excellent nurseries of Kenneth McDonald & Sons of the Montreal Road.

Nineteen hundred and thirty-one saw the completion of this tree planting plan; henceforth, pruning, some thinning, and above all, protection against fire, is the programme.

Western Ontario Public Golf Tournament July 13th

JOHN INNES, secretary of the Western Ontario Public Golf Association, announces that the second annual tournament will be held at the Thames Valley Golf Club, London, Ont., on Wednesday, July 13th. Entries should be forwarded to Mr. Innes, secretary, Thames Valley Golf Club, London, Ontario. The present holder of the championship is "Sandy" Watson, of the Thames Valley Club.

A Particularly Interesting Competition

THE Kuntz Beverages Company, Ltd., manufacturers of the famous Kuntz Ginger Ale, Lime Rickey, Soda Tonique and Stone Ginger Beer, have launched this season a particularly interesting golfing competition which is going over with "a big bang". Major John Inwood, well known in golfing circles, who is now with the firm, selects a certain hole on a golf course and any player who secures a "birdie" on this designated hole is awarded a case of either Lime Rickey or Ginger Beer, which are known everywhere as "First for Thirst."

Already over thirty well known golfers in the Toronto district have won the award and the competition which is exciting general interest amongst golfers will gradually extend to other clubs in Ontario.

Mrs. Gouinlock's Record-Making Score

WITH really a most remarkable 75 over the exacting Toronto Golf Club course, Mrs. R. W. Gouinlock, well known Toronto player, won the Toronto Golf Club Invitation Tournament, June 20th. Six strokes back of her was Miss Maude Smith, and seven strokes Miss Ada Mackenzie. Mrs. Gouinlock was out in 39 and home in 36—a score very rarely if ever returned on the Toronto course by a woman player.

Mrs. Gouinlock's record-making score which is well worthy of reproduction and study by the lady golfers of Canada:—

Par—Out455 354 355—39 In.....454 535 544—39—78

Mrs. Gouinlock—Out545 354 256—39 In.....454 533 534—36—75

It will be noticed that Mrs. Gouinlock only had one 6—at the par 5 hole 9th hole—one of the most difficult on the Toronto course. At all the other long par 5 holes she secured par or better.

Sudden Passing of Distinguished Montrealer

MR. ALEXANDER FRASER, chief engineer of the Quebec Provincial Roads Department, died quite suddenly at the Laval-sur-le-Lac Golf Club, Montreal, on June 11th. After hurrying through lunch in order to keep an appointment on the links, Mr. Fraser started to play a round with Charles Monat, of Montreal. They had reached the second hole when Mr. Fraser complained that he was not feeling well and he told his friend he would return to the club house for a rest and meet him at the ninth hole.

When he got to the club house Mr. Fraser was suddenly stricken and died in 20 minutes. Meanwhile word that Mr. Fraser was dying had been carried to Mr. Monat, who started to run to the club house, only to collapse on the roadway from where he had to be carried the rest of the way. Mr. Fraser was for many years the head of the Road Department of Quebec and the splendid highways of that Province are more or less a monument to him.

Play THE JASPER COURSE,

in the heart of the Snow Capped Rockies

Here at Jasper is a course worth playing. It's a championship course — from sweeping fairways to velvety greens. Even the most seasoned golfer will find it difficult to keep his eye on the ball with snow-crowned monarchs beckoning from every side.

Jasper offers other sports than golf, too. There's motoring, riding, swimming in the warmed outdoor pool and mountain climbing with Swiss guides. And if you like to fish, the best trout fishing on this continent can be had at Maligne Lake, open this season for the first time. Send to the nearest Canadian National office for a booklet describing the wonders of Jasper.
